COMMUNIST ELECTORS IN IMPORTANT STATES

WORKERS PARTY ORGANIZERS PLAN TO PUT FOSTER-GITLOW TICKET ON NOVEMBER BALLOT

Organization work to place presidential electors for William Z. Foster and Benjamin Gitlow, Workers Party candidates, on the ballot in all the most important states of the nation, was planned at a meeting of the Party's District Organizers held Saturday at the Party's headquarters in Chicago.

Reports made at this meeting show that there are from fifteen to twenty states, mostly those of the industrial centers of the east and the Pacific coast states, in which the Workers Party ticket can be placed on the ballot.

Conference work at these states during the present week and petitions will be in circulation a short time after. The whole Workers Party organization will concentrate on this task as the first big job of the campaign which will place Communist candidates before the workers of this country.

FIFTH CONGRESS HEARS VARGA ON ECONOMIC CRISIS

Capitalism Is Facing New Difficulties

Editor's Note: The DAILY WORKER is presenting a brief summary of the proceedings of the Fifth Congress of the Communist International from day to day. This discussion is educational and interesting and our readers should not miss it. In view of the desperate condition in which European capitalism finds itself, and the growing militancy of the workers led by the Communist Parties and the Communist International, the speeches of the delegates from various countries are of special interest to American workers in general and to Communists in particular. These articles from our Moscow correspondent will be a regular feature of the DAILY WORKER until the last report of the sessions is published.

MOSCOW, June 20. (By Mail.)

On the fourth day Varga reported to the World Congress on the world economic situation. The speaker stresses the fact that the period of crisis of capitalist society continues unchanged. The building situation is still lagging behind the output before the war; the world production of coal hardly reaches the quantity mined before the war; in the production of iron and steel we are still far behind. The unemployment situation has remained practically unchanged during the entire post-war period. Accumulation of wealth has taken place only in America. Capitalism is not in a position to bring about a real accumulation of capital. The world economic situation will be well illustrated by the following facts:

The tally of the capitalist economic world is no more and there is no uniformity in capitalist countries. 2. Particular crises. The American orientation of foreign policies was an absolutely isolated phenomenon, built up purely by home production. The possibility of a unification in France in connection with reconstruction has vanished. The money exchange is getting worse and worse. There is a complete stagnation of capitalist credit.

Agerian Crisis.

The industrialization of the countries across the sea was going on rapidly during the war and during the period after the war. The agrarian crisis is diminishing quickly and the possibility of improvement in industry in agrarian countries, and for this reason there is stagnation of the export trade.

SKULL CAP CURE FOR JUMPING NERVES SAYS JUMPING-JACK BRYAN

(Special to the DAILY WORKER)
WASHINGTON, July 13.—The tiny black skull cap which Governor Charles W. Bryan always wears isn't a sartorial hobby.

The democratic vice presidential nominee wears it because he has to, and for no other reason. Today he confided his secret to newspaper men.

Twenty years ago the bald pate of the governor was seriously injured by the sunlight streaming into the office. The nerve centers were broken down, and as a result he suffered from severe headaches.

Doctors advised him never to leave his head unprotected even in artificial light, and so since that time he has always worn his hat whether he is at home—in his own home, in his office, in the elevator.

But what if he should be forced to go to the city hall to carry in his vest pocket, as he is obliged to do, his whip, anyway. No style for me!

MEXICAN COUNTER REVOLUTIONARIES BACK IN WALL ST.

Fail in Elections; Cry for More Help

(By Federated Press.)
NEW YORK, July 13.—Mexican counter-revolutionists, following the announced withdrawal of the United States from the elections in Mexico, have moved their headquarters to New York Times in a Sunday edition has called forth a long reply by Alberto Mascareñas, Mexican consul general for New York and vicinity.

The Times article was supposed to have been written by a bona fide "neutral" far from politics was concerned, who had been robbed by the liberal government of his bank plan. His purpose in writing was to warn bankers and investors against Mexican financial corruption and alleged dishonesty.

