

100,000 QUIT CHICAGO JOBS ON MAY DAY

Great Celebrations For International Labor

International Labor Day which first wrote its revolutionary message across a Chicago sky was celebrated here Thursday by more than 100,000 hundred thousand workers who turned their tools and took May 1 for themselves, not for their bosses. Huge meetings were held by the Workers Party and labor organizations.

The 40,000 union men in the ranks of the Amalgamated Clothing workers deserted their factories and jammed the mighty Coliseum to the doors, afternoon and evening.

Needle Trades Celebrate. The thousands of members of the International Ladies' Garment Workers, from the cloakmakers and allied crafts and the striking dressmakers, took the day off and attended a union entertainment concert and dance in the halls at 139 W. Washington St.

The Amalgamated Food Workers, left their restaurants and bakery shops and made a rally day of it in their headquarters at 224 W. State St.

Out in Pullman, the strike of the steel car builders received renewed impetus and enthusiasm. May Day meetings were held in Stank's hall, morning and evening.

More conservative labor organizations which officially recognize only the hundred and nineteenth anniversary of the American Revolution, did not join in the international celebration officially but tens of thousands of their members took the day off nevertheless.

The big building trades' jobs failed to show their usual quota of men to work. "Celebrating May Day," was the answer to inquiries as to where the rest were.

The youth were celebrating and the old timers, remembering the great May Days of the eighties when the great eight-hour fight was won, the great day of toil.

Remember Chicago Martyrs. Many a pro-haircut Chicago worker with reverence of Parsons, Engel, Fischer, Spier and Ling who sacrificed their lives for their early May activities for labor in 1886 and hundreds of workers made a pilgrimage to the memorial to the martyrs at Waldheim cemetery.

Shiner Hillman addressed more than 10,000 workers and women at the Coliseum May Day afternoon. He emphasized the new meaning of solidarity which had won the Amalgamated's victory.

Hillman spoke of the recent victory of the union which defeated the bosses' attempt to cut wages this May 1st. He explained the new meaning of regular wages during periods of unemployment, after the first break out.

Hillman later said: "The Amalgamated's success in organizing the great Russian-American Industrial Corporation was emphasized by the speaker who went on to laud the Soviet Republic for its magnificent achievements for the working class.

Playing of the "International" by N. O. Beranelli's band brought enthusiastic applause and thousands of workers joined in singing Russian songs with soloists.

PARIS MAY DAY STRIKE TAKES HUNDREDS OF THOUSANDS OFF JOBS

PARIS, May 3.—Europe's Labor Day was a magnificent and extensive cessation of work here today.

Several hundred thousand employees of factories and shops obeyed the order of the General Confederation of Labor for a May Day strike to demonstrate the solidarity and power of their organizations.

Trains were planned, regular strike tomorrow and agreed to refuse tips to cabmen.

STRIKING CAP MAKERS SETTLE THREE SHOPS

Three Cap Manufacturers have already settled with the Cap Makers' Local No. 2, which started its strike yesterday. An enthusiastic meeting in Chicago's Union Square, led by Max Salzman, of the Y. W. I., and Jack Johnston, painters' delegate to the Federation of Labor, during the afternoon.

The shops that settled will abide by the agreement entered into by the Federation of Labor, and probably settle within a few days. The remaining shop, numbering thirteen, are still on strike.

More conservative labor organizations which officially recognize only the hundred and nineteenth anniversary of the American Revolution, did not join in the international celebration officially but tens of thousands of their members took the day off nevertheless.

BIG REVOLT IN SUGAR TRUST COLONY

Coolidge Backs Wall Street Tools

HAVANA, Cuba, May 2.—This is the colony of the American sugar trust which has a man sized rebellion on its hands. There is an election campaign which has evolved into an armed conflict. The present Cuban government is a puppet of the United States.

The United States cruiser "Clemson" has arrived in Havana harbor ready to show its American democracy in the event of a rebellion. The fleet of the United States Navy is busy between here and the "Horn" on similar missions.

