Germany Trembles to the Tramp of the Workingclass

GOMPERS AIDS SIGMAN WAR ON LEFT IN BOSTON MEETING OF INTERNATIONAL

By REBECCA GRECH.
(Special to The Daily Worker.)
BOSTON, Mass., May 9.—Another "red raid" against all things Communist was carried out here by Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, with the usual accompaniments, when he addressed the convention of the International Ladies Garment Workers Union.

Morris Sigman, president of "The International," whose steam roller had been busy for days eliminating left wingers from the convention, presented Gompers to the convention as "Our Chief."

Applause Carefully Staged.
Carefully staged applause had greeted the Anti-Sovietist upon his entrance to the convention hall. He came in while the delegates were discussing the unseating of four delegates of Local No. 1, of New York City. The same claque who had applauded the vindictive attacks of Vice-Presidents Israel Peinberg, Meyer Perlstein and the rest of the official crew, against the militants, again exerted themselves for "Sammy."

But the militants had been busy and when Gompers entered all delegates had in their hands leaflets stating Gompers' opposition to immigration and in favor of the notorious anti-labor Johnson bill.

Take Up Case of Local 9.
The climax in the contest growing out of the report of the credentials committee was reached with the case of Local No. 9, of New York City. In this case charges were made against both the local and its delegates.

The credentials committee recommended the unseating of eight delegates, charging that a secret meeting, held with outsiders, nominated the elected delegates.

The committee also recommended that Local No. 9 be absent until the dictatorship of the General Executive Board for some time, because it had disobeyed the decision of the committee in that it had taken no action against the league members, and because, as was alleged, it is absent until the delegates from outsiders.

Progressive Control Local.
Local No. 9 is now under the control of progressives and is opposing certain policies of the General Executive Board. The administration forces aim to seize control of the local and to destroy every vestige of the progressive control.

Delegate Louis Hyman, manager of Local No. 9, defended the seating of the delegates, charging that the case was a frame-up, based on the flimsy evidence offered by one individual. There was no corroborative evidence offered and no investigation. Hyman charged that the objections against the delegates border on the tactics familiar to marital and labor law. He charged that the officialism holds caucuses and uses its power to prevent the election to the convention of well-known union members disagreeing with the international policy of the regime in power. Instead they secure the election of unknown members in order to solidify the control of the machine.

Other delegates, defending the accused, charged that the Sigman administration seeks to destroy the local. They stated that preparations had been made three weeks ago to unseat the delegates.

Thus the unseating of these delegates the Sigman administration effected its aim, not the Trade Union Educational League, but against the program and principles of the entire left.

The secretary of the credentials committee bitterly attacked the President, the Jewish Communist, and the eight delegates whose seats were contested were suspended on a roll call by a vote of 225 to 42. The local was placed under the supervision of the General Executive Board by a vote of 214 to 23.

New Workers Unseated.
It was after the Sigman machine had rolled out a vote of 207 to 51 in favor of the unseating of the New York delegates that the committee gave the floor and, with his usual bitter invective, launched into an attack on the Workers Party, the Trade Union Educational League and all things and persons Communist.

PULLMAN PACT IS REFUSED BY ANGRY STRIKERS Will Not Buy Jobs By Blacklist

The striking carbuilders of the Pullman Company shop again unanimously decided to strike until their strike committee is recognized, instead of the "company union" stool pigeons appointed by the Pullman officials, to represent them, and decided to go back to work until their demands are met.

At a conference earlier in the day with Francis Gunn, and other Company officials, some of the strikers found that the only offer made them to return to work was to go back to work until their demands are met.

FIVE RESTAURANT BOSSES GRANTED HOT INJUNCTION

Rushing to the aid of the crowd striking Boston's 12-hour day, Judge Hugo Freund of Circuit Court issued an injunction forbidding picketing in front of five of the downtown restaurants affected by the strike of the Amalgamated Food Store strikers.

At a late hour last night, strikers were keeping the scene away in good shape, and the only effect of Freund's unpopularity was to put more pressure into the fight for civilized conditions.

The enjoined shops are the Pomeroy, 1129 Argyle Ave.; the Elroy, Lawrence Ave. and the "L" station; Curry's, 118 Wilton Ave.; the Pines, to 474 Lincoln Ave. and the Elite, at 1037 Wilton Ave.

Ruhr Strike and Threatened Extention To Saxony Bring Grave Political Crisis

BERLIN, May 9.—The strikes and lockouts continue in the Ruhr with increasing prospects of a sympathy strike in Saxony. The German government is willing to try to settle the Ruhr economic questions but shies at intervention, due to the political aspects of the lockouts. The strikes are now under Communist direction.

A separatist plot was unearthed today which provided for formation of the "Ruhr Economic Republic."

Documents revealing the plot showed that the separatist plan embodied occupation of the mines, the products of which could then be devoted to reparations.

It was proposed to start negotiations with France, Belgium and Great Britain in the name of the Prussian state once the occupation was effected.

The workers would also have the eight hour day upon which they have insisted.

RECHT FINDS SOVIET FORGING RAPIDLY AHEAD

Moscow Interested In Washington Scandals
(By The Federated Press)
NEW YORK, May 9.—Conditions in Russia are rapidly improving, it is reported brought back from Moscow by Charles Rech, legal attaché in the Russian government in New York.

Rech, who has returned from a three-month trip to various European countries, and also progress in Russia in strange contrast to the deterioration and economic chaos in the other countries, he said.