"Victim" Paid de la Huerta. Connel Mascareñas in reply shows that the "Times" so-called neutral victim, Dr. Adolfo Ferrer, is the notorious de la Huerta counter-revolutionist agent. The consul gives a photostatic copy of a receipt from Ferrer to Heredia, de la Huerta agent in Cuba, for $24,140 payment for munitions used in the unsuccessful push. Having failed to overthrow the mildly progressive regime of Obregón and Calles either on the battle field or at the ballot box, the reactionary liberal government is now concentrating their forces on Wall Street in the hope that they can prevent loans to the liberal Mexican government. This at any rate is a description of the plot as given by Mascareñas.

Imperial America Tells Nicaragua to Withdraw President

(Special to the DAILY WORKER)
MANAGUA, Nicaragua, July 13.—The United States legation's note to Nicaragua has caused the withdrawal of President Marinista from the race for reelection. The American note tells that "while the United States government desired the people to have absolute liberty at the polls, it would recognize only a president elected in conformity with the Nicaraguan constitution" which is supposed to bar reelection of presidents.

ILLINOIS LABOR FAKERS GOO-GOO AT ROB AND LEN

Fickle Federationists Flirt in Politics

Leaders of the Illinois and State Federations of labor are trying to stave off a mess of incoherencies which confronts them at the coming state convention of the Committee for Progressive Political Action, to take place in the Chicago Auditorium on July 27.

The Illinois State Federation and Chicago Federation of Labor leaders have endorsed Len Small for Governor of Illinois. Now comes the announcement of the probability of a LaFollette ticket for Illinois, to be headed by Newton Jenkins. LaFollette's choice for senator in the April primary.

The Federation officials, who have withdrawn from Farmer-Labor Party endorsement of Small for Governor, are now in a political predicament of the regular candidate, Len Small, Charles F. Willis and David A. McVey, were present. LaFollette himself is holding for the support of the Embarrassed Labor Fakers.

"If the state convention on July 27 puts LaFollette state ticket in the field, running against Len Small, the labor officials will have to make an embarrassing choice. They will have to either stick to their endorsement of the regular candidate, Len Small, or repudiate all the nice things they have said about him and switch to LaFollette."

It is stated by well informed Federation men, that Olander, Walker and Small men, and endeavor to push out in the election. They will try to pack the July 27 convention with small men, and endeavor to push over a motion to keep LaFollette candidates out of Illinois in the same election.

LaFollette, on the other hand, has said that he is not in the line of one of his best political bets and that his lieutenant, Newton Jenkins, will run along with a full Cook County and Illinois State C. P. A. ticket.

Small Deal with Bob? LaFollette declared in Washington that "both parties are making pledges to the people," and he has told his friends he does not want his name connected in any way with any of the nominees selected by the Republicans or Democrats.

Rumors are flying around that the Len Small labor officials are trying to make a deal to support LaFollette nationally if he agrees to leave the Illinois field clear for Small.

Charles J. McAdown, Illinois leader of the C. P. A., declared that the state convention is being called by the Illinois C. P. A. and any liberal organization that cares to send delegates. He refused to give a list of those organizations in Illinois who have endorsed LaFollette, claiming he did not yet have such a list. When asked whether or not the Chicago and Illinois LaFollette Illinois candidates, he said he did not know.

Small Has List in Hand. It can be stated on good authority that Len Small is too strong a hold on the Illinois labor officials to allow them to desert to LaFollette even if they wanted to. "They are eating for Len Small's hand," as one Federation man said.

Olander, Walker, Fitzpatrick, and the rest of the reactionary labor officials have sunk into another mess. Lending support thru sending delegates, and thus their work is done. The New Majority, to LaFollette, they are at the same time endorsing Len Small for Governor. In spite of the denunciation of Small's party as corrupt by LaFollette.

