Class Politics And the Negro Movement

An Editorial

With the movement of the Negro people for equality at a peak level, it would be expected that the convention of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, which concluded in San Francisco July 1, would have been more than a "business as usual" gathering. Yet that is essentially what the convention was.

The convention reiterated in effect the traditional policy of relying primarily on court action and lobbying to cut down Jim Crow. It avoided taking a stand on proposals to incorporate in the NAACP program the new methods of struggle represented by the Montgomery, Ala., and Tallahassee, Fla., bus boycott movements, and referred the issue to the Board of Directors for "careful consideration."

The Montgomery and Tallahassee movements certainly warrant the most careful study. But what better place was there for study and decision than the meeting of the NAACP's highest body, its national convention?

Montgomery and Tallahassee are the true symbols of the new South. The Montgomery Improvement Association and the Tallahassee Inter-Civic Council are mass organizations of historic significance. Originally formed to fight for the most elementary demands they have already gone beyond the limits of the old-line organizations and committees. In these cities the ranks of the Negro community are actively involved in struggles that challenge the basic structure of Jim Crow.

The MIA is now organized on a permanent basis. It has maintained its solid boycott for seven months and its pressure has won significant court victories. It is now moving to take on Jim Crow in housing and other fields.

The Tallahassee organization, unmoved by a campaign of police intimidation, has in five short weeks forced suspension of operations by the local bus company.

While both movements have found the boycott a powerful weapon, they have also come to understand its limits. They have found themselves in battle not simply with the bus companies but even more so with the city and state administrations whose function it is to preserve Jim Crow. The Negro people of Tallahassee and Montgomery now recognize they must fight fire with fire they must challenge the political rule of the white

Both the MIA and the Inter-Civic Council have organized energetic campaigns to register the entire Negro community to vote at the polls. But in doing so they have run smack into a major problem. Once registered, who hould they vote for?

Pointing out that all of the candidates support Jim Crow, one prominent MIA leader voiced the attitude of the most militant section of the movement by saying, "I could not vote for any of these and still live with my conscience. They all stand for the same thing. So if I voted, I would be voting for what I am fighting against."

The problem is not confined to the one-party South. Nationally, the Democratic and Republican parties stand (Continued on page 3)

Myra Weiss to Speak In New York and N.

NEW YORK - Election rallies here and in Newark, N. J., July 20 and 21 with Myra Tanner Weiss, vicepresidential candidate of the Socialist Workers Party as the principal speaker, will kick-D off concentrated election campaigning for the SWP branches in this area.

The New York and Newark rallies will wind up Mrs. Weiss' nationwide speaking tour which began two months ago. The program of the Socialist Workers Party reached workers and students and radio, television, and newspaper audiences from coast

"America's Road to Socialism - Class Struggle or Class Collaboration?" will be the subject at the New York meeting Friday, July 20, 8:30 P.M. at Adelphi Hall, 74 Fifth Avenue (near 14th Street). Following questions and discussion at the rally, open house will be held at SWP headquarters, 116 University Pl.

The New York rally will cover the 1956 election campaign, its importance and its lessons for ble of arousing the interest of follow the meeting.

role of the various radical par- workers. the Communist Party. She has with American workers," Mrs. directed at the Khr shchev retalked to rank and file members Weiss said, "it is necessary to gime by Stalinist leaders Palmiro of the CP in all parts of the analyze such questions as the Toghatti of Italy, Maurice Tho- of the Central Committee resolucountry, and will report her first- Khrushchev speech and the Poz- rez of France and Eugene Den- tion, Pravda, official newspaper hand impressions of the current nan uprising. This applies to all nis of the United States. These of the Soviet CP had pub-

July 21, "The Polish Uprising they question in relation to so- the explanations contained in and all of Dennis, with one small and the Khrushchev Report" will cialism."

WORKING PEOPLE

Vol. XX — No. 29

NEW YORK, N. Y., MONDAY, JULY 16, 1956

PRICE: 10 Cents

Stalinist Admissions Shatter Their Poznan Frame-Up Lies

Steel Strikers Ready For Drawnout Struggle

By Fred Hart

JULY 12 — The 650,000 members of the Steelworkers Union, now in the twelfth day of their strike against the steel trust, are determined to keep the mills shut down as long as is necessary to preserve D their hard-won gains. This fact is was carried out by the simple confirmed by reports from every device of proposing to handcuff najor steel center.

"The industry firmly be- economic uncertainty. leves it has a principle at stake ng away from such a drawn-out of the bosses. est of strength. As it set up its picket lines, it reminded its memremembered in Pittsburgh — the 156-day Westinghouse strike this year. There were no reports of rank and file grumbling about what might lie ahead."

PROVOKED STRIKE

It has not been difficult for the workens to recognize that the corporations deliberately prooked the strike. The provocation

I. F. Stone Hails Kutcher Victory

[From I. F. Stone's Weekly, June 25, 1956]

ve rise to applaud James Kutcher, the legless war veteran, and his lawyer, ADA Chairman Joseph L. Rauh, Jr., on the former's reinstatement as a clerk in the Veterans Administration regional office in Newark, N. J. Thus victoriously ends an 8-year fight by Kutcher against his discharge for "disloyalty" because he is a member of the Socialist Workers Party. . And we rejoice in the directed acquittal of Marian Bachrach, once our colleague on PM, in the current New York Smith Act trial. . . The Kutcher reinstatement was announced as in compliance with a Court of Appeals decision of April 30 but that decision, like a previous one, was merely procedural. A new case could have been instituted against Kutcher, but somebody in the government finally had sense enough to see the cruel folly of this whole proceeding and throw in the sponge.

the workers to a completely un The magazine, Business Week, acceptable long-term contract which really speaks for business, precisely at a time when the candidly reports in its July 7 industry is entering a period of

The solidarity of the steelworkn forcing the union into recipro- ers is a high tribute to their call bangaining, and in teaching it union consciousness and their that once it has forced on man- understanding of the bosses' agement the expense of closing game. Their own leadership has he mills it's in for a tough offered them nothing positive to fight for or shown any capacity "The uniongives no sign of back- to effectively counter the strategy

To this day union President McDonald has not revealed to the bers of the 57-day steel strike in ranks what demands he has put 1952 and - what is vividly before the companies. Throughout his tenure of office, Mc-Donald has been so busy preaching to the workers about their "harmony of interest" with the bosses that he has never been able to develop effective means of defending the workers' interests against the rapacious steel barons.

McDonald now complains, and nightly so, that "the steel industry forced this shutdown." This is the history of McDonald's leadership. Throughout, he has lacked the guts to take the offensive. Each time he has permitted the bosses to choose the time and place of battle - and the issue.

The steel barons current "test of strength" is made, of course, at the expense of the steelworkers and the labor movement generally. Already over 30 000 miners in the steel-owned "captive pits," have been laid off, as well as an additional 50,000 in other steeldependent industries.

WALL STREET CHEERFUL

The bosses, of course, are free of hardships. Quite the contrary, The N. Y. Times reported yesterday, "Traders on the N. Y. Stock Exchange continued to take a cheenful view of the steel situaion. The prices of leading steel stocks went up again, apparently in anticipation of higher steel prices and increased company earnings after the strike was settled.

But the steelworkers constitute mighty power. Even with the deck stacked against them they will give a good account of themselves. And once they build a new leadership based on a militant working class program, they will Peru Students Fight Fare Rise

High School students in Lima, Peru staged a demonstration protesting a rise in transit fares. Top photo shows police arresting a young demonstrator; below, a bus is overturned on Avenida Abancay. Thirteen vehicles were destroyed and 82 others were damaged during the fighting.

Big Meetings Sweep Japan Against U.S. Okinawa Bases

More than 10,000 Japanese jammed a downtown Tokyo park on July 4 in a five-hour demonstration against week of proclaiming to the world violation of Japan's independence by U.S. imperialism. that the general strike was the

While the crowd listened to 9tion of military bases on Okinawa, a U.S. heavy cruiser in the ened one morning to find (U.S.) harbor boomed a 21-gun "salute Army bulldozers leveling its shred of evidence to back up the to independence day."

a mounting wave of popular protests which began about three strong in Japan now that even Worker, July 11, datelined Warweeks ago with the leaking in the conservative capitalist politi- saw, we read the following: "To Washington of the Price report. cians are forced to make speech- date there is no evidence that Supposedly designed to "rectify okinawa." es denouncing U.S. occupation of some injustices attending United okinawa. some injustices attending United States Army rental of land in Okinawa used for military bases," the report actually supports measures making the military occupation of Japanese territory officially permanent.

The nature of the "rental" is quickly wipe the "cheer" from the revealed in a July 6 Christian Science Monitor report: "Okispeeches denouncing U.S. reten- nawans now are recalling such regime opened an investigation documented cases as one in which to make a "fair and impantial" an Okinowan farm family awak- inquiry into the facts. land, and a truck standing by to charge of provocateurs being

The anti-U.S. feeling is so shan's dispatch to the Daily

See Page Two

"When Communism Comes to America" By LEON TROTSKY

ers," the London Times says.

against the leaders of the workers' movement.

The Polish government an-

of a commission to "investigate the niots." Thus, after a full

The demonstration was part of take the family away - with- responsible for the outbreak. On the contrary. In Gordon Cruickabout where the rioters obtained their arms. Some were taken from high schools where both arms and ammunition are kept by students

Not a Shred of Proof Produced to Support Charge of "Spy Work"

JULY 11 - The immediate result of the Poznan uprising of June 28, which was put down with tanks and bullets plus mass arrests, has been the opening of a double campaign of concessions and D repressions by the Polish Stal- turbance, were thereby disarmed inist regime. The campaign is by the rioters.' designed to weaken and behead the rising mass movement against the Kremlin - appointed evidence that the foreign agents ago the workers marched into machine-gun fire shouting, ing a revolutionary uprising. "bread, bread, bread." Direct cash payment of back taxes has been made to workers at the Stallin Locomotive Works, a storm center of the June 28 events. Julian Tokarski, head of the ministry of Auto and Tractor works, the government department in charge of the Poznan Stalin plant, has been dismissed. Tokarski is said to be pensonally unpopular among factory work-

At the same time, the government refuses to release the names of arrested workers, officially reported to be about 600. And by sticking to its frame-up charge that provocateurs and spies led the general strike the Stalinists are obviously attempting to lay the ground for heavy reprisals nounced July 4 the organization

So far there hasn't been the local Polytechnic and other receiving military training. Others were seized from the in the first hours of the dis- did."

