CASH BOSSES FOR REFUSING ARBITRATION

Striking Dressmakers Prepare For Hard Struggle

Statements of the Employers' Association that the demands of the union, if accepted by the dress manufacturers, would ruin their business were vigorously denied by the International Ladies' Garment Workers' Union which is on strike.

The statement of the union says that they offered to submit to arbitration all their demands, but that the employers' association refused to consider the proposition.

Bosser's Case Unjust.

"Our suggestion was that a board of three disinterested citizens be named and that both sides present their case before them and that the decision of the arbitrators should be binding and final. If the employers' association had a just case they would not have refused the offer made by the union," the statement said.

"The trouble with the garment industry is that there is too much profiting. Most of the manufacturers, in Chicago especially, are not interested in keeping their factories continuously at work. Instead of basing their profits on the quantity of work produced each year, they base it on each piece of work. Instead of producing three dresses and making profit on each dress they would produce one dress and make the same profit on it."

Demand Regular Work.

"The workers, on the other hand are interested in continuous employment for two reasons. First, continuous employment will give them a larger income per year and secondly, continuous employment will bring about a condition where the profit of the employer will be based on quantity production and that will reduce the cost of dresses. Garment makers will be cheaper, the public will buy more and that will give more employment."

The statement of the employers' association threatens to fight the union to a finish. To which the union replies: "Threatening to fight to a finish will not solve the problem. Where one fight ends another begins. We are well prepared to fight and will fight but we are prepared to talk."

Split Among Employers.

Signs of a break in the ranks of employers came yesterday in the third day of the big strike against workshop conditions in the dressmaking industry.

Several individual employers indicated to union officials that they wanted a settlement. Competition in the trade makes a shut down of their plants at this busy season most serious. They are considering a break with the bitter-end group of employers.

Picketing Going Strong.

Vigorous picketing is being carried out by shop squads all about the Loop, Northwood and West Side districts. The strikers are preparing for a long battle, if necessary. Strike headquarters in every district reported that more shops were being pulled out on strike. More and more workers are going out on the picket duty that will win or lose the strike. South Market St., yesterday morning was lined with strikers. Police and

Despondent Over Loss of Job Man Shoots Wife, Two Children and Self

HICKMAN, Neb., Feb. 29.—Art Everworth, billing station employee, shot and killed his wife and two children at their home here today and then killed himself. Doctors said the condition of Mrs. Everworth and the children was so serious that they might live.

Everworth was employed by the Standard Oil company and had been given notice of his discharge. Despondency over the loss of his job was believed the reason for his act.

SAYS TENANTS MUST ORGANIZE TO LOWER RENTS

Negroes Suffer Most, Says League Head

"Landlords of Chicago will raise their tenants as much as they can because to fight rent increases tenants must go to court and make a costly legal fight. The laws which protect tenants are few and can only be invoked thru the courts," said T. G. Vance, president of the Tenants' League of Chicago.

Landlords on the South side where Negroes live have "run wild," he said. They are demanding rent increases of from 50 to 200 per cent. The thousands of Negroes who have come from the south are being forced to rent homes in the Negro districts. Three and four and often more families are being forced to live in one flat.

On the edge of the colored districts apartments are being rented to Negroes for twice as much as the rents which were being charged white.

Vance said that in one apartment house on Calumet Ave. flats which had been renting for $45 were being rented to Negroes for $120. At 42nd and State Sts. in one apartment building Negroes are being charged $50 for flats for which white families pay $47. At the present time white and colored people are living in the same building and paying different rents for the same sized flats.

On the north west side six and seven room apartments which rented for $85 are being raised to $200. The Tenants League sees no hope for the workers whose rent is increased by the landlords except organization. They hope the raise slightly reduced but little for the tenant whose rent is raised. The court might be able to reduce the raise slightly reduced but it could not continue the old rates. The remedy is new laws which can fight the only way the tenants can fight the landlords," Vance said.

DAUGHERTY'S SUCCESSOR IS BELIEF IN CAPITOL CIRCLES

WASHINGTON, Feb. 29.—Senator William E. Borah, Idaho, is to succeed Harry M. Daugherty as attorney general, when the latter is eliminated from President Coolidge's cabinet, according to gossip in usually well-informed circles today.

The report that Mr. Coolidge would offer the post to Borah created much interest, as Borah has been talked of lately in connection with presidential politics.

Borah is known as one of the best lawyers in the senate.

Aged Communist Fights Heresy Charges

(Special to The Daily Worker)

CALTON, Ohio, Feb. 29.—Declaring that he is at least in a "fighting mood," Bishop William Montgomery Brown, Episcopal, launched an attempt today to "shame the House of Bishops out of trying me for the 23 heresies alleged against me in the presence of the Bishop of Vermont, Indiana and West Virginia."

