WORKERS NEED STRONG UNION TO HIT TRUST

Western Electric Rife for Organization

By KARL REEVE.

The electrical workers of America are ready for organization by the thousands into trade unions. With an acute period of unemployment bearing down on them, leaving a constant threat in the hands of the Electric Trust to increase hours and reduce pay, the electrical workers are reaching out for organization to strengthen them in the approaching crisis.

The International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers affiliated with the American Federation of Labor, is in the best position to grapple with the Electric Trust in keeping and even raising the present standard of living of the electrical workers of this country.

Electrical Union Began Strong.

The International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers has been carried on splendid organization campaigns in the electrical industries. Under the guidance of Morton Johnson, a council of electrical industries was formed a few years ago which included representatives of trades among them the painters, carpenters, machinists, blacksmiths, toolmakers, office employees and telephone operators.

The council carried on a vigorous organization campaign, with the active participation of the Chicago Federation of Labor, the International Electrical Union, No. 713, local No. 134, and Ironmen's local No. 3.

Johnson, as chairman of the council, held that the participation of

LABOR EDITOR DECLARES CONVENTION LAID FOUNDATION FOR U. S. PARTY DESERVING CONFIDENCE, COOPERATION

(Special to The Daily Worker)

ST. PAUL, Minn., June 25.—Under the heading "National Farmer-Labor Convention Successful," the current issue of the Minnesota Union Advocate, edited by William Mahoney, chairman of the committee of the Farmer-Labor forces organized at St. Paul, carries an editorial lauding the achievements of the great union convention of workers and farmers.

If the enemies of the National Farmer-Labor party, including the yellow press, had hoped to get any comfort from Mr. Mahoney, they will be sorely disappointed in this editorial, registering as it does unqualified approval of the achievements at St. Paul.

The Minnesota Union Advocate is owned and controlled by and is the official expression of the St. Paul Trades and Labor Assembly. It is also the official organ of the Minnesota State Federation of Labor. Unusual significance is therefore to be attached to what Mahoney has to say when he writes:

National Farmer-Labor Party Successful

From the Minnesota Union Advocate, June 19

The National Farmer-Labor Progressive convention has been held and its work is a matter of history.

No like undertaking ever encountered greater opposition, or more vicious and unfair attacks. From the day it was decided to hold a national three party-convention until it adjourned sine die it met with increasing malignity.

But in spite of this volume and variety of hostility, the convention accomplished its purpose in a most satisfactory way.

It has elected a broad, able and representative candidates have been nominated for president and vice-president, and the foundation has been laid for a great national Farmer-Labor party.

Clearly the character and purpose of the convention should have evoked the commendation of every farmer, worker and the other elements who are the victims of the present iniquitous industrial conditions, and it should have received the support and those promoting it should have had the cooperation of every intelligent worker who must recognize the necessity for unity and harmony if the common people are ever to escape from their present wretchedness.

It was to be expected that the old parties would fight the idea of a convention of farmers, workers and progressives, but when organized groups representing the working people joined in the attack, success was made doubly difficult.

As a last and supreme stroke Senator LaFollette was pressed into the service of the opposition and employed his powerful influence to kill the convention.

The last stroke, without doubt, seriously affected the attendance, and out of the site of the convention to a fifth of what it would have been without Senator LaFollette's denunciation. The character and spirit of the convention was likewise influenced by the perpetual hammering of its enemies.

But the delegates were finally brought together and a spirit of depression and distrust prevailed at

ITALY'S ONLY "ALBERT FALL" FASCIST JAILED

Aldo Finzi Joins Nine Officials in Prison

(Special to The Daily Worker)

NICE, Italy, June 25.—Deputy Aldo Finzi, former under secretary of state for internal affairs who resigned when charged of graft and speculation were jailed against him after the Matteotti murder, has been arrested here for complicity in the killing of the Socialist deputy who had papers which he intended to use in exposing Finzi and other Fascist officials involved in corrupt practices.

Finzi made millions of lire in dealings with Standard Oil of the United States and Harry Sinclair's devaluated oil as well as out of the reorganization of the Banco Italiano di Roma.

General De Bono, former head of the "national Fascist militia," will be arrested also for part in the slaying of Matteotti and protection of the Fascist criminals afterwards.

Benny Won't Budge.

ROME, Italy, June 25.—Premier Benito Mussolini made another bold pretense of defiance yesterday in the new policies of Italy's actual government and really admitted that the murder of the Socialist deputy by Enslin and France, and insisting that he would at once reorganize the cabinet and the Fascist militia.

The black-shirt dictator spoke at length on the unrest of reconstruction periods after revolution, referring to England and France, and declaring that Italy had been through a real revolution instead of black reign of tyranny and Fascification and returns to strict legality" is the phrase which sums up the new policies of Italy's actual government and really admitted that Italian government affairs have been so far from constitutional or "fascist" and the Fascists.

General Walkout in Men's Clothing Trade

(Special to The Daily Worker)

NEW YORK CITY, June 25.—Fifty thousand workers in the men's clothing industry were called on strike today by the executive board of the Amalgamated Clothing Workers of America.