Thus, a Stalinist reporter on the spot reveals that there is no imported arms. Instead we get The government rushed extra a description, somewhat played food to Poznan where two weeks down and distorted of how workens have always gotten arms dur-

But perhaps by now spies and provocateurs have been uncovered among those arrested. Cruickshank reports otherwise. He says, "Some (of the arrested) were merely people who unwittingly broke the curfew. Some few have no documents and are refusing to say who they are or where they come from! A certain number came from outside Poznan. These include people from various parts of Poland who say they were in Poznan for the fair. One is a seaman Gdansk who was amned when arrested."

In other words the government has no spies or provocalteurs that it can produce. Only a few unidentified suspects. On what, therefore, is the loud and repeated charge that the workers were led by imperialist spies based? An editorial in Trybuna adu, the official par Polish United Workers (Stalinst) Party provides the answer: "The workers had reasons for bitterness but the Poznan events showed that the form of their protest was not proper and it was harmful."

There it is. The editors blurt t out. It is the "florm of protest" the workers chose that the Stalinist rulers consider immermissible! The real act of treason, in the eyes of the bureaucraits. is the independent class action of the Poznan workers directed against their tyrannical regime.

THE PEOPLE SAY"

Who started the shooting on June 28? In the Daily Worker July 7 Cruickshank reports: "One woman, a trade union representative, said: 'We were entitled to demonstrate, but there should not have been shooting.' When I asked her who she thought started the shooting: 'The Government says the hooligans militia men, who being prohibited and provocateurs did, but the absolutely from using their arms people say the security men

Kremlin 'Answers' Togliatti, Thorez and Dennis cret session of the 20th Congress | Dennis statement part of a sen- | Stalin-appointed regime, Walter | financed by funds appropriated | reaucrats who rule the East Eu-

By Tom Kerry The uprising in Poznan on June

28 marked a turning point in the MYRA TANNER WEISS "Stalin Cult" discussion raging be discussed by Mrs. Weiss at in all sections of the world Stalin-"I have never seen an election 52 Market Street, second floor, is movement. The discussion campaign so devoid of issues," at 8:30 P.M. Questions, discus- was triggered by the shattering Mrs. Weiss states, "so incapa sion, and a social period will revelations which emanated from the 20th Congress of the Com-

Democrats and Republicans avoid eran socialist campaigner, spoke ing in Moscow last February. a discussion of civil rights, civil in Boston July 6 to an audience is filled with political debate - analysis of Stalinism for the a resolution purporting to consuch compulsion to 'refute' Marx- tion of the radical movement period in which Stalin was conand the importance of events in solidating his "one-man" dicta-Mrs. Weiss will discuss the the Soviet Union to American torship.

crisis of Stalinism in the U.S. | audiences, including trade union- "critics" had issued statements lished excerpts from the Thorez In Newark the following night, ists because these are the things expressing dissatisfaction with statement, nothing of Togliatti

American workers. Yet while the Mrs. Weiss, a young but vet- munist Party, Soviet Union, meet- proportion to the degree of pressure to which they are subject. Of the cuitics, Togliatti was the On June 30, the Central Comliberties, unemployment and the consisting in the majority of mittee of the Soviet Communist sharpest, Thorez less so and Den- in Pravda was understood to prewar economy, the national press workers hearing the Trotskyist Party, made public the text of his the mildest of the lot. Their the question of socialism or ca- first time. There was a lively tain a "Marxist" explanation of three main elements: complaint, on the "Stalin cult" had unpitalism for the future of the discussion at the Boston meet- the origin and development of praise and plea. Complaint of leashed a storm of criticism goworld. Never before has the ing and some controversy on the "cuit of Stalin" and what the manner in which the Khrush- ing far beyond the limits precapitalist class and its press felt the question of the Americaniza- their role had been during the chev revelations were made pub- scribed by the Kremlin, espectusion pegged on the Thorez. ments of the Khrushchev regime, The resolution was ostensibly planation to allay the ferment ties in this election, especially "When discussing socialism intended to answer the questions stirred up by the assault on the "Stalin cult."

Preliminary to the publication in which Stalin was made sole- tence condemning the Stalin re- Ulbricht and his cohorts were by the American Senate. "It is ropean states, "All this demonly and personally responsible for gime for "snuffing out the lives trying to keep the lid on for fear clear," asserted the resolution, strates that one must not show all the crimes of the bureaucracy. of more than a score of Jewish of a recurrence of the June days. "that the anti-people's demon-The "dissatisfaction" of the cultural figures." Khrushchev And in Poland, where the post- strations in Poznan were paid machinations of the imperialist Stalinist tops was only a pale has not yet admitted that anti- 20th Congress process of "demo- from this source," reflection of the seething discon- semitism was among the crimes cratization" was reputed to have tent in the ranks. The sharpness of which the Stalinist bureaucra- been carried the farthest, the of their questions were in direct cy was guilty and so the reference was taboo.

The unprecedented action in publishing the Dennis statement sage an answer from the Kremstatements were compounded of lin to its "critics." The assault lic. praise for the accomplish- cially in the East European "Peo- Togliatti, Dennis, "criticisms," ple's Democracies." In Hungary, were upset by the action in Pozand a plea for a plausible ex- the regime of Matyas Rakosi, nan and the growing manifestapointed rulers for elementary so- ed on June 30. cial reforms and for rehabilitation of the frame-up victims.

workers of Poznan entered the and in their own way, articulatguage of working class revolt linked had marched into the magravated by bureaucratic indifference.

Whatever plans the Kremlin may have had for a leisurely dislongtime Stalinist hatchet-man, tions of militant dissent in the was under heavy attack. In East European countries. The Czechoslovakia, students and in- Dennis statement appeared in tellectuals, sensitive to the wide- Prayda on June 27. On June 28 spread mood of mass discontent, the Poznan uprising occurred. were pressing the Stalin-ap- The Soviet CP resolution appear-

The resolution stigmatized the Poznan action as the work of In East Germany, scene of the paid provocateurs. The strike-Khrushchev's report to a se- deletion. They cut out of the 1953 June uprising against the demonstration, it asserted, was admonition to the Stalinist bu-

ANOTHER FRAME-UP

In language reminiscent of the 'discussion" on their own behalf | Moscow frame-up trials, the resolution stigmatized the striking ing their grievances in the lan- Poznan workers, who, with arms against intolerable conditions ag- chine-gun fire of the security police, as "provocateurs and . . diversionists who were paid from overseas funds," and who "had only enough courage for a few basis, in advance, to slander any hand against the regime will workers' struggles against the have his hand chopped off." Even Stalinist regimes in the Soviet Stalin himself could not have put zone, as actions paid for by it more delicately! American gold, by saying: "Subversive activities in the people's reaucrats reverted to type. Ardemocracies will . . . continue to rests and expulsions swept Pofail in the future, although such land, Czechoslovakia and Hungaactions are generously paid for ry. The Kremlin's admonition from monies appropriated by "that one must not show a care-American monopolists."

And, the resolution adds in an a vengeance. While reports dis-agents, who are trying to penetrate into Socialist countries for the purpose of undermining the achievements of the workers." The ruling bureaucracy did not need much prompting. The July 1, N. Y. Times reports that throughout Eastern Europe, "radios warned that lany rebellion similar to Thursday's bloody revolt in Poznan, Poland, would be dealt with ruthlessly." How "ruthlessly" is indicated by the announcement over Radio Prague The resolution also laid the that: "Anybody who raises his With Poznan the Stalinist bu-less attitude," was followed with

LEON TROTSKY'S FORECAST

What Communism Would Be Like in America

[The following article by Trotsky, first published in the March 23, 1935 Liberty Magazine, has always been of keen interest as an example of a popular Marxist treatment of America's socialist future. It is of particular interest in the light of the current discussion in the Communist Party of the U.S. on America's road to socialism. — Ed.]

By Leon Trotsky

Should America go Communist as a result of the difficulties and problems which your capitalist social order is anable to solve, it will discover that Communism, far from being an intolerable bureaucratic tyranny and individual regimentation, will be the means of greater individual liberty and shared abundance.

At present most Americans regard Communism solely in the light of the experience of the Soviet Union. They fear lest Sovietism in America would produce the same material results as it has brought for the culturally backward peoples of the Soviet Union.

They fear lest Communism should try to fit them to a bed of Procrustes, and point to the bulwark of Anglo-Saxon conservatism as an insuperable obstacle even to possibly desirable reforms. They argue that Great Britain and Japan would undertake military intervention against the American Soviets. They shudder lest Americans be regimented in their habits of dress and diet; be compelled to subsist on famine rations; read stereotyped official propaganda in the newspapers; serve as rubber stamps for decisions arrived at without their active participation; keep their thoughts to themselves and loudly praise their Soviet leaders in public through fear of imprisonment and exile.

They fear monetary inflation, bureaucratic tyranny, and intolerable red tape in obtaining the necessities of life. They fear soulless standardization in the arts and sciences, as well as in the daily necessities of life. They fear that all political spontaneity and the presumed freedom of the press will be destroyed by the dictatorship of a monstrous bureaucracy. And they shudder at the thought of being forced into an uncomprehended glibness in Marxian dialectic and disciplined social philosophies. They fear, in a word, that Soviet America will become the counterpart of what they have been told Soviet Rassia looks like.

American Tradition

Actually American Soviets will be as different from the Russian Soviets as the United States of President Roosevelt differs from the Russian Empire of Czar Nicholas II.

Yet Communism can come in America only through revolution, just as independence and democracy came in America. The American temperament is energetic and violent, and it will insist on breaking a good many dishes and upsetting a good many apple carts before Communism is firmly established. Americans are enthusiasts and spontsmen before they are specialists and statesmen, and it would be contrary to the American tradition to make a major change without choosing sides and cracking heads.

However, the American Communist Revolution will be insignificant compared to the Bolshevik Revolution in Russia, in terms of your national wealth and population, no matter how great its comparative cost. That is because civil a revolutionary nature isn't fought by the handful of men at the top - the five or ten percent who own nine-tenths of American wealth: this handful could recruit its counterrevolutionary armies only from among the lower middle classes. Even so, the revolution could easily attract them to its banner by showing that support of the Soviets alone offers them the prospect of salvation.

Everybody below this group is already economically prepared for Communism. The depression has ravaged your working class and has dealt a crushing blow to the flarmers, who had already been injured by the long aguicultural decline of the postwar decade. There is no reason why these guoups should oppose determined resistance to the revolution; they have nothing to lose, providing, of course, that the revolutionary leaders adopt a farsighted and moderate policy toward them.

