Oppose Intervention in China

AS WE SEE IT
By T. J. O'FLAHERTY.

THE British Trades Union Congress instructed the General Council to proceed with the task of amalgamating the craft unions, so that in Great Britain the workers will be organized along industrial lines. This is a decided step in advance for the British trade union movement. Several delegates criticized this step as not being advanced enough. One of the critics is the celebrated Jack Jones, the Communist leader, who wanted Walton Newbold, former Communist member of the British parliament lynched, at the time the Polish bishop was executed for treason to the Soviet Republic. Jones wanted one union for every worker in England. Industrial unionism was too tame for him.

To the Workers of Europe and America and to the Laboring Masses of the Oppressed Nationalities of the Orient.
THE British government, a government put into power by a Labor Party, and led by one of the outstanding figures of the Second International, is preparing armed intervention in Southern China, for the purpose of overthrowing the government of the nationalist revolutionary party of China. The Council of the British Labor government has addressed a note to the people's government of China, giving expression to the imperialist designs of the British government. This note threatens the people of China with severe military measures in case the nationalist revolutionary government of China attempts to suppress the rebellion of the Chinese merchants, which is being supported by the British government by supplying munitions to the counter-revolutionary rebels. The leader of this rebellion is a rich Chinese merchant and an agent of the British banks at Shanghai and Hong Kong. Before the eyes of the whole world and in opposition to the desire of the liberal movement of the labor movement, the MacDonald government is now attempting to destroy the very basis upon which rests the liberal movement of the oppressed masses of China, a movement which is being led by Sun Yat Sen, the famous leader of the revolutionary party of China, which has succeeded in 1911, in overthrowing the despotic dynasty of the Manchus and in establishing as its basis the government of Southern China. The imperialism of the pacifist democratic government of MacDonald is serving the interests of China, but the interests of English finance capital and the Chinese feudal counter-revolution which has oppressed the masses of Chinese for decades.

Comrades, American imperialism has begun an offensive in Northern China, while English imperialism is doing the same thing in Southern China. Furthermore, the Herriot government of France has dispatched warships from Indo-China and Saigon into the waters of Tientsin and Shanghai. The smaller imperialist nations are joining the bigger ones. This has world imperialism concocted a new conspiracy against the liberation movement of the Chinese people, against the toiling masses of China, and against the nationalist revolutionary government of Southern China. ## BERLIN CABINET EYES WALL ST. INTERNATIONAL

Britain Favors Entrance on Equal Terms

(Special to The Daily Worker)
BERLIN, Sept. 23.—The German cabinet agreed unanimously this afternoon to declare itself in favor of the republic's entry into the league of nations, provided the powers guarantee Germany admission with rights equal to the other big nations. President Ebert presided at the meeting.

British State Position.
LONDON, Sept. 23.—Upon learning that the German cabinet had voted for entering the league of nations, the foreign office announced this afternoon that Britain will reply to the Germans with the statement that this country is willing that Berlin should have equal voice with other nations in the league council.

NEW ATTEMPT BEING MADE TO ORGANIZE GARY STEEL SLAVES

(Special to The Daily Worker)
GARY, Ind., Sept. 23.—A drive to organize the steel workers employed by the United States Steel Corporation will be opened here tomorrow night, September 25, by a mass meeting under the auspices of the American Federation of Labor in Turner Hall, 14th and Washington.

George Carbine, of the coal and coke workers, who has been working among the miners of Southern Illinois, will address the meeting. As will William Hannon, secretary-treasurer of the steel workers' organization, and other American Federation of Labor representatives.

ROYAL BR: CORRUPTS LONG ISLAND MORALS

Judge Drinks Booze and Ogles Damsel
NEW YORK, Sept. 23.—A justice of the peace dancing the highland fling with a bobbed-haired girl and holding a glass in his free hand does not constitute a "wild party," according to the verdict of a Roslyn, Long Island jury.