All demonstrations scheduled for May Day were forbidden. A strict censorship is imposed on all news and the press is only allowed to print whatever appears more plausible to Wall Street.

The Cuban government, loyal tool of Wall Street, appealed to Washington for assistance in crushing its political enemies. It was not long forthcoming. "Sitout Cal" in less than two days it would take to take "Harry Daugherty" wrote one of his famous opines forbidding the export of election munitions to the political opponents of the present government.

Provisions were made, however, for the unlimited supply of the army to the Zayas government.

The embargo on arms to the rebels, the Coolidge government stands ready to send troops to Cuba to maintain the grip of the sugar trust on that country which was formerly "free" from the Spanish yoke by the United States.

LADIES' GARMENT DELEGATES LEAVE FOR CONVENTION

Demand Reinstatement Of Expelled Members

Delegates to the International Ladies' Garment Workers' convention in Boston are already leaving, to be ready for the opening session on Monday. The three representatives of the striking Dressmakers' local No. 100, Oscar Simons, Frieda Reicher and Mary Hines, have gone under instructions to vote for reinstatement of the expelled members and a delegation of expelled members will leave tonight. The expelled members will attend the convention unofficially so that they may present their case when the Appeal Committee reports on it.

The dressmakers held a big May Day celebration yesterday with speeches from the exact terms of the I. L. G. W. "was the 40-hour week and an increase in pay." When asked what the four week week would do for all workers, including piece-workers and time workers, the vice-president said: "It would do nothing."

The question was asked Perlestein because a number of strikers under the hood that the settlement with Hymen Brox had been on the 6th 14-hour strike. The four week week and freedom was one of the main issues of the strike.

Here two girls who shot settled soon after the strike began remarked indignantly: "If my boss demands the same terms as Hymen got, he can sue me. We'd have had our nine weeks' fight for nothing."

The cases that were scheduled to come up in Judge Poell's court on May 1st were postponed until May 15th. The judge refused to go on May Day. The DAILY WORKER pointed out to him that it was labor's holiday.

Seven cases came before Judge Poell May 2. The cases were for breach of contract, for the strike to stop, for the injunction issue, and for the injunction issue. He is likely to put off indefinitely or deny for the injunction issue, and for the injunction issue.

Only Paper Supporting Strike. "The DAILY WORKER is the only paper in Chicago giving an unqualified support to this strike," Holmstrom continued.

"The News, Tribune, the other Chicago dailies and the Post-Record, all have sided with the Pullman strikers," Holmstrom said.

Holmstrom told the business of the fight the Pullman workers were in and the need of extending the strike to other departments. He described the "progressive wage cut" policy initiated by Francis Con, of safety expert. The "progressive wage cut" means cutting the wages in one department at a time so that only one group of workers will revolt at one time.

Can't Work in the Air. The steel shop men have fooled the company, said Holmstrom. They are standing pat and extending the strike. Soon the rest of the plant will have to shut down for they can't "work in the air" if the steel skippers refuse to build the foundations for the cars.

Holmstrom, who is a powerful speaker, pounded the speed-up system with the force of a rivet-gun. His voice crashed thru the hall as he flayed the driving piece work tactics of the "efficiency experts" who have taxed the men to the last limit of endurance.

Like U. S. Government. Only a powerful union can check this deadly speeding and prevent progressive wage cuts, said the speaker. The company union is useless to the workers. The company organization and further improve the conditions of the workers in the trade.

The conference decided to issue a monthly bulletin and elected H. O. McHenry, secretary of local 587, as the editor.

The next session of the conference will be held in Reading, Pa. on July 5, 1924.

GROUP OF PULLMAN STRIKERS

Strike pickets gathered in front of their hotel at 250 E. 15th St. Note the five-year-old picket who will with his father.

He has also taken to selling the DAILY WORKER among those still at work.

R. R. CARMEN'S VICE PRESIDENT PAYS TRIBUTE TO DAILY WORKER; FLAYS SCAB PULLMAN COMPANY

"I want to extend my thanks and that of the strikers for the support rendered by the Workers Party and the DAILY WORKER in our fight against one of the rottenest labor-baiting companies in America," said John Holmstrom, vice-president of the Brotherhood of Railway Carmen to an audience of workers that packed Stank's hall at 205 E. 115th St., May 1st evening in Pullman.

