

Battle or Life of French Franc in Paris as King Faces Labor Government in London

George V Talks of U. S. Ban as Rule of Tories Totters in Citadel of English Imperialism

Labor Wins First Parliamentary Clash

LONDON.—Labor was victorious in the first clash in the Commons when the new house, with labor represented by 100 members occupying the front benches, symbolic of the official opposition, entered upon the business of forming committees. Stanley Baldwin proposed James Hope for the chairmanship of the Ways and Means Committee.

J. Ramsay MacDonald, leader of the Labor Party, was on his feet immediately. Declaring that the House had met under exceptional circumstances, he said he believed it would be "a profound pity" if the House voted on Baldwin's motion. Whereupon the Premier withdrew his proposal.

(Special to "The Daily Worker")

LONDON.—The fateful session of Parliament, which may see ascension to power within a week of Great Britain's first labor government, was opened in state today by King George, who delivered a speech from the throne at noon.

As His Majesty's address was read to the assembled houses, there were crowded at the bar of the House of Lords, while the Commons are summoned for such occasion, nearly 200 Labor M. P.'s, who expect this time next week to be occupying front benches with Ramsay MacDonald as Prime Minister.

Elbow to elbow with them were the more familiar figures of Parliament, former Prime Ministers Lloyd George and H. H. Asquith, leaders of the Liberal Party, and their followers, and Stanley Baldwin and Robert Home and the conservatives whose day in power has just about run.

There was a tendency to listen attentively to the King's words; it is an approving of the speech that the vote of confidence in Baldwin's government will be taken.

Among the few affairs touched upon in the speech from the throne, King George declared:

"My ministers, together with the Dominion representatives, have been anxious to remove the difficulty regarding illicit importation of liquor into the British Isles, and have made proposals for an agreement which is on the eve of conclusion. This should further strengthen the happy relations prevailing between the two countries and peoples."

ILLINOIS MINERS PREPARING FOR BIG CONVENTION

Preliminary Meet Held at St. Louis, Ill.

(Special to "The Daily Worker")

EAST ST. LOUIS, Ill.—Miners delegates from many sections of Illinois assembled at a preliminary meeting for the purpose of formulating plans for the National Convention of the United Mine Workers of America, which convenes at Indianapolis January 22nd. All indications point to the fact that this gathering will be the most important convention ever held.

Those who attended the meeting, here, and some of them traveled far, had a definite understanding of the problems affecting the United Mine Workers of America. The issues raised by the Progressive Miners Committee were discussed and many of the delegates reported that relations dealing with the important subjects had met with the unanimous approval of their respective local unions.

As is customary in such gatherings, the inevitable was present with a joke. One of the delegates pronounced that the local passed a resolution calling upon the United Mine Workers of America to increase the size of the Mine Workers' Journal. This astounding proposal almost threw the meeting into an uproar. They evidently feared that considering the ability of Mr. Elihu Searles, to make of the Journal a dumping ground for all the pro-capitalist rubbish he can rack up or purchase, if they were increased in size the opportunities for harm would be greater.

But as the delegate read the resolution, anger turned to laughter. "We object to the Journal," read the resolution, "in its present size and want it enlarged so that we can make better dumps out of it."

The chief use of the Mine Workers' Journal has been for the "damning" and for the benefit of those who do not care to be better dumped out of it.

Boost Daily Herald as British Labor Climbs to Power

"A million readers for the Daily Herald" is the slogan raised by British Labor Party on the eve of its tabling power.

Much assistance has been given the Daily Herald since the last meeting of the Trades Union Congress, most of it of a financial nature. The present campaign developed an intense canvass of the members of the British Labor movement with the object of making every dayworker a member of the official organ.

Commenting on the need for an enormous circulation, The Daily Herald said:

"The dangers of misrepresentation multiply as we increase our strength. The nearer we get to the seat of power, the more insistent and unscrupulous will our opponents become. Their most powerful weapon is the press and we can remove this condition only if our supporters will buy our own paper."

"Help us get the million circulation and we will supply, not one paper, but several."

MELLON, THE MILLIONAIRES' FRIEND

He is Secretary of U. S. Treasury for a Purpose.

Pointers on the Mellon Tax Scheme

If Congress should adopt the Mellon tax scheme the Secretary of the Treasury himself would save about $2,000,000 by it.

There are 162 taxpayers who pay on small incomes of $200,000 to $500,000 totaling all told $31,559,810. There are 63 who have annual incomes ranging from half a million to a million dollars, amounting all together to $25,112,090. Twenty-two persons pay taxes on incomes of more than $1,000,000 a year.

To these 245 taxpayers representing the most powerful bankers and manufacturers in the country and paying $88,391,446 in taxes the Mellon plan will mean an annual saving of $45,000,000.

If the Mellon plan is adopted by Congress it will mean a saving of about $190,000,000 to each of these big capitalists.

"Are we for the Mellon plan? YES!" says the chorus of Wall Street financial and industrial kings.