Miss Isabelle Briggs, Philadelphia debutante, was, therefore, found not guilty of conducting a birthday party given in her honor by Miss Vera Leightner, former Yale football star, and Thomas Orth, of the Harvard Club, two of the dozen men who had been invited to the party. She had already pleaded guilty and had been fined $100 each. Justice of the peace Ebert L'Ecluse, of Great Neck, another guest, and Miss Leightner, Bronx, were also to be tried on similar charges.

ANTI-ADMINISTRATION MAN IS BEATEN UP AT CARPENTERS' CONFAB

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Sept. 23.—C. J. Mucoby, of Providence, R. I., leader of an anti-administration faction of the carpenters and joiners' convention here, was severely beaten on a downtown street early today by two unidentified men who escaped after kicking him in the stomach and jaw while he lay prostrate. Mucoby was credited to his enemies within the union, police said.

Whirlwind Campaign For Petition Signers

(Special to The Daily Worker)
NEW YORK, Sept. 23.—In preparation for the important left wing conference Sunday, Sept. 28, at the Labor Temple, 243 E. 84th St., many active members of trade unions, Workers' Circles, fraternal organizations, Workers Party branches, Young Workers League and other left wing organizations are engaged in a whirlwind campaign to put Foster and Gitlow on the ballot in New York State. To make the Empire State the tent pole of the list of those who have placed the Workers Party ticket on the ballot.

To date this list includes delegates from New York, Illinois, Ohio, North Carolina, Washington, Oregon, Colorado, Pennsylvania, Massachusetts and New Jersey. In New York City considerable progress is being made, especially in the Brownsville, Williamsburg and Harlem sections.

Interesting Campaign Incident.
One of the signature solicitors, of the hundreds who are going out today, related an amusing episode in connection with his canvass of the workers in his district.
Coming into the proletarian home of a garment worker in the Bronx, he was met with the question: "What party do you represent?"
Upon receiving the reply, "The Workers Party," the worker said, "Why, yourse the fellow I've been looking for. I'm sick and disgusted with this LaFollette-Hillcut-Gompers gonah. Let me have an application blank, will ya?"
Workers' Circle Indorses Foster.
The Publicity Department of the Workers Party has just received word that the Workers' Circle, Branch 417, has given its unqualified indorsement to William Z. Foster and Ben Gitlow.

All delegates to the left wing conference, Sept. 28, should send in credentials from their organizations, to the Workers Party Campaign Committee, 208 E. 12th St.

Communist Ticket Goes on Ballot in Michigan

COMMUNIST presidential electors pledged to William Z. Foster and Benjamin Gitlow will appear on the ballot in Michigan in the November elections.

This was assured thru a state convention held in Detroit, Saturday, Sept. 20, at which candidates for state office were nominated as well as presidential electors. Under the Michigan law these candidates are certified to the Secretary of State and their names automatically appear on the ballot.

The addition of Michigan to the states in which the Workers Party will be represented on the ballot gives the number of Communist ticket legal requirements have been complied with up to six. These states are: Massachusetts, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Michigan, Iowa and North Dakota.

It has been previously reported that the requirements had been met in Washington and Oregon, but this is not the case as the Oregon law still appears to be inoperative. It is hardly possible for the party organization to secure these signatures in that state. In Washington it is likely that the Workers Party ticket will go on the ballot although this is not yet definitely assured.

Other states, most of which will undoubtedly have Communist tickets on the ballot are Rhode Island, New York, Maryland, Indiana, Illinois, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Missouri and California.

FOSTER OUTRUNS COOLIDGE, DAVIS, IN CARSHOP VOTE

Reactionaries Ditched by Railway Workers

William Z. Foster, Communist candidate for president, polled more votes in the DAILY WORKERS' Party ballot at the Chicago & Northwestern Railroad Shops, Crawford Ave. and W. Lake St., than Coolidge and Davis put together. LaFollette was again the high man.

The vote result showed the following: Foster, 42; Coolidge, 23; LaFollette, 25, and Davis, 12.
Compared to Clothing Workers.
It is interesting to note that both Coolidge and Davis ran poorer in the big railroad shops than they did among the clothing workers, who are considered more radical.