It was the Workers Party May Day celebration. Max Salzman of the Young Workers League, had just finished speaking when the strike leader came striding down the aisle and mounted the platform.

PULLMAN STRIKE STOPS ORDER FOR 3,000 CARS; WHOLE PLANT MAY CLOSE

News that the Pullman Steel Car Company has been unable to do a top of work during the last three weeks on a rush order for 3,000 steel cars leaked into strike headquarters yesterday.

The order was to have been filled at the 73rd Street shops but the company have no men for the steel department at the main plant which is now on strike, much less for the new work.

John Holmstrom, vice-president of the Brotherhood of Railway Carmen, told the DAILY WORKER that it was only a matter of time until the entire Pullman plant would be shut down. The effective tie-up of the car body builders is holding up work in other departments.

SLUGGERS CAN'T STOP SAM GREEN OF Y. W. I. FROM SELLING PAPERS

Pullman strikers are angered at Chicago detectives, Emil Merz and Frank O'Keefe for assaulting and arresting Sam Green, the Young Workers League while he was selling the DAILY WORKER in front of the Pullman plant May Day morning.

The two plainclothesmen slugged Green when he demanded that they show their badges and prove they were policemen, after they had seized his papers.

Green was promptly baited out by John Stankovic, owner of Stank's hall, who told the strikers met yesterday morning demanded a jury trial in the South Chicago court where John Holmstrom and a DAILY WORKER representative appeared.

Green was back on the strike line this morning and said he would sell papers before the day was over. The total number of DAILY WORKERS sold May Day in front of the Pullman plant was 1,200.

HEART BREAKING SCENES ENACTED AT MINE HORROR

BESWOOD, W. Va., May 2.—The Wheeling Steel Corporation is directly responsible for the deaths of the 25 miners who died in a gas explosion at this mine Tuesday, according to W. W. Bradley, a miner who arrived at the mine shortly after the disaster occurred.

The mine was one of the oldest mines in the state and had been very carefully inspected. The fire boss was reported drunk most of the time and the fire boss was in a bad condition. Bradley claims that the men could not have failed to notice the gas and that they had made every effort to all to inspect the mine.

Both of them paid for their carelessness in the strike and had sacrificed over a hundred innocent workers. President S. M. Scott of the Wheeling Steel Corporation, mentioned the explosion of three months ago, but failed to add that three miners lost their lives at that time and that there had been previous explosions.

The Beswood mine was organized for some time, but in 1922 the company broke the union during their strike. Bradley states, many union miners who had gone into this mine again in the hope of organizing it once more, said to the limit in the explosion, children having for their fathers.

Yarusich, one of these earnest organizers, is little known in District No. 5 of the United Mine Workers. He and Bradley went into the Westmoreland, Pa., field in 1922 and organized several locals.

Bradley says that John L. Lewis claims credit for the organization work he and Yarushich did and that John L. Lewis is also responsible to a degree for the disaster for his striking the Cleveland agreement.

The bodies taken from the mine are in a horrible condition, Bradley relates. "Most of the men were too badly hurt about the body and head to be identified. The scene in the Conzett morgue is too gruesome to describe.

Workers from all parts of three states, West Virginia, Ohio, and Pennsylvania, are coming and offering what little sympathy and help they can to the families of the dead workers," Bradley relates. "Wives crying, children howling for their fathers, but dead bodies refuse to answer. It's enough to break any human heart, but the capitalist class laugh at this. "One woman told me this morning her husband paid $25 for a job of coal, continues Bradley, "and there are many other cases of this kind."

It is highly probable that if the strikers' families of the workers, the Wheeling Steel company officials are, will be retained. Military and naval appropriations will be reduced to one seventh the present budget.

