"Big Six" Asks Strike Sanction in Rousing Meeting

(Special to The Daily Worker)
NEW YORK CITY, Mar. 25.—The oldest and largest typographical union in the world threw down the gauntlet to the most powerful combination of publishers on the face of the earth in a special meeting held here in the auditorium of the Stuyvesant High School, when the membership overwhelmingly voted by secret ballot to request strike sanction from the International Typographical Union.

Every Daily to Shut Down.
The membership already has the assurance of Charles P. Howard, President of the International Union, that the executive council will back the membership of New York to the limit.

This will be the most complete strike in the daily newspaper field that has ever been conducted in the United States. Every daily newspaper in the city of New York will be shut down while the struggle proceeds. The composing rooms of all daily papers are one hundred per cent organized and those affected are the advertising compositors, men, copy cutters, linotype operators, proof readers and mailers.

Negotiations between "Big Six" and the publishers have going and a final December 7, when the union at a special meeting, also held in the Stuyvesant High School, instructed the special committee to demand the establishment of the six-hour day in all newspaper offices in the jurisdiction. This working hour has been reduced from 48 to 44 hours a week, and 40 night work to a 36-hour week—or six hour day with four shifts per day, instead of three as at present. At the same time a demand was made for an increase in wages to $66.00 per week for day work (an increase of $1.00) and $72.00 per week for night work (an increase of $4.00).

The counter-proposal of the publishers was a reduction in wages from 2 to 6 cents per hour and a change in shop conditions that would devitalize the union and the compositors about slaves of every whim of the publishers as regards working hours and speed of work.

Employers Give Way.
A deadlock was broken by the local case committee and President Charles P. Howard was called in. He succeeded in breaking the stubborn resistance of the employers and got an offer of a three dollar per week raise in wages, all other conditions remaining the same. This, not being a proposition Mr. Howard felt he should recommend to the union, a special meeting was called for today and three propositions voted upon. They were: 1.—To accept the proposal of the employers for a $3.00 raise. 2.—To submit the controversy to arbitration. 3.—To ask strike sanction of the International Union (page 2).

Anna Louise Strong Writes for Daily Worker Magazine

HERE is a welcome announcement for the readers of the Saturday Magazine Section of the DAILY WORKER. We have secured Anna Louise Strong, better known to our readers as "Annie," to do magazine features for the DAILY WORKER. She has been in the United States now for a few weeks, but is returning to Europe, where she will study conditions in many countries. She goes first to Great Britain, then to Germany, and later to Soviet Russia. We are sure that these articles would prove interesting to thousands of workers who are not now reading the DAILY WORKER. Our present readers should, therefore, do all in their power to find these non-readers and get them on our subscription list. See the trial "Sub Offer" on another page.

In this Saturday's Magazine Section she writes on "How the Communists Hold Power in Russia."

ATHENS, March 25.—The national assembly today voted to depose the dynasty and proclaim a republic. The motion was carried by a unanimous vote and is effective at once.

Because of the possibility of a rupture in diplomatic relations with foreign countries whose representatives are accredited to the "regent of Greece," the government has decided to maintain Admiral Kondiotis in the regency for the present.

The cabinet during the day is expected to make general arrests of imprisoned and persecuted politicians and pardons to members of the military convicted for implications in the last counter-revolution.

The government will appropriate as soon as possible all immovable property to the Glaxburg dynasty.

NELSON DOES NOT KNOW IF HE WILL AGREE

"Might Embarrass Mayor," Says Labor Alderman

Alderman Oscar Nelson, of the 40th Ward, did not know yesterday if he would consent to the strike of the garment workers at the meeting of the city council today.

Nelson, besides being an alderman, is lawyer for the International Ladies' Garment Workers' Union handling the cases of strikers arrested by the city police.

He will defend more than two hundred cases of arrested strikers tomorrow before Judge Walker in the jury branch of the municipal court.

Labor Committeeman.
In addition to being the lawyer for the union, Nelson is a vice-president of the Chicago Federation of Labor and a member of the committee of 10 on the constitutional injunctions of the Federation. He was also a member of the Citizens committee which disbanded Monday. In the past, Nelson has looked to him to represent their interests in the council.

Strikers Demand Nelson Act. Half-drunk policemen have been stung the strikers and arresting them for walking on the streets. The strikers have been demanding that Alderman Nelson, labor representative, raise a protest in the city council and call for an official investigation of the police officers' outrageous and illegal actions of paid city employes against workers on strike.

Recently Nelson presented the case for the organized strikers of the city who were seeking a raise in pay, but he has kept silent; in the council while paid city employes were trying to break the strike of the sweatshop workers.

"Does Not Know."
Nelson was in the office of the Chicago Federation of Labor when he was reached by the DAILY WORKER.

"Will you discuss the strike of the garment workers at the meeting of the council tomorrow?" he was asked.

"I don't know. I don't know what will come up in the council," he replied.

"Will you tell the members of the council about the Citizens committee report?"

"Might Embarrass Mayor."
Nelson said he did not know. The report was made to the council on the 15th.

He may report to the council on the 15th. He may report to the council on the 15th.

If the opportunity presents itself and Nelson can speak on the strike without offending any of his fellow politicians he may or he may not say a few well-chosen words in effect which he said to the DAILY WORKER.

Low to Labor Alderman. Nelson said he did not know. The report was made to the council on the 15th.

He may report to the council on the 15th. He may report to the council on the 15th.

On To The City Hall!

"On to the City Hall!" is the latest slogan of the brave garment strikers, now nearing the end of the fourth week of their heroic struggle.

They are going to attend the meeting of the city council this afternoon to see whether Alderman Oscar Nelson, vice-president of the Chicago Federation of Labor, will raise his voice in the city council against the brutal use of the police against them.