At the plants of Hart, Schaffner and Marx, Kuppenheimer and the Royal Tailors, Coolidge and Davis all managed to run better than they did among the railroad workers. The Communist strength in both the clothing factories and the railroad shops was about the same.
One of the DAILY WORKERS' straw vote getters, who got up early in the morning and arrived at the North end car shop doors at six in the morning, to get there in time to meet the men on their way in told the DAILY WORKER, "It is an education to see the movement of the country to go down to the plants and talk to the workers as they go to and from work."
"I am keeping again and I think the party should keep the work up and all the industries should be visited. The carshop workers begin arriving as early as twenty minutes after six in the morning. Dressed in overalls they seem to drag themselves to work still half asleep. When they are approached by one of us they act as the shaken out of a stupor."
One Vote for Foster.
"I watched one man handling his ballot. I said: 'Who are you for?' He looked at the ballot and said: 'Coolidge. Never a word from him, not even a twinkle in his eye. Quietly he put his cross beside Foster's name and handed me the ballot. It gave a gasp sensation.'"
Most of them said they didn't care who got in. "Why not?" brought the response: "Who dies?"
"Read the DAILY WORKER and you'll learn the difference," we told them.

"We could have done much better had we more people handing out the ballots. There are eight entrances all in. We covered only four of them. We explained that we would return in the evening to collect the ballots. When we arrived in the evening there was one rush out of the buildings and we had to run after the men to get the ballots."
Feels Vote is Encouraging.
"Like so many automatic human machines, they move toward and away from the huge shops, they do to say to my mind the drama by the Koopke Brothers. I wanted to shout at this week whose largest exhibitor is the United States Steel Corporation, is an advertising and money making proposition."

REINSTATEMENT DEMAND BEFORE I. A. M. CONFAB

Militants for An End to Heresy-Hunting
(Special to The Daily Worker)
DETROIT, Mich., Sept. 23.—The convention of the International Association of Machinists today witnessed a real battle in the suspension of several militants for legal 100 of the international in Toledo, Ohio.

Johnston, president of the union, attempted to block a hearing, but was overruled by using a technicality in the law as an excuse, and then ruled out of order a resolution presented by Peter Jensen of Chicago calling for the raising of the technical bar.

Emme Appeals.
Julius Emme, of St. Paul, then moved to suspend the fines of $50 that had been laid on each of the seven, and hear the cases before the grievance committee, and the chairman again ruled against it on the ground that it was out of order. Emme then appealed from the decision of the chairman, and the latter was just barely sustained by the delegates.

The progressives in the convention, determined that the cases of heresy-hunting shall come before the meeting, have taken up a collection of $100, covering the seven fines, to deposit with secretary Davison.
Resentment against the arbitrary rulers of the chair is growing among the delegates.
Progressives Win Victory.
The progressives today won a spirited fight by having the convention adopt their resolution for a two-year term for officers, all elected officers to stand for reelection on January 1, 1925. The secretary announced the defeat of the resolution by two votes. This call was immediately called for and the result was found to be 258 for the proposition and 199 against it. Provision for an election board to supervise counting of the ballots was carried by an overwhelming majority.

More Trouble For Spain.
ALMERIA, Spain.—We have struck such a slump here that many shops have been forced to close.

SILENT CAL, MAY NOT ESCAPE WITH CLEAN SHIRT THIS TIME

(Special to The Daily Worker)
CAMP PERRY, Ohio, Sept. 23.—A special session of the Brookhart Wheeler committee investigating the department of justice will be summoned immediately, Senator Brookhart, of Iowa, announced here this afternoon following receipt of a telegram from Senator Wheeler. Brookhart did not make public the text of the message he received.

TOLEDO TAKE NOTICE!

All comrades and readers of the DAILY WORKER should report Thursday afternoon any time after 4 o'clock at headquarters, 131 Michigan Street, Toledo. Very important.

METHODISTS NOT INTERESTED IN NIGHT MURDER

Killer Not a Highly Paid Preacher
(Special to The Daily Worker)
INDIANAPOLIS, Sept. 23.—Rev. Lawrence High, held a small and unimportant place in the Methodist ministry according to Bishop Frederick D. Lette, to whose conference the Southern Illinois district, was added recently.