Defeat Of Liberal Party Bill May Bring Liberal-Labor Rift

LONDON, May 2.—The proportional representation bill, sponsored by the Liberal Party, was defeated in the House of Commons today 238 to 144. It is forecast that rejection of the bill, due to lack of support by the Labor Party, will widen the breach between the Liberals and Labor Party and may result in an early general election.

Liberals strongly favored adoption of the measure. They hoped it would give them a greater representation in the House of Commons.

Dawes Losing Sense Of National Dignity; Plan To Park Army

COPENHAGEN, May 2.—The new Government proposes that Denmark shall be the first nation in the world to disarm completely. The government next intends to introduce a bill providing for reduction of the army and navy to a few necessary frontier guards. Only a few soldiers and boats will be retained. Military and naval appropriations will be reduced to one seventh the present budget.

Englewood Y. W. L. Encounters Egg- Throwing Invasion

A recent meeting of the Englewood branch of the Young Workers League was almost swamped by an influx of outsiders. The Young Workers were outnumbered three to one but refused to believe that they were being conspired against by a greedy capitalist. Most of them snored. They emphasized their opposition with an egg-throwing contest. The egg-throwers, who were in the walls of the hall but failed to make any casualties among the Young Workers.

The outsiders began to leave at 10 p. m. and by 11 the Y. W. L. was left in undisputed possession of the hall and plans for further meetings, if the branch is given recognition at Chicago headquarters.

New York Laundry Workers Demand Raise In Pay From Bosses

NEW YORK, May 2.—The International Union of Laundry Workers, 230 has sent its demands to the hand laundry bosses of the city. In the downtown section they are demanding an increase of 45 to 57 a week. It is expected that the organization will support the campaign.

The union leaders will support the campaign of the laundry workers by demanding that their own laundry work be done by members of the union. The union looks forward to a hard fight which will, however, undoubtedly be successful.

REPORT COAL STRIKE NEAR SETTLEMENT

40,000 Coal Diggers Are Involved

KANSAS CITY, Mo., May 2.—Bainst for an agreement with the coal miners in the southwest has been reached according to reports from here.

Minor details in the new contract remain to be worked out by the sub-committee of the union representatives and operators carrying on negotiations before the agreement will be signed. The agreement will end the strike in effect since April 1st, and is expected to be completed tomorrow.

According to advance reports the workers will receive a pile of money for the present wage scale for three years have won most of their demands.

by the Workers Party. Max Balkman's speech explained the party's tactics in organizing a united political front against the "Teapo" bosses thru the June 17 Farmer-Labor conference.

The Workers Party activities in the Pullman strike, he showed are a necessary part of the party's program of activity in the class struggle.

Dunne Speaks With John Holmgren To Pullman Strikers

"Thirty years ago my father took part in a great railroad strike that began against the Pullman company," said William P. Dunne, editor of the DAILY WORKER, and member of the electrical workers union, addressing the Pullman strikers May day morning.

Dunne expressed his pleasure at seeing another battle against the gigantic open shop outfit that was dominated by the industry and the government of the United States. He urged the strikers to keep their lines intact now because this fight was probably just the starter for bigger revolts against the wage cutting scab policy of big capital.

The speaker traced the industrial situation that was forcing the workmen to revolt and said that indications pointed to nationwide working-class battles that could turn the tide and weaken by the open shop onslaught.

John followed John Holmgren, vice president of the Brotherhood of Railway Carmen and Karl Kieve, reporter for the DAILY WORKER. The strikers went to their room picking up with pep.

HOOVER LINKED TO LOBBYISTS OF SALMON TRUST

WASHINGTON, May 2.—Dan Sutherland, Alaska delegate to Congress, declared that lobbyists from the Alaska Packers Association, Libby, McNeill & Libby and the Pacific American Fisheries were working in the halls of Congress to prevent passage of the house bill to end monopoly of the salmon streams.

Testimony before Congress showed that the Salmon Trust thus favored, sold the military forces 2,200,000 cans of decomposed salmon, afterwards rejected.

Spurred by the expose now going on, President Coolidge has come out with the "Hoop War" and "Hoop Conspiracy" and "Hoop" obscenity referring to the desirability of ending the monopoly.

