

Y. S. A. NEWSLETTER

Sunday, November 9

Report on Movie Series: Huge success, drawing over 450 people to total showing. All profits to go for relocation of YSA in new, store-front headquarters more centrally situated. Address will be announced in next week's Newsletter. Come on down and help us decorate.

THIS SATURDAY: COLUMBIA-BARNARD HOUSE PARTY!

See enclosed leaflet. What is Apt. 84, 39 Claremont Ave.? Easily the biggest, most lush apartment conceivable to the mind of modern man, given our society's present level of technological development. Who will be there? Literally everyone we can get our hands on, including bongo and marimba men from the Village, congo drummers from the Bronx, guitarists, banjoists and (possibly) four young people from L.I. who sing in a way precisely duplicating that of The Weavers. All of this to be noisy but informal. All types of refreshments. What! No POLITICS? Of course! In addition to ourselves - who talk little else - there'll be a COMMERCIAL during the evening. For students. For socialism.

ATTENTION: All Columbia U. friends, relatives and people who owe us money. This is it! Watch for display advertisement in the Spectator Thursday and Friday. And help us build this party by bringing yourselves and all others interested to Apt. 84, 39 Claremont across the street from the University. Ads will go into the Barnard paper also. The YSA is counting on your help -- seriously - for this one.

Sunday, November 16th

Final class of "Socialist Alternative" series. Leo Adler will conduct on "What Road for Socialists in America?" Address: 425 E. 12th St., 3rd floor, ring bell over the name Markowitz. Call YU 2-2909 for more information. 2:00 PM, as usual. Coffee.

November 30, Sunday afternoon, 2:00 PM.

"The ABC's of Marxism", a new winter series of YSA classes. Gave out all our leaflets to movie crowd, but more are being printed. More information in later Newsletters.

Saturday, Nov. 15th