"I do not know the man," Bishop Lette said, "and his case calls for no particular attention of the church."
"In a case like this, I have no doubt that he has already surrendered his parsonage to Dr. C. C. Hall, the local district superintendent, although I have not been notified."
The charge held by Rev. High was one of the smallest and paid in the neighborhood of $1,000 a year, Bishop Lette said.

Bishop Lette went to Carbondale, Illinois, today to attend a district meeting at which High's case might be considered, he said.

Moons Still Fighting.
TANDLER—Serious fighting was reported today in East Akarac, near the frontier of the zone which government troops have cleared of rebellious Riff tribesmen.

STEEL TRUST TO STAGE HUGE EXPOSITION IN GARY WHILE WORKERS' JOBS DISAPPEAR

By KARL REEVE.
(Staff Writer, Daily Worker)
GARY, Ind., Sept. 23.—While the 20,000 workers in the Gary mills of the United States Steel Corporation are being laid off one, two and three days a week, with from three to six thousand men laid off, the Chamber of Commerce has chosen this time to stage an "Exposition," to demonstrate the "prosperity" enjoyed by the steel trust town. The "Greater Gary Exposition," being at this week whose largest exhibitor is the United States Steel Corporation, is an advertising and money making proposition.

DUNNE, CANDIDATE FOR GOVERNOR, WILL SPEAK TONIGHT AT MEETING OF T. U. E. L. ON R. I. L. U. CONGRESS

"I welcome this opportunity of placing before the trade union militants of Chicago the results of the third congress of the Red International of Labor Unions," said William F. Dunne, editor of the DAILY WORKER, when asked regarding his speech at the regular monthly meeting of the Trade Union Educational League to be held at the Northwest Hall, North and West Avenues, Monday night.
Dunne, known through the country for his militant activity in the labor and Communist movement here, attended the congress of the R. I. L. U. and the Communist International, and is a member of the executive committee of the labor union international.

Assistant Dunne's guest, E. R. Crowder will give his regular monthly review of the Labor Movement which has aroused much favorable comment. All militants are invited to attend. The meeting will be held tonight (Monday) and opens at 8 p. m. sharp.

"RED BAITING" MARKS SESSION OF CARPENTERS

Hutchenson Covering Up Chicago Agreement

(Special To The Daily Worker)
INDIANAPOLIS, Sept. 23.—Fight the Fosterites, fight those who encroach on the jurisdiction of the brotherhood, expell those who advocate amalgamation, was the keynote of International President Hutchenson's speech to the convention of carpenters now in session here.

These, according to Hutchenson, were the greatest tasks before the carpenters. Or, as he put it, the three enemies of the brotherhood, were the Fosterites who advocated industrial unionism, those unions who tried to encroach on the jurisdiction of the brotherhood, and those who advocated the American plan.

Murray Lends His Aid.
 He was supported in this by Paul Murray, vice-president of the United Brotherhood of America, who gave his usual red baiting speech against the militants in the miners' union, leveling his attack against Tom Myer, leader of the Communist Party. He tried to excuse his failure to organize the miners in West Virginia by blaming Warren E. Stone and suggested that Foster try to hand it. He forgot to tell the delegates that whenever the miners attempted to advance progressive measures, the Chicago agreement was used to expel them from the union, and that the Lewis-Murray machine had not answered the charge of Frank Foster, president of the Illinois miners, that Lewis deliberately kept certain funds unorganized for a definite purpose.

Hutchenson Not Opposed.
 Hutchenson's opposition to the American plan is a lip operation to the Chicago agreement entered into by him without the knowledge of the rank and file? The American plan is an "open shop" condition, but the Chicago agreement is a "closed shop" agreement, under which Hutchenson pledged the support of the Chicago forces to be used to destroy the other building trade unions.

In other words, Hutchenson signed an agreement that pledges that the carpenters will remain at work while the American plan is being forced upon the other trades.

