Congress Worried By Lack Truman Edict Of Support For Truman Plan Means New

Congress opened hearings last week on Truman's demand for authority to use money and military forces in Greece and Turkey. But the members of Congress were only half-listening to the diplomatic double-talk of State Department officials; their at-® tention was fastened above all on the reactions of the American people.

They were worried because the great majority of the American masses were apprehensive about Truman's demands, or openly antagonistic to them. They hoped that somehow, some way the State Department spokesmen would help to still the doubts and neutralize the opposition.

Congress, the administration and the Big Business press had reason to be upset. Never before in modern U.S. history had such carefully prepared move by the White House failed so miserably as Truman's speech in winning mass support.

Truman publicly expressed satisfaction with the support his program had received from the capitalist press. But he could not say anything about the trend of White House mail.

"The White House received ,200 messages and 3,000 letters in direct response to the speech,' the Mar. 23 N. Y. Times reported. "At first the great majority were in agreement with the President: more recently there has been large proportion of cri-

Truman's preparations for a war of "democracy against totalitarianism" find the first blow being struck against the liberties of the American people themselves.

Hard on the heels of his new foreign policy announcement, Truman has launched a sweeping "anti-red" witchhunt to terrorize all persons and groups opposed to Wall Street's drive toward war on the Soviet Union.

The first stage of a vast assault on civil rights is outlined in Truman's March 24 order for an unprecedented "disloyalty" purge among 2,200,000 federal administrative employes.

This order sets the pattern and precedent for persecution and victimization that will extend into every walk of life and right down into the plants and workshops.

GO-AHEAD SIGNAL

Through his purge edict, Turman has given a go-ahead sig--nal for drastic, anti-democrate laws to outlaw working class political parties and empower employers to fire workers they choose to label "communist" or "subversive." Truman's order was timed to immediately precede public hearings on "anti-Communist" bills being held this week before the notorious House Un-American Activities Committee.

Truman's blue-print for ferreting out alleged "disloyal" government employes includes methods always held abominable by the American people and associated in their minds with the practices of Hitler, Mussolini, Franco and Hirohito.

The order sets up a virtual Gestapo system responsible only to the administration and with almost unlimited powers to remove any civil service employe (Continued on Page 2)

Sullivan's break with the Stalinists in Canada follows essentially the same pattern as the desertion of Louis F. Budenz, former national committee member of the American Communist Party and editor of its Daily Worker, from the Stalinists in this country. Budenz, claiming a religious "conversion," fled for safety into the sanctuary of the Catholic Church, Sullivan, ostensibly suffering remorse at misleading Canadian trade unionists, vanished into hiding. Both are welcomed with joy by capitalist reaction.

Both issued public documents, naming outstanding CP leaders and exposing the inner schemes and intrigues of the Stalinist apparatus and its complete subservience to the master in the Kremlin, Budenz's confessional is made in his just published book, This Is My Story, Sullivan asserts that his public statement was designed for his own "protection" and to escape an "unavoidable accident." By this he points the finger at the GPU murder machine, in the event of his death.

Three Main Obstacles To Wall Street's War Plans

By George Breitman

Washington's foreign policy, like Hitler's, is sugar-coated with all kinds of lofty and humanitarian explanations. Like Hitler's, its real objective is the subjugation and exploitation of the whole world.

The American capitalists are not and cannot be satisfied with their profits in this country. Unless they can find new markets and new fields for the investment of capital abroad, they face a crash at home even deeper and more costly than the one of 1929. That is the economic driving force behind the foreign policy expressed by Truman on March 12.

This foreign policy requires subservient governments in the rest of the world governments that will toe the line when Wall Street cracks the whip, that will maintain capitalist law and order and prevent interference with American investments and profits.

To secure such "reliable" governments, Washington has at its disposal tremendous financial and material resources - loans, grants, food. Where necessary, it is ready to add guns and military advisors, as its plan for Greece and Turkey demonstrates. Should these too prove inadequate. American armies, navies and atom bombs will be put into action.