Who else will fight against Communism? Your corporal's guard of billionaries and multimillionaires? Your Mellons, Morgans, Fords and Rockefellers? They will cease struggling as soon as they fail to find other people to fight for

The American Soviet Government will take firm possession of the commanding heights of your business system: the banks, the key industries, and the transportation and communication systems. It will then give the farmers, the small tradespeople and business men a good long time to think things over and see how well the nationalized section of industry is working.

Production Miracles

Here is where the American Sovilets can produce real miracles. "Technocracy" can come true only under Communism, when the dead hands of private property rights and private profits are lifted from your industrial system. The most daring proposals of the Hoover commission on standardization and rationalization will seem childish companed to the new possibilities let loose by American Communism.

National industry will be organized along the line of the conveyor belt in your modern contimuous-production automotive factories. Scientific planning can be lifted out of the individual factory and applied to your entire economic system. The results will be stupendous.

Costs of production will be cut to 20 percent, or less, of their present figure. This in turn would rapidly increase your farmers' purchasing

To be sure, the American Soviets would establish their own gigantic farm enterprises, as schools of voluntary collectivization. Your farmers could easily calculate whether it was to their individual advantage to remain as isolated links or to join the public chain.

The same method would be used to draw small businesses and industries into the national organization of industry. By Soviet control of raw materials, credits, and quotas of orders, these secondary industries could be kept solvent until they were gradually and without compulsion sucked into the socialized business system. Without compulsion! The American Soviets would not need to resort to the drastic measures which circumstances have often imposed upon the Russians, In the United States, through the science of publicity and advertising, you have means for winning the support of your middle class which were beyond the reach of the Soviets of backward Russia with its vast majority of pauperized and illiterate peasants. This, in addition to your technical equipment and your wealth, is the greatest asset of your coming Communist Revolution. Your revolution will be smoother in character than ours; you will not waste your energies and resources in costly social conflicts after the main issues have been decided; and you will move ahead so much the more rapidly in consequence. Even the intensity and devotion of religious sentiment in America will not prove an obstacle to the revolution. If one assumes the perspective of Soviets in America, none of the psychological brakes will prove firm enough to retard the pressure of the social crisis. This has been demonstrated more than once in history. Besides, it should not be forgotten that the Gospels themselves contain some pretty explosive

The Unconvinced Millionaires

As to the comparatively few opponents of the Soviet Revolution, one can trust to American inventive genius. It may well be that you will take your unconvinced millionaires and send them to some picturesque island, rentifree for life, where they can do as they please.

You can do this safely, for you will not need to fear foreign interventions. Japan, Great Britain and the other capitalistic countries which intervened in Russia couldn't do amything but take American Communism lying down. As a matter of fact the victory of Communism in America — the stronghold of capitalism — will cause Communism to spread to other countries. Japan will probably have joined the Communistic ranks even before the establishment of the American Soviets. The same is true of Great

In any case, it would be a crazy idea to send His Britannic Majesty's fleet against Soviet America, even as a raid against the southern and more conservative half of your continent. It would be hopeless and would never get any fartther than a second-rate military escapade.

Within a few weeks or months of the establishment of the American Soviets, Pan-Americanism would be a political reality.

The governments of Central and South America would be pulled into your federation like inon filings to a magnet. So would Canada. The popular movements in these countries would be so strong that they would force this great unifying process within a short period and at insignificant costs. I am ready to bet that the first anniversary of the American Soviets would find the Western Hemisphere transformed into the Soviet United States of North, Central, and South America, with its capital at Panama. Thus for the first time the Monroe Doctrine would have a complete and positive meaning in world affairs, although not the one foreseen by

In spite of the complaints of some of your arch-conservatives, Roosevelt is not preparing for a Soviet transformation of the United

The NRA aims not to destroy but to strengthen the foundations of American capitalism, by overcoming your business difficulties, Not the Blue Eagle but the difficulties which the Blue Eagle is powerless to overcome will bring about Communism in America. The "radical" professors of your Brain Trust are not revolutionists: they are only frightened conservatives. Your President abhors "systems" and "generallities." But a Soviet government is the greatest of all possible systems, a gigantic generality in

The Socialist Dollar

The average man doesn't like system or generalities, either. It is the task of your Communist statesmen to make the system deliver the concrete goods which the average man desires: his food, cigars, amusements, his freedom to choose his own neckties, his own house, and his own automobile. It will be easy to give him these comforts in Soviet America.

Most Americans have been misled by the fact that in the USSR we had to build whole new basic industries from the ground up. Such a thing could not happen in America, where you are already compelled to cut down on your farm area and to reduce your industrial production. As a matter of fact your tremendous technological equipment has been paralyzed by the crisis and already clamors to be put to use. You will be able to make a rapid step-up of consumption by your people the starting point of your economic revival.

You are prepared to do this as is no other country. Nowhere else has the study of the internal market reached such intensity as in the United States. It has been done by your banks, trusts, individual business men, merchants, traveling salesmen and farmers as part of their stock in trade. Your Soviet Government will simply abolish all trade secrets, will combine all the findings of these researches for individual profit, and will transform them into a scientific system of economic planning. In this your government will be helped by the existence of a large class of cultured and critical consumers. By combining the nationalized key industries, your private businesses and democratic consumer co-operation, you will quickly develop a highly flexible system for serving the needs of your population.

This system will be made to work, not by bureaucracy and not by policemen, but by hard

Your almighty dollar will play a principal part in making your new Soviet system work. It is a great mistake to try to mix a "planned economy" with a "mianaged currency." Your money must act as regulator with which to measure the success or failure of your planning.

Your "radical" professors are dead wrong in their devotion to "managed money." It is an academic idea which could easily wreck your entire system of distribution and production. That is the great lesson to be derived from the Soviet Union, where bitter necessity has been converted into official virtue in the monetary

There the lack of a stable gold ruble is one of the main causes of our many economic troubles and catastrophes. It is impossible to regulate wages, prices, and quality of goods without a firm monetary system. An unstable ruble in a Soviet system is like having variable molds in a conveyor-belt factory. It won't work.

Only when Socialism succeeds in substituting administrative control for money will it be possible to abandon a stable gold currency. Then money will become ordinary paper slips, like trolley or theater tickets. As Socialism advances these slips will also disappear, and control over individual consumption - whether by money or administration = will no longer be necessary when there is more than enough of everything for everybody!

Such a time has not yet come, though America will certainly reach it before any other country. Until then, the only way to reach such a state of development is to retain an effective regulator and measure for the working of your system. As a matter of fact, during the first few years a planned economy needs sound money even more than did old-fashioned capitalism. The professor who regulates the monetary unit with the aim of regulating the whole business system is like the man who tried to lift both his feet off the ground at the same time.

Soviet America will possess supplies of gold big enough to stabilize the dollar - a priceless asset. In Russia we have been expanding our industrial plant by 20 or 30 percent a year; but - owing to a weak ruble - we have not been able to distribute this increase effectively. This is partly because we have allowed our bureaucracy to subject our monetary system to administrative one-sidedness. You will be spared this evil. As a result you will greatly surpass us both in increased production and distribution, leading to a rapid advance in the comfort and welfare of your population.

In all this you will not need to imitate our standardized production for our pitiable mass consumers. We have taken over from Czarist Russia a pauper's heritage, a culturally undeveloped peasantry with a low standard of living. We had to build our factories and dams at the expense of our consumers. We have had continual monetary inflation and a monstrous

Fullblooded Democracy

Soviet America will not have to imittate our bureaucratic methods. Among us the lack of the bare necessities has caused an intense scramble for an extra loaf of bread, an extra yard of cloth by every one. In this struggle our bureaucracy steps forward as a conciliator, as an allpowerful court of arbitration.

You, on the other hand, are much wealthier and would have little difficulty in supplying all of your people with all of the necessities of life. Moreover, your needs, tastes, and habits would never permit your bureaucracy to divide the national income. Instead, when you organize your society to produce for human needs rather than private profits, your entire population will group itself around new trends and groups, which will struggle with one another and prevent an overweening bureaucracy from imposing itself upon

You can thus avoid growth of bureaucratism by the practice of soviets - that is to say, democracy: the most flexible form of government yet developed. Soviet organization cannot achieve miracles but must simply reflect the will of the people. With us the Soviets have been bureaucratized as a result of the political monopoly of a single party, which has itself become a bureaucracy. This situation resulted from the exceptional difficulties of Socialist pioneering in a poor and backward country.

The American Soviets will be fullblooded and vigorous, without need or opportunity for such measures as circumstances imposed upon Russia. Your unregenerate capitalists will, of course, find no place for themselves in the new setup. It is hard to imagine Henry Ford as the head of the Detroit Soviet.

Yet a wide struggle between interests, groups and ideas is not only conceivable - it is inevitable. One-year, five-year, ten-year plans of business development; schemes for national education: construction of new basic lines of transportation; the transformation of the farms; the program for improving the technological and cultural equipment of Latin America; a program for stratosphere communication; eugenics - all of these will arouse controversy, vigorous electoral struggle, and passionate debate in the newspapers and at public meetings.

For Soviet America will not imitate the monopoly of the press by the heads of Soviet Russia's bureaucracy. While Soviet America would nationalize all printing plants, paper mills, and means of distribution, this would be a purely negative measure. It would simply mean that private capital will no longer be allowed to decide what publications should be established, whether they should be progressive or reactionary, "wet" or "dry," puritanical or pornographic. Soviet America will have to find a new solution for the question of how the power of the press is to function in a Socialist regime. It might be done on the basis of proportional representation for the vote in each Soviet

Thus the right of each group of citizens to use the power of the press would depend on their numerical strength - the same principle being applied to the use of meeting halls, allotment of time on the air, and so forth.

Thus the management and policy of publications would be decided not by individual checkbooks but by group ideas. This may take little account of numerically small but important groups but it simply means that each new idea will be compelled, as throughout history, to prove its right to existence.

Science, Art. Philosophy

Rich Soviet America can set aside vast funds for research and invention, discoveries and experiments in every field. You won't neglect your bold architects and sculptors, your unconventional poets and audacious philosophers.

In fact, the Soviet Yankees of the future will give a lead to Europe in those very fields where Europe has hittherto been your master. Europeans have little conception of the power of technology to influence human destiny and have adopted an attitude of sneering superiority toward "Americanism," particularly since the enisis. Yet Americanism marks the true dividing line between the Middle Ages and the modern world.

Hitherto America's conquest of nature has been so violent and passionate that you have had no time to modernize your philosophies or to develop your own artistic forms. Hence you have been hostile to the doctrines of Hegel. Marx and Darwin. The burning of Darwin's works by the Baptists of Tennessee is only a clumsy reflection of the American dislike for the doctrines of evolution. This attitude is not confined to your pulpits. It is still part of your general mental make-up.