The employers have been taking advantage of the slump in production to beat down wages, and institute the open shop, taking away from the former gains of the workers away from them.

The general strike of the New York market is the answer made by the workers.

The strike which went into effect yesterday, is against the open shop drive of the bosses. The bosses are utilizing the present business depression in order to cut wages and work standards and fight the union.

For some time an intense drive has been engineered by the big bosses to send their work to non-union contractors who run sweat shops. This cut into the wages of the union workers.

The union demands are for the complete abolition of the open shop, the reduction of wages. The union also demands that the government should fund. The necessity for some such scheme to guarantee the workers against the rigor of industrial depression has been proven during the last two or three seasons.

The union officials stand ready to discuss the regulation and standardization of work with the bosses.

The union also calls for the men and children's clothing in the district. The entire membership of the Amalgamated are in the line fighting spirit of the Amalgamated is still alive.

The "red" smoke of the Amalgamated workers from the shops who spoke at these meetings.

U. S. L. Greets Strikers.

By JACK JOHNSTONE

Fifty thousand workers on men's and children's clothing in New York and vicinity have voted to strike today. This is the first gun in the "Open Shop" drive that the manufacturers in both the ladies' and men's clothing industry have been preparing for some time. There is a great deal of unemployment in the needle trades and the manufacturers believe that the time is now ripe to weaken if not to destroy the powerful Amalgamated Clothing Workers.

New York is the biggest clothing market in the country, and if the clothing manufacturers can reduce the standard of living there, the same procedure will follow in all clothing centers. The strike is against a reduction of wages and the spreading evil of the sweat shop.

The manufacturers have been taking advantage of the present business depression to break down standards, until the conditions have become unbearable. The unions' demand is a reduction of wages, a minimum scale of wages, unemployment insurance, the open shop, and the abolition of the sweat shop.

The entire membership are awake to the situation, in thirteen huge membership meetings of all local unions in New York City. The "Web-foot" dog of silly long hair and "cauliflower" ears, snout like an antelope, and the blackboard on his chest, who has been the main attraction in the Washington Zoological park and attracting almost as much attention as the exhibits on display in Madison Square Garden at the Wicker Park Hotel, 2040 W. North Ave., brought the "dog" from the wilderness of the Amazon valley.

"WALL STREET PUTS OVER PLAN BEHIND KLAN SMOKE SCREEN"

(Special to The Daily Worker)

MADISON SQUARE GARDEN, New York, June 25.—The long arm of James Pierpont Morgan, leader of Wall Street and uncrowned king of the debtor nations of western Europe is drafting the League of Nations plank at the democratic national convention.

Morgan is writing the planks he needs while newspapers are furnishing a Ku Klux Klan smoke screen.

The platform committee is following closely the suggestions wired from Europe by Colonel E. M. House regarding the policy which the convention should adopt towards the League of Nations. House, the unostentatious advisor of Woodrow Wilson who guided the United States into the war to save Morgan's loans, is the confidential agent of the financier in democratic politics.

Morgan Internationalism.

The House advice is that the democratic party should endorse a League of Nations plank which would "authorize the United States to become an associate member of the League of Nations without in any way committing the country to the covenant. Thus the fears of the timid could be dispelled regarding a super-sterility and an entangling alliance."

Saving Morgan Civilization.

He goes on to show the Democrats "denounce political expediency and cowardice, and declare that the United States in this Republic stand side by side with other nations in the present struggle for civilization."

Shining thru this gossamer veil of words are seen the teeth of the Democrats plan which is Morgan's device for the bleeding of Germany. "Saving" Europe in the House-Morgan sense means loaning money to European governments and enforcing collection when necessary thru the military forces of America.

The Morgan hand is again seen thru Newland D. Baker, who was Morgan's secretary of war in 1917-18. Baker, as the Ohio member of the platform committee, and member of the platform drafting committee, is urging a League platform which will urge the issue and satisfy those Americans who have been opposed to Articles X and XVI in the League covenant.

In other words, Baker demands a League statement which will satisfy the reservations' republicans. This means the same as House's qualifying language for the League plank.

Members of the platform committee have expressed themselves generally as being in favor of a League plank which would be strong enough to warrant a formal affiliation with European governments in the administration of international finance and at the same time avoid uncompromising phraseology that would lose votes.

Morgan Safe Both Ways.

Broadly speaking, the Democrat program for international relations will not be much different from that of the G. O. P. So Wall Street will be safe if either party wins.

With the program of international relations "Safe for Democracy" in the Wilsonian or Morgan sense, the platform plank is safe.

Washington Local Meets, But Not in Cal's White House

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 25.—Washington Communists assembled to meet their returned delegates from the St. Paul national Farmer-Labor convention. J. Powell presided and gave one of the main addresses.

The members of the party held a picnic on Sunday and celebrated the success of the movement at St. Paul and planned further activities for the capital.

More Workers Jobless!

