Teapot Dome Report Slaps Burglars On Wrist

SHOULD BE CAREFUL IF NOT GOOD

Thieves Must Hang Together or—

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 5.—Blackmail, corruption, bribery, and wholesale use of government for private profit, are the charges made against the principals involved in the Teapot Dome and Naval Reserve oil scandal, in the report of Senator T. J. Walsh of Montana, to the Senate today. No suggestion is made, however, of the white sweep of the corruption disclosed, that reached into the White House.

The report brings to an end the long and sensational "scandal" inquiry which involved scores of men high in public life and resulted in the resignation of a cabinet officer. It was written by Senator Thomas J. Walsh. A minority report may be submitted later by Senator Spencer, Missouri, Republican, who objects to many features of the Walsh report.

Leases Not O. K.
The chief features of the Walsh report are:
Denunciation of the leases made by former Secretary of the Interior Fall and Harry F. Sinclair and E. L. Doherty on the federal land that they were made in "entire disregard of law."

A severe arraignment of Fall for covering "loans" of $2,000,000 from Sinclair and Doherty with Federal money, with an attack upon the former Secretary of the Navy "for charging distribution of duty in Illinois, to increase the leases before affixing his signature to them."

How to Run Legally.
A suggestion that hereafter no lease of government oil lands should be made without competitive bidding and that only in case the lands are suffering from drainage by adjacent properties.

A requirement that hereafter leases should be passed upon by the committee on the floor.

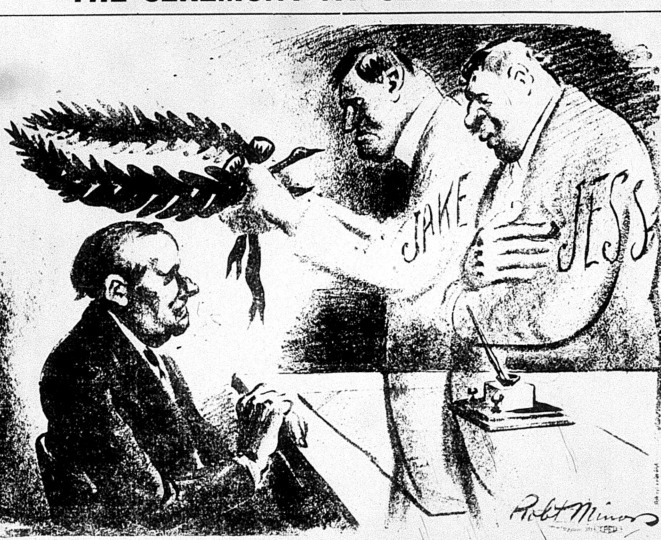

A charge that the leases are "corrupt" without mentioning names of those against whom corruption is charged, but naming it clearly at the had done principals in connection with the leases.

An attack upon Fall for using the marine to chase off from Teapot Dome certain squatters who were containing Sinclair's rights. Walsh calls this "an outrageous and unjustified use of the armed forces of the United States," and declares a civil suit should have been instituted to cause of the squatters.

Sinclair Too Loose.
Denial that the leases should be justified on the ground that there was heavy drainage that was diminishing the supply of oil in the ground.

On the G. O. P. Birthday

By ROBERT MINOR.
Another article on the Cleveland G. O. P. Convention written specially for the DAILY WORKER.

THE Republican party's national convention, opening at Cleveland tonight, is a very important one. It will practically be called to order on its centennial birthday. A short-notice vice of the "Grand Old Party" of the highest and highest order nobility of Wall Street, which possesses also, now, a Grand Old Party, called the Democratic Party, called the Democratic Party, would make one feel that the Republican party has existed always, at least from the founding of the American nation. But the grand old party is not so very old. It is the youngest of the present big parties. The Republican party, in the beginning a "third party," a party formed out of a movement of revolt which split the two formerly dominant parties, the Democratic and Whig parties. The Republican party was born of a storm and stress which was curiously similar in some ways to the present.

In 1821 the Republican party, under the leader of revolt, faces a revolt against itself which means a break up of party lines, realignment of class elements and a closer adjustment of party boundaries to fit the differences of class interest.

