Case Will Take More Than Ten Days

WASHINGTON, April 10.—Actual presentation of evidence before the Federal Grand Jury called to investigate alleged criminal conspiracy in connection with the oil scandal will begin April 16, government counsel announced here today.

Attorney Pomeroy and Owen Roberts, in charge of the case for the government, have completed their case for presentation to the jury, it was learned. A long list of witnesses probably will be called.

George L. Miller, one of the owners of the Miller "oil well" in the "Banc" in Oklahoma, admitted before the Senate Daugherty investigating committee today that he employed John E. Todd, former law partner of Harry M. Daugherty, "to get his case before the attorney general."

The committee dug further into the alleged inactivity of the department of justice in prosecuting the Miller Brothers for return of Indian lands valued at $500,000 which it is charged they obtained by fraudulent means.

A special federal grand jury today is to be impeached to take up the criminal side of the oil leasing scandal.

Under direction of government counsel, evidence will be presented to the grand jury to show a conspiracy to defraud the United States. Indictments will be sought against five or six persons, it was indicated, including former Secretary of the Interior Fall, whose part in the alleged scheme will be presented to the grand jury.

New Mellon Tax Plan Goes to the Senate; Debate Next Week

WASHINGTON, April 10.—The new Mellon tax bill was formally introduced to the Senate today. Chairman Snodgrass of the Finance Committee reported that the bill's provisions were officially made public.

While the income tax, surtax, and inheritance tax provisions are not expected to survive the Senate, Republicans are prepared to fight hard for them in order to obtain the best possible compromise. Snodgrass announced that the bill would be taken up for debate "early next week."

OPPOSITION IS DEVELOPING TO FORD'S SCHEME

Senate Committee Is Against His Offer

WASHINGTON, April 10.—The Ford offer for Muscle Shoals, accepted by the House but rejected by the Senate Committee on Agriculture, it appeared today following an informal poll.

Any move to report the measure favorably to the Senate probably will be made by an approximate vote of 9 to 8.

Five Senators on a committee of 17 have pledged themselves to defeat Ford. They are Senators Norris, Nebraska; McNary, Oregon; Keyes, New Hampshire; McKinley, Illinois; and Johnson, Minnesota.

Blind Men Working On Piece System Shamefully Robbed

WASHINGTON, April 10.—Blind men employed in the industry of making pipe fittings are paid substantially low wages. Single men are paid $6 a week and married men get $7.00. They over-time and sometimes some earn between $10 and $15 per week. This is far short of the minimum wage which would enable the workers to support their families.

MONDAY OR TUESDAY TO SEE MARCH

Workers Will Demonstrate In the Busy Loop District

The Chicago Federation of Labor will apply to Mayor Devoy today for a permit to hold one of the most spectacular labor parades ever held in Chicago, which will demonstrate to the entire community that organized labor in this city is behind the striking garment workers to the last ditch.

At last taking heart from the growing demand of the rank and file trade unionists that active and aggressive support be given to the striking garment workers, the "Committee of 15" has decided to issue a call for the striking garment workers to march next week, probably Monday or Tuesday.

Go Thru Market Street

The parade will proceed thru the Loop district, and will cross market street at the "front line trenches" of the Market Street market.

The marchers are to carry banners declaring that Sullivan's injunction against the striking garment workers is a mass meeting and a walk in the streets.

June 17th Farmer-Labor Conference Biggest Organizational Factor In the 1924 Drive On Capitalist Parties

By LAURENCE TODD
(Staff Correspondent Press)
WASHINGTON, April 10.—All at once, the extent of the revolt of the American voters against private ownership and operation of their government has become evident to Calvin Coolidge, and he has sent messengers scurrying here and there to find means of killing the LaFollette movement before it becomes a political tornado.

Appointment of a Morgan lawyer as attorney general has done the administration no good. Announcement of the Finance Corporation must help the farmers, but that neither the Norris-Sinclair bill nor the McNary-Haugen bill can be approved, has chilled some of the lukewarm callers at the White House.

Selection of Lawyer Butler of Boston, former ally of Morgan, to manage the floundering anti-trust bill, has chilled the farmer's discovery that Coolidge looks like a man upon the presidential candidacy of either Albert J. Beveridge or E. K. Gay.

For it is recognized by the crowd of voters swept by regular wave after wave of the striking garment workers, the "Committee of 15" has decided to issue a call for the striking garment workers to march next week, probably Monday or Tuesday.

REVOLUTIONARY RUSS ENVOY TO BERLIN USES ROMANOFF'S EMBASSY

BERLIN, April 10.—Looking after the diplomatic interests in Germany of the Russian Soviet Government is M. Bratman-Brodovskiy, Soviet Ambassador to Berlin, recently appointed.

Proof that the German government realizes that Castron has lost all claims to restoration is vouched for by the fact that the former embassy of the Romanoff revolution was turned over to M. Bratman-Brodovskiy.