Your atheists as well as your Quakers are determined rationalists. And your rationalism itself is weakened by empiricism and moralism. It has none of the merciless vitality of the great European rationalists. So your philosophic method is even more antiquated than your economic system and your political institutions.

"A New Breed of Men"

Today, quite unprepared, you are being forced to face those social contradictions which grow up unsuspected in every society. You have conquered nature by means of the tools which your inventive genius has created, only to find that your tools have all but destroyed you. Contrary to all your hopes and desires, your unheard-ofwealth has produced unheard-off-misfortunes. You have discovered that social development have been thrust into the school of the dialectic - to stay.

There is no turning back from it to the mode of thinking and acting prevalent in the Seventeenth and Eighteenth Centuries.

While the romantic numskulls of Nazi Germany are dreaming of restoring the old race of Europe's Dark Forest to its original purity, or rather its original filth, you Americans, after taking a firm grip on your economic machinery and your culture, will apply genuine scientific methods to the problem of eugenics. Within a century, out of your melting pot of races there will come a new breed of men - the first worthy of the name of Man.

One final prophecy: In the third year of Soviet rule in America you will no longer chew

Why Stalin Failed To Heed Warning

The Soviet people are now being told part of the truth about Stalin's criminal failure to prepare for the nearcatastrophic invasion of the Soviet Union by Hitler's army in June 1941, A film, "Immortal 9ribly the Russian people suffer- ternational, October, 1940.) ed because of the failure to prepare for the attack, is now being Leninist view of imperialism and shown throughout the Soviet Un- its driving forces, enabled him to ion. The film lays to rest the Stalinist myth that the invasion itability of a Nazi attack on the was anticipated and that the cas- Soviet Union at the very outset ualty-ridden retreat of the Red of the Hitler regime, and, in Army at the time was part of a fact, even before it came to powplanned "active defense."

The theme of the film corresponds to Khrushchev's 20th Congress indictment of Stalin detailed some of the enormous Situation.) cost paid by the Soviet people for Stalin's blindness.

is why Stalin refused to rec- make intervention (against the ognize the Nazi threat and why he ignored the persistent warnings, not merely of the imperialist Churchill in 1941, but of Leon pire would be needed . . . to be Trotsky, the organizer of the Red Army, who from his exile sounded the alarm over and over again, starting in 1931.

ness to the imminent Nazi ating the policy of "peaceful corialism. In December 1939, shortly after the infamous Stalin-Hitler Pact was signed, Stalin proclaimed: "The friendship of the viet Union, cemented by blood, has all the grounds to be prolonged and stable."

'A MATTER OF TASTE"

So drunk with the "success" of their pact was the Stalinist high command, that Molotov was able to drink his toast with Nazi foreign minister Von Ribbentrop, declaring, "Fascism is a matter of taste.

Union, as follows: "In spite of East-and thus grow up to the the Kremlin's territorial seizures, dimensions of a colossal danger. the international position of the USSR is worsened in the ex-sky's prognosis bears important treme. The Polish buffer disap- lessons for today. While Khrupeared. The Rumanian buffer will shchev flays Stalin's paralysis at quires a common frontier with sponsible for it. Like Stalin, the USSR. Scandinavia, a place Khrushchev stakes the future of of weak and almost disarmed the USSR, not on revolutionary countries, is occupied by this internationalism, but on the classthe West are only preparation coexistence—this time with the for a gigantic move to the East." organizer of the cold war, U.S. ("The Kremlin's Role in the imperialism.

Garrison," which shows how ter- | War," June 17, 1940. Fourth In-Trotsky's realism, based on his predict and warn of the inever. In 1931 he wrote: "Once Hitler comes to power and proceeds to crush the vanguard of the workers, pulverizing and dewhich excoriated the late dictator moralizing the proletariat for for ignoring warnings of the years to come, the Fascist govimpending attack made to the ernment will be the only govern-Soviet government by Winston ment capable of waging war Churchill in April 1941. In his against the USSR." (Germany, indictment of Stalin, Khrushchev The Key to the International

On July 16, 1932, Trotsky utilized the pages of Liberty What Khrushchev didn't explain magazine to warn again: "To Soviet Union) possible, a great, highly industrialized, and, moreover, continental European emmore accurate—a country would be needed which had nothing to lose. A glance at the political map of Europe will convince you that such a mission could be un-The reason for Stalin's blind- dertaken only by a fascist Germany. More than that a fascist tack was because he was follow- Germany would have no other road left to go . . . A war against existence" with German impe- the Soviet Union would grow out of these circumstances with fatal necessity." Trotsky went on to outline the course the USSR should follow peoples of Germany and the So- in the event fascism triumphed in Germany: "In my opinion, this is how the Soviet Government ought to act in the event of a fascist coup in Germany. Upon receiving the telegraphic communication of this event I would. in their place, sign an order for, the mobilization of army reserves. When you have a mortal enemy before you, and when war flows with necessity from the logic of the objective situation, While these vile declarations it would be unpardonable lightwere emanating from "realists" mindedness to give that enemy in the Kremlin, Trotsky, the time to establish and fortify him-"agent of fascism," according to self, conclude the necessary althe Moscow frame-up Trials, was liances, receive the necessary assessing the pact," the division help, work out a plan of conof Poland and the acquisition of centric military actions-not onthe Baltic States by the Soviet ly from the West but from the

The tragic verification of Trotdisappear tomorrow. Mighty Ger- the time of the Nazi attack, he many, master of Europe, ac- continues the political policy resame Germany. Her victories in collaboration policy of peaceful close that a number of prominent Communist Party members were summarily purged, there has not yet been uncovered one bona-fide "imperialist agent" so far as the available information goes up to the present time.

. Kremlin "Answers" the CP Leaders

(Continued from page 1)

So far as the CPs of the West were concerned, the Soviet OP resolution hailed the "approval and wide response" which the "condemnation by our party of the personality cult of Stalin and its consequences," had evoked among them. It singled out Thorez and Eugene Dennis for a special pat on the back for their understanding support and then selected a formulation by Togliatti for special criticism.

In criticizing the explanation given by Krushchev on the rise of the "Stalin cult," Togliatti had written: "At one time, all that was good was due to the superhuman positive qualities of one man: now all that is bad is attributed to the equally exceptional and even staggering defects of the same man. Both in the new society. It seems unquesthe one case and in the other, we tionable that Stalin's errors were are outside the criterion of judge- linked with an excessive increase escapes notice, such as the meth- and political system, and perhaps od by which, and the reason why, above all in the life of the Party.' Soviet society could and did stray | As the above comes dangerously so far from the legality which it close to the Trotskyist analysis had traced out for itself, arriv- of the Soviet Union as a degen-

ed, "we recall the fact that Lenin, the power and uses it to defend in his last speeches and writings, its privileged position, it is no reaucracy which was threatening concern by Stalin's heirs. They It was not out of love of Stalin the merit of credibility.

ment which is proper to Marxism. in the weight of the bureaucratic Soviet Union was able to survive to the 20th Congress, with one term and Cominform ceased their "The real problem," he added, apparatus of the economic life

ing as far as degeneration . . . erated workers state in which a 'Above all," Togliatti conclud- bureaucratic caste has usurped discussion. The Soviet CP resolution "cor-of verbal sleight-of-hand worthy ber revolution. of a Jesuit. "One cannot," the Comrade Togliatti says quite corlost. . . . " regime" are the socialist property forms established by the Octothe difficulties of capitalist en- slight variation. due solely to the strength and ers to "assert themselves against viability of the property forms the cult of the individual" was nism have lost significance." established by the Ocother rev- fear. Fear of their own hides quiry opened up by Togliatti untold hardship and shed their planation given is that Stalin with dread foreboding as an om- life's blood to preserve the So- was too popular and anyone who inous turn in the "Stalin cult" viet Union against capitalist res- acted against him "would not rects" Togliatti with a neat bit cial conquests of the great Octo- transformed before our very eyes resolution argues, "agree with in the Soviet Union. To the So- anything is possible ."These are Comrade Togliatti when he asks viet masses he was the symbol not honest men and this is not whether Soviet society has not of tyranny and oppression. The an honest regime," remarked the reached 'certain forms of degen- establishment of the nauseating journalist I. F. Stone after a eeration?' There are no founda- "cult of Stalin" was not of their recent visit to the Soviet Union. tions for such a question." Why? doing. They were not "cultists" It cannot be denied. Because, says the resolution, "in for they had nothing to benefit another part of his interview thereby. They were the main victims of the Stalin cult. Because tripped all over themselves in rectly: 'It must be deduced that they were, the erstwhile prac- their haste to express their agreethe essence of the Socialist re- titioners of cultism find it pos- ment. Togliatti voiced "unreserved gime was not lost, since none sible and convenient to utilize of the preceding gains were Stalin as a scapegoat for all the crimes committed by the bureau-The "essence of the Socialist cratic caste which Stalin headed.

After disposing of Togliatti's criticism the Soviet CP resolution ber revolution as distinct from presented its "explanation" of the bureaucratic apparatus of the how and why the Stalin cult arose cult." It called for the "ideologi-Soviet state which rests upon the and why they failed to combat cal unanimity" of all the Communationalized property. The two its criminal manifestations. The are not the same. The bureau- purported explanation was nothcrats see an identity where there ing but a rehash of the one conis profound difference. That the tained in the Khrushchev report could only view the line of in- | that the Soviet masses endured | In the later version, the extoration but out of unconquerable have received support from the determination to defend the so- people." Stalin the monster is to Stalin the beloved. For bu-Stalin was the most hated man reaucrats holding state power With the publication of the Soviet CP resolution the "critics" approval." Thorez added his "amen," and Dennis said "me too."

The Kremlin made it clear it would not tolerate any criticism going beyond the limits fixed in the discussion of the "Stalin nist Parties and reminded the Stalinist leaders, who prate about their new-found "independence," that allthough "the Cominactivities, it does not follow circlement, intervention and war, In the version contained in the from this that international solcompounded by the crimes, atroc- Khrushchev speech to the 20th idarity and the need of contacts ities and bureaucratic misman- Congress the reason given for between revolutionary and brothagement of the Stalin regime, is the failure of the present lead- erly parties which adopted the position of Marxism and Leni-

The next day after publication olution and not to the early gen- prompted them to refrain from of the resolution Prayda describius of Stalin, as Khrushchev and "asserting themselves." Not too ed the "answers" as "clearcut" emphasized the danger of bu- wonder that it became cause for Company would have us believe. complimentary but at least it had and indicated that the matter was Subscription $3 per year $1.50 for 6 months. Foreign: 6.50 per year; $2.20 for nonths. Canadian: $3.50 per year: $1.75 for 6 months Bundle Orders: 5 or more copies 6c each in U.S., 7c each in foreign countries.