The Chicago agreement was signed in secret, one day before the Chicago district election. Jensen, whom Hutchenson supported against State Senator Foster, is the author of the report that the agreement was a real union agreement. Without this fake propaganda he would have been defeated in the Chicago district election last June. Not a single copy was printed for months, and the agreement is no rotten, that the rank and file has not seen it for a long time. It is worse than the American plan, because the American plan is the "open shop" policy, while the Chicago agreement is a "closed shop" agreement, under which Hutchenson pledged the support of the Chicago forces to be used to destroy the other building trade unions.

Post-Trade Award.
 The carpenters of Chicago put up a great and victorious fight against the Lewis award, their membership increased during the fight, they had the contractors kicked, and they were betrayed by Hutchenson and Jensen for personal political gains. If they are proud of the agreement, why don't they stand up to it, read it to the convention, let the rank and file know what it is? But they have something to hide, so they attack Foster and the Chicago agreement, while the Lewis award will come in for its share of the blame.

The progressive issues now confronting the carpenters' convention, cannot be met on their merits by such men as Hutchenson, the appeal to prejudice is all that can be expected from such politicians. The key-note struck by Hutchenson in his speech, is followed out by the convention, then it means that the agreement entered into by the convention will be forced down the throats of other cities.

Earth Does the Shimmy.
LONDON.—Geoza's municipal badsmen proved themselves heroes and averted panic and a possible stampede when they calmly continued to play while five earthquake shocks shook the city.

Mexican Minister in Spain.
MADRID.—The Mexican minister Sr. Enrique Gonzales, presented his credentials and was accorded an official reception here.

OLIVER CARLSON IN TOUR OVER U. S. FOR YOUNG WORKERS LEAGUE TO SPEAK ON PROBLEMS OF YOUTH

Oliver Carlson, for two years a member of the executive committee of the Young Communist International, just returned to the United States after the congresses of the Communist and Young Communist Internationals, both of which he attended as delegate from America, has just begun his tour of the country to arouse the suspicions of the Young Workers League.

Most of his meetings will be for the league, while some of them will be held under the auspices of the Young Workers League, where he will speak for the Communist candidates.

Has Much Experience.
 Comrade Carlson is an excellent speaker and has had vast experience in work all over the world. He will bring these experiences in England, Germany, Russia, Sweden and other European countries, to bear on the problems of the Young Communist in America. His membership meeting in Chicago brought the best turnout of Y. W. L. members yet seen here. He has had equal success in Cleveland and Youngstown. All league members as well as party comrades are urged to attend the Carlson meetings in great numbers.

STEEL CITY PLANS TO CELEBRATE

 tion. The Chamber of Commerce is to receive twenty per cent of all receipts on admission to the steel city's annual convention, headed by Henry Marks, is to get the rest.

Two Bits to Get In.
 The Gary steel workers are to pay the balance of the convention, and they get in they are expected to buy something from the business men's booth.

The conjunction with this campaign to sell the goods produced in Gary, the Chamber of Commerce is issuing special literature to catch the eye of business men, and to get them to settle in Gary. The prospective manufacturer and business man is told in this literature that Gary is an open shop with plenty of labor, and is not an exception in the printing trades.

There is available at all times a large surplus of high-grade steel mill workers, says the Chamber of Commerce bulletin entitled, "Gary Faces Prosperity."

The Chamber of Commerce, dominated by the United States Steel Corporation, feels satisfied that there are no unions and that there is a surplus of labor, and that the conditions they can pay the workers much less wages and make more profits for themselves. "The average normal number of persons employed in Gary industries is 26,875," says the Chamber of Commerce. "Over 90 per cent of the workers are male and are operated in the several units of the United States Steel Corporation."

But the most important inducement held out to manufacturers, the most important inducement offered by the United States Steel Corporation and the Gary banks that Gary is an ideal town for the large employer of labor. The United States Steel Corporation, 90 per cent of whom are admitted to be steel trust slaves.