STRIKE THREAT WINS BACK OLD WAGES FOR MICHIGAN ELECTRIC MEN

(Special to the DAILY WORKER)
DETROIT, July 13.—A restoration of the wage scale in force prior to June 1, eliminating a cut of 2½ cents an hour, was granted to the car operators of the Michigan Electric Railway company and the Michigan Railroad company as the result of an ultimatum announcing a strike July 4. The strike would have tied up lines at Jackson, Lansing, Battle Creek, Kalamazoo and Owosso and interrupted lines to two hours. Grand Rapids, Baginaw, Flint, Bay City and other cities. Buses owned by the companies also would have been affected.

Operators of one-man street cars receiving 80 cents an hour and operators of two-man cars 45 cents and interurban operators 82 cents—was a decrease of 2½ cents an hour from wage rates in force prior to June 1.

BERRY NURSING WOUNDS HE GOT AT DONKEY MEET

Cries Because Morgan Wouldn't Run Him

BY LUDWELL DENNY,
Federated Press Staff Correspondent.
NEW YORK, July 13.—The democratic cock has come home to the old Wall Street roost. Fara Morgan is satisfied. Apparently he was never much worried. John W. Davis was his candidate for the beginning.

John has the advantage of being not only a Morgan lawyer, but also a pro-British ambassador to London. That simplifies matters, since Fara Morgan is the financial agent of the British government in the United States.

"Heads we win, tails you lose," says the international banker. It is unthinkable that Gary's "Rock of Gibraltar" Cal Coolidge, and Morgan's reputation agent, Open Shop Davies, should be defeated in November. But you never can tell. So if they vote out Coolidge, they will vote in Davis. Morgan should worry.

The democratic trade union leaders and the American Federation of Labor-partisans are nursing the labor party's hope that the reaction-ary anti-labor convention. After losing their fight to get mild platform promises out of the convention, they were not prepared for the final insult of the Wall Street candidate. Then in despair they combined and visited Davis with the request that he accept the labor and labor official, Berry, as his running mate. Albo Berry qualified as a conservative, he never even got a look-in. The convention picked W. J. Bryan's brother instead. He is supposed to stand hand with upper class farmers, an important item to the politicians. They are not numerically afraid of the labor vote but are interested in it.

Farm Reactionaries Form Lobby Council To Seek "Protection"

ST. PAUL, July 13.—The new National Council of Agriculture, launched here yesterday, will work for the enactment of a program of legislation aimed at bringing relief to the farmer. It will have a budget on an equal basis with labor and industry under the protective system.

Injunction Showed On 100 Unionists in Rock Island Strike

ROCK ISLAND, Ill. July 13.—The Danvers moon. Unionists were arrested by the Amalgamated Clothing Workers in Rock Island, Iowa, on a considerable length. That is the reduction of burden expense. Now when we have less to do in the shop there will have to be less employed in the productive department in progress.

RAIL CHIEFS, WHO BACKED OILY LAWYER, IN FLOP TO LA FOLLETTE CAN'T BREAK WALL STREET TIES

(Special to the Daily Worker)
NEW YORK CITY, July 13.—A working agreement has just been established between John W. Davis, Morgan's attorney and candidate for the presidency on the democratic ticket, and William G. McAdoo, former Morse and Doherty lawyer, and the favorite son of the "progressive" and railroad labor union following at Madison Square Garden.

After declaring that Davis is thoroughly satisfactory to "progressive" democrats, Wilson's son-in-law pledges his "cordial support" and announces that he will take part in the campaign.

The McAdoo endorsement is hailed with delight by the Davis managers. McAdoo is the idol of the railroad brotherhood chiefs and a large section of the opposition of the American Federation of Labor. They have been McAdoo men for years. He represents their ideals and stands for the things they stand for. McAdoo's declaration of an ostensible cordial with the king "Money" Davis is calculated to have a far-reaching effect.

The reasoning is that if Davis is good enough for McAdoo, who is the vision of their rail union leaders to such an extent that they effect a change in the Davis manager. The Davis managers are hopeful, at least, of a friendly attitude toward the rail chiefs, which would speak of a sympathetic neutrality—even if they are officially committed to the Davis manager.

