Workers Do Not Fear Lockout Threats

(Special to The Daily Worker)
ST. PAUL, Min., May 5.—The most important convention ever held in this country, and the one in which the workers have the greatest opportunity to mobilize their strength and to demonstrate their real power, will meet in the city of St. Paul on June 17.

NEW FACTS SHOW SUPPORT TO KOLCHAK AND FAILURE IN DRIVE FOR YUDENITCH

COME TO ST. PAUL BY ALEXANDER HOWAT

The DAILY WORKER is today publishing additional correspondence from Washington showing how the United States not only aided the anti-Soviet War, but how the Yudenitch armies in Western Europe, but how the government also gave aid to the Kolchak attack on the Soviets in the Far East.

A HOOVER ATTACK THAT FAILED

A Hoover Attack That Failed

(Special to The Daily Worker)
WASHINGTON, May 5.—You'd have been the biggest American in Europe, if this thing had gone over; it was just your hard luck that stopped the success of Yudenitch and the fall of the Reds. If you had won, nothing would have been too good for you.

While the Marx-Stresemann government has a majority of seats it will be unable to muster the two-thirds vote to put through the railroad amendment necessary to the transferring of the government transportation system to private interests.

The telegram of greetings followed a parade thru the streets of Boston. The police allowed the paraders to carry no slogans but when the march ended Mayor James Curley presented the keys of the city to the delegates whom he wants to line up for Al Smith.

Welders and bench-finishers walked off the Pullman plant in a unit yesterday and joined the strike of the riveters, buckers, reamers and heaters.

For the Marx-Stresemann coalition the returns give Reichstag seats as follows: Prussian, 35; democrats, 30; centrists, 41; folkists, 33; Hanoverian, 4; and the undivided Bavarian, 26.

Some of the strikers have been carrying on useful educational work among their fellow workers against the overtime evil.

The strikers say that Hymen's former associates in the Chicago Dressmakers' Manufacturers' organization will have to give up their open shop idea if they want to get ready for the summer rush.

PARK BABIES WHILE THEY PICKET SCHOOL

Women Knit Furiously As Line Grows

By BETTY CONNOLLY CARPENTER For the Federated Press.

Haverhill, Mass.—The mothers of Haverhill are carrying on an active picketing campaign to close the Carter public school. For the past three years the parents in this school district claimed that the building is antiquated, unsafe and unsanitary.

During the past few weeks the women have maintained a picket line in the morning when the school was opened they were at the entrance with their children whom they were keeping out of school. The picket line had only a few women daily it grew. Some women with their first, others come with baby carriages and make a dash when they take their turn in the picket line.

Women Carry Banners. On some are the words "Carter School (read) "Carter School (read) "Send Your children here, School is unsafe, "Sanitary School." The women picket in the morning and afternoon after school. When the children come out of the building the pickets send a note home to the mother of each child. The note tells of the conditions and asks for support in the fight to close the school.

The protest was so well planned and executed that each day hundreds of people gather in front of the school and see the condition of the building and the pickets. The pickets also call the police are called upon to keep the people from picketing, but in this they have failed.

The trustee officer called upon the parents and threatened them with arrest if they did not stop their picketing. But the mothers were faithful in spite of threats. They told him, "We would rather be in jail than have our children in this school."

A Firetrap. The Carter school was built 22 years ago at the edge of a large swamp which is now filled and on which are built hundreds of tenement houses. The land now under the swamp was the property of one of Haverhill's leading citizens, who owned the balance as landlord of the tenements that sprang up around the school. Its rickety old stairs, narrow, with a turn half way up, and placed in dark corners, these buildings, make it a firetrap. Twenty years ago fire escapes were put on the outside of the building, but these were pulled away so far from the building that they have become a laughing matter.

In the air-raid room in the basement is a stove upon which the noonday lunches are prepared. The ventilation is in keeping with the building itself. Old and unwholesome appliances in the toilet room are a constant menace to the children.

Feeling has run so high that the authorities have stationed a police man to see that no damage is done to the school building. The police officer has promised to confer with the school board to see whether the council or the board has the right to close the building.

Meanwhile a hundred or more mothers picket and knit, while their attorney tries to get action.

Christians Having Hard Time To Make Nazarene's Ideas Stand

(By the Federated Press)

NEW YORK, May 5.—Presidential veto of the immigration bill, allowing only 2 per cent on the basis of the 1920 census, is denounced in a letter to Coolidge by the executive committee, Fellowship of Reconciliation, New York. The bill "is a violation of the principle of brotherhood, and is both unchristian and un-American," says Bishop Paul Jones, who signs the letter.