Wall Street's foreign policy is therefore aimed directly against the interests and welfare of the workers of the world. It intends to subject them to double exploitation. It proposes to deprive them of the and to set up governments of their own free choice.

In all parts of the world, and in Europe and Asia particularly, capitalism is now floundering from one economic and political crisis to another. The workers, sick and weary of a system which brings them only hunger and war, are turning in the direction of socialism. Truman's speech constitutes a warning to them that the full might of American capital will be hurled against any attempt they make to end capitalism and replace it with a rational social order.

But neither Truman's program nor Congress' endorsement of it will be able to prevent millions of workers throughout the world from engaging in the fiercest opposition to its realization.

AIMED AT SOVIET UNION

A second obstacle to Wall Street's program for world domination is the existence of the Soviet Union. Created by a workers' revolution in 1917, the Soviet Union nationalized industry and established the basis for a planned economy, thus removing one-sixth of the world from the sphere of capitalist exploitation.

Industrially weak, culturally backward. isolated by the defeat of workers' revolutions in other parts of Europe, the workers' state fell into the grip of the privileged bureacrats led by Stalin. Today the Soviet government is not, as it was under Lenin and Trotsky, an inspiration to the right to get rid of oppressive governments extension of the workers' revolution throughout the world. The monstrous machine created under Stalin has been employed to discourage, discredit and suppress revolutionary ideas and action.

Despite this, planned economy has continued and the areas of the Soviet Union have remained closed to investment and exploitation by world imperialism. As a result of the war and cynical deals with Washington and London, a series of countries in Eastern Europe came under the control of the Kremlin and, although capitalism still remains there, these also have been blocked from penetration by the big capitalist powers.

In an effort to assure its world supremacy, to stabilize European capitalism, to open up a new field for the investment of U.S. capital, and to stave off a world economic crash, Wall Street's government is exerting tremendous pressure on the Soviet Union. In one hand it dangles the bait of a loan needed for reconstruction of the Soviet Union's devastated industrial plant; in the other, it brandishes the atom bomb. The purpose of this pressure is to open up Eastern Europe for American capitalism and to wrest economic concessions inside the Soviet Union itself.

This aim is rarely discussed in the Big Business press; it is never mentioned in such pronouncements as Truman's March 12 speech Nevertheless it is a fundamental factor in U.S. foreign policy in Europe.

Truman talks about fighting against totalitarianism. But that is a lie. It is not Stalinist totalitarianism he objects to, but strengthen world capitalism by opening the planned economy in the Soviet Union which excludes U.S. capitalists. Truman seizes on totalitarianism as a pretext to justify his imperialist war policy before public opinion; Stalin's crimes against the workers inside and outside of the Soviet Union are just grist to Wall Street's propaganda mills.

IMPERIALIST HYPOCRISY

That Truman and his Wall Street cronies do not give a hoot about totalitarianism is proved by their friendship for the despots in Latin America and Greece and Turkey. They will no more bring democracy to Eastern Europe and the Soviet Union than they have brought democracy to Greece. In fact, since the restoration of capitalism in Russia would be fiercely resisted by the Soviet masses, the result of an American imperialist victory in a war against the Soviet Union would be the establishment of a totalitarian capitalist state or states in that country.

Class-conscious workers everywhere have a real interest in preventing the restoration of capitalism in the Soviet Union whether that restoration is attempted through a deal between world capitalism and a section of the Stalinist bureaucracy, or through imperialist war against the Soviet Union.

Destruction of the nationalized economy, the remaining conquest of the Russian workers' revolution, would be a blow to the workers of the world because it would new resources and markets to it. And conversely, the preservation and strengthening of planned economy under a resurgent workers democracy would serve as an impetus to the workers' struggles. Such a development would at the same time restrict the arena of world capitalist exploitation and hasten its death agonies.

The fight to preserve planned economy in the Soviet Union, which is necessary for its regeneration as a workers state capable of inspiring the revolutionary masses in all countries, goes side by side with the fight to defeat Wall Street's foreign policy.

