HARDING LETTERS PROPEL COOLIDGE LED

Solid Opposition to Delay of May 30th Conference

HARDING AND HIS CABINET ALL IN OILY MESS

Administration Rocked by New Exposures

(Special to The Daily Worker)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 23.—The late President Harding and his entire cabinet, including Coolidge, were drawn into the Teapot Dome scandal today when Senator Walsh, Montana, read to the Senate two letters which disclosed that President Harding had complete knowledge of the plans of Secretary of the Interior Fall to lease naval oil reserves to private oil interests and that this policy had his full endorsement and approval.

The whole matter was repeatedly discussed at meetings of the Harding cabinet. President Coolidge in a statement issued a few days ago denied responsibility on the ground that the oil leases had not been discussed in cabinet meetings.

Walsh's dramatic disclosures were made soon after the cabinet meeting today. Walsh began by charging that Fall was not alone responsible for leasing of the oil reserves, which has since developed into the greatest scandal since the Fallinger-Pitchot controversy.

Walsh then read in support of his charges a letter Fall wrote President Harding in which Fall said the whole policy was discussed by the Harding cabinet.

Whole cabinet involved
A letter from Mr. Harding transmitting to the Senate Fall's letter and other data regarding the Teapot Dome and other leases, disclosed that Mr. Harding included in responsibility for the leasing policy not only Fall and secretary of the Navy Denby, but himself. He said the whole question of policy involved had been submitted to him in advance on its adoption and that it had at all times had his complete approval.

"We have it upon the word of Secretary Fall that before these leases were created, not only the leases themselves but also questions of legality of the leases was discussed before the cabinet," said Walsh.

"If an fully appreciative of the fact that anything said by former Secretary Fall of anything in the said must be taken with a certain degree of doubt."

The Teapot Dome scandal was transferred today from the investigating committee to the floor of the Senate where the Walsh-Caraway resolution for immediate cancellation of the Teapot Dome and California No. 1 leases was to be presented, with a demand for its adoption.

Panic in Old Guard Ranks
Unless unexpected pressure is applied to prevent administration members from voting for the resolution, it will be adopted. The only possibility of its defeat or postponement lay in the fact that some administration leaders thought congressional action should be taken.

SOME WHITE WASH JOB THIS TIME

It'll Prove Too Big, Even for Coolidge.

Need Coolidge to Prevent Changes, Schaub Declares

VIENNA.—Calvin Coolidge is the choice of Charles M. Schaub, president of the United States, as a commercial mission here.

Conditions in America are too prosperous to make a change desirable, Mr. Schaub continued. His only complaint was at the lack of surplus labor. The employment condition would care for buyers of labor, the visitor said, he believed, when the proposed bill for selective immigration, went thru, permitting admission of efficient workers and rejecting "undesirables."

Defrauded More Millions.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 23.—Alleging that citizens of 15 states have been defrauded of millions through Texas land companies holding property in the lower Rio Grande district, Senator Heflin, Alabama, today introduced a resolution for a senate investigation. R. B. Cramer, republican, national committeeman from Texas, is president of one of the companies.

Twin City Labor Opposes All Postponement of May 30th Meet to Suit the Plans of the Politicians

(Special Correspondence to The Daily Worker)
Minneapolis, Minn.—The proposal to postpone the National Farmer-Labor convention, called for May 30th, at St. Paul, to suit the convenience of politicians who still remain in the republican and democratic parties, is the most determined opposition of the militant and progressive elements of the Twin-City labor movement.

Practically every industrial leader and Farmer Assembly has already declared himself against the postponement. The danger of dissolving the class movement of the city workers and exploited farmers into a Bull Moose badge-peddle dominated by cast-off politicians from the capitalist parties, is clearly seen, and the supporters of the genuine-class party have sounded the alarm and taken steps to exert all their strength to prevent it.

A conference of twenty leading labor progressives held here last night voted unanimously to oppose postponement and appointed a committee to inform William Mahoney of their attitude and to request him to stand firm for the holding of the Farmer-Labor convention before the conventions of the republican and democratic parties.

Active Unionists Approve Delay of Convention
"We want as broad a movement as possible" said R. D. Cramer, editor of the Minneapolis Labor Review, "but it must be built on the strong foundation of the class interests of the city workers and the working farmers. The new party must be neither a sect nor a swamy. It must be a rank and file movement controlling its leaders and a group of politicians manhandling a mass of workers and farmers for their own advantage."