"Even more strongly we deplore the indignity cast on Japan by the special provisions directed against her," the letter adds. The Fellowship of Reconciliation is described as "a group of people who believe that we can and should apply to concrete situations the principles taught by Jesus Christ."

PULLMAN STRIKER ON PICKET DUTY SELLS THE DAILY WORKER

Expected To Knife The Soldiers' Bonus

WASHINGTON, May 5.—Calvin Coolidge vetoed the Thurston pension bill, basing his disapproval on the ground of expense. The bill represented an expenditure of approximately $150,000,000 and granted increase of pensions to veterans, widows, dependent children and nurses of the Civil, Mexican, 1812, Spanish, Philippine and Boxer wars. It is rumored here that the Wall Street manager in the White House will treat the soldiers' bonus bill in the same manner.

The President in his veto message said substantially it was regrettable that heroes who had fought and been satisfied with the glory gained. However, he cannot tolerate any more competing with the sacred fire of patriotism, which are liable to be quenched by a surplus of oil and bribes to war veterans for doing their plain duty.

Coolidge feels that if he were to compensate soldiers for fighting for the capitalists hereafter, and if this compensation comes out of the pockets of those who have money, as it must, the prospects for the future are not bright for those who make millions on wars. Think of the cost of a pension for a man who has served the interests of the millions who were mobilized in the late war "coolidge some votes, but Wall Street saw a dead line beyond which he is not allowed to go. President Harding's attitude on his political neck.

In his moral indignation, Coolidge said in his message: "I am for economy. I am against every unnecessary payment of the money of the taxpayers." "The cost of commodities is diminishing. Under such conditions the cost of government should not be increasing. The desire to do justice to pensioners must be left to the discretion of the law to do justice to taxpayers. The advantages of class legislation are the will of the nation."

Thus the Wall Street lawyer disapproved the pension bill, but he will use the same argument in vetoing the bonus bill, which is a resolution passed by the House in a similar measure by Senator Huron.

Miners Protest Bill To Register Workers Of Foreign Birth

(Special To The Daily Worker)

MINERSVILLE, Pa., May 5.—More than 100 miners of this district are following the resolution at a recent meeting of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of America, which was passed by the executive committee of the department of justice and the Bureau of Investigation, of which he is still the active head.

Richard Francis Satchel, the miners' spokesman, said that he is most active in opposing the bill. He is a Republican who has worked with Burns.

Appropriations of $2,250,000 for the bureau of investigation, department of justice, for 1923, and the amount requested for 1924 are "over twice as great as during the war and over four times as great as before the war. The great increases being based largely on the need of combating radicals," states the resolution sent to the senate committee. Radical action "is not such a demand of the government, as proved clearly by the bureau's failure to find any basis for prosecutions," the resolution says.

The deflated joker in the administration's immigration bill, permitting deportation of citizens for alleged radicalism, was inserted in the bill by the National Security League, Director Roger N. Baldwin told the Liberties Union meeting.

'That Old Devil Sea' Made Trouble For Harry Thaw's Sister

NEW YORK, May 5.—Countess Margaret Thaw De Perigny, sister of Harry K. Thaw, was named co-defendant in an action for divorce filed by Mrs. Madeline Helen Knudsen in Brooklyn, it was known today.

Mrs. Norton asks an absolute divorce from her husband, Emmetuel Victor Norton, of New York, on the ground of his infidelity with the countess while they were abroad the Hermitage on a voyage to Paris.

Countess De Perigny gave Norton presents, including an automobile and $10,000 in cash, Mrs. Norton alleges.

Mellon Charged With Drawing Surtax Plan For Big Corporations

WASHINGTON, May 5.—The Mellon surtax plan was drawn as a political favor to big business, Senator Simmons, North Carolina, charged in the Senate Saturday when the rates were formally taken up for a vote.

Simmons opened the fight by stating that the 40 per cent maximum surtax instead of the Mellon 25 per cent proposal "tracing the history of Mellon's tax recommendations, Simmons declared that the bill was a political favor to big business, and that it was a lower than Congress ever saw fit to adopt.

Local Union For June 17th. Local No. 36124 of the International Brotherhood of Bookbinders was on record at its last meeting for "Farmer-Labor Party." It endorsed the June 17th convention. The committee, designated by the local union, called for a political action called for May 14th by the Cleveland Federated Farmers' Union to vote for the organization of a Cleveland Labor Party. The committee is composed of Wm. C. Williams, William Keck, business agent, and Paul Bergman.