Steel production in the United States has fallen to 45 per cent of capacity. It has shown a steady decrease since early in the year. At the beginning of June it was 50 per cent; two weeks earlier, 50 per cent; 70 per cent at the beginning of May; 80 per cent in late March. A year ago production was 91 per cent of capacity.

NEW YORK, June 25.—William Randolph "Boss" Hearst has just launched a new tabloid daily upon the city, the "Daily Mirror," which is supposed to be 90 per cent entertaining and 10 per cent informing. "Make it short and snappy," is the new yellow sheet's bark in its opening, however.

McCORMICK WORKS MAY CLOSE UP, DAILY WORKER REPORTER FINDS IN CHICAGO UNEMPLOYMENT STUDY

The army of the unemployed is with us again. It is not threatening to come, it is not a matter of distant speculation, it is not something to consider in the abstract. THE ARMY IS HERE, IN LARGE NUMBERS, HELPLESS, HUNGRY AND BEWILDERED. That is the conclusion of the DAILY WORKER reporter after an investigation of the unemployment situation in Chicago.

The DAILY WORKER reporter started in the International Harvester plant, talking to workers gathering about the gates at noontime and looking for jobs in the employment offices.

At the largest McCormick employment office, on Blue Island, near Oakley, the DAILY WORKER reporter did not even get beyond the door. A stout, hard-

OIL TRUST SUIT SEEN AS CAL'S CAMPAIGN CARD

(Special to The Daily Worker)

WASHINGTON, June 25.—Standard oil companies of Indiana, New Jersey, California, Kansas, Kentucky, Louisiana, New York and Ohio head the list of 50 oil corporations against whom Attorney General Stone has filed suit charging a conspiracy to violate the Sherman anti-trust law.

"Combination and conspiracy in restraint of trade and commerce" among the several states and with foreign nations in gasoline, kerosene and other hydrocarbon derivatives is the technical wording of the charge.

Control Fiver Fuel.

In bringing the suit, Attorney General Stone, charging that all of these great companies have combined to control the production of gasoline, a pooling of asserted patent rights, the violation of the Sherman anti-trust act.

Campaign Gesture.

Foes of the Coolidge administration refuse to believe that the suit is more than a campaign gesture to offset the revelations that the government is an arm of the oil interests.

They point to the fact that the "disposition" of the Standard Oil trust under the Taft administration was done in such a kindly fashion that Standard securities rose in value. They cite also the fact that the famous $20,000,000 fine inflicted after a former special prosecution was never paid.

FARMER-LABOR CANDIDATE IS FORGING UNITY Shomaker Would Form Central Men

The DAILY WORKER has just received Jos Shomaker's approval of the national convention at St. Paul and further commends on his over-zealousness of candidacy for the governorship of the state of Washington, where he will oppose the lumber king's puppet in the elections.

To the DAILY WORKER: The convention named the winners. It was a grand meeting. The platform meets the demands of the people. The plans for conducting the campaign are excellent.

Now, Brother Alexander Bittelman, you are all right. That review of my platform was fair. It struck the nail squarely on the head. THE LIMITATION OF FARMER-LABORISM should read by every member of the Farmer-Labor Party in the United States.

I would like to be elected Governor of Washington just to have the privilege of liberating the state penitentiary in the state penitentiary at Walla Walla, for alleged crimes committed by the city of Colfax, Washington, May 1919. When that was done I would give freedom to all imprisoned under the criminal syndical law and recommend the repeal of that law.

I would not for crime, but for the sake of the people, I would like to be elected Governor of Washington just to have the privilege of liberating the state penitentiary in the state penitentiary at Walla Walla, for alleged crimes committed by the city of Colfax, Washington, May 1919.

Fraternally yours in the fight for humanity, Jos Shomaker, Farmer-Labor Candidate for Governor of Washington.

Growing Communist Party of Germany Fought by Police

"Other countries are in a different position. There is no other country which has abroad producers. The process which is called espionage is a serious crime in Russia."

"I believe that by means of foreign help, through a long term loan and the development of concessions are not possible immediately to accelerate the process of recovery, which has begun. The process which is called espionage is a serious crime in Russia."

"I have no doubt about the ultimate recovery of our country. It is not hampered by wars and blockades and that foreign trade continues so that we can get a letter from the outside. And I see no reason to fear these possibilities will be taken from us."

No Form of Agricultural Crisis Heard of a Donkey Meet

By JAV LOVETORNE (Special to the Daily Worker) NEW YORK, June 25.—A touch of the air was given to the meeting of the democratic convention by an especially arranged parade of the New York students and the Italian Colorado joined in the parade to the "Aracene of Gold" Fifth Avenue.

The lines are being drawn for a battle in the mighty arena, Madison Square Garden. At least a half dozen groups—many and in fighting mood and trim—speaking for the democratic machine from wide separated sections of the country are ready to go to bat at the midday striking of the gong. These groups are being classified along three main lines, co-servatives, liberals and progressives.

The writer made it his business to spend some time in the lobbies of the New York City Convention Center, where he met the various groups. He met the various groups. He met the various groups. He met the various groups.