DENVER F. L. P. MEET BOOST FOR MAY 30

Opposed to Any Delay or Any Exclusions

(Special to The Daily Worker)
DENVER, Col.—The farmer-labor conference of western and southwestern states closed an enthusiastic two days' session here today. It adopted unanimously a resolution endorsing the St. Paul conference, on May 30, endorsed the plan for a united front of all workers' and farmers' organizations and sent the following telegram to Senators Johnson and Shipstead, and to William Mahoney, refusing assent to the proposed postponement of the May 30th conference:

"Conference Farmer-Labor representatives western and southwestern states in session Denver today unanimously opposed any delay in this Farmer-Labor party convention called May 30th. Twin Cities shall proceed under call as announced."

"Signed: Morten, Chairman, "McArthur, Secretary."
The following is the text of the resolution endorsing the St. Paul conference:

"Regional conference western and southwestern states, Farmer-Labor party of United States, sends greetings to Farmer-Labor organizations and progressive groups in states not represented and expresses hope and belief that in present muddled economic and corrupt political conditions of country there may be no obstacles to complete unification of progressive farmer-labor efforts now in progress."

"We favor a United Front of all progressive political and industrial groups entitled to meet in Twin Cities May 30, for the purpose of organizing a permanent, continuous party of useful people in the best of platform and candid favoring fundamental economic and political changes necessary to restore peace and prosperity to distressed people of the United States."

"The Farmer-Labor parties which will meet in Twin Cities as the result of the call issued for May 30th convention constitute a constructive political force standing for certain well-defined public policies not embodied in platforms of old political parties. We feel that in taking the initiative in this movement for a united national Farmer-Labor party, our representatives deserve commendation and hearty support."

Repeal Exclusion Policy
Passing upon a suggestion made from the floor that the certain radical groups be excluded, the conference unanimously went on record against any such exclusion by adopting the following resolution:

"A demand having been made in certain quarters for the exclusion of certain groups from participation in May 30th convention, we feel that the action of the St. Paul conference in calling a convention open to all workers and farmers without discrimination is final and that we have no jurisdiction to bar any group or organization from any such convention."

LEWIS' GANG COULDN'T OUST HOWATS MAN

By JOHN FITZGERALD, (Staff Correspondent of The Daily Worker)

INDIANA POLICE, Ind.—Surprise the quickly turned to anger was shown in the United Mine Workers' Convention when what was obviously an overwhelming vote against a report of the credentials committee on the John McGraw, representing three locals of District 14, Kansas was announced as sustaining the committee.

The battle raged for two hours over the question whether McGraw, who fought the Industrial Congress during the strike called by the International. There was no evidence submitted to prove this contention or anything else reflecting on his character except that he had leased a small mine and his brother-in-law had pumped water out of it for a day.

Reverend of Nova Scotia.
Shamash as one of the charges made by Lewis against the Nova Scotia miners was that they have allowed the property of the operators to deteriorate by refusing to man the pumps it would seem that McGraw's brother-in-law did not violate any laws of the United Mine Workers.

No charges were preferred in his local union against McGraw. His delegates to the Central Labor Union in Pittsburgh, Kansas.
McGraw defended himself against the charge and said that the real purpose of his fight against Governor Allen's slave law, it was quite evident that the majority of the delegates were of the same opinion. When the vote was taken on the motion of the committee it appeared to be defeated, however, largely but was announced by the majority tallies as 800 for the report and 750 against.

Storm of Protest.
In a second the great mass of miners went on the feet shouting for a roll-call. When the chairman called the delegates to order the vote was again disappointing. The necessary 300 was not counted.

The majority of the delegates were by no means satisfied and not since the steam-rolling of the Nova Scotia appeal by Philip Murray (4) (Continued on page 4.)

MANY STILL PASSING THE LENIN TOMB

Flowers and Wreaths Are Heaped Over Grave

(Special to The Daily Worker)
MOSCOW, Jan. 23.—In a marble tomb by the Kremlin wall, the body of Nikolai Lenin lay enshrouded today, while tens of thousands, unable to get near the ceremonies of burial Sunday, passed in endless processions.

Flowers and more than six hundred wreaths were heaped high about the mausoleum where workmen toiled on scaffolding in the high construction shed, completing the tomb.

At 4 p. m. Sunday white bells tolled, guns roared and bands blared the Internationals. Lenin's body was taken to the appointed place. Formal order's bandaging, which caught the slightly dazed and the sounds, symbolic of the nation's sorrow as its chiefs' casting in every wireless station in the land.

Bears Bitter Cold
The weather was frightfully cold. Thousands were from bitter, including the chief of police.
The Lenin's body was placed in the vault, scores fall many unconscious. They would have frozen to death if not stirred at the funeral of the rescue.

Leon Trotsky, whose arrival by plane had been expected, did not appear, owing to illness.
Millions in Funeral Ceremony
Nearly a million Russians are estimated to have taken part in the four-day procession past the body of Nikolai Lenin as it lay in state on the floor of the House of Unions.

A half million more braved the bitter cold on the funeral day and marched past their departed comrade (Continued on page 5.)