To the extent to which rail labor leaders and Sam Gompers look forward to the so-called progressive on that extent they are lending aid and comfort to Wall Street. That is the danger. However, such liaison between labor leaders and Big Business is not strange. Not to speak of the reaction-ary who Gary and Gompers die together, there are other and more significant things which show the capitalist interest of the labor leaders for whom the McAdoo endorsement is expected to appear. The railroad, who expect little more from the Gompers' element.

Mr. Davis may officially sever his connections with the House of Morgan as an election stunt. But it will no more serve the purpose than did McAdoo's repudiation of his client Doherty after the oil investigation began and it was discovered that Wilson's son-in-law drew heavily on the money bags.

The democratic candidate, provided the so-called progressive on the same ticket with the reactionary representative of big business. Mr. Davis may officially sever his connections with the House of Morgan as an election stunt. But it will no more serve the purpose than did McAdoo's repudiation of his client Doherty after the oil investigation began and it was discovered that Wilson's son-in-law drew heavily on the money bags.

MCCORMICK HARVESTER COMPANY UNION CONTROLS WORKERS LIVES TO PROFIT SQUEEZING BOSSES

BY A HARVESTER SUEZ SLAVE
The Industrial Council, which is the company union run by officials of the International Harvester company, at all times enacts only those rules which reduce the expenses of the company and get more work out of the men. The council is constantly running Americanization, stock-selling, and safety campaigns which aim to imbue the worker with the idea that the company is looking after the interests of the employees. At the same time this propaganda makes the workers more dependent on the will of the managers of the Harvester Trust and prevents them from rebelling against the slave conditions imposed by the management and the Industrial Council upon the men.

But You Arrested Workers, Merrick, Not Wealthy Patrons

NEW YORK, July 13.—Federal prohibition forces moved to stamp out the fashionable gathering drinking in the Ritz-Carlton restaurant by New York's 400. Ritz-Carlton prohibition director, said: "The Ritz-Carlton is not the best place for the workers to drink. It is a place where the workers are drinking wherever we find it. People who bring their own to luxurious roof gardens are no better than the workers who violate the law by buying liquor in a warehouse. Merrick said five employees of the Ritz roof, arrested in last night's raid were to be arraigned before a United States commissioner. If they are held a padlock action against the roof garden is planned.

"It is evident that the forces will be increased this summer. The law is being enforced in a warehouse. And this leads us to another thing about which I have talked to the workers a considerable length. That is the reduction of burden expense. Now when we have less to do in the shop there will have to be less employed in the productive department in progress.

W. VA. WAGE CUT SHOWS NEED OF CLOSING FRANKS

Life of Miners' Union Periled by Expulsions

By THOMAS MYERBOUGH

Shades of war have again descended on the battle-scarred mine fields of West Virginia. Commenced immediately after the charter of that district has been suspended, the pronouncement of the operators that wages will be reduced hedges had tidings to the miners of the organization in that field. If the success of the open shop drive in other sections of West Virginia can be taken as a criterion, then the officials and every member of the United Mine Workers of America have a hard fight to win to save the life of the union.

In the face of these happenings, and much to the delight of those in charge of the open shop drive, the officials concern themselves only with the perpetuity of their official offices. This concern on the part of the officials is manifested in every district, where there develops an opposition to their suicidal policies, by the revocation or suspension of district autonomy.

West Virginia Situation

Let us for instance take the West Virginia situation. The autonomy of that district has just been suspended. The reason given was that differences of opinion exist. But unless the entire strength of the official apparatus can be mobilized for the battle, this is now gaining momentum it will be hard to even have a clear-cut victory. Much is said by the officials in convention and in other public utterances by the effect of the open shop on rank, but nothing is done to bring this condition about.

They want to force the issue, yes, but to the exclusion of those who differ with them in opinion. They seem to think, even after many recriminations to the contrary, that by excluding such elements, they can solidify along in their own way. That this cannot be done is proved by the present conditions of once proud organizations that have been excluded from their ruling officialdom, excluded militant organizations that the organization has been attempting to do. The apathetic condition of these unions should serve as a warning to the U. M. W. of A. that anything can be gained by the adoption of a policy of that kind. The expulsion of individuals has served to dampen the enthusiasm of others of the thought the result would be to create a condition of docility or indifference, with deterioration as an inevitable result.