Out of the mist of political uncertainties, three points emerge: 1. LaFollette will be a candidate for president in 30 or more states. 2. He will be supported by the Social Party which is known to LaFollette as a permanent basis, and by the rail, road and other elements in the Conference for Progressive Political Action, which does not yet see a chance for a new party as an opposition to the Workers Party.

FILIPINOS FIGHT P.E.S.O WAGE IN SUGAR FIELDS

DAWES PACT IS MORGAN'S ULTIMATUM

To Poincare, Tied Up By Previous Loan

WASHINGTON, April 10.—France probably will approve the Dawes plan, as it is understood that the Poincare government is bound by conditions of the Morgan $100,000,000 loan to accept the report. The liberal government of Great Britain still is expected to give approval. The action of Germany still is in doubt.

With strong objections certain to be made to it, the Dawes report stands better than an even chance to effect a final settlement of the reparations problem, official and diplomatic circles in Washington believed today.

The principal objection expected is that the report does not recommend a definite total reparations figure, a fact to which Germany already is objecting. Reparations the Reich now is under obligation to pay total of 1,322,000,000 gold marks.

An offer may be made to meet the total sum, it is General Hoover's opinion at the start of Secretary of State Hughes which brought about the Dawes inquiry, the reparations figure is a total figure.

The reason the experts report did not refer to a total sum is that General Hoover's opinion at the start of Secretary of State Hughes which brought about the Dawes inquiry, the reparations figure is a total figure.

Canadian Miners Striking Against Open Shop Plan

GALLEGARY, Alta., April 10.—Coal operators in Western Canada are refusing to allow the old agreement with the miners' union in District 18 for three years and a strike of 4,000 to 10,000 miners is on in Alberta and British Columbia. The agreement, which expires April 1, provided, with some modification, for the scale and conditions prevailing in the central competitive field of the United States. The operators want to cut wages and to make the new contract for one year instead of three.

Another Labor "Victory"

The utter futility of the tactics adopted by the trade union officialdom of Chicago in the recent primary election is shown by the fact that State's Attorney Crowe, the arch-enemy of labor in Chicago, was re-nominated while...

It is also noticeable that Newton Jenkins, endorsed on the republican ticket by United States senators to the conference for Progressive Political Action, did very poorly in Chicago but fairly well in downstate districts...

Their action in endorsing candidates in the capitalist parties has simply added to the confusion in the local labor movement without any compensating results having been attained.

These same tactics have been followed for years without any result other than an increase in the number and expansion of the scope of injunctions and we wonder how much longer these "practical" leaders can continue to justify such childish displays of political action.

There is so much reverence for respectability in the Chicago labor movement that the officialdom chooses to mix on a footing of some equality in the party councils of the capitalists without any guarantee of immunity for the unions rather than break once and for all with the bosses and conduct a clean-cut campaign on class lines—win or lose.

Borah's Lamentations

Send and desolate sits the Republican Party! The national governing championing Daugherty, is merely on working terms with Coolidge. More cabinet members are asking "who next?" Senator Pepper is working overtime distilling high explosives to hide the stoniness of his party. And Senator Borah is "lightning" republican liberal who always is to get his feet wet in a storm, is now coaching sermons in a hall of lamentations.

Borah's latest lament is characteristic of so whitened liberalism that liberalism in America is only capable of the mental gain which Idaho sees the source of all the present ills in Washington in the fact that both republican and democratic are recent vast campaign contributions from the big business interests.

Right you are, Senator—but only partly. To get at the basic source of the prevailing rottenness in American politics, one must answer two fundamental questions which your analysis compels inquiring. First of all, how does it come about that there can be such big private interests spending huge sums of money in investments in the two political parties?

To answer these questions we must go to the root of all Teapot politics, whether it be played on the parts of Los Angeles, in the White House at Washington, or in General Wood's palace in London. It is only thru the private ownership of the means of production and exchange socially used and necessary that certain individual capitalists or groups of capitalists can dominate industry and develop such big private interests as those that today finance the republican and democratic parties.

are sound investments. Herein lies the difficulty. Borah and his liberal cohorts might legislate a pure campaign law from now till doomsday. As long as the means of production and exchange are in the hands of a special privileged capitalist class, ways and means will be found to make the lawmakers willing tools and do the bidding of the bosses. Capitalist money speaks eloquently in countless tongues and manners.

Borah's lamentations are the typical impotent cries of our kind bankrupt liberalism that is today rendering inestimable services to the powerful reactionary capitalist interests by its high-sounding pleas for purity in politics. Only when the conditions under which Teapot politics flourish are abolished; only when the workers and poor farmers of this country take away the government and the industries from the employing class will the graft, bribery, corruption, and reckless wasting of our natural resources be done away with.

French Militarism

Hundreds of thousands of American workers and farmers, and millions of the workers and farmers of other countries were maimed and slaughtered in the imperialist World War in order to end the menace of militarism. This is the fraud under which the workers of many countries were lashed into armies of their bosses.

The Communists of all countries, unlike the social-party leaders of the decrepit League International, did not fall for these snares and delusions of the employing class and did their best to turn the imperialist war for the defense of capitalism into a class war, a social revolution in behalf of the international working class, the revolutionary proletariat.