Serfdom to be Revived by Congress as Status of Foreign-Born Workers

(This is the fourth of a series of articles which The Daily Worker is publishing on the laws which are now pending before Congress, directed against foreign-born workers who wish to come to this country and those who are in this country.)

By C. E. RUTHENBERG.
Probably the most far-reaching bill directed against foreign-born workers coming to this country and those already in this country has been introduced by Representative Linsberger of California. His bill is House Bill No. 4089.

It proposed that the foreign-born workers coming to this country in the future and those already here shall be attached to certain industries as the serfs were attached to the land in feudal times.
During the period of feudalism each serf had his little tract of land assigned to him on the estate of some feudal lord. He was unable to leave this land; he lived and died there and his children who came to him after him were attached to that same tract of land and could not leave there for the benefit of the feudal lord.

The Linsberger bill provides that each immigrant coming to the United States and all foreign-born workers here shall be notified as to what location in the jurisdiction of the United States they will be permitted to go to, to remain, until the provisions of this act and other regulations as to alien and citizenship are completed. Further stipulations in this law provide that "each immigrant shall remain in a respective district until such a time as he can be satisfied the Department of Immigration."

Five Die in 'New York Cold Wave; No Rich Found Among Victims

NEW YORK, Jan. 23.—New York shivered with the coldest weather it has known in years today as the weather bureau promised milder temperatures and opportunity to thaw out frozen pipes.

Death of five persons was attributed directly to the near zero weather.
In Perth Amboy, N. J. Stephen Smoler, aged twelve, was found frozen to death in his shack. He was clad in rags.

BRITISH COLONIAL POLICY HAS NOT BEEN WEAKENED

Threat of Force in Message to Indians

By CYRIL LAMBERT
(Special to The Daily Worker)
LONDON, Jan. 26.—Before he admitted office, Ramsay MacDonald sent a message to India dealing with the attitude of the British Labor party toward the Indian colonial problem.

The message has now been published and on paragraph of it has been loudly approved in Tory circles while among the left wing labor elements it has come in for much criticism. The paragraph is as follows:

"I can see no hope in India if it becomes the arena of struggle between constitutionalism and revolution. No party in Great Britain will be covered by threats of force or by policies designed to bring government to a standstill, and sections in India are under the delusion that such a standstill events will very rapidly disappear themselves."

This is the expression of the traditional British colonial policy and with J. H. Thomas as its spokesman, the portfolio the most brawny imperialists now see no hope in India because of lack of firmness in the labor party colonial policy.

The message in no way reads: "I wish sometimes with no little anxiety the progress of events in India. During all my political life I have anchored myself firmly upon the conviction that the only way to be well rooted it can only be carried by what is called political or constitutional values."

"We have seen in our own generation all sorts of revolutions and movements which seemed to be successful and which have broken contacts with the past, but in the end, after much physical suffering and the creation of millions of victims, they have had to return to the old ways. The old ways have broken, and to apply the very principles they had rejected."

"I can see no hope in India if it becomes the arena of a struggle between constitutionalism and revolution. No party in Great Britain will be covered by threats of force or by policies designed to bring government to a standstill, and if sections in India are under the delusion that this is not so, events will rapidly disappoint them."

"I would urge upon all the best friends of India to come nearer to me, rather than the stand apart from me, to get at our reason and our good will."

"I deplore the evidence of a backward spirit in some sections here, but let no one misread the cause and effect. When appeal is made to revolutionary methods, whether these methods are an active or a passive force, reaction toward the opposite extreme is bound to come and men and parties of the most sincere good-will are hunted off the stage, while two forms of reaction, that of the right and the left, kick and tear and sweat against each other until all that is left has been demonstrated."

"I know that the approach and good-will should be mutual. My appeal is, therefore, not only to the British, but to the British authorities as well."

"The reference to 'policies designed to bring government to a standstill' is interpreted here as a warning to non-revolutionary methods (Gandhi) and his policy of non-cooperation. Gandhi is given a six-year sentence for leading the non-cooperative movement that seriously hampered the British administration."

Lewis Induces Convention to Approve Ouster of Failed District No. 26 Officials

(Special to The Daily Worker)
INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (By Mail)—President Lewis has again succeeded in having the convention of the District No. 26, U. M. W. of America, and the expulsion from the district of the failed officials, carried, after several sessions, by a vote of 100 to 10.

Mr. Lewis spoke fully for an hour and a half during which he denigrated the failed officials, and the delegates were in a state of high spirits for the remainder of the session.

He flourished documents signed by the secretary of the Red Trade Union International, protesting against the expulsion of the failed officials, and regarded this expression of international solidarity as treason to the miners union. When he got thru waving the documents, the delegates were in a state of high spirits for the remainder of the session.