This struggle against American imperialism does not entail or signify the slightest support of or confidence in Stalinism. On the contrary, it presupposes the most unrelenting war against the reactionary Stalinist bureaucracy, its agents and its poli-

For in the international labor movement this bureaucracy is the greatest obstacle to the overthrow of capitalism; and in the Soviet Union it blocks the way to the restoration of workers democracy, the regeneration of the workers state and the mobilization of effective international working class defense of the Soviet Union against imperialist attack.

The job of finishing Stalinism is not one that the workers can farm out to the imperialists. A victorious capitalist war against the Soviet Union would mean not only the destruction of Stalinism but also the destruction of the planned economy necessary for socialist construction. And the suppression of Stalinism by the capitalists in other countries can take place only by suppressing at the same time the democratic rights which the workers need to organize the movement for the establishment of socialism. Only the workers themselves can settle accounts with Stalinism in such a way as to advance the struggle for socialism.

THE AMERICAN WORKERS

A third, and probably the greatest, obstacle to the realization of Wall Street's program will come from the workers in the United States itself. They will be the ones called on to pay the costs of a new war through taxes, sweat, blood, loss of democratic rights and crippled or broken unions. Already there are signs of a growing mass opposition in this country.

But mere opposition is not enough. It is, 78 not enough to adopt resolutions and sender letters to Congress. The capitalist class has the power to plunge the American people into an atomic world war, and it will not be deterred by mere verbal or written

There is only one way to thwart Walland Street's war plans, and that is by remov+3" ing Wall Street's government from power & and ending the capitalist system that is the cause of imperialist war. To achieve !! this the workers must create their own political party and a Workers and Farmers Government that will insure peace and

But they did not make clear whether they thought the Stalinists were trying to prove their indispensability to capitalist governments in putting down independence movements of the colonial peoples, or whether they were trying to frighten Truman with the possibility of a leftward shift in French politics.

Daniel Mayer, a top bureaucrat in the French Socialist Party, declared that up to the time of Truman's address the Stalinists were ready to vote for the military credits.

The motion passed by the Stalinist Central Committee declared that "The national interest demands the maintenance of the influence and position of France in the Far East." This is the same position held by the French imperialists who are conducting

Ruth Fischer And The Stalinists

By James P. Cannon.

In the February 15 issue of The Militant appeared an editorial referring to Ruth Fischer and her testimony against the Stalinist GPU agent, Eisler, before the House Committee on Un-American Activities. The editorial was occasioned by the fact that the capitalist press, following the lead of the Daily Worker, had referred to her as a "Trotskyite." Since this is obviously not the case, the object of the editorial was to reject the false political identification of Ruth Fischer with the organized Trotskyist movement.

In the course of the editorial, Ruth Fischer was referred to, in passing, as an "informer." In view of the invidious connotation which is popularly attached to the word "informer," this was a most unfortunate and most inexcusable error. All the more inexcusable since we Trotskyists for many long years have been explaining the criminal character of Stalinism and its GPU murder machine, and have been denouncing it and "informing" against it, and alarming the workers of the world to its deadly menace. We have done this on every possible occasion and from every available forum, be it a public mass meeting, a Commission of Inquiry into the Moscow Trials, the capitalist press, parliamentary committees, or even capitalist courts. And we will gladly do the same again on any occasion where the opportunity presents itself.

In the long generations of the development of the world labor movement a well-recognized standard of ethics has made it a grave offense for representatives of rival parties, groups or factions within the labor movement to submit their quarrels to the adjudication of bourgeois tribunals or to "inform" against each other. Every class-conscious worker, and even every ordinary trade unionist, instinctively recoils against such practices. But the professional killers of the GPU-Comintern apparatus, with the blood of so many tens of thousands of the best flower of the proletariat on their hands, have no right whatsoever to claim the benefits of this labor ethic when anyone points the accusing finger at them at any time or from any tribunal.

Ruth Fischer was right to protest against such a possible implication, in a letter to the National Committee of the SWP, and we sincerely regret the unfortunate and inexcusable incident.