TELEGRAM FROM COOLIDGE TO FORD DEMANDED BY COMMITTEE

WASHINGTON, May 2.—Senator Norris, chairman of the Senate Agriculture Committee, today called for a telegram to furnish the committee with a copy of Ford between Dec. 19 and 21 last.

Without specifying what he desired the message contained, Norris directed Liebold to send the committee the telegram as soon as he returns to Detroit and he would be ready to meet the message to the committee in executive session before making it public.

HUGE GATHERINGS HELD THROUGH ALL U.S. ON MAY DAY

Chicago Workers Turn Out In Thousands

May Day was celebrated by thousands of workers in Chicago with an enthusiasm that marks the rising tide of labor's revolt in this country against the growing oppression of the capitalists and their rotten Teapo-Dome government.

The meeting was held under the auspices of the United Front May Day Conference of Chicago. The speakers were William P. Dunne, editor of the DAILY WORKER, Alexander Bittell, national secretary of the Political Committee for the World Bonded Debtors and bourgeois convention of July 1st.

The speakers dwelt upon the rise of capitalist dictators all over the world. They pointed out the challenge of the Soviet Russia under the Dictatorship of the Proletariat thru the Communist Party for the world bonded debtors.

There was an excellent concert program. The singing of the "Internationale" by the Proletarian Chorus and the singing of the "Red Flag" by the Proletarian Chorus and the singing of the "Red Flag" by the Proletarian Chorus.

2 STILL JAILED FROM PALMER'S MAY DAY PLOTS

Sacco - Vanzetti Await Workers' Action

By KARL FRETTHOLD.

The workers in dozens of foreign countries who are celebrating May Day this year will remember two workers who are in American prisons facing death as the result of a plot of the United States Department of Justice to scare the country into its May Day, 1919.

The country was scared, one man was murdered by the Department of Justice and to cover up the crime two workers were framed up and today, four years after their arrest, are in danger of the electric chair. They are Nicola Sacco and Bartholomew Vanzetti.

Sacco Tortured.

William Flynn and his agents of the department signed up a little bomb plot for May Day 1919. All the big politicians got nice little bombs in the mail the morning after the attack on February 25, 1920. Robert Ellis was arrested because another May Day was coming around. He was trying to have something to do with the bombs sent thru the mails. His friend Andrea Salzedo tried to hire a lawyer for him who was arrested for his part. Salzedo was arrested in the early part of March and was beaten and kicked and given the "old fish."

He was kept up for a week in an affidavit telling of hearing the screams of Salzedo on March 28th. Weeks passed. He was continually tortured. Ella later told how Salzedo gradually lost his mind. Salzedo killed his first husband four years ago. Mr. Von Vedenhoff of Bergent, N. J., had a letter from work saw a body drop from the top of the 13th floor of the Park Row building where the Department of Justice had its New York office and where Ella and Salzedo were imprisoned.

Salzedo had freed freedom from torture. At the morgue Mr. Salzedo was told, "He is yours now to do as you like with."

The authorities did not even bother to hold an inquest.

Sacco-Vanzetti Arrange Protest.

But Salzedo had friends. While he was imprisoned they were trying to get him a lawyer. Two of those friends were Nicola Sacco and Bartholomew Vanzetti. They had come to New York from Boston just a few days before the Department of Justice had to act as lawyer for Salzedo and Ella.

When they heard of the murder they turned their energy into arranging protest meetings. On May 30th they were arrested and taken to the court and questioned for hours about their radical connections.

But Sacco and Vanzetti had destroyed all literature that would connect them with the radical movement. They had seen what the government arrested as a foreign-born "red."

The Department of Justice was anxious to stop the protests against the killing of Salzedo.

Ella was rushed to Ellis Island and deported because she was the only person who could tell what had happened in the thirteenth floor of the Park Row building during the long weeks he and Salzedo were confined there.

It remained only for the Department of Justice to stop the spreading of the story of Salzedo's murder to his countrymen. After being held for many hours Sacco and Vanzetti were charged with killing a pay-roll guard and robbing him of $150.00.