Vol. XX - No. 29

THE MILITANT PUBLISHING ASSOCIATION 116 University Pl., N. Y. 3, N. Y. Editor: MURRY WEISS

usiness Manager: ANNE CHESTER

"Entered as second class matter March 7, 1944 at the Post Office at New York, N.Y., under the act of Merch 3, 1879." Monday, July 16, 1956

The Steel Strike

The United Steelworkers of America, 650,000 strong, is a powerful union. Its strike has effectively shut down the nation's basic industry. Its membership can be relied on to wage the strike with solidarity and discipline.

Such a union is capable of wresting major concessions from the bosses. Yet it finds itself in a position where the steel barons can make a completely unacceptable offer and deliberately force a strike. Why is this?

In challenging the Steelworkers, the companies in no way underestimate the union's power. What they are banking on is the present union misleadership as represented by President David J. Mc-Donald. The bureaucratic way in which McDonald conducted the pre-strike negotiations and is now leading the strike itself is the basic source of the present arrogance of the steel magnates.

The steelworkers are faced with profound economic problems. Production cutbacks loom large. In addition, the steel industry is introducing automation to reduce the number of workers employed and is demanding exclusive control of speed-up.

These facts indicate the need for the widest possible discussion in the union ranks in the formulation of contract demands. But McDonald has prevented this. The membership was denied voice in drawing up demands and in determining the terms of a settlement. McDonald has not even revealed precisely what he is asking of the companies.

With a few local exceptions, meetings are rarely called, and those held are so cut and dried that many members don't attend. Many of the workers are not familiar with the strike issues. There is much understandable distrust of the leadership.

The Christain Science Monitor July 5 reports these comments from strikers at the U.S. Steel plant in Gary, Ind. One complains, "I sure wish I knew what this ners, in addition to the demand to function underground and which they seek to justify their was all about. I wish I knew exactly what for bread, the demand for free-McDonald wants. No one has ever told me what the issues are."

Another says bitterly, "No. I don't know what McDonald wants. I think he is in cahoots with management. I think we are entitled to know what he wants. No, I never go to a meeting. Why should I? There is a clique that runs everything." A 30-year man adds, "Sure. They're just a bunch of 'yes men' at the union. I used to go, used to be an official at one time."

But despite this the men have reacted instinctively against company efforts to shackle them with a long-term contract that would leave them open to increased speed-up and the threat of automation layoffs.

McDonald, on the other hand, wants only "peace" with the steel trust. He has been compelled to oppose the five-year pact but has indicated a willingness to accept a three-year agreement and has not informed the membership what he will settle for on the basic demands.

As in the past, he undoubtedly intends to wheedle the best terms management will concede and then confront the membership with a "package" settlement, banking on their accepting it for lack of a clear alternative.

Internal union democracy is indispensable to the solution of the Steelworkers' problems. It is needed to develop rankand-file understanding of the issues confronting them. It is indispensable for the elaboration of a program to realize their interests and to mobilize the power necessary to write such a program into a union

... Negro Struggle and Class Politics

(Continued from page 1)

fundamentally united in opposition to the abolition of Jim Crow. Both their civil rights records were summed up for the NAACP convention by Executive Secretary Roy Wilkins who said, "They have been scratching each other's backs and we have been left out in the cold."

Wilkins urged the delegates, "Use your votes in behalf of civil rights." But that was all he could advise. The big question - precisely who to vote for in behalf of, civil rights - remained unanswered.

At the root of this dilemma is the political policy of the official leaders of the Negro people and the trade unions, a policy of dissipating the political strength of the Negroes within the capitalist two-party system. So long as this policy prevails the tragic contradiction of an anti-Jim Crow movement that supports pro-Jim Crow candidates will not be resolved. Negro people will continue to feel they are cutting their throats in the voting booths.

The struggle of the Negro people for equality is essentially anti-capitalist. Only the factory owners and big landlords are real gainers from Jim Crow. Every blow against Jim Crow is a blow against a capitalist class that rules over a divided and thereby retarded labor movement.

By the same token, each new stage in the struggle for equality has drawn the Negro and labor movement more closely together in a natural alliance against the common enemy - the capitalists and their political agents.

In addition, the Negro people have come to correctly see themselves in alliance with the colonial freedom fighters throughout the world. This sentiment was reflected in the declaration of MIA President Martin Luther King: "Whether we want to be or not, we are caught in a great movement of history. . . The vast majority of the people of the world are colored. . . Up until four or five years ago most of the one and a quarter billion colored peoples were exploited by empires of the West. . .

Their Morals and Ours

Marxists - from the hoary charge that Lenin and the Bolsheviks were "amoral" to the current accusation that the guiding

Marxist maxim is that "the end justifies the means" - are answered in this classic

Order from

PIONEER PUBLISHERS

116 University Place New York 3, N. Y.

work.

64 pages

Today many are free and the rest are on the road. . . We are part of that great movement."

In the days ahead this fact of life ennunciated by Rev. King will assume even deeper significance for the front-rank fighters against Jim Crow. They will begin to see the pattern of the world anticapitalist development. Movements like Montgomery and Tallahassee will one day acknowledge a profound debt to the Russian working class and its Bolshevik party that in 1917 set off a chain reaction whose When the Soviet armies sucreverberations throughout the globe are still being felt. For it was the Russian war against the Nazis, the Polish Revolution that gave the impetus for the world-wide anti-imperialist struggle of today and chartered the road for the liberation of the oppressed and exploited every-

While the very logic of the struggle leads the masses of the Negro people towards a break with capitalist politics, their official leaders are tied to the the following year, as the Soviet ideology of capitalism. Like the labor armies approached Warsaw, the bureaucrats the social position and material advantages of the official Negro long battle for control of the as a result of the success of the leaders bind them to the capitalist status city. quo from which their privileges derive. While the most conscious of the Negro peculiar happened. The Soviet reported more extensively as a on the face of the earth. They militants identify themselves with the armies instead of pursuing the result of the interest created by are heavily taxed by a governworld movement against imperialism, the stopped at the very gates of Wartop official leadership finds itself in the saw and made no effort to enter role of apologist for imperialism. This is it until some five months later. the objective meaning and result of their support to the political representatives the Polish resistance forces withof the Wall Street imperialists.

This conflict of the pro-capitalist politics of the leaders and the anti-capitalist interests of the ranks must ultimately be in the back by Stalin They cited resolved by the development of a program and leadership firmly based on an anti- Soviet radio to the people of capitalist outlook. The first long step in Nazi oppressors. But when the that direction will be the building, in people heeded the appeal they alliance with the trade unions, of an did not get the support of the independent Labor Party capable of doing the Kremlin denounced the upbattle against the twin Jim Crow parties of capitalism.

THE ROAD TO PEACE

views on this life and death question, with

This pamphlet by James P. Cannon is must By LEON TROTSKY reading for anyone opposed to another war. It explains why peace cannot be won by following All the "moralistic" arguments of antithe Stalinist program and outlines Lenin's real particular application to America.

25 cents

25 Cents

Order from

PIONEER PUBLISHERS 116 University Pl. New York 3, N.Y.

The Role of the National Question in Poland

By Morris Stein

conditions of work imposed by 1930's. arbitrary bureaucrats. But these

This is quite natural and in the est possible democracy to defend their interests and move forward onto the socialist road.

There was yet another demand that the Russians get out of Poold flag of capitalist Poland was hoisted atop a government building and that national songs were

There is no way of checking the accuracy of this information. The Polish government prefers to pass over this part of the affair in silence. It is too embarrassed to admit that the masses consider it a Russian puppet government. The U.S. State Department and the capitalist press try to exaggerate and distort this phase. They see in the nationalist aspect of the Poznan struggle their greatest hope for a return to a capitalist Poland and for a base of support to the imperialists in case of war.

NATIONAL OPPRESSION

It is safe to assume that there was a heavy nationalist ingredia ent in the Poznan uprising. It would be unnatural if it weren't present. Nationalism is nurtured and spread by national oppression and Poland has been historically the most abused nation on the European continent. Prior to World War I it was divided between imperial Germany and Czarist Russia. It was ruled by foreign appointees who sought to impose their domination and cul-

After some 20 years of mationhood following World War I mainly under French hegemony Poland was one again divided up. This time the division of the country was part of the shortlived deal between Stalin and Hitler in September 1939. This cynical pact between the Soviet dictator and the Fascist beast, was the curtain raiser for World War II of which Poland was only the first victim.

But once Hitler attacked the Soviet Union, the brief period when Stalin sought to profit from Poland's desperate plight recedtional struggle of the Polish people was directed mainly against the Nazis. The fierce resistance struggle continued for five years. ceeded in turning the fortunes of people took heart in these victories and intensified their resistance. The Nazis intensified their repressions.

STALINIST BETRAYAL

.The heroic uprising of the Jewish Ghetto of Warsaw broke out in April 1943. Almost the entire Jewish populatoin of Warsaw was murdered. In the summer of people rose against the Nazis and offensive was interpreted by the Polish people as a deliberate stab such facts as the appeal of the Soviet armies. On the contrary, rising as ill-timed and vilified the insurgent masses as provocateurs.

At this juncture something retreating Nazi armies suddenly Montgomery is not clear. Probament in which they have no voice, in the city.

In his report on Stalin to the 20th Congress, Khrushschev did speak of Stalin's crimes in relation to other nationalities. He mentioned the banishment of entire nationalities to Siberia. The assault on Jewish cultural life and the murder of its best representatives has been admitted by others. The Kremlin's criminal POLITICAL MOTIVE role against the Poles is being admitted only indirectly. The Warsaw uprising against the Nazis in the summer of 1944 is no longer villified and its survivers are no longer persecuted. On the contrary, some kind words are spoken about them.

The present Polish regime has been trying to unload yet another of Stalin's crimes weighing

In Poznan, as in East Germany ing to rehabilitate and establish lenged, the regime could fall back in June 1953, the spark that set kinship with the old Communist only on military force. In the off the explosion was economic. Party of Poland which was dis- showdown the government could-The masses rebelled against the banded by Stalin in the late n't rely on any section of the rebellions became generalized into had always been severely perpolitical movements almost from secuted by the reactionary Pilthe beginning. The Poznan work- sudsky government as well as by Stalinist bureaucrats always ers boldly inscribed on their ban- his successors. It was compelled boast of, and in the name of many of its members languished totaltiarian regimes, exists in in jail. When Stalin dissolved it, fact. However, it is not a unity at least 7,000 members of the behind the government but best tradition of workers' strug- Polish Communist Party were in against it. gles. The workers need the broad- prison and most of the leadership in refuge in the Soviet Union.