In 1854 the Republican party was given a free hand to extend the chattel slave system thru the newly opened "golden west," provided they could do so by settling each new

The country had been ruled from the beginning of the republic almost continuously by the slave-holding oligarchy of the south, with compromise and gradually increasing control of the southern states to turn their trade and their cotton to the northern modern capitalism of the north. This compromise policy had been expressed in the "Missouri compromise" of 1820, by which the country had been divided between chattel slave economy and wage labor economy. A line had been drawn across the map at the latitude of 36 degrees 30 minutes. North of this line, it was agreed, labor should be exploited thru the wage system, and employers of wage labor should rule. South of the line, right ownership of the laborer, and the country should be ruled by the slave labor owners.

$150,000,000 FOR GREATER NAVY BUT NOT ONE CENT FOR WORKER-FARMER NEEDS

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 5.—Congress is preparing to adjourn in twenty-four hours. The legislative solons are getting ready to pack up and get out to their camps for coming back to Washington. The republican congressmen and senators are preparing to rush off to Cleveland for the national convention.

The first session of the sixty-eighth Congress which was so widely advertised as a progressive body, where the insurgents were in such strategic positions to influence legislation, thus ends without having made the least effort to open their campaigns for coming back to Washington. The republican congressmen and senators are preparing to rush off to Cleveland for the national convention.

Despite the fact that more than two million farmers have deserted the rural communities for the cities in order to escape the hardships of broken-down agriculture; and that almost one agricultural states are virtually bankrupt, Congress has not taken a single step to alleviate the suffering of these great rural masses.

Railroad Barons Safe.
Even the McNary-Haugen bill which at least was only a measure aimed at rendering temporary help to some well-to-do farmers, and totally disregarded the interests of the farm-workers and farmers, was rejected.

PELF-PUFFED BOSSES WANT YOUNG MEN
Western Electric Trains Slaves for Its Profit

By promising to train young men who have not yet learned a trade, the Western Electric Company is able to maintain its wage scale far below the union standard. Thousands of youngsters who have just completed high school, or who have school to go, are being lured to work for twenty dollars a week, led up with the hope that by learning to be fast they can later on earn a decent living at piece work rates.

The Western Electric Company spends thousands of dollars yearly, prints a magazine on the best type of paper and distributes it to its 63,000 employees every month. The magazine fills the employees with the hope that every man is paid exactly what he is worth, that he is amply rewarded by the company for his loyalty and years of service, and all he has to do to rise from the ranks is to be successful and "make a little more" in the work than your boss demands of you.

President Bragg of Outpost But from this magazine you learn that the company is really paying just as little as possible. The president, C. H. Bragg, in the current issue of "Western Electric," brags not about the good wages paid to employees, but about the fact that "in 1923 actual deliveries to telephone companies was 475,000, and over 100,000 more in 1924."

REPORTS OF ROUMANIAN COUP DENIED

But Country is Held Incommunicado

VIENNA, June 5.—Contradictory reports have come from Bucharest during the past two days, some insisting there was a revolution in Roumania and that troops under General Averescu have forced the government out.

A semi-official statement from Bucharest, however, dispels the rumors of a revolution and says that General Averescu was simply holding a yearly mass meeting with his followers outside the city and adds that there were "no incidents."

It is impossible to communicate directly with Bucharest, and for that reason renewed reports of a revolution in Roumania remain unconfirmed. It is quite significant, however, that the wires are like between Bucharest and the outside world. There has been no report of a telegrapher strike or an embargo on news. It is learned that General Averescu was marching on the capital at the head of 50,000 peasants who were driven out of Roumania except semi-officially. Perhaps the officials are in no position to inform on any news.

People in this part of the world are becoming accustomed to rumors that nothing short of an accomplished fact will get a rise out of them.

The Roumanian situation, however, is cloudy. The king and queen are traveling Europe on a buying expedition. The industrialists are being asked to buy the royal family can count only on those they can buy. It would not be surprising to learn that the king is against the royal family on hearing that the king was not successful in touching the Paris and London bankers for a loan.

General Averescu is a reactionary and has recently returned from Italy, where he had a conference with Mussolini. His activities since his return indicate the proximity of a Fascist coup. In fact, it may already have taken place. The dowry of the king's daughter was a severe blow to the present government of Roumania, and it could cause a surprise to learn when the clouds clear away, that something serious has happened to its present rulers.

Miners Free Books
HURST, Ill., June 5.—Free textbooks for all school children in the Hurst primary and high school district have been voted at the district election. Miners' union 2418, of which J. E. Gilbert is president, is the principal force back of the campaign. The Illinois law permits free textbooks by vote of the voters, or if the board refuses to act, the voters may carry it through by petition of 5 per cent of the voters to put it on the ballot.

paid millions of dollars to "irresponsible" claimants "in more or less shadowy claims."