An invitation to Dr. John Dewey, formerly of Columbia university, from Lenin's widow, inviting him to come to Russia as educational adviser to the government, was brought by Rech. Rech, who is a teacher by profession and now in charge of extending Russia's educational system, told Rech that certain Russian workers the world's greatest educator Dewey has been invited to visit with her letter, and she now hopes that he will come in person.

Moscow is much interested in the reversal of the "Nip" economic policy is bank," Rech told the Federated Press in describing Russian conditions. He went on to say that there had been popular protest against the "Nip" policy, and now, proffers, and as a result the government has sent many of them to Siberia. The cabinet is closed and Moscow is as tight as a drum after 16 weeks at night. Moscow is still the safest capital in Europe and has little crime, he said.

Moscow is much interested in the revolution of wholesale graft in the Washington government which is going to be abolished. They think that there are fewer grafters in Russia, but the grafters in the United States, he said, are officials or Communists," Rech explained. Speaking of the recent breakdown of business negotiations, he said he did not anticipate war between Russia and Romania, as Russia is very anxious for peace.

Rykov, Lenin's successor, is described by Rech as an able organizer, who has won the confidence of the people and of his fellow party members. Without wishing to initiate policies of his own, he is determined to lead Russia along the lines laid down by Lenin.

BURNS GIVES FINAL WHINE AGAINST REDS AND "SOVIET GROSS"

WASHINGTON, May 9.—Burns' resignation had been expected since former attorney general Daugherty retired from the cabinet, because of his close association with Daugherty.

"I have been planning to resign for some time," Burns said, "even before Mr. Daugherty left the department. But Daugherty would not let me."

The last straw that broke the camel's back was the information that the senate investigating committee was preparing to open up the darkest chapter in the Burns' career. The probing souls were about to turn the "Red Flag" activities as a director of labor spying.

Follows I. W. W. Exposure.
The committee's evidence includes 200 letters from the files of the Los Angeles branch of the Burns agency. Some of them over Burns' own signature, showing how Department of Justice operatives were dispatched to Arizona to spy on the activities of the I. W. W. in its espionage work for the copper interests. The espionage was directed against the Industrial Workers of the World and the American Federation of Labor and the original evidence was obtained by the I. W. W.

Further evidence relates to Burns' illegal use of Department of Justice funds in breaking the shopmen's strike.

His resignation follows close on the heels of his failure to get a huge special appropriation for his labor spy bureau.

DETROIT CARMEN IN FIGHT TO SAVE UNION

DETROIT, May 9.—The Detroit carmen and the managers of the city-owned and operated street railway system have at last committed themselves to a wide-open effort to smash the carmen's union in Detroit.

The union led off with a demand for a 14 per cent wage increase and improved working conditions, calling attention to the fact that in spite of promises a large proportion of the platform men have to put in from 12 to 15 hours a day to get eight hours' pay.

The street railway commission refused to deal with the union. Instead it attempted to arbitrate with a large committee of platform men selected by itself on a seniority basis. The commission then announced that it was prepared to offer the 500 platform workers at a low rate, due to be taken from the weekly pay envelopes. It was believed this offer would be the end of the men's solidarity.

Next, the department of street railways, thru the general manager, ordered the business agent and the secretary of the local to go back to work on the street cars, at one day's notice. As a workers' mass meeting, attended by a third of the platform men, all who were not at work, a resolution was unanimously passed authorizing the two officers and the president to remain on their jobs as officials of the union. The managers of the system struck the names of the secretary and business agent and see the mayor and council. Recognition of the union, they did not report for work at the bars the following day. The president was not at the meeting and they did not report for work at the bars the following day. 47,000 GERMAN SHIPBUILDERS IN HARD STRIKE

W or k e r s U n d a n t e d A f t e r 10 W e e k s
By LOUIS P. LOCHNER,
Federal Press Staff Correspondent.
HAMBURG, Germany, May 9.—Over 47,000 German workers engaged in the shipbuilding industry are making a heroic fight for the maintenance of the eight-hour day, for recognition of their union, and for a 10 per cent wage increase. The Hamburg workers number 18,000 with over 10,000 in the Bremen, 2,000 at Bremen.

The National Association of German Metal Industries is throwing its organization into this fight, because if they can win over the radical workers on the water front, they will have an easier time in the interior.

On the other hand, the local population in every place affected is solidly behind the strikers. This explains so far that certain districts of the shipbuilding concerns have taken up the cause of the strikers to their tables to stop in a measure for the sake of the stockholders. The small business men are freely advancing credit to the strikers.

In January the employers, in the face of an arbitration award which had been declared binding upon both parties, made arbitrary regulations regarding hours. The unions instructed their men to work eight hours and demand that the ship owners then declared a lockout.

Lumber-Camp Tie-Up In Pacific West Is Worrying the Bosses

His anxiety is expressed in two confidential bulletins recently sent from his office to employing lumbermen in Washington and Oregon.

McInosh's Bulletin No. 695 says: "There has been no official announcement of the I. W. O. as yet. It is a general strike in the lumber woods this year, but there is no doubt that the I. W. PATIENCE AND FIRMNESS WINS FOR ENGLEWOOD YOUNG WORKER

Over one hundred young American workers came to meeting held by the Englewood Branch of the Young Workers League Thursday evening. This is one of a series of meetings being held every two weeks. At the previous meeting attempt had been made to disrupt the meeting. Eggs had been fired at speakers and the meeting was interfered with in many other ways.

When Thursday's meeting was called to order, the hall was crowded with young people, all of whom came more out of curiosity than because of their interest in the organization. Here, too, an attempt was first made to disrupt the meeting by a few of the agitators who were employed by the I. W. O. They were firmly informed that they had to keep order or they would be thrown out of the hall.