Need Every Miner in Fight

This statement is written with the thought in mind that the U. M. W. of A. needs not only the force of the rank, but also every man who mines coal or works in the industry as a member and active in the union. Therefore it is essential, when the ranks are closed as they could be, that every man eligible to membership, regardless of his economic or political beliefs, should be united in a fighting shoulder to shoulder with his fellow worker, comrade and brother against the common enemy. It is a question of differences of opinion being won for by membership, that have a body of men who are united in resistance for the organization, trusting always to their good judgment as to what is good and what is bad. Only in this manner can the workers' ranks be closed for a victorious fight.

Missing Minister Found with K. K. K. Branded on His Back

BATTLE CREEK, Mich., July 15.—The letters "K. K. K." were discovered branded on the back of Rev. Owen Thoburn, Battle Creek (Mich.) pastor and latter Klan foe, who was found here yesterday after being sought nearly two weeks.

Rev. Vanhook lies in hospital in a semi-conscious condition. He can tell nothing of the branding, except that he was standing on the corner in Royal Oak. The letters burned on his back were about two inches high and two inches wide, and were apparently hand stamped. The minister's disappearance was a great mystery. His hands and neck were very red and blistered.

The pastor collapsed on the street here. A few hours later an examination of papers in his pocket identified him as the missing clergyman. He was suffering from exhaustion and lack of food and was apparently very ill. He was taken to a hospital where he was treated for two weeks.

Brotherly Aid

PHOENIX, Ariz., July 15.—Stricken with paralysis by a stroke of the brain, C. Myers lost hope of completing the little adobe home which he had started last month. He was a member of Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of America, took the matter in hand. The brotherhood took charge, tributed the labor but the materials were not. The home is now complete with both electric and plumbing fixtures installed.

Communists Discuss Europe's Economic Situation

of the French Communist Party of the agrarian crisis there is developing the "masses," the discrepancy between the prices of industrial goods and food products. The "masses" is universal. The outstanding thing about the "masses" is the unsteady process of inflation and the monopoly prices which industry can command. The agrarian crisis is that it brings back the industrial crisis.

Under these circumstances sharpen the contrast between the classes. The appropriation of the middle class stock place wherever there was inflation. On the other hand, there is a confusion of the interest rates that look place in various countries. The event which can be foretold as coming about next is an extraordinarily severe crisis in the United States. The foundations of American economic unity have been shattered.

American industry will attempt to export unsalable goods to Europe (Germany is facing a severe crisis, although a little less severe than the last one). The outlook as a whole is dark. Above all, the development of a universal period of crisis. The meaning of the experts' report is that France and Germany will fight the war and is promoting as a means control over German economic life.

Peasants' Situation

The picture of a better future, such as the Social-Democrats predict, for the peasants and the workers, that the solution of the crisis is possible without revolution. Preparation for the future is the only way to the present time there are a million more beyond than there were before. The great battle between the economic life in Europe can be hidden.

In the year 1935 a sharp crisis in America is foretold. The development of economic life in Europe can be hidden. The picture of a better future, such as the Social-Democrats predict, for the peasants and the workers, that the solution of the crisis is possible without revolution.

Mr. Grant refused to give permission to speak, declaring: "We usually try and keep our meetings confined to matters of mutual interest to employees and the company. This looks like a pretty broad subject to cover." Then he went on to discuss the history of more employees and reduction of the workers wages.

Rail Chiefs in Flop To LaFollette Can't Break Wall St. Ti

Baron Munchausen Talks to Two Fakers

By Baron Munchausen

In offering the views of the two gentlemen whom I had the honor to interview on the daily program, I hope that your readers will not consider Messrs. Gompers and Cook are not subject to conviction. In fact, one of them is already convicted. Mr. Gompers is still at large.