44 Cents An Hour.
 "The average normal wage for industrial male workers is 44 cents per hour; for female workers, 25 cents per hour. With the exception of the steel industry, the average wage is actually every establishment in Gary operates under the American plan," says the Chamber of Commerce.

The United States Steel Corporation controls 85 per cent of 90 per cent of the citizens of Gary. Under the leadership of Elbert H. Gary, the steel trust has gained control of every institution in the town, which holds public opinion and influences the thoughts of the workers.

The paternalistic Steel Trust takes the children when they enter school, and makes them into efficient slaves.

GRANT PARDON PLEA NOW UP FOR ACTION TO GOVERNOR SMALL

Bernard Grant, under sentence of death for the murder of a policeman, Ralph Souders, may escape the gallows. If the plea of his attorney to Governor Len Small, for a pardon is granted.

Much discussion has been aroused over the case of Grant, who, like the murderers of Robert Frank, is a young attorney. It is pointed out that Grant is a poor man's son, and on his way to the gallows with no other friends than those of Leeb and Leopold, who, the sons of rich parents, got away with a life term, and escape the noose.

It is now reported that the attorney, Walter Krauser, which cleared Grant of the murder charge, has now been repudiated. Clarence Leeb, attorney for the State, is reported that Grant is a poor man's son, and on his way to the gallows with no other friends than those of Leeb and Leopold, who, the sons of rich parents, got away with a life term, and escape the noose.

LAST HOUR DRIVE FOR SIGNATURES IN 6TH DISTRICT

Must Work Hard to Put Pellegrino on Ballot

Are you a member of any one of the following Workers Party branches?
 Cicero Young Workers League, Lettish Branch, Czechoslovak No. 3, Czechoslovak North Berwyn, Czechoslovak Cicero, Cicero English, Cicero Italian, Douglas Park English, Douglas Park Jewish, Scandinavian West Side, West Side Young Workers League, John Reed Young Workers League, National Union.

If you are, you belong to the Sixth Congressional district, and your candidate is Frank Pellegrino. What more do you need to put him on the ballot?

If you have not done your share, and Pellegrino does not go on the ballot, it will be a great personal and I trust that the City Central committee will find ways of making you feel your responsibility in this failure. Communists are workers, not shirkers.

Sunday, Sept. 27.
 You have one more chance to do your share of this work. On Sunday, Sept. 27, the last hour drive for signatures will be conducted by District 6. Every member of the above mentioned branches is urged to come to the Douglas Park Blvd. and get his assignment.

A true Communist is not he who simply pays dues regularly and attends meetings, but he who gets in and quietly listening or taking part in abstract discussions. A true Communist is he who does this plus work. The work of the Party is not done as much as it can be built up the bodies of the steel workers while they are still school children, with the hope that they will last a little longer in Gary's mill.

The fact that the public schools are designed to train the children of workers, and that the workers' life is put into fancy language by the Chamber of Commerce. "In addition to excellent academic instruction, the workers' life is put into fancy language by the Chamber of Commerce. "In addition to excellent academic instruction, the workers' life is put into fancy language by the Chamber of Commerce. "In addition to excellent academic instruction, the workers' life is put into fancy language by the Chamber of Commerce."

The Gary Plan. of which the Gary employers boast so much, teaches the child to work in the factory work, which restricts their immature minds rather than broadening them, as would scientific or cultural education.

"In the high schools," boasts the Steel Trust controlled Chamber of Commerce, "vocational training is offered to the semi-skilled steel mill trades. The town thus uses its high schools to take the place of a private trade school which Elbert Gary would have had if he had his way."

There is only one local paper in Gary, The Post-Tribune, which is obviously, as all the Gary workers know, a tool of the United States Steel Corporation. The Post-Tribune has been used in the following courses: animal trying to make the steel workers who can't even buy a job anywhere, believe that there is no unemployment in Gary, and that the Chamber of Commerce realizes the value of the paper to the town's non-union employers.

"The educational value of the Post-Tribune is not to be underestimated," says the Chamber of Commerce. "The Gary Post-Tribune is a potent force in the life of the town. It is the only paper in the Post-Tribune