During the Moscow trials the leaders of the Polish Communist raised in Poznan: The demand Party were arrested by Stalin's secret police and shot. Among land. It is, also reported that the them were such prominent heroic fighters as Adolf Warsky, Rosa over the years has served to unite Luxemburg's close collaborator the masses in opposition to the and a veteran of 40 years of regime. But it still leaves oper struggle.

Even such a man as Julian Lensky, who faithfully purged the Trotskyists in the Polish Communist Party and adhered strictly to the Stalin line, did not escape Stalin's executioners.

Stalin dissolved the Polish Communist Party and executed its leaders under the charge that the party was "riddled with spies, Pillaudskylists, Trotskylists," etc. The result was that the old revamong the masses were annihilated. The new leadership which arose during the years of resistance to the Nazis, either perished in the ill-fated Warsaw uprising or were vilified and per-

FACELESS BUREAUCRATS

Stalin had finally triumphed. After the defeat of the Nazis, Poland remained in the palm of his hand. He constituted a puppet regime of faceless bureaucrats and set them up to rule over the country. He proceeded to introduce into Poland the Soviet conomic forms. The capitalists and the landlords were expropriated, the means of production were nationalized and planned economy was introduced. The social transformation was accomplished by bureaucratic and military means.

What is the result? The surprise nature of the Poznan workers' uprising revealsoil, the deep gulf separating the the countries ruled by Stalin's heirs. The June 1953 days in East Germany and the June 1956

The governments of the self- pressed people. styled People's Democracies, as that of the Soviet Union itself, BITTER CONTEST have no real intimate ties with the masses and are, on the con- bat any attempt to direct the natrary, in sharp collision with tional feelings of the Polish peo-

| heavily upon it. It has been try- | demonstrated that when chalpopulation aside from the troops The Polish Communist Party and secret police to defend it from the angry masses.

The "unity of the people" th

WHAT SOCIAL DIRECTION? The Poznan and East German

uprisings were explosions which brought to the surface the deep hatred for a regime which is alien to the people. The accumulated bureaucratic albuse of the masses the question of the social direction such insurrectionary movements as Poznan can take once they succeed in overthrowing the Stalinist regimes.

Revolutionary socialists have the deepest attachment to the economic foundations of present day Poland. These are the foundations which guarantee the country's economic development and upon which a socialist Poland will be built. The foundaolutionary leadership, men of tions must be defended against proven ability and standing the counter-revolutionary schemes of the imperialists.

Revolutionary socialists have at the same time been the most consistent opponents of Stalinist rule and tireless fighters for workers' democracy. They oppose Stalinism because it derailed the masses from the forward march to socialism begun with the October 1917 Russian Rev-

The Stalinist bureaucracy which It fosters inequality; it is antipromoted/Great-Russian nation-

Capitalist restorationist elements will of course, seek to take advantage of any insurectionary movement against the

This is the surest way to comple into the old reactionary Poznan and East Germany course of Pilsudsky's Poland.

MASS AFRICAN BOYCOTT SHAKES BRITISH COLONY By William Bundy

We are hearing a great deal more these days about boycotts by oppressed peoples throughout the world. engaged considerable forces in a Whether the boycotts themselves have been spreading Montgomery movement, or boy- ern Rhodesia are among the cott news has simply been most brutally oppressed peoples bly it is a little bit of both. The latest boycott is now taking place in the British "protectorate" This gave the Nazis the time to of northern Rhodesia. The African drown in blood the uprising of Negroes there, who outnumber This sudden halt of the Soviet European and Indian shopkeepers of their contract." If they break to protest rude treatment.

According to Cyril Dunn, a correspondent for the London Observer whose report is reprinted in the June 22 New York Herald Tribune; "As a general rule, African customers are treated with discourtesy. Some shops will not even admit them, but compel them to wait outside until the shopkeeper can spare time to go to the door and be told what they want. At others there are special hatches through which Africans must give their orders. These are the conditions that are attacked in the immediate demands of the organization which is leading the boycott, the officially unrecognized African Nattional Congress.

"It would be naive to supoose," says Dunn, "that this widespread and immensely effective boycott is no more than a consumers campaign of which the African National Congress has simply assumed the direction. It is reasonable to guess that the campaign has a political mottive too. . . The native Africans of North-and which does not rule in their interest. In order to pay the taxes, they are forced to seek work in the copper mines and plantations where they are "held than ten to one, are boycotting tary servitude during the period the contract, that is quit their jobs, they are hunted down like criminals, jailed and fined. The miners wages averaged less than $7 per month in 1953. There is no indication of substantial wage increases since then. The June 30 Pittsburgh Courier reports that while the boycott movement proceeded apace, the native African Mine-workers Union called a limited three-day general strike to protest the monthly labor contracts. But the boycout movement is not for a limited period of time. Says Dunn; "The campaign itself, starting up in one town as it is closed down in another, has about it an air of grand strategy inconsistent with the limited objectives openly declared."

Still, the imperialist government has absolutely refused to recognize the Africans as a political entity. The white and Indian traders, suffering heavy financial losses, have demanded that the government disarm all Africans (the carrying of weapons as protection against wild beasts is common) in preparation for a campaign of violent repression of the boycott move-

ROSA LUXEMBURG (1871-1919) was the founder of the Polish Marxist movement and a leading figure in the left wing of the Second International. Her close collaborator, Adolf Warsky, was murdered by Stalin during the Moscow Trials along with the entire Central Committee of the Polish Communist Party.

There will no doubt be a bitter contest between the genuine revolutionists and reactionaries for final outcome will be determined in the struggle itself.

In favor of a revolutionary outcome is the fact that neither capitalist mor Stalinist reaction could afford the Poles' national against the bureaucracy will sucindependence. A solution of the ceed and at the same time guarnational question for Poland as antee the defeat of the imperialall other countries lies only on ist attempts to exploit the workthe socialist road. One thing is certain. The pres- tionary ends.

ent situation cannot endure. The discredited bureaucracy cannot long remain in power. It's attempts to gain support by renouncing Stalin serves only to direct attention to it's own complicity in Stalin's crimes. For Poland to be assured of a socialist future, the working masses must come to power in their own name and in pursuit of their own interest .

Poznan was a beginning stage of this struggle. It served to reveal all the component parts of the social conflict in Poland as well as internationally. It served to reveal the power of the workers' resistance to the bureaucracy as well as its weaknesses. Above all Poznan, like East Germany three years earlier, revealed the unpostponable need for a workers' vanguard party.

The Stalinists destroyed the old workers' parties. In their place there is only one partythe party of the bureaucracy. Stalinist terror has prevented so far the emergence of Marxist parties. But the revolutionary resurgence the countries of the influence over the masses. The Soviet orbit are now experiencing offers the greatest opportunity yet for the speedy reemergence of Bolshevik parties.

This is the next indispensable step to assure that the struggle ers' mass resistance for reac-

THE SOVIET UNION'S eco-

World Events

BRITISH AUTO LAYOFFS basis of language and cultural have resulted in a strike call affinities. Prime Minister Nehru against Britain's largest auto has been attempting to weaken claims to represent the masses in manufacturer, the British Motor the political power of the worktheir march to socialism is in Corporation. Four hundred auto ing class by a process of gerryreality anti-socialist to the core. union stewards demonstrated mandering the state lines. This outside the House of Commons has resulted in the outburst of democratic and tyrannical. It has July 9 calling for a strike against political strikes during the last the whole motor car industry. year in all parts of India. alism and abused the national A promise to support the strike aspirations of the many nation- against British Motors, which alities within the Soviet orbit. laid off 6,000 of its 55,000 work- nomic output, together with that Stalin's crimes have given aid ers on two days notice, came of the East European states. and comfort to world imperial- from the large Transport and will forge ahead of Western Europe's within the next two General Workers Union. decades at the present rate of INFLATION IN BRAZIL was growth. This prediction was made protested July 6 by 150,000 work- by Robert R. Bowie, Assistant ers in Brazil's southernmost state Secretary of State, July 10, at ed once again, this time on Polish Stalinist regime. They will try when they walked out in a 24- a New Jersey meeting of Soviet above all to exploit the national hour strike with the demand and American bankers. Bowie masses from the governments in feelings of the masses in order to that their $22 a month wages declared that the Soviet leadersubjugate them to the imperial- be raised to $44. They had been ship was "clearly counting on ists. Revolutionary Socialists do granted 2,700 cruzeiros ($34). this material progress to shift not close their eyes to this dan- However, the workers declare the balance of power in the days in Poznan revealed this ger. Socialists champion the le- that the inflationary spiral is world." cleavage most dramatically. But gitimate national grievances of moving upward even before the ed into the background. The natit is also part of everyday life. the Polish as well as other opnew salaries go into effect. A

AN AFRICAN-LANGUAGE Rio de Janeiro newspaper said newspaper in Kampala, Uganda that a family of five needed has been charged with "sedition" about 4,500 to live, and conclud- by the British colonial governed that in the capital of Brazil ment and a wave of prosecutions one lived "on stubbornness, ac- has followed in an attempt to cumulating hungers, debts and hold back Uganda's burning desire for self-government. The unsatisfied necessities." newspaper, Gambuze, (freely translated "The Answer") was FRANCO'S MINISTER OF translated ABOR, Jose A. Giron, promised fined for quoting, "All of us should strike for self-governcrease by fall. In a widely pubthe Spanish workers a wage inlicized speech July 8, he took home. The people of Uganda what the New York Times called should unite to clamor for self-"a surprisingly realistic approach to the problem." He advised the six million workers in the gove exterminated." Another paper, ernment-controlled "unions" to the Uganda Post, paid a fine seek the advice of the former for printing a letter with refleaders of the left-wing union erences to "racial discriminaorganizations outlawed by the fascist regime. "Those men," the Minister said, "the natural leaders of the workers in their communities. . . have the key to many solutions." These unprecedented remarks were regarded by close observors as efforts of the Franco regime to conciliate the turbulent workers movement which recently has waged illegal strike struggles in protest against inadequate wage concessions by the government.

A GENERAL STRIKE in Calcutta tied up the Indian seaport for ten hours July 7 in support of a demand that state lines be redrawn to unite the two sections of West Bengal, where Calcutta is the dominating city. This would require conceding a part of the state of Bihar and Calcutta workers demand that this be arranged by the governments of the two states on the

NEWARK

HEAR

Myra Tanner

Weiss

SWP Candidate

Vice-President and the

Khrushchev Report."