"Am I for the Mellon plan? Of Course!" says President Coolidge, the Chief Executive link between the White House and the Stock Exchange.

GRABLE, DEPOSED FAKER, PROPOSED FOR LABOR BOARD

Senate Radicals Fight Board, Nominations.

WASHINGTON.—A new progressive effort to force down freight rates on farm products was begun in the Senate today.

Senator La Follette, progressive leader, demanded in a resolution that the Interstate Commerce Commission be ordered to cut rates on all farm products to pre-war level.

The resolution was referred to the Interstate Commerce Committee of the Senate of which Senator Smith, Democrat, is chairman.

The first tilt between progressives and the regulars in the committee, came over nominations sent by President Coolidge for places on the Railroad Labor Board and the Interstate Commerce Commission.

Progressive want the board abolished and they resented the appointments proposed by the administration for continuing its powers. But they permitted the Labor Board nomination to slip thru the Senate Interstate Commerce Committee.

Favorable action was taken on the nomination of E. P. Grable, Michigan, who betrayed the Maintenance of Way strike; Horace Baker, Ohio, and Edwin F. McGraw, Kentucky, to be members of the board.

One of the first legislative steps of the new committee undoubtedly will be repeal of the Pullman Baggage and Transportation Surcharge rates. No less than six amendments have been put before the committee on this subject.

FALL GETS SICK IN FACE OF OIL LAND DEAL PROBE

Declines to Discuss Sinclair's Favors

(Special to "The Daily Worker")

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla.—Secretary of the Interior A. H. Fall said that the only reason he has not appeared before a senate committee investigating the leasing by the department of the interior of public oil lands is that he is sick. Fall is registered at his hotel under another name.

He declined to say where he got the money with which to buy a $25,000 ranch in New Mexico at a time when he was known to be in hard straits financially. He also refused to comment on his "purchase" of live stock from Harry Sinclair, a lot of brood stock for $12,000, and that the freight Sinclair paid amounted to $11,500.

Mr. Fall recently made a trip to Soviet Russia in the interests of Sinclair. It is understood.

Ozka reports estimate a total of 50 killed and between 200 and 300 injured in the quake zone.

French Currency Toboggans as Financiers Withdraw Support from the Poincare Government

Up and Down, Goes French Franc

PARIS.—The French franc reacted today in anticipation of desperate Government measures and gained a bit, being quoted at 22.42 to the dollar, compared with its close Monday at 22.76.

Bankers, among whom alarm spread swiftly as the hours saw near-panic scenes and there seemed no limit to the franc's drop, expect that the depreciated exchange may continue to gain slowly, if the Government's measures prove effective. If not, it is believed the slump will be resumed.

(Special to "The Daily Worker.")

PARIS.—All taxes in France are to be raised 20 per cent and the severest measures of economy in public services put into effect, as part of the cabinet's program of financial adjustment to bolster up the franc.

The program, which also includes adjournments of all such projects as pensions and bonuses, will be introduced in the Chamber of Deputies Thursday.

The sensational news of a franc marks the collapse of Premier Poincare's efforts to dominate Europe and single-handedly crush the Germans. The pyramid of power in Paris is tottering. France is face to face with a bankruptcy's realities.

The suddenness of the crisis is due to loss of confidence in the Poincare ministry by French business men and financiers. They are selling their domestic securities and are investing in dollars, anticipating the drags. Their mad scramble to get out under has had an artificial effect in depreciating the franc before its time.

Premier Poincare bowed to state of the debate until after the French elections next spring to safeguard his political future. The panic now under way, however, may get entirely out of hand and compel a ministerial change almost overnight.

The signs in Paris are the same as they were in Berlin at the beginning of the collapse of the mark. France has begun to arrest foreign speculation as Germany did; there are hurried mobilizations of financial officials; closing of exchanges is threatened; market quotations are beginning to be withheld. All these activities are meant to create an impression that conspirators are at work artificially to drive the franc down.

As a matter of fact, only one cause can depreciate any nation's currency. It is the same cause that destroys an individual's credit. It consists of paying out more money than is being taken in. In the French government it is not paper but real money that is not sufficient to meet expenses. The deficit for the coming year is estimated at twelve billion francs. Yet, in the face of this poverty-stricken sign, a name has just loaned 500,000,000 francs to Poland to bind those countries to her as military allies. This is the Poincare policy of matching empty coffers with preparations for another war.

The Collapse Was Inevitable.

Collapsing has been inevitable from the first, for Premier Poincare is like a merchant who has added a story to his building to equal each year's deficit.

As some temporary juggling, it is barely possible the French government may arrest for the moment the franc's fall. But whatever device is to be taken can only have a temporary effect. There is no permanent cure for France except to increase taxation and reduce the war indemnity to a sum Germany can pay. The longer this is delayed the worse will be the eventual catastrophe.