Most of the 36 printed pages of the report deal with matters of the most trivial nature from a legal standpoint. It refrains from passing judgment in most instances and merely sets forth the facts without interpreting them.

Wahls, however, said: "Not only was the Teapot Dome lease awarded to Sinclair without competition, but he paid a fabulous sum to procure the elimination of a potential rival."

A Delicate Hint

"One wonders a fair cut of the government does not put her competitors, neither does he, when he secures it ordinarily, as he did in connection with it; nor does he while negotiations are pending, accommodate the awarding officer with loans."

The reference is believed to be in connection with testimony that Sinclair paid J. Leo Stark and F. G. Bonolis, of Denver, a million dollars for an alleged claim which Wahls states was worth less than a nickel.

Significance to the fact that Bonolis is editor of a Denver newspaper which attacks the Jones act, which Wahls promised to pay the money "the attack" of the newspaper thereupon ceased.

"The proprietor of a rival newspaper opens a claim even more shadowy, if indeed, it can be called a claim at all, not $25,000 out of the Pioneer Oil Company as his share of the money yielded up by Sinclair. Wahls continues: It may be Loan!

Outlining the evidence that Doherty paid $100,000 in cash in a bank checked by his son and the admission that Sinclair, thru his counsel, J. W. Devoy, gave Paul $25,000, Wahls said: "Your committee ventures no opinion as to whether this transaction was in fact a loan of money or a bribe."

The committee refrains from characterizing the transaction. It does not hesitate to condemn it as the last degree reprehensible on the part of all concerned in it. He especially corrupt character of the same made under such circumstances requires no comment.

It would be impossible for an officer to accept a loan of such an amount under the circumstances without a serious sense of obligation to the lender."

Wahls also mentioned the $100,000 contributed by Sinclair to the anti-campaign fund and the subsequent addition of $75,000 to help make up the party deficit. He also pointed to the contribution of Doherty to both parties.

Wahls further admitted in the report that he had failed to establish that there was any fraud in oil operators at the Republican convention to select a "complicit" secretary of the Interior.

FOOD WORKERS CONTINUE BIG UNION DRIVE

Plan Mass Meeting for Next Week

The general membership meeting of the Amalgamated Food Workers accepted the report of District Organizer Charles Keller on his New York trip with great enthusiasm at their meeting Wednesday at 21 North State St.

An organization committee was elected with full power to proceed with the strike and with the organization of the Greek restaurant workers into the union. The organization committee is now working out the details of a continued drive for organization into the union of those members who have not already joined. For this purpose another mass meeting will be held early next week.

Organizer Keller told the DAILY WORKER that the work of the organization committee will lead up to a mass demonstration of all the restaurant workers in the city. He said that the special "Food Workers' Strike Edition" of the DAILY WORKER has attracted up much favorable comment in New York. There is a constant demand for the DAILY WORKER among the food workers in New York, Keller declared.

UNION BAKERS FORCING BOSSES TO ACCEPT TERMS

Half Struck Shops Signed Up

The striking members of the Jewish Bakers' Union, 217, are today preparing a campaign of mass meetings to combat the injunction just issued by the infamous industrial judge, Dennis E. Sullivan, which attempts to restrain the striking bakers' picketing.

Despite the injunction, and a series of shoving incidents by the bosses, the strike is fast proving itself a successful conclusion. Over half of the strikers have gone back to work in the thirty shops which have so far settled with the union on the union's terms.

M. Zorokin, 1214 S. Kadir Avenue, has sworn out a warrant against Thomas McNichol, of the bakery-bosses' association, who is declared to be one of the most despicable gunmen and tools of the bosses. This warrant grows out of the beating some time ago of Zorokin.

Business Agent Lipkin's hand, pierced by a bullet last week, is growing nicely and he is still on the job, in spite of the attempts made on his life. This morning the strikers met at 3125 W. Roosevelt Road, to discuss the injunction and future strike plans.

Clancy kicked the Klan towards the sideburns and said that he was not in sympathy with the Klan to withdraw from the Elks.