Sat., July 21 - 8:30 P. M.

52 Market St. - 2nd Floor

"Polish Uprising

San Francisco Militant Labor Forum "Which Course government and if we are to die

then we shall die until we are tion, being made to work like slaves and being, cheated in a cunning manner.

For The Colonial Revolution? Speaker: William Farrell riday, July 20 - 8:00 P. M. 307 So. Van Ness Ave. (near 14th St.) Donation: 25c.

Twin Cities "Behind the Uprising

In Poland." Speaker: Dorothy Schultz Friday, July 20 - 8:00 P. M. 10 South Fourth Street Minneapolis

Chicago "Revolt in Eastern Europe." Speaker: Bert Deck 777 W. Adams July 21 - 8:15 P. M. Questions — Discussion Refreshments Auspikes: Militant Labor Forum

United States. Khrushchev, Stalin's successor, only opened the door to criticism of the dead tyrant so the Russian bureaucrats could get the masses off their necks, but the workers stepped in and tore the door off its hinges.

The result has been exposes, admissions and confessions that have shaken up, the Communist parties throughout the world.

American Communists are no exception. After they recovered from the first shock of seeing the horns beneath Stalin's halo, many began to try to understand how they could have accepted so much on faith instead of testing the party's policies by scientific socialist standards.

Now, the more thoughtful are reevaluating past positions and actions of the party on American issues, as well as Russian and international questions.

One phase of the struggle against capitalism that requires careful re-examination is the Communist Party line on the Negro question. The whole history of the party's policies must now be reviewed from the standpoint of whether they were based on the needs and aspirations of the Negro struggle and the relationships of class forces, or on the needs of the Stalinist bureaucracy.

Was the slogan of "self-determination for the Negroes in the Black Belt" of the South and a Negro state in America valid, or was it a mechanical application of the demand of oppressed nationalities in of learning from past mistakes in order not to repeat them: were the policies of building or destroying a whole series of Negro struggle organizations designed to strengthen the Negro movement against Brooklyn Compass Club sym-Jim Crow, or to use it as a pawn in the bargaining between Moscow and Wall

Was it correct to dissolve the old Negro Defense League in 1938-39? To attack the March on Washington Movement in 1941? To condemn Negroes and the Socialist Workers Party for vigorously pressing the fight against Jim Crow during World War II?

Is it correct to advocate support of the Democratic Party of Eastland and Stevenson in 1956? Is this policy of class-collaboration going to advance the Negro struggle, or progress, or socialism one bit more than support of the other party of Negro Communists in particular, who have felt and expressed the conflict between the party line of supporting the Democratic Party, and the burning need to call for denunciation of both Jim Crow parties and formation of an independent labor party, should speak up.

It is not too late to rectify the current mistake, to adopt a principled position on political action in 1956.

"Crowded

There are 500,000 Puerto Ricans living in New York - most of them in overcrowded slums, exploited by landlords who cash in on prejudice since prejudice makes it tough for Puerto Ricans to find adequate apartments at reasonable prices. In New York discrimination against Puerto Ricans is as burning a problem as the Negro question, the struggle for the rights of Puerto Ricans as important as the struggle for the rights of the Negro.

"Crowded Paradise" is an independently produced motion picture about Puerto Ricans in New York and their enemies. Directed by Fred Pressburger, it was filmed on location in San Juan, Puerto Rico, and in New York. It is a good picture with fine performances by Hume Cronyn, Mario Alcade, Enid Rudd, Nancy Kelly, Frank Silvera — the story of a young Puerto Rican mechanic coming to New York in order to marry his fiancee and to make a living. We see him experience widespread discrimination and even a certain prejudice of his fiancee's father, a long-time Puerto Rican resident of New York, who is proud of the position he has conquered in 20 years of hard work and looks down on the newcomer. It is also the story of a janitor, an ex-con who hates Puerto Ricans and is linked to a racket dealing in Puerto Rican birth certificates.

How often do we hear people say: "This neighborhood is getting real bad with all those Puerto Ricans moving in!" A majority of the persons who say so does not even belong to the upper class, but to the petty-bourgeoisie who desperately try to keep up their bourgeois front and group cohesion and are afraid to be submerged by a proletarian wave; while some other Puerto Rican-haters — like the janitor in "Crowded Paradise" — are neurotics and degenerates suffering from an inferiority complex and glad to find a group they think they can look down upon.

point in "Crowded Paradise" is the role of the police. The police officer in this picture wants to help Puerto Ricans as much as he can. He shows genuine understanding and friendliness. Let us grant that there are a few police officers like him, but they are not typical: the New York police are not the Puerto Rican's ture. I wanted to find out how accurate a portrait of the Puerto Rican's life and problems in New York it is and asked a Puerto Rican's life and the United States. A Puerto Rican's life and asked a Puerto Rican's life and the United States. A Puerto Rican's life and asked a Puerto Rican's life and the United States. A Puerto Rican's life and asked Puerto Rican what she thought about "Crowded Paradise" after she had seen it. "It is true," she replied. "Things really are like that. It's a very fine picture."

I hope many people are going to see "Crowded Paradise" and to do some serious thinking about discrimination - especially those who like to affirm their belief in equality and civil rights, but who, the very next moment, tell you: "This neigh- any such approach to the rela-

Other judges use high bail as a form of punishment. The working-class youth generally can't raise the money, so he has to stay in jail while he waits for trial. One boy of 17, deserted by his parents, was supporting himself at a $40-a-week job.

He was arrested for going through a subway turnstile without paying. He couldn't raise bail and waited 25 days for trial. He was dismissed with a warning, but of wind up in jail because there's no other place to put them. There are no shelters, youth hostels or homes. Social service they can handle and nobody wants to start surveying and acquiring land for shelters but the Mayor concedes that this

In the meantime, when the Youth Court

Act goes into effect next February and youth cases are consolidated in the County

Courts, the court calendars will be even more crowded and "justice" will move will be hundreds of boys like Robert, who spent 65 days waiting for his case to come wasted. He said that while he was there he "learned an awful lot about how to course his job was gone.

will take many years.

commit crimes better."

Youth in Jail

By Joyce Cowley

Right now there are around 500 young people between the ages of 16 and 21 "detained" in New York City jails, according to a report by Gertrude Samuels in the New York Times. They are not prisoners, although they wear prison clothing and live in heavily barred six-by-eight foot cells, frequently in the same cell block with adult criminals. Young girls are sent to the Women's House of Detention where they share cells with convicted prostitutes and narcotics pushers.

These youngsters may be awaiting trial, or a court transfer, or a formal complaint from the injured party. A judge may be investigating their cases. Sometimes the youth's crime is homelessness, and the only spot for him while waiting for "placement" is the city jail.

One reason for detention is that some judges feel sending these boys to jail for a few days will "do them good." It's an obvious violation of their constitutional rights, but the Times points out that most of them come from "the city poor" and can't afford a lawyer.

The courts are slow, and a great many delays occur because the staff is too small to take care of investigations and paper work. There are fifteen different courts that deal with youth problems, and each judge decides for himself whether a youth will be treated as a criminal or non-criminal offender. The tough type like Judge Samuel Leibowitz considers it "soft-headed insanity" to classify youth as such just because of their age. "Many are punks . . . who can give older criminals hearts and spades in this business."

Europe to this continent?

More important from the point of view

Big Business, the Republicans?

THE MILITANT

VOLUME XX MONDAY, JULY 16, 1956

McAvoy's Speech at Brooklyn Symposium

for mayor of New York, at the States. posium, June 24. The symposium gressmen that I have run across, presidential candidate of the Soas it was in 1936 when I was one field of political action. I have ence as a vice-chairman of the CIO Political Action Committee, duties which converted ence as a vice-chairman of the duties which consisted of going from state to state, city to city and county to county building political action committees in local unions, international unions on a state and county level. And in trying to interest the workers first of all in taking an active part in politics of any kind, whether capitalist or socialist.

By Clifford T. McAvoy

Now I approach this question of working class policy in the 1956 elections from the other end from which Mr. Dobbs approached it. I believe he approached it sofar as he spoke from theory I In my opinion the only questionable side of it I would first start with

> What can labor do, what can elections to advance the cause of constructive interrelationship between the two greatest countries in the world. Because I that kind of approach.

VOTE FOR DOBBS

Is there any candidate now or the horizon or likely to be nomithe horizon or likely to be nominated by either the Democratic or Republican parties who has any such approach to the relamentary su very next moment, tell you: "This neighborhood is getting real bad with all those borhood is getting real bad with all those Puerto Ricans moving in!"

any such approach to the relationship between the United States and the Soviet Union? Of course the question answers itself. For that reason I per-lated any such approach to the relationship between the United States and the Soviet Union? Of course the question answers itself. For that reason I per-lated any such approach to the relationship between the United States and the Soviet Union? Of course the question answers itself. For that reason I per-lated any such approach to the relationship between the United States and the Soviet Union? Of course the question answers itself. For that reason I per-lated any such approach to the relationship between the United States and the Soviet Union? Of course the question answers itself. For that reason I per-lated any such approach to the relationship between the United States and the Soviet Union? Of course the question answers itself. For that reason I per-lated any such approach to the relationship between the United States and the Soviet Union? Of course the question answers itself. For that reason I per-lated any such approach to the relationship between the United States and the Soviet Union? Of course the question answers itself. For that reason I per-lated any such approach to the relationship between the United States and the United States and the Soviet Union? Of course the question answers in other countries have engaged in similar publishing programs and we have always co-operated with the U.S. suffers danger of subversion from an international less reduced to those organizations that have been given a late of the properties and the U.S. suffers danger of the U.S. suffers the candidate on the Socialist financial resources are meager before World War II — an abuse elections. [Applause]

I do so even though I agree with the foreign policy platform of the Socialist Workdescribe it to you—a constructive peaceful coexistence of a long lasting interrelationship between the two countries. With peaceful competition in the economic field as well as the cultural field. Because I believe fundamentally in socialism I have no doubt as to the final outcome of such The majority of these young people peaceful competition.