In a letter to Dr. John G. Murray, Baltimore, Bishop of Maryland, the Bishop delivered a scathing attack on Christian orthodoxy and challenged "many bishop in the house" to say that he believes implicitly in the miracles related in the bible.

The charges against Bishop Brown are an outgrowth of his radical ideas on religion as set forth in his book, "Communism and Christianity."

Bishop Murray is president of the court which is to try Bishop Brown for heresy.

COOLIDGE'S SECRETARY OF STATE HELPED JOHN D. CAPTURE NEAR EAST FIELDS

(Special to The Daily Worker)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—A charge that Secretary of State Charles Evans Hughes intervened in oil negotiations respecting the Mosul oil fields in Mesopotamia "so that the Standard Oil Company (one benefited)" is made in an article appearing in tomorrow's issue of "Labor," a paper issued by railroad labor organizations.

The article, which is under a London date line, also charges that an American destroyer carried L. I. Thomas, of New York, vice-president of the Standard Oil Company, to Durazzo last May while keen international competition was on for Albanian oil.

FIGHT ON OVER DAUGHERTY INVESTIGATION

THE Senate today plunged into a fight over the form of the Wheeler resolution for an investigation of Attorney General Daugherty's administration of the Department of Justice.

When the resolution came up, Senator Wheeler modified it to provide that the Senate should select the investigating committee. It originally named the committee, with Senator Brookhart of Iowa as chairman.

Senator Lodge moved to amend by leaving appointment of the committee to the chair and debate on this point started.

PROBE INCOMES OF SINCLAIR, DOHENY, FALL

THE Senate today unanimously adopted the McKellar resolution requesting President Coolidge to have Secretary Mellon furnish the Senate oil committee the income tax returns of Harry F. Sinclair, E. L. Doheny and Albert B. Fall and of all the Doheny and Sinclair oil companies.

An amendment by Senator Moses, New Hampshire, to include the Securities Investment Company was adopted. Moses said the reason for the amendment would appear later.

DAUGHERTY AIDS TRY TO PICK PROBERS

Want to Name Investigators of Attorney General

(Special to The Daily Worker)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 29.—The Senate today dropped all other business to concentrate on the Wheeler resolution calling for an investigation of the Department of Justice.

By terms of a compact between Attorney General Daugherty's critics and defenders, the measure will have the right of way until disposed of. Because Daugherty has demanded the inquiry, his friends will make no effort to obstruct its passage which probably will come late today.

Administration leaders who have been trying to force Daugherty out of the cabinet also want his "trial" to occur quickly.

The resolution cites as necessary for an investigation the charge that the department has lost the confidence of the people.

It declares the department, under Daugherty's direction, has failed to prosecute antiquated suits, cases turned over to the Federal Trade Commission, cases growing out of the Veterans' Bureau investigation.

Mopping Up the Week's Deluge of Oil

BOTH democratic and republican parties have suffered severe casualties by reason of the continued revelations of the bipartisan nature of the Teapot Dome scandal during the past week.

A. Mitchell Palmer, attorney-general under Wilson, is now known to have been retained by McLean to keep him from being subpoenaed. In telegram read by the committee Palmer is referred to as the "law partner" of Colonel Zevoy, attorney for both Fall and Sinclair. Zevoy paid Fall the $25,000 in Liberty Bonds.

Palmer's job was to influence Senator Walsh to "go easy" with McLean or not call him at all. This Palmer did paid Fall $100,000.

William G. McLean and his son were shown by telegrams signed by McLean to have been his confidential advisers for seven years. McLean, senior, appears also as the recipient of a huge fee from the Republic Iron and Steel Company for representing it before one or more government departments.

Senators Lenroot and Smoot, republicans, have confessed that they consulted with all three days before the exposure they were coming and that they concealed this fact from the investigating committee of which they were members.

Bringing the president himself straight into the scandal that has the nation on tiptoe is the discovery by the committee from the perusal of secret telegrams that E. W. Snodgrass, White House courier and confidential agent of the president, was turned over to McLean to handle the leaky wire installed to keep him, McLean, in touch with developments and evade discovery.

Attorney-General Daugherty, in a statement given to Chicago newspapers, disavows any exposure officials high in the administration unless he receives their support.

The American people are thus presented with the spectacle of the chief law-enforcing officer of the nation using his knowledge of official corruption to blackmail opponents and protect himself from the result of secret testimony given by the Doheny and Sinclair.

The fight in the senate now is over the personnel of the committee called for in the Wheeler resolution providing for the investigation of the attorney-general's department. It is evident that Daugherty is stalling everything on the assurance of the senators he has whipped into line that a hand-picked committee will be appointed.