Political assassination, the dread weapon introduced into the labor movement by Stalinism, is a standing threat to the free func-Moning and even to the very existence of every activist. All factions, all tendencies, all people who hope and strive for a better world must unite to expose and denounce such assassinations, no matter whom the victim may be at the moment. We have always taken this position, and not only in the case of Trotskyists, who contributed more than one drop to the rivers of blood shed by the Stalinist Mafia.

We did all we could to expose the Moscow Trials and to defend the honor of its victims, including those who were not Trotskyists in doctrinal sense of the word. Our party held a protest-memorial meeting for the martyred. Andres Nin, leader of the Spanish POUM, and spared no space in our press to accuse the Stalinist murder bund in the mysterious disappearance of the Socialist, Marc Rein, and the mysterious "suicide" of Krivitsky. And the columns of our press likewise remain always open to the Tresca Memorial Committee in its tireless efforts to keep alive his noble memory and track down his assassins.

There is no doubt whatever that Stalinism is the most formidable and dangerous enemy within the ranks of the labor movement and the greatest obstacle to the emancipation struggle of the workers. But who will defeat Stalinism, and what will take its place in those regions of the earth where it is consolidated in the form of state power? That is the question.

Ruth Fischer in the above-mentioned letter also protested against the reference in The Militant editorial to her "serving as a tool of American imperialism." If that is taken to signify any conscious and mercenary service to the American imperialist monster on the part of Ruth Fischer—as is the case with not a few professional anti-Stalinists-then such an interpretation must be emphatically disavowed. We know very well the long and honorable record of Ruth Fischer in the international labor movement, and the difficult conditions under which she has had to work as an emigre in war-time in America, and we do not wish to impugn her personal integrity in any way or to any degree.

Stalinism must be overthrown. By whom? Stalinism must be replaced wherever it is consolidated into a state regime. By what? These are political and not personal questions.

To put the issue positively: Either, the independent movement of the working class will defeat Stalinism and capitalism with it, and proceed to the construction of the Socialist world order. Or. Stalinism, as represented by its state regime, will be overthrown by American imperialism in the course of its mad drive to reduce the people of the entire world to the status of colonial slaves. That is to say, those people who survive the atomic bombs, and the rockets, and the bacterial warfare, and the other harmless toys which the playful "democrats" at Washington are spending so many billion dollars to manufacture and

In our opinion, it is not enough to be an anti-Stalinist. One must also have a positive revolutionary program. In our opinion, those anti-Stalinists who do not unequivocally take the program of the independent movement of the workers, counterposing it to both Stalinism and capitalist imperialism, must inevitably fall into the service of the latter, regardless of what their subjective intentions may be. The question of Stalinism and how to fight it, and what to replace it with, is a problem of the greatest magnitude. It does not admit of any ambiguity.

This brief article has been written at the direction of the National Committee of the SWP to express its views. We hope to return to the question with much greater amplitude and detail in coming issues of The Militant.

Among other things, we want to explain why we make a distinction between the Stalinist workers and the unions led by the Stalinists, and the terrorist apparatus of the Comintern-GPU. We also want to show why we take flat issue with those "democrats" who, maddened by their hatred of Stalinism, would join the capitalist reaction in moves to suppress the Communist Party and deprive its members of their civil rights, thus preparing the destruction of the democratic rights of all workers' organizations and dissident groups.

Help German Workers

While the professional diplomats of the former allies haggle at Moscow over the prostrate body of Germany and cook up new secret deals in their preparations for an atomic war, no one seems to have a word to say in behalf of the German workers, not even the most blatant peddlers of the "Four Freedoms" and the Atlantic Charter during the war. Yet the fate of the German workers is the key to the fate of all Europe.

Among the highly developed capitalist powers, the workers of Germany were the first to surge toward a socialist reconstruction of society. Their mass parties were the most powerful in the world. Their trade unions were the pride of workers everywhere. They seemed destined to lead Europe out of capitalist barbarism into the enduring peace and plenty of planned economy.

But in the First World War, their Social Democratic leaders betrayed them, switching allegiance from the program of socialism to the program of the Kaiser. The flower of the German working class was cut down on the battlefields.