The Department of Justice was saved again.

But the workers of the world learned the story of their frame-up and also of the murder of Salzedo. Where one worker would have heard of the killing of Salzedo if Sacco and Vanzetti had been permitted to hold their protest meetings today, hundreds of thousands know the story of that murder and how the authorities tried to cover it up by killing two more workers.

Christians, Pacifists Plead For Nation To Enter World Court

(Special to The Daily Worker.)

WASHINGTON, May 2.—A huge delegation of church and peace organizations besieged Congress today with a plea for American participation in the world court.

The court crusaders appeared at the opening of the hearings before a special Senate Proliferation Committee, which is considering various proposals for American participation in the world court.

James G. McDonald, head of the foreign policy association, in opening the session, urged that the Senate take steps guaranteeing full American adherence to the International Justice Court, now sitting.

MEXICAN WORKERS GIVE FOUR DAYS TO CELEBRATING GREAT INTERNATIONAL LABOR HOLIDAY

By JAY LOVESTONE. (Special Worker.)

MEXICO CITY, Mexico, April 30.—At a session of the Central Labor Council of Mexico City, I was somewhat surprised at the apparent ease with which the labor body was working, in view of the fact that the youthfulness and inexperience of organized labor in Mexico in general. The proceedings went on very smoothly and were handled with despatch.

The chief subject of debate for the sixty odd delegates crowded into the assembly hall was the problem of organizing successful May Day demonstrations. Communications from local unions after local union showed that there was widespread interest amongst the masses for making the international workers' holiday one huge demonstration of the solidarity of the oppressed masses. To an American accustomed to "Anti-red" denunciations beating the Communist union label every May first, and to July fourth spreadeagle orations on the Labor-Capital peace day September 17th, the attitude of the Mexican workers was most refreshing.

Russian Posters on Wall.

As a matter of fact the atmosphere surrounding the deliberations was in most striking and well-contrasted to the state of affairs in the atmosphere so characteristic of the average American union meeting. On the walls of the meeting room there were posters inscribed in Russian and English. The posters were in the hands of the peasant masses of Soviet Russia ready to welcome the capitalist reaction.

The Russian posters were prominently displayed on the wall of the working class factory. In the chair of the presiding officer there was seated an immigrant Italian who was an example of the type reared in the union of Spain-Italy and Oriental America. The Italian could see the native Indian, the American, the Mexican, the Chinese, the "Ginggo" type here and there were to be seen women deluged with the rain of "greenbacks" and various local unions come to the meeting in their working clothes, in their ordinary attire.

The salutations "Delegato" and "Brother" and so on were signified by the members of the Central Labor Council. The Mexican workers address each other as "comrades". The communications from the various local unions to the central body called the "Comite Federal" and the "Comite de Distrito Federal" and the "Comite de Seccion" and the "Comite de Union" in the English of our trade union movement this would be the shooting class of "greenbacks" and Social Revolution.

May Day Strike Planned.

There was considerable discussion over the question of taking the workers in the factories off their jobs on May 1st. The workers had made the plea that these workers should stay at their posts because of the bombing of the factory on May 1st. They would break no such rule by their presence at the factory on May 1st. They would present an unbroken front in the May 1st demonstration. A special committee was appointed to investigate the matter and to see that there would be no scabbing in the factories.

The workers from the ice bosses will very likely be encountered. One delegate reported that his employer had decided to run the factory on May 1st, that he had proudly boasted of his having no fear of a strike since he had already given his workers and had managed to "fix" them with bullets. In order to make sure that the ice bosses would not be able to get away from the chauffeurs, four mill workers volunteered to organize themselves into squads to prevent the ice manufacturers from violating the international holiday.

Remember Mayday Victims.

In all, the May Day celebrations planned by the Mexico City organized workers will last four days. Mass meetings, theatrical performances, concerts, parades, a demonstration to commemorate the murder of the anarchist workers in Chicago in 1887, an address by Louis N. Morison, president of the Mexican Federation of Labor, to be released to the workers of the whole country on the radio, are part of the auspicious program.