But first of all we must attain a situation where such competition is possible. And the first step in that direction is of course agencies already have more cases than a multilateral, that is universal disarmament of all the countries of the world, with the abolition board youngsters accused of crime or of nuclear weapons, the abolition prostitution. According to Mayor Wagner: of the H-bomb, the A-bomb and "The judges themselves, to my know- of all types of nuclear weapons ledge, haven't asked for new buildings or by both the Soviet Union and the United States and all of the demanded shelters for this group." Money other lesser countries through has been allocated in the 1956 budget to the United Nations. [Applause]

The second greatest issue, on which of course peace depends and all other issues depend, is the issue of civil liberties, the issue here in America of the Bill of Rights of the United States that any one of us should supand that means complete freethought, freedom of association, to trial. But then, as Robert himself ad- freedom of meeting for every mitted, the time in jail was not entirely single political position now rep- the lag in payments arises from resented in the United Statesof course first of all the Com- ties and not from any lack of munist Party because that is the enthusiasm for the project. We most persecuted party in the Uni- are confident that, as in topic was: Working Class Pol- and I've had a considerable assoicy in the 1956 Elections. Other ciation with congressmen for speakers were: Farrell Dobbs, some 15 years, who take that unequivocal position of full sup-Du Bois, historian and educator full freedom for political opinand David Goldway, executive ion for every political party. secretary of the Jefferson School. Where there is a congressman In the last two issues of the who has the courage of his condoctrinaire and refuse to suplican ticket. But I certainly would of the founding members of the not advocate coalition with a American Labor Party, that la- congressional candidate on the bor must have its own party, that Democratic ticket who supports there is no possibility in any the Humphrey Act, the Commuultimate sense, of labor obtain- nist Control Act, who supports ing any goal by supporting can- the McCarran Subversive Activididates of either the Republican ties Control Act, who supports or the Democratic Party. I say the McCarran-Walter Immigrathis not as a theoretician, be- tion Act. I would demand an untheoretician. In fact I should every candidate for Congress in try. [Applause] How can we ad- tion, and to an end of discrimina- party to build an independent probably plead guilty to being New York City [Applause] be- vocate coalition with such a party tion of all kinds right here in American Labor Socialist Party.

Now there are very few con-

cialist Workers Party, W.E.B. port of the Bill of Rights with that depends our existence or ican ideals than absolute first American Labor Party by prob-Militant we published the speech- victions to take such a position, this country and the monopolists the minority groups. [Applause] dependent labor party was never es of Farrell Dobbs and David then I don't think we should be can continue to perpetuate the port such a congressman if he tainly right behind those two State Assembly or State Senate, now and November, 1956? Well happens to be running on the great questions comes the ques- whether he be on the Republican I think most of us regardless of ... It is my conviction today, Democratic ticket or the Republican of civil rights which is also or Democratic ticket, again an what political parties we now be-EASTLAND? cause I don't consider myself a equivocal opinion on the part of Democratic Party in this coun- schools and colleges of the na- not all fighting in the same advocacy, nothing can change in Rican people and people of all party, when the need for an insituation as it is today. But cer- candidate for Congress or for the a constitutional question.

COALITION WITH

How can we support any po-

the speech made by Clifford T. and including every other sin- ing can be more fundamental affairs that the most progressive, bama. . McAvoy, former ALP candidate gle political party in the United than the Bill of Rights to the if one can use that term in con-Constitution. What could possi- nection with these gentlemen, of to begin the building of the lably be more American than that? the delegates to the Democratic bor party. . . In my opinion his-And then of course the great convention will at best advocate tory will show that one of the question of civil rights. It's very appearement of the Dixiecratwing greatest mistakes that was made difficult to say which of these of that party. There is no cause by the radical movement in the questions comes first. Peace I | in the United States today more | last 20 years was the deliberate think must come first because on holy to the realization of Amer and conscious liquidation of the our annihilation. And civil lib- class citizenship without any ably a majority of the present erties should probably come next qualifications whatsoever for the members of that party when the because without the freedom of Negro people and the Puerto need for an independent political

And we should demand of a unqualified, an unqualified supzenship in Montgomery, Alaba- deserves the highest credit for litical party which has as the ma; for complete, unqualified initialting this kind of discussion. Chairman of the Senate Judiciary support for carrying out in acts It is a matter of great regret to Committee the unspeakable Sen- the desegregation decision of the me; it's a matter of sorrow, that ator Eastland of Mississippi, one Supreme Court with respect to all four of us here tonight, alof the leading members of the the public schools, and the though we have differences, are somewhat of a pragmatist in the fore I would give him any sup- when it's perfectly obvious to our own city, without bothering [Applause]

City

Chileago

Detroit

Newark

New York

Philadelphia

St. Louis

Seattle

Buffalo

Boston

Oakland

Akron

General

Cleveland

Affentown

Twin - Oitties

San Francisco

Los Angeles

Youngstown

NUMBER 29

greater than it is today. . . What can we do then between long to should begin to initiate port of the militant, brave and discussions of this kind. And I courageous fight of the people of think the Brooklyn Compass Montgomery for first class citi- Club, as my colleagues have said,

$ 60.00

822.00

210.00

365.00

450.00

100.00

102.00

1,239.00

25.00

85.00

500.00

85.00

52.00

80.00

1,477.00

Percent

62

60

55

45

40

31

29

28

17 13

As our scoreboard shows, payments to the Socialist Publication Campaign Fund is substantially behind schedule. With the drive two-thirds over, collections to date represent but 41-percent of 9-the goal. During the past several weeks surmounted and that the entire the rate of contributions has fund will be collected by the stepped up. Needless to say, if August 15 deadline. the quota is to be completed on This confidence was boosted schedule this process must be this week when a good friend from the theoretical end and in- accelerated even more sharply. from Connecticut came into our With one month to go in the office for a visit this week and think he is entirely correct. But drive, every supporter of the left $50 for the fund with the in speaking from the practical Fund will really have to pitch explanation that while we do not in to make up for the slow start. at present have an organized any American do in the 1956 gram has always been of pri-derstand the special need for mary importance. Over the years financial ammunition today and peace. When I say peace I don't we have continually strained our are intent on doing their share mean static peace, the kind of financial and technical resources to help provide it. peace which exists now between to publish and circulate the writhe United States and the So- tings of the great Marxist think-and in actuality we have never been able to fully meet the decoexistence unless it includes long out of print and have long the so-called "security" program sonally shall cast my vote for them on this. But while our own Republican administrations since by membership alone. Workers Party ticket in the 1956 they are even more so in other English-speaking countries, and sion in the ranks of the Com- the security "risk" program. It regain some of their traditional and fair hearings, although that coexistence, as I have tried to munist Party and the radical proposes a 75% reduction of the liberties. So far the voice of is clearly on the rise again." movement generally as a result numbers of employes covered by the New York Bar Association of the new revolutionary developments in the Soviet orbit the "risk" program, limiting is only one more expression of the growing popular demand for tutional rights that is involved requests for Trotsky's works has in actually sensitive jobs. Among an end to the persecution of in the witch hunt, are reluctant sharply increased. From every other categories the committee people for their political ideas. to propose the full restoration of part of the country and from proposes to eliminate altogether CONCERN FOR WORLD abroad comes reports of members and supporters of the Com- existence of the Port Security munist Party now turning to Program. Trotsky in their search for a COLE CASE DECISION Marxist explanation of the degeneration of the Soviet Union.

We are now expending a maxithrough the pages of The Militant the chapter from The Revolution Betrayed on Socialism and the State, while working on plans to re-issue the book itself. When we launched the current publications fund two months ago the special need for a stepped-Constitution. . . I don't believe up publications program was understood by all. Each day that port any candidate for Congress has passed since that time has if he does not take an unequivocal underscored the urgency of this even more slowly than in the past. There position on the Bill of Rights, project. And that means of course the special need to complete the dom of speech, freedom of fund drive in full and on time.

Correspondence from througha variety of individual difficul-

| past, such difficulties will be

Throughout the history of our group in his area, the supportmovement, the publications pro- ers of our movement there un-

.The conservative New York Bar Association through mands for his works. A whole its nine-member Special Committee on the Federal Loyaltythink there can be no peaceful series of his writings have been Security Program July 8 published its 301-page report on

In assuming the obligation for the continued circulation of Trot-

maritime screening, ending the OPINION

Earlier, June 11, the U.S. Supreme Court ruled that the Eisenhower administration had exmum effort to make available ceeded its authority by submitagain the many works of Trot- ting "non-sensitive" federal em sky which are indispensable for ployes to security screening. In the present discussion, and are the case of Kendrick M. Cole the using every means at our dis- court declared that congress inposal to do so as quickly as pos- tended to cover jobs only "disible. We have reprinted already rectly concerned with the nahis pamphlet on the Kirov As- tion's safety." U.S. Attorney sassination. We made available General Herbert Brownell in the meantime is currently attempting to hold on to his witch-hunt powers by pushing legislation through Congress which would nullify the effect of the Court's

> Among some of the recommendations of the New York Bar Committee are: continuing

A One-Year Subscription to THE MILITANT Only $3

116 University Pl., N. Y. 3, N. Y.

$16,175.00 $6,770,50 Totals viet Union, but a constructive peace which includes the exchange of delegations on every change of delegations on every

Fund Scoreboard

650.00

825.00

300.00

400.00

1.760.00

3.300.00

commanded top prices from outof-print dealers when available.

In assuming the obligation for

The report claims that 25,000 er administration, the witch- U.S. abroad, injured employes that has meant a special obliga-tion for us in this historic work. The report claims that 25,000 hunt would be seriously curtailed morale and blunted "our national hunt would be seriously curtailed and the American people would concern with freedom of speech Today, with the great discus- have been put under a cloud by and the American people would concern with freedom of speech the report says, but as "a continuing appeal to the oppressed in every land," Just as the Big Business rulers of this country are embarrassed by the specter insurgent people in the colonial world, so these Big Business legal advisors are embarrassed by the destruction of civil liberties at home when they are trying to that has been steadily growing, to be accepted by the Eisenhow- ment, hurt the reputation of the

These lawyers, who know the civil liberties. They confine their attack on the government "risk" program to the more obvious It is interesting to note that abuses, It will take an aroused prominent among the considera- labor movement to end the police tions of the lawyers' Committee powers grabbed up by the capiis its concern for the appearance talist politicians by eliminating of U.S. liberty abroad. Liberty altogether the dictatorial instimust be upheld not only here, tution of a "subversive" list.

Detroit Fri. Night Socialist Forum

Fri. July 13: - No Forum

Friday July 20 - 8 P. M.

Rita Shaw

Socialist Workers Party candidate for governor of Michigan

"Can the Democratic Party Be Reformed?"

Hear why the Democrats cannot solve the economic and social problems of the workers 3737 Woodward, 2nd Floor

NEW YORK

HEAR

Myra Tanner Weiss

SWP Candidate

Vice-President "America's Road To Socialism -Class Struggle or Class Collaboration?" Questions and Discussion Fri., July 20 - 8:30 P. M.

Adelphi Hall 74 Fifth Ave. (near 14th St.)

Followed by Open House at 116 University Place