With the end of that war, the survivors sought to set up a Workers and Farmers Government. But again they were betrayed by the Social Democrats, who took office only to bolster up capitalism in Germany.

While the workers began turning toward the Third International of Lenin and Trotsky in search of revolutionary leadership, Wall Street pumped gold into Germany, strengthening the demoralized capitalist class to head off socialism in Germany.

The German capitalists in turn financed Hitler. As the Nazis moved toward power, the German workers put up a desperate opposition. Their leaders again betrayed them. The Third International had degenerated; Lenin was dead, Trotsky in exile, and Stalin rejected revolutionary struggle against Hitler's Brown Shirt gangs.

The German workers never accepted fascism. They were the principle victims of Hitler's terror. Hitler smashed their trade unions, outlawed their political parties, drove down their standard of living, and set up the Gestapo to liquidate opposition the moment it appeared anywhere. Then he dragooned them into the armed forces.

Once again millions of German workers were mowed down on the imperialist battlefields.

What have the Allied powers brought this tragic people? Freedom? Democracy? The right to choose their own form of government? The Allies have severed Germany from the rest of Europe. On top of this they have cut up Germany into four segments. Armies of occupation rule the German people with an iron hand.

Thus under the Allies the German workers are denied the right to freely organize trade unions or their own political parties. They are denied the right to set up the kind of government they want.

Does it take much foresight to see that Allied rule is paving the way for a rebirth of fascism in Germany?

It is in the interests of the American workers to demand the immediate withdrawal of all the armies of occupation from Germany. Let the German workers take power! An end to the policy of bolstering capitalist reaction in Germany!

"Of course you'll have to take a loyalty test, you know, before I can put you on steady!"

Truman Doctrine Means War

The most eloquent response in Congress to Truman's demand to bolster reaction in Greece and Turkey with GIs and funds from the U.S. Public Treasury came from Sen. Millard E. Tydings (D., Md.) on March 18. Truman's address, he said "re-

And this is not all. The eloquent political spokesman of the capitalist class calls attention to a striking fact: "The threatening terror of an atomic bomb war has arrested our thinking in other directions. We seem oblivious to the merciless slaughter and wide devastation of the last war, even without the atomic bomb . . . Chiang Massacres Formosan People

Three weeks ago the Chiang Kai-shek dictatorship began a wholesale bloody massacre of unarmed workers and peasants in Formosa, through General Chen Yi, governor of the island. Brutal suppression and a continuing reign of terror is Chiang's reply to the demands of the Formosan people for selfgovernment and relief from the strangling rule of foreign monopolists, their corrupt government officials, and military despotism.

The massacre began on March 8. Some 4,000 people were killed, Large-scale arrests of Formosan leaders swept the island, many of whom were executed. Those arrested included public leaders, publishers and members of the National Assembly, which was to have convened on March 15 to present the demands of the people. This monstrous crime was committed by Chiang in the name of "preserving order" and wiping out "Communist inclinations." On March 10 a two-man Formosan delegation arrived in Nanking, Chinese nationalist capital, to condemn the massacre and demand the dismissal of Governor Chen Yi. They were kept under strict guard, bundled aboard a plane the next day, and flown back to Formosa without having seen the dictator. Instead, martial law was clamped down on the island. A decree was issued ordering dissolution of "illegal organizations," and banning all

Chiang sent General Liu Yu-ching to Formosa in his personal plane. By ship he dispatched Liu's 21st Division with seven additional brigades from Shanghai, to augment the more than 30,000 troops already on the island. The National Defense Minister and a number of other Kuomingtang and military officials were also ordered to Formosa to aid Governor Chen Yi.

For three days Chiang's troops indulged in a murderous orgy, indiscriminately machine-gunning anyone seen on the streets. "There was at no time any organized armed resistance," states a Nanking report to the N. Y. Times on March 22, "Foreigners saw truckloads of Formosans going through the streets with their hands tied behind their backs, later heard reports of wholesale executions at Keelung and saw large numbers of bodies floating in the harbor . . . Of those (leaders) whom Governor. Chen had invited to negotiate with him in early March, some were executed, including the chairman of the Tai-wan Tea Association."