Extensive preparations for the celebration of the international workers' holiday are also keeping busy large sections of the unorganized masses of workers and peasants. The workers had the good fortune to take in a rehearsal of a great mass chorus of thousands of men, women and children. Crowded in the "Plazo", a sumptuous arena in the court of the "Secretaria de Educacion, Publica" and making thousands of workers and farmers dressed in their best and making their entrance under the direction of their leader who was preparing them for their part in the celebration. It was well as the fact that this bill give the consular officials the power to select those immigrants to return here and reject those who they regard as objectionable.

All these provisions it is clear to us are made for the purpose of establishing a system of selective immigration, threatening prospects of immigrants to accept a status of submission so they may be used by the employers in their endeavor to smash the existing labor organizations and lower the conditions of the workers in this country to that of the native and foreign born.

It is clear that the impending final adoption of this Johnson Bill, we call upon the Industrial Workers

DAVIS ATTACKS FOREIGN-BORN WAGE SLAVES

Defends Washington Robbers

Speaking before the rich men's clubs of this city in a lecture campaign in favor of more immigration, photographer, and defect foreign-born workers who do not accept the present order of things. James J. Davis declared that the only means to cut down the development of industry is to keep out undesirable.

How such a policy would prevent overdevelopment while the entire machinery of production is in the hands of the capitalists who are not to be blamed for the present state of affairs, he does not say.

But Mr. Davis is not an average person. He is a member of the Coolidge cabinet and can see nothing wrong in the high handed burglarious activities of practically the entire cabinet. Considerable number of whom have been unceremoniously ousted from office in an effort to save the Republican Party from being wrecked by the present order of things.

This is the Mr. Davis who has been invited to the convention in Indianapolis, where he is expected to lecture them on the duties of the employing class of the country. A foreigner himself, like newspapers and other newspapers, he is now the most bitter enemy of the foreign-born workers who are the fruits of their toil by the capitalists in America.

In his address to the City Club, Mr. Davis attacked the investigations in Washington. He particularly defended Attorney General Clegg, who was denounced by the progressive farmers who oppose any form of protection of their property. Davis commented on the fact that Clegg, Lewis, Gomer

CHICAGO COUNCIL FOR PROTECTION OF FOREIGN BORN WORKERS NOW ACTIVE IN AGITATIONAL DRIVE

In order to organize the working class for the protection of the foreign born workers, a council has been formed in the city of Chicago composed of local unions and other working class organizations, with a total of seventy thousand affiliated workers. The aim of this council is to organize a class protest against the drive of the employers and to unify the ranks of the workers against any such drive.

The drive of the employers against the foreign born workers has culminated in a number of anti-alien and immigration bills now before Congress which go as far as to demand the registration of aliens in this country and give the Secretary of Labor the power to deport any alien, which he regards undesirable, and to import any class of labor which may be necessary for the industrial needs of the country.

In order to estimate the gravity of the political situation and due to the fact that this is an election year, and a such a bill were adopted it would mean the defeat of the party advocating it, the Employing Class Association has organized a committee of the Johnson Bill, which will be sent to a committee which does not call for the registration of aliens in this country, yet is a condition of the Johnson Bill could be found and one that must be fought by the Militant Workers in order to prevent their interests.

The Chicago Council for the protection of Foreign Born Workers has just issued a circular and the following letter to Congressmen Johnson the originator of the Johnson immigration bill which has now passed both the House of Representatives and the Senate.

"On behalf of the Chicago Council for protection of Foreign Born Workers composed of Local Unions and other working class organizations, with a total of seventy thousand affiliated workers, I am instructed to protest against the final passage of the Johnson Bill H.R. 6240.

We protest the final passage of the Johnson Bill because of its immigration clause, stipulating that applicants for immigrants certificates shall furnish in the consular office copies of his military record, and prison record, if any, as well as copies of all available public records concerning him, kept by the Government to which he owes allegiance. We protest the passage of this bill for its stipulation that the documents furnished shall be permanently attached to their registration certificate as well as the fact that this bill give the consular officials the power to select those immigrants to return here and reject those who they regard as objectionable.