The slogan of "On to the City Hall!" was heard everywhere among the strikers yesterday, at their mass meeting, at the picket lines. It is expected that the floor of the City Hall will be jammed on the day of the city council's struggle of the street carmen and the Amalgamated Clothing Workers, who action was forced from the city aldermen.

HOW DID BOON COMPANION OF DAUGHERTY DIE?

Ex-Wife Believes Death Not Self-Inflicted

By LAURENCE TODD.
(Special to The Daily Worker)
WASHINGTON, March 25.—The committee on the assassination of Attorney General Daugherty, a witness, said today that he believed the former secretary of the interior to have been the Harris ranch in New Mexico.

It further charged that Chase had endeavored to secure McKinney of Cleveland to testify that he had handed a copy of testimony in the case in order that the house might inaugurate such proceedings against Chase as may be appropriate.

The senate oil committee today endeavored to trail to its source a $100,000 loan which Chase had secured in New Mexico after the Teapot Dome case was made public.

The committee examined Mr. D. Thatcher, president of the First National Bank of Pueblo, Colo., and trustee of the Thatcher estate, with whom Fall had financial dealings.

Thatcher said Fall had from time to time borrowed $100,000 from his bank in Pueblo, Colo., which Fall had obtained from Doherty in another property.

The witness stated he declared that Jess was in deadly fear of an exposure of affairs in Daugherty's estate and also that he was in extreme fear of physical danger to himself and to her for some time before her death. She testified that he had always been afraid of firearms, and had forbidden her to possess a revolver, yet on the Friday before his death he was seen with a revolver in his hand when she saw his body brought to a quarrel which Daugherty at the "shack" where they were staying near Washington Court House, Ohio.

Senator Wheeler, by a series of questions, drew from the witness the statement that she observed no powder marks around the bullet wound in his temple when she saw his body prior to the funeral; that Smith's doctor had flatly denied the statement brought to her by Mal Daugherty, brother of the attorney general, that Smith's wound due to an operation for appendicitis a year before was found to be fully open after his death. It was her own statement of her defiance of both Daugherty as she said: "Harry Daugherty is not going to strangle me and I am not going to have a convenient bullet thru my head."

Can He Be Murdered?
Daugherty spent the night at the White House prior to the death of Smith which occurred early in the morning. No request was held, although bruises appeared on the body and there have been stories that the apartment was in disorder.

Thus far the word "murder" has not been suggested in the senate hearings, but the implication of Roze's testimony was that she feared his death was self-inflicted.

OTHER POLICE TRUGS BAD AS OFFICER 3401

All Girls' Assaults Should Be Fined

Mayor Dever's excuse to the sub-committee, consisting of Anton Johannsen, John Fitzpatrick and Victor Olander, which presented the garment workers' union written report...

Strikers are indignant at this crude attempt to side-step the issue. Regardless of the facts, any unfair police action occurred the mayor must do what he can to rectify them now.

Beaten Seven Days After Promise - Johannsen, Olander and Fitzpatrick made their first visit of complaint to the mayor's office on Friday morning, March 15, seven days after the mayor promised to follow his policy.

On the same day Fannie Yannes, 2239 Iowa street, was struck so violently in the mouth by a car driven by William Hawkins in front of 228 Market street that her teeth were loosened and her mouth bled.

The beating of Ethel Spink by officers 1810 and 2000 on March 13 and the arrest of a DAILY WORKER reporter who got the policemen's number in further cited by the report which the committee handed the mayor and which was assumed occurred before the first visit of the committee.

These same days officers Collins and Schroeder, who assisted in the arrest of Sophie Altschuler, and the earlier arrested, arrested Guslie Conon, 1412 N. Lincoln street, and accused them of selling by taking her hands while she was sitting her in the face with them.

These facts are substantiated by numerous witnesses. Of the latter, the garment workers' union makes the statement, which is approved by vice-president Meyer Perlstein.

IMPEACH COOLIDGE! - "THE negro real estate dealer frequently offers to the owner of an apartment house which is no longer renting advantageously to white tenants cash payment for a year's lease on the property, thus guaranteeing the owner against the loss of the colored tenants. It is said, however, that the dealer does not put out the white tenants unless he can get 10 per cent more from the colored people. By this method the Negroes now occupy many large apartment buildings, but the negro real estate agents obtain the reputation of exploiting their own race." - From Investigation of Juvenile Protective Association.

South Denies Negro Rights But Gives Him Bread; North Gives Him Rights But Little to Eat

It is from the selfish manipulation of the large employers of labor, and not from organized labor, that the Negro in industry finds his chief embarrassment. There is a common bond between the 98 per cent of the Negro adults who work and the 92 per cent of whites who work.

The antagonism that has sometimes arisen is due to the fact that Negroes have strike-breakers, usually with little knowledge of the conditions which they are breaking.

It is especially necessary for the Negro to organize an attempt. The Department of Labor recently found in 87 of the 98 various localities of the white family is 4300 larger than that of the Negro family.

Between Two Fires - James Walden Johnson, of the Association for the Advancement of Colored People, tells us that the Negro is badly off whether in the North or the South.

ACQUIT KEENEY OF MURDER FOR A RAKED BLOW MARCH W. Va. Jury Acts Quickly in Miners' Behalf

BAILEYVILLE, W. Va., March 28.—It is the jury on a few minutes to determine that Frank Keeneey, charged with the murder of United Mine Workers of America, was "not guilty" of participating in the armed clash with miners in West Virginia in the summer of 1921.

It is especially necessary for the Negro to organize an attempt. The Department of Labor recently found in 87 of the 98 various localities of the white family is 4300 larger than that of the Negro family.