GETTING BEHIND THE DAILY WORKER

Among the recent recruits to the rapidly growing army of DAILY WORKER supporters are the strikers in the huge plant of the Pullman Co. at Pullman, Ill. Working for the DAILY WORKER while doing picket duty. Their slogan is, "Spread the Strike!" The Pullman organization now numbers about 20,000 workers at Pullman, Ill. and at Michigan City, Indiana. A few of the many departments are out. The strikers hope to achieve a general walkout in the whole plant.

IMPOVERISHED FARMERS ON "GOLDEN GRAIN" PRAIRIES OF CANADIAN WEST ARE IN REVOLT

The fertility of the prairie lands of the Northwest is a matter of world renown. The rich black loam makes possible the production of hard wheat in quantities which stagger the imagination.

The immigration officials of the Dominion government; the publicity agents of the Canadian Pacific Railroad and other large land-owning corporations never tire of picturing, in the most glowing colors, the occurrence of golden grain.

But it must be understood that although Nature has endowed these wide-flung plains with a generous hand, the actual tillers of the soil are in desperate plight. Canadian agriculture is staggering around on crutches.

The province of Manitoba, the largest of this province carries a debt of five million dollars. In three typical municipalities 48,000 acres of land were foreclosed in one year because of the inability of the farmers to pay their taxes.

The Burden of Debt. The province of Manitoba, the largest of this province carries a debt of five million dollars. In three typical municipalities 48,000 acres of land were foreclosed in one year because of the inability of the farmers to pay their taxes.

Sunny Albert Kiewit tells his tale of woe of the olive leadership and the total indifference of this province to will over 750,000,000. The province has tax sales over 10,000 farms with a total acreage in excess of 1,000,000. Foreclosures for arrears of 400,000. Foreclosures for arrears of 400,000. Foreclosures for arrears of 400,000.

Farming Does Not Pay. It is becoming more and more apparent that farming does not pay from the viewpoint of the farmer. A expenditure of at least one dollar for each acre of average price received by the farmers of Canada was 87 cents. This makes a deficit of $13,000,000 on the total wheat crop. In 1923 the price dropped to 87 cents. The crop of this year was the largest in the history of the country and the price was far below the average price received by the farmers of Canada was 87 cents.

Mortgages are increasing by leaps and bounds; and the destitution of the farmers of this Northwest is becoming terrible. They are fast going to the level of landless slaves masquerading as proletarian employers of labor.

Their plight is getting worse. The prices they pay for the commodities they need in the increase, while the bottom has dropped out of the market for their products. The situation is becoming more and more desperate.

The Canadian farmer is face to face with bankruptcy. Thousands are leaving the farms and seeking pastures new. Despite the frantic efforts of the political exploiters of the organized farmers' party, which promises a large scale the number of vacant farms is steadily increasing.

Farmer Revive. The farmers are beginning to show signs of life. They are beginning to show signs of life. They are beginning to show signs of life.

The milk-and-water policy of class collaboration so long expounded by the leaders of the grain growers (the Clearing Mahari) is being slowly exposed. The Progressive Party, which is the political expression of the organized farmers' party, which promises a large scale the number of vacant farms is steadily increasing.

ANOTHER BANK CLOSES DOORS IN FROZEN NORTH

Ruin of Former Blamed For Bankruptcy

ST. PAUL, Minn., May 5.—The capital Trust and Savings Bank, one of the largest in St. Paul, with $400,000 deposits, closed its doors today. The closing came after a practically all night session of the directors and officials with A. J. Veale, State Superintendent of Banks.

"The difficulties," Veale said, "are due to frozen assets" in the form of North Dakota and Montana paper, which cannot now be liquidated. The bank has capital stock of $500,000 and is operated in connection with the Capital National Bank, The National Institution, it is said, is not affected by the closing.

Reports were that other St. Paul banks and the clearing house association will be closed. The Capital Trust and Savings bank, J. L. Mitchell is president of the bank. It was organized December 1, 1919.

Big Game Believes In Open Grafting Upon Arrived At

ROCHESTER, N. Y., May 6.—Big business is trying to stop the congressional investigations of the graft of the Harding-Walsh administration.

Frank A. Vandervler told the Western New York Publishers Association in a speech at Rochester. "The investigation must bring radicalism if it is to be of any use. It has always been part of government and it is a necessary order of public campaign."

Vandervler who has aroused the ire of the former Wall Street administration by starting a private investigating bureau to help the Wheeler and Walsh committee declared "The job is only started. Dauberly is out, but his appointees are still scattered throughout the Department. William J. Burns, chief government detective, is one of those remaining."