All these provisions it is clear to us are made for the purpose of establishing a system of selective immigration, threatening prospects of immigrants to accept a status of submission so they may be used by the employers in their endeavor to smash the existing labor organizations and lower the conditions of the workers in this country to that of the native and foreign born.

PATRIOTIC SUGAR PLANTERS REVOLT IN CUBA PROVINCE

Four Veterans Held By Zayas Government

(Special to The Daily Worker.)

HAVANA, May 2.—The Zayas Government today took drastic steps to put down rebellion which has broken out in the Province of Santa Clara. Orders were issued for arrest of all leaders of the patriots and veterans' association, the organization consisted of 100 members, including 40 veterans and four men were taken in custody in Havana. They are Mario Garcia Ysla, brother of General Ysla, Carlos Alaugray, wealthy sugar planter and vice-president of the veterans' association, Dr. Oscar Solis, a lawyer and secretary and treasurer of the association, and Pedro Morion, leader of the movement in Havana.

The government announced local troops had clashed with the rebels at Juan de los Rios, outside of Sagua, the city hall, which they had set. The rebels sustained numerous casualties.

Packers Hid Big Profits And Got Away With It

(By The Federated Press.)

WASHINGTON, May 2.—Warning has been issued to Attorney General Stone by Benjamin C. Marsh of the Farmers National Council, that the progressive farmers will oppose any modification of the consent decree under which former Attorney General Palmer dropped the antitrust prosecution of the big meat packers.

"Palmer entered into a shady collusion with the packers, on the condition to prevent any real packer control legislation," says Marsh. "When the faces of a packer control bill was finally enacted and entrusted to Secretary Wallace to administer, he promptly went to deal to enforce it. The April bill of the National City Bank, an Armour institution, states the combined sales of Armour, Swift, Wilson and Cudahy in 1923 were $2,915,000, and their combined profits $1,415,000. Thanks to Secretary Wallace, the meat packers can still put their books and conceal $500,000.00 of their profits."

Weather Raising Rumpus With U. S. Round-World Flight

KASHIWARA, BAY, Murie Islands, Via Tokyo, May 2.—Two crews landing from the Japanese and American destroyers here to establish a base for the American, round the world airplane flight, were caught in a gale Sunday and driven ashore. One was from the American destroyer Ford and the other from the Japanese destroyer Tokitsukune. Japanese and American officers and men struggled through the water nearly saving their boats. No lives were lost.

Warned Women Seek Forbidden Floyd Dell Book

DAVENPORT, Iowa, May 2.—Floyd Dell's "Janes March" has been the most popular book at the library since Miss Hermine Schmedt told the local Chamber of Commerce to shun it. Miss Schmedt, hailing back from California, warned the Iowans to avoid socialist literature and ban Socialist speakers. She got her audience of women's civic societies so excited that they have been beseeching the library for all forbidden books ever since.

Dell was once a newspaper reporter in Davenport but apparently that isn't why the women want to read his book in spite of an undecided Miss Schmedt's protests.

Guns Get the Dough.

IRVINGTON, N.J., May 2.—Four bandits today held up a Irvington State Bank, forced the cashier and a customer into the vault and escaped with between $2,000 and $3,000.

Two of the men entered the bank and the two others stayed in an automobile outside.

U. S. Needs River Boats in China.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 2.—Six river gunboats to cruise in Chinese waters were ordered by the State Department to be purchased by the U. S. Navy. The gunboats were among the requests of the National League of Women Voters after a spirited debate on the convention floor Monday.

Slaves Peep At New Hubby Who Manages Wife's $50,000,000

ASHVILLE, N. C., May 2.—Two of the oldest families in the United States and Great Britain were united here today with the marriage of John Francis Cecil and Miss Cornelia Vanderbilt.

Cecil announced his resignation from the British Diplomatic Service before the ceremony and after a honeymoon in Europe, will return here to help his bride in administering her vast $45,000,000 estate.

At the ceremony more than 1,000 guests were entertained at Billmore House. Hundreds of employees of the estate were included in this number.
