
Fraina to Discuss New Party Policies

[published March 1, 1919]

Unsigned news report in Socialist News [Cleveland], v. 5, whole no. 222 (March 1, 1919), pg. 3.

Louis C. Fraina, editor of The Revolutionary Age and associate editor of The Class Struggle, will speak at three meetings in Cleveland during the coming week. Fraina has just been released from the Essex County Jail, New Jersey, where he served a sentence of 30 days for making speeches in opposition to conscription in 1917.

The first meeting at which Fraina will speak will be an international meeting. In addition to the English address there will be speeches in Russian, by A. Bilan, and in German by Joseph Jodtbauer. This meeting will be held Sunday afternoon [March 2, 1919], beginning at 2:30.

On Tuesday [March 4] and Wednesday [March 5], Fraina will deliver two lectures dealing with Socialist policies and tactics. The lecture on Tuesday night will be on "The Third International" (withdrawn from Berne). In this lecture the speaker will discuss the new alignment of the forces of the working class movement in their international relations and advocate the formation of a new international, made up of the militant and revolutionary organizations of the working class.

The second lecture, on Wednesday night, will have as its subject "The Proletarian Dictatorship" (lessons of the Russian Revolution). The experience of the workers of Russia in their struggle against autocracy and capitalism has thrown much light upon the tactics which the workers must use in the fight for their emancipation. The speaker will use these experiences to show the road that the working class movement here must travel in order to make itself effective in the same struggle.

The three meetings are considered of unusual importance and it is expected that they will bring out as big audiences as have attended any Socialist meetings recently. Fraina, through his articles in The Revolutionary Age and The Class Struggle, has won deserved renown as a Socialist thinker and his speeches are awaited with great interest.

All of the meetings will be held at Remeny's Hall, 5505 Woodland, near E 55th Street. For the international mass meeting on Sunday another hall in the neighborhood is being held in reserve to take care of an overflow meeting. It was the desire of the organization to secure a more central location for the lectures, but no downtown halls could be secured because previous engagements had been made for the dates desired.

Edited by Tim Davenport.

Published by 1000 Flowers Publishing, Corvallis, OR, 2011. • Non-commercial reproduction permitted.