CARPENTERS GET READY TO NAIL HARRY JENSEN

Frank Stahl Slated to Head Council

Sample ballots have been issued by the committee in the June 14 elections of the district council of the Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners, which will oppose the Jensen machine. The slate proposed by Frank Stahl is expected to sweep the elections, because of the almost unanimous condemnation heaped on the present district council president, Harry Jensen, when he almost disrupted the organization by arbitrarily suspending nine locals which had as members candidates opposed to him.

Bundeskrantz Stahl of Local No. 11, who is opposing Jensen for the presidency of the district council, the anti-machine slate is composed of John Brims, local 80 for vice president, R. W. Wolf, local 10 for secretary, Daniel, local 11 and Jasper Smith, local 178 for the finance committee, Frank Stahl, local 10, W. Johnson, local 55, M. G. Haide, local 148, and Adam Tait, local 1307 for the executive committee.

The program issued by the candidates opposed to Jensen's reactionary machine declares: "The Chicago District membership has passed through the past three years a struggle of the most bitter in the face of the Citizen's Committee open shop campaign and in the face of our membership increased. In the face of the foregoing with a single administration of the District Council has been made no reapproachment to wards a closed shop condition."

echo; but perhaps the most characteristic demand came in the form of the election protective tariff. The "third party" swept the north and the south in 1860, and the election led to the counter-revolution of the southern ruling class—and then to the present administration, called the American Civil War.

It was the logic of history and the logic of the situation that led to the Republican party's role in 1860. It was the logic of history and the logic of the situation that led to the Republican party's role in 1860.

By 1870 the Republican party began to decline, and fell into a period of twenty years of weakness. With the breaking of the power of the southern ruling class, the loss of its black human labor-catch (which brought the Republican party to the south) could not be so easily handled on the stage-labor basis, the Democratic party lost its character as the chattel-slavery party. It became a hybrid party. # WAR HORROR TALK ALL BUNK, AMERICAN BLOOD-DRINKER SAYS

(By The Federated Press.)

NEW YORK, June 5.—The war tactics of the militarists in fighting peace advocates is to declare that the horrors of war are exaggerated by sentimentalists. "Well meant but dangerous ideas of kindly women and preachers who want to abolish war," he said, "is the description given by Major General John A. LeJeune, commander, United States marine corps, to the annual dinner of the Second division veterans, New York City, last night.

There are no veterans today in pacifist societies. They know war and just facts as women, who are led to fight or those who ducked to avoid when the war came. Their minds were not so much affected by the horrors of war they never knew."

Pacifists here reply that the hundred percenters fear the rising anti-war movement just because they are never so many drafted men who say, "Never again." They further point out that peace organizations are predominantly made up of young people, that men too old to fight are the bulk of the so-called peace-mongers and defense organizations.

ANAPOLIS, Md.—Following graduation exercises at the naval academy here there was a rush to the altar. Eight graduates were married.

During the great railroad strike, when labor over the land was clamoring for a general movement of all workers in support of the strikers, Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, took his executive council down to "Atlantic City by the Sea," the alluring watering place of the fashionable rich on New Jersey's ocean shore. Gompers, Dunham, Wolf and the rest looked over all the resolutions coming in from all sections of the land, and in the midst of their luxurious surroundings, with a national bathing beauty contest in full swing, "The Boardwalk and Lively" visible from their windows, they decided that it was all a "Communist plot, engineered from Moscow," that the rail strikers were in no need of assistance from the whole labor movement.

History repeats itself, is an old saying. Senator Robert LaFollette, like Gompers, also left the noisy and contentious atmosphere of Washington, D. C., and went to "Atlantic City by the Sea" to decide what part he was to play in the national campaign this year. There were demands from all sections of the land for the organization of the class Farmer-Labor Party. LaFollette issued his edict from "Atlantic City by the Sea," and it also was to the effect that the demand of the workers and farmers for a class party was just another "Communist plot, engineered from Moscow."

Gompers was able to prevent the workers generally from coming to the aid of the rail strikers. But LaFollette was not so successful. His Atlantic City edict, that the workers and farmers decided to go ahead without him. The oppressed masses, in the cities and on the land, refused to take instructions from LaFollette at Atlantic City. They had a mind of their own.

"Everyone admits that the failure of LaFollette to lure the workers and farmers into the trap prepared for them by the strength of the DAILY WORKER is in the field. There was no DAILY WORKER in existence when Gompers betrayed the railroad strikers in 1922. But the DAILY WORKER was on the job when LaFollette tried to betray the workers in this year's political struggle. Gompers succeeded, LaFollette failed miserably. That was the difference.