Since the conclusion of the last capitalist imperialist war, the workers and farmers, event after event has substantiated the correctness of the Communist attitude and practice towards capitalist wars. France, the cradle of bourgeois and capitalist democracy in its pristine and purest form, the France which was supposed to have been most endangered by German militarism and for the security of which the workers and farmers of all countries were lashed into armies of their bosses, is today the most ardent militarist government under the sun.

The French ruling class maintains today a bigger army than it did in 1914, before it successfully disposed of the menace of German militarism. The total strength of the French army is today 725,023 men, 220,000 more than ten years ago. There are in France today 30,000 commissioned and 70,000 non-commissioned officers. Five years after German militarism was crushed by the combined forces of the democracies of Paris and Washington, the Quay d'Orsay and Wall Street, France has 2450 generals more than it had when its army was first organized in 1792.

The case of French imperialism is typical of the conduct of the peace-loving ruling classes of the other allied capitalist countries that were so panicky yesterday over the menace of German militarism. There is nothing and no one that can end militarism except a complete destruction of capitalist imperialism which militarism and imperialism are the twin strike-breaking twins of capitalism.

Y. W. L. Anti-War Meeting

The Anti-War mass meeting, to be held Sunday, at 2733 Hirsch Boulevard, should be attended by everyone who wants to understand the Communist position and particularly the Young Communist position on capitalist war.

It is the young workers and students who are the first to be conscripted for imperialist warfare and the recent publicity given to youth movements among the youth of the United States is evidence of the hatred with which the capitalists and their press regard anything that tends to diminish the enthusiasm of the youth for being slaughtered for interest and dividends.

The Young Workers League, thru its active work among the youth, has succeeded in getting under the hides of the capitalists and their meeting Sunday is under their auspices and they can be depended upon to make it interesting.

JOIN THE WORKERS PARTY

"Happiness and Peace, Home and Abroad"---MacDonald

By WILLIAM F. DUNNE. The wing of the British Labor Party by grace of the liberal party is rapidly losing what little labor character it had when it was first formed. Its connection with even the more liberal international, most of their official positions in the trade union movement have been repudiated by the discipline of the party that put them in office.

The executive of the Trade Union Congress, the official expression of the British labor movement is not merely "consulted" thru the medium of a "union committee," a striking contrast to the strict discipline maintained over their policies by the Communist Party.

The Communists are not surprised by these developments but in the mass of material that is published in America concerning the British Labor Party and its program there is doubt that the movement will be confused with its officialdom. MacDonald does not speak for British labor nor does the cabinet office designers.

MacDonald represents the British labor movement and some lower sections of the capitalist class. His immediate aim is to express the attitude of ward politics of British society to the workers and farmers.

We do not have to go to England to find the social and political conditions, politics, ethics and religion that are the basis of the program which MacDonald represents. He is a particularly objectionable form of the cabinet office designers.

In the article I will quote liberally from the book "The Road to Nowhere" which is a particularly interesting study of the British labor movement.

The leaders of our party, says MacDonald, are not Communists. They are not fanatics; they are comrades. They are not fanatics; they are comrades. They are not fanatics; they are comrades.

What are you going to do about it? The Communist Party is a proletarian and always says grace to the workers. Truly the fate of the British labor movement is in such a sorry state that it is not surprising that the people of the world are turning to the Communist Party for leadership.

The Red Farmer-International

WITHIN the American Kremlin walls, and many are not fully aware of it, the tremendous significance of this event—the first International Conference of the Red Farmer-International, which is being held in Moscow, is being recognized by the workers and farmers of all countries.

This is no exaggeration, but an appreciation of its importance. Besides, the conference is being held in Moscow, the headquarters of the Communist International, which is the most significant fact of the conference.

Wherever there are great masses of workers and farmers, there is a Communist Party. The Communist Party is the only party that is not afraid of the workers and farmers.

The conference was virtually a mass of arriving at a common platform and economic plan for the alliance of workers and farmers. The conference took up the question of war and peace and arrived at the conclusion that the continued existence of the capitalist class means a new period of only four years of workers and farmers.

Capitalist Lackey

Here we have in extenso the MacDonald view of the world, an expression of faith or hope in the working class. It is the impartial class where good men rule because of the influence of the bourgeoisie.

Even the mild reform of capitalist law is being proposed by MacDonald as something approaching holy horror. The British working class voted for it. Expressions of the party will be disregarded safely, even by apostles of democracy, when their consummation would alienate the workers—the big capitalists and the small bourgeoisie.

It is impossible even if we were so inclined, without Liberal support, to get a majority in the House of Commons. It is all certain that a capitalist levy is at present the best for the country.

It is almost needless to add for the sake of those who are not familiar with the history of the British labor movement that the workers and farmers of all countries are turning to the Communist Party for leadership.

At the same time that MacDonald is making his speech, he is also making his speech. He is also making his speech. He is also making his speech.