The best sign that it may not be long delayed is the desperate effort of French capital to get out of the country as German capital fled from Germany at the sign of the tottering mark. French financiers realize the inevitable is upon them and the politicians must soon take notice. For in the background is M. Clemenceau, who predicts that it is only a question of time before the franc will be replaced by the franc of the franc.

The French Chamber of Deputies gave Premier Poincare's government, today, confidence in the afternoon 388 to 189, on the question of drastic government measures to arrest the fall of the franc.

NEEDLE WORKERS IN NEW YORK FIGHT FOR AGREEMENT

Quit Work for Eleven Obstinate Bosses

(By the Federation Press)

NEW YORK.—Domestic workers employed in the garment industry have now done their best and are in a strike to enforce existing agreements. Negotiations for a settlement have been opened but an understanding has not yet been reached.

Commenting upon this conflict, the Amalgamated Clothing Workers of America, states that most of the employers involved in this dispute seem unable to learn from experience that an agreement is effective for the entire period for which it is written and that the mere opening of a new season does not mean a new agreement.

The Joint Board is determined this time to make it unmistakably both to manufacturers and contractors that the program of enforcing the agreement in the market and safeguarding the public thru the maintenance of union conditions in the garment industry is being carried out to the letter.

It is stated at union headquarters that the employers' offensive is due to a desire to exploit the present abnormal unemployment. An attempt to lower wages and working standards at a moment when jobs are at a premium is believed by the employers to stand an excellent chance of success. The Union differs with this assumption and is now struggling to defeat the employers' campaign.

He Will Speak at Big N. Y. Mass Meeting

NEW YORK CITY, Frank P. Walsh, former United States Senator and ex-Governor of Massachusetts, will speak at the big mass meeting of the Workers Party of America, which will be held in the Waldorf Astoria Hotel, New York City, on Sunday, January 12, 1936.

Walsh's statement made to the Friends of Soviet Russia reads: "The workers of Germany with their wives and children are suffering most acutely from the starvation which is the result of the war, with all the horrors that such a starvation entails. With cruel indifference the world has looked on. Subsequently, perhaps, our own country, always generous to suffering humanity, may have visioned them, as I do now, people. No one could be so base today as to have such a conscious deliberate thought.

"With millions of honest working people, peace loving and patriotic upon the brink of death in Germany, it is my hope that the workers of America, roused to action, will pour their aid into Germany so promptly, and in such a generous fashion, as to surpass every previous subsidy of generosity.

Signed: Frank P. Walsh. The mass meeting at Cooper Union, Sunday afternoon, January 12, at 7:30 p. m., will be held in the Waldorf Astoria Hotel, New York City, on Sunday, January 12, 1936.

Capitalists Come To United States As Europe Totters

The capitalist being a good internationalist who loves all countries equally provided he receives his money profitably in them, Babson says America where the prospect of a revolution appears to be away beyond the horizon.

The European capitalists are busily engaged in transferring their holdings to America in one form or another. This is capital flight. There is flow of native land disappears as soon as the workers have the chance to provide them with luxury and ease.

Workers Party Fights Bosses' Attack on the Foreign-Born

The Central Executive Committee of the Workers Party of America has issued a statement calling on all workers native and foreign-born to support the Workers Party for its fight against the bosses' attack on the foreign-born workers and "selective immigration."

These proposed laws, the Workers Party declares, are part of a new attack on the labor movement. The bosses are trying to smash the labor movement by establishing the open shop and cutting down the wages of the workers.

The statement calls upon native and foreign-born workers to unite to organize a Central Committee for Protection of Foreign-Born Workers to fight the laws which would strip away the rights of the foreign-born workers.

Resist Attacks on the Foreign-Born

At a meeting of leaders of the Language Federations of the Workers Party held Thursday, January 10, plans were outlined for an extensive campaign for the protection of the foreign-born workers in the United States.

MENTIONING THE MOVIES

"Speelack's" Good Travel Picture. The fourteen-month honeymoon voyage of a young couple on the ninety-foot yacht "Speelack" has been recorded in a really fine film of its kind.

The photograph is superb and the pictures of the outlandish places visited are interesting as well as instructive. The tiling is just a little too well done so well that one can see the mechanism at work. For instance, gears are labeled "head hunters" and "cannibals" without any pictorial evidence to support the charge and the way to clean the propeller and a group of blacks running toward the camera and toward the beach. Probably they are some back and at the camera man for dessert.

That such "non-technical" pictures are being shown in the biggest theaters is a big comment to the moviegoers. They keep in close touch with the moviegoers. Truth telling pictures are being shown and they are being shown in the only place where they have any feeling, at the box office.

Greeting Out of Germany

We print below the translation of a letter of greeting to the Daily Worker by August Thalheimer, the intellectual leader of the German Communist Party. We will print his article which is mentioned in the letter and the exaggerated overstatement of the moment for the sake of revolutionary activity this Communist leader does not forget us and (Daily Worker).