In the future the success of the enemies of labor in betraying the workers and farmers will depend in great part on the strength of the DAILY WORKER. The power to educate and influence the masses comes thru an ever increasing circulation of a daily paper. The DAILY WORKER is not an exception. That is why we are sending every ounce of energy in the present important crisis in our endeavor to win tens of thousands of new readers for the DAILY WORKER. We want you to help by sending in a list of subscriptions on the accompanying blank at our special rate of TWO MONTHS FOR $1. Do this today!

DEMAND THAT MILLERAND GO STILL STRONG

French President Asking Advice

PARIS, June 5.—The crisis brought about by the Socialists' demand that President Millerand resign still is acute today, and there were no indications that the course which events will take will be known before negotiations.

Paul Painleve, elected president of the new chamber of deputies in its opening session yesterday, visits President Millerand this morning. It is considered certain the president will ask Painleve for advice about the demand that he resign.

Later Millerand will call in the president of the chamber and M. Doumergue, who will lay before him the plan of action regarding the demand for his resignation.

It still appears that Millerand will offer the premiership to Deputy Herriot of the left wing group. LAKEHURST, N. J., June 5.—The naval air station here today for a fleet cover New York, Albany, Syracuse and Buffalo.

The young men who have neglected their education, accepting the Western Electric bank account, learning a trade on good faith learn, often when it is too late, that they have been absorbed into a monstrous machine that keeps them down their wages and spends up their pocket money on other plants except the Western Electric factory.

MILITANTS MAKE GREAT SHOWING IN SUB DRIVE

HONOR ROLL of Those Who Have Made Good in First Daily Worker Campaign

THE POWER COLUMN

NINE DAYS TO GO.
LEADERS STRUGGLE FOR TOP PLACES.

As this issue of the DAILY WORKER goes to press there remains but two more days to determine the champion DAILY WORKER city, and to determine which cities among the industrial centers have been able to best mobilize the militant on behalf of the DAILY WORKER.

Pittsburgh, Pa., dark city of the steel trust, is the latest recruit to the 100 per cent. One hundred fifty shining new subscriptions have added 150 militant fighters against the ruling class in the best of American capitalist reaction. With the first DAILY WORKER subscription campaign drawing to a close, nine cities have already completed their quota, and it is sure at least a score more will be over the top before June 15th. With the close of the campaign, however, efforts on the part of the DAILY WORKER will not be over. Class-conscious workers all over the country know that the forward drive of the working class never ends, and know that the DAILY WORKER is the one most important vehicle for advancing the interests of the working class.

In Toledo, Ambridge, Revere, Superior, Kansas City, South Bend, Portland, Miss City, and Pittsburgh have been able to achieve 100 per cent or more of their quota, and half a hundred other cities have been able to add thousands of new subscriptions to the DAILY WORKER roll, the coming months, full of significance to the labor movement, will see new thousands added to the class-conscious labor movement by means of the subscription that they will receive thru the columns of the DAILY WORKER. If a hundred cities have this time been competing for the honor of being called the banner DAILY WORKER city, the first of the DAILY WORKER campaign will bring new hundreds of cities on to the list. In the meantime, the present campaign has not yet ended, and there is still opportunity for any one of a score of cities to win first honors.

Nine days more to go. Which of the cities will make the most of the opportunity?

Smashing Campaign Draws to a Close

In the annals of the American labor movement, nothing like the Ten Thousand New Subscribers Campaign for the DAILY WORKER has ever been attempted, and while the drive does not seem likely to reach its goal, it still still a remarkable achievement has been put on record. The goal was set for ten thousand new subscribers by June 15th. In order to make it possible for readers of the DAILY WORKER to attract new subscribers to enroll under the banner of militant workers who hitherto had not come under the influence of the revolutionary labor movement, special competition rates were set allowing trial two-month subscriptions to be sold for one dollar. In addition a premium of a half-year's subscription to one of the three leading labor monthlies was offered to anyone who would sell a new yearly subscription to the DAILY WORKER.

MILITANTS COVER THEMSELVES WITH GLORY.

The results of the campaign have been recorded in the Power Column. Those who have been militant enough and energetic enough to put in the work necessary to the selling of new subscriptions have seen their names printed in the Honor Roll. Quotas were set for the important industrial centers on the basis of their estimated ability and their past achievements. The weekly progress of the campaign was also noted, and records have been made each week of the percentage of the quota reached by the various cities.