The "sullen, bitter resentment" of the masses is so deep that on March 22 a resolution demanding the dismissal of Governor Chen Yi was adopted by an overwhelming majority of the Kuomintang's Central Executive Committee. Although such committee resolutions are usually mandatory on the government, Chiang has as yet taken no action to dismiss the bloody butcher who is carrying out his orders in American imperialism, whose aim is to destroy the Soviet Union and subjugate the world, seeks to conceal its robber aims by posing as the champion of economic rehabilitation and democratic rights for defeated and occupied countries.

Stalin's Policies Aid Soviet Union's Enemies

Wall Street and its London junior partner are aided in their masquerade above all by the policies of the Kremlin.

Stalin supported the war of Allied imperialism against German imperialism as a "progressive war of national liberation." He agree Potsdam to an imperialist peace providing for dismemberment and despoliation of Germany. Now he is haggling over the terms of that "peace" at the Moscow Conference, where Molotov has put forth the most rapacious demands.

The Kremlin's spokesman calls for monstrous reparations of 20 billion dollars to be drained from the starving German workers and shattered German economy. Half of this sum the Kremlin demands for itself.

Wall Street's diplomats exclaim in pious horror over the Kremlin's brutal terms. They are able to pose as "generous" by rejecting Stalin's reparations demands and insisting on squeezing "only" three or four billion dollars from ruined Germany.

The Kremlin is also the most insistent on dismemberment and annexations. It supports French imperialist claims for annexation of the Saar, one of Germany's two richest coal and iron regions. It defends Poland's annexation of East Prussia and American and British imperialism-chief props of capitalist dictatorships in Europe and ruthless oppressors of colonial peoples-hypocritically pose as defenders of the German people against such dismemberment and annexations. Their real game, of course, is to bolster German capitalism as an aid to the future conquest of the Soviet Union.

Nevertheless, the imperialist powers are able to cover up their own sordid policies and even represent them as benevolent and altruistic compared with the Kremlin's merciless demands on the conguered and crushed German people.

Every action of the Kremlin bureaucracy in the occupied countries of Europe thus provides grist for the anti-Soviet propaganda mill of U. S.-British imperialism. It arouses hostility against the Soviet Union itself and lends substance to the hypocritical claims of the capitalist powers that they seek to defend "democracy against totalitarianism."

Stalin's policies in peace, as in war, violate everything for which Lenin stood. Throughout the first imperialist world war. Lenin opposed all the capitalist powers and called for their overthrow by the revolutionary socialist working class. He insisted, as he stated in the manifesto of the First Zimmerwald Conference in 1915, that "the task is to take up the fight for peace—for a peace with-. out annexations or war indemnities."

On Nov. 8, 1917, the day after the Russian Bolsheviks conquered power, they issued an "Appeal for the Support of the New Soviet Government." This appeal pointed out that the Russian workers "demand immediate suspension of hostilities, immediate peace negotiations which will lead toward an honest peace without annexations and indemnities on the basis of the right of nations to self-

Because the young workers state fought for this policy, it won the support of hundreds of millions and was able to frustrate the imperialist designs against the Soviet Union.

Now Stalin plots and haggles with the imperialists to impose a crushing peace upon the German masses. He thereby discredits the Soviet Union and gives an additional propaganda weapon to the cap-

Wants Mexican Gov'i To Extradite Budenz

Now that the treacherous and slimy Budenz in his new book has seen fit to tell about the Stalinist conspiracy in the murder of Trotsky, it would seem to me that the attention of the Mexican authorities should be turned to him, if that has not been done already.

His new role in the church on the side of Big Business, should not be allowed to afford him immunity for his part. Though the actual assassin, Jacson, used the pick-axe, Budenz was a link in the GPU conspiracy. Even capitalist justice puts all those involved in a conspiracy on trial.

Let the Mexican government extradite and try Budenz to determine his guilt!

Eventually the arch-conspirator Stalin will also be brought to justice by the international revolutionary tribunal. In the meantime, let us not permit Budenz and his capitalist masters to don the cloak of respectability in connection with the crime

American capitalism is therefore heading into a blind alley. The Negro Struggle -Marshall Defines Democracy

By William E. Bohannon -

This spring the thoughts of politicians preparing for war seem to be turning to definitions of democracy. Last week this column discussed

Among the basic democratic rights, says Marshall, is "the right of every individual to develop his mind and his soul in the ways of his own choice, free of fear and coercion - provided only that he does not interfere with the rights of

But how about Isaac Woodard? He was a Negro soldier, on his way home after overseas service - what happened to his right to develop according to his own choice, free of terror and coercion? Why wasn't the South Carolina cop who gouged out his eyes even mildly punished?

"To us," Marshall continued, "a society is not democratic if men who respect the rights of their fellow men are not free to express their own beliefs and convictions without fear that they may be snatched away from their home or

In that case, what kind of society do we have in Mississippi where Negroes cannot freely express their beliefs, even in the Democratic Party primaries, without fear that they will be beaten or lynched? Not a democratic society, according to this definition.

"To us," Marshall went on, "a society is not free if law-abiding citizens live in fear of being denied the right to work or deprived of life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness."

If that is true, then what kind of society exists in the United States where law-abiding Negro. citizens are constantly denied the right to work at jobs for which they are qualified? What kind of society is it where the government refuses to adopt legislation to end such job discrimination? Or that refuses to protect life and liberty by adopting legislation against lynching and the

Certainly not a free society, according to Marshall's definition.

But why is this matter even brought up by a dyed-in-the-wool brass hat, who has never tolerated the slightest suspicion of democracy in his own field, the army? As my mother says, even the devil will quote Scripture. Marshall is not interested in protecting democracy; he is just using it as propaganda against the Stalinist bureaucrats in the Soviet government. His aim is not to get democracy for the Germans or the Russians or for anyone else; it is just to prepare the political ground for another war, when the brass hats will be able to take over not merely part of the government, but all of it.

Number One Killer

- By Grace Carlson

Your Dog Week," "Own Your Own Home Week."

Heart disease is the nation's number one killer. During World War II, the battle deaths among the armed forces approximated 325,000, but during this same period, more than two million men, women and children on the "home front" were killed by diseases of the heart and blood vessels. Heart disease takes a greater toll than the five other leading causes of death combined - three times as many deaths as cancer; six times as many as accidents; seven times as many as pneumonia and ten times as many as tuber- work and overworry.

After the age of 45, one out of every two deaths is caused by heart disease, but it is not simply an affliction of old age. Heart disease causes more deaths among children between the ages of 10 and 15 than any other disease. It is rheumatic heart disease which strikes down young children, especially the "ill-fed, illclothed, ill-housed" children of the poor.

Heart disease is due to three main causes -

Among all of the "Weeks" which are cele- congenital conditions, infections and degenerabrated throughout the year - "Be Kind To tive processes. A great deal of attention has been given recently to the new surgical techniques for correcting the congenital condition found in "blue babies." But such congenital conditions account for only about 5% of the heart disease among children. The remaining 95% comes from the highly infectious rheumatic fever, which damages the valves of the young heart and causes early death or permanent dis-

> As to the specific causes for degenerative heart disease very little is known, but they are probably related to advancing years. Overwork and overworry aggravate such conditions, however, and shorten lives by 10, 15 or 20 years. The main problem for this type of cardiac patient is to find a way to eliminate the twin evils overwork and overworry. But how to do this in a cut-throat capitalist world? Physicians who have a fine understanding of the physical, emotional and social maladjustments of the cardiac cripple cannot tell him how to end over-

> In his book, "What You Can Do For Angina Pectoris and Coronary Occlusion," Dr. Peter Steincrohn has this not-so-awfully-consoling advice for heart patients: "These are the successful failures. They are the ones who accomplish much for their generation, but, like the busy bees, they die off sooner than the rest of the hive. They pay for that inward satisfaction of accomplishment with the priceless coin of shortened years."