CAMPAIGN TO END JUNE 15TH.

Now the campaign is drawing to a close, one week only remaining. In fairness to all groups of militants who have entered into the campaign and who have contended for the prize banners which will be awarded to the cities making the best showing, all subscriptions which will be mailed on or about June 15th will be credited to the campaign and the winners will be named according to the best records on that date. However, in order to make it possible for all militant workers to see their names in the Honor Roll, the DAILY WORKER the strongest labor paper published anywhere in the world, the special trial subscription offer has been extended for another two weeks.

HERE IS COMPLETE LIST OF MILITANTS. IS YOUR NAME THERE?

The DAILY WORKER takes a great deal of pride in printing the complete Honor Roll, the complete list of those militants who have sold new subscriptions since the campaign commenced. To the enemies of the labor movement, this list must appear as a staggering block; for every new subscription that has been added to the DAILY WORKER list means another potential revolutionist, another step towards the liberation of the working class. To the members of the Workers' Party, and to other militants the Honor Roll will not seem very large, for militants know that what has been done so far is only a drop in the bucket of what will be done. And yet the list is so large that we are unable to publish it in full in this issue of the DAILY WORKER, and must complete the remaining part of the list in next Monday's issue.

THERE IS YET TIME FOR EVERY MILITANT TO DO HIS SHARE.

In spite of the length of the Honor Roll, there are thousands of real militants who have not yet fulfilled their obligation to the DAILY WORKER and to the labor movement. If there are some live wires who have been able to sell 60 or 70 subscriptions during the 11 weeks, certainly there is no man who can't himself a militant who cannot sell at least one subscription. Let every class-conscious worker read the Honor Roll, let every Worker Party branch study it, particularly with regards to the record made by some members of their own branch. If there are militants who have not yet obtained the honor of placing their name on the list, let them hasten within the next three weeks to prove their militancy thru their support of the DAILY WORKER.

Saving the Children

Soon the cumbersome legal machinery of the government will be set in motion to ratify the amendments to the constitution proposed by the house and senate for the control of the labor power of individuals under eighteen years of age.

After six years of unsuccessful efforts to enact a law regulating the employment of children in industry and on the farm, the various labor and social reform groups are now in a position to get the blessing of government for their behavior.

The proposed amendment is to be placed before the states for ratification either by their legislatures or special constitutional conventions. Acceptance of the same measure by three-fourths of the states is a condition prerequisite to its becoming the fundamental law of the land.

Should the necessary three-fourths not be secured, then the movement for the regulation of the employment of children will be put back for years. The supreme court has knocked out as unconstitutional two so-called child labor laws. A defeat in the effort to put over the amendment will be disastrous.

The tragic fate of attempting to eradicate the anti-social character of child labor at the same time maintaining capitalism is brought into sharp focus in the effort to use the ponderous slow-moving machinery of a strike-breaking, anti-social, capitalist government.

Announcement of a gift of $50,000.00 from Harvard University by George F. Baker, New York banker, will doubtless bring forth the usual flood of gushing editorials from the kept press.

This particular gift bears more than the usual mark of the philanthropy of the rich.

Why We Want A Bigger Navy

The House of Representatives has just passed a bill amending to give $150,000,000 to the navy second year.

Besides this sum, about twenty million dollars will be spent on converting six coal-burning ships to oil burners and $12,000,000 on gun elevators.

This bill is the first fruit of the vigorous campaign for preparedness recently launched by the American militarist and naval imperialist.

NAVAL FORCES ARE MAINTAINED THROUGHOUT THE CARIBBEAN FOR THE PURPOSE OF KEEPING DOWN REVOLUTIONS, protecting the interests of American capitalists.

It costs the navy some $3,000,000 a year to guard our interests in the Atlantic. In this connection it might be interesting to note that our exports to China in 1929 were valued at over $150,000,000.

What are the exploited workers and dispossessed farmers going to say about it?

A Million-Dollar Defense

Announcement is made that the two young millionaires-murders in the Franks case are to be protected by a million-dollar defense fund.

While the million-dollar fund raised by the Leopold-Loeb families is primarily a desperate effort to save two members of the ruling class from the results of their crimes, the legal fraternity is now being used to turn the minds of the prosecuting lawyers to make reputations—yet for the capitalist class as a whole, it is being turned into a million-dollar defense of the capitalist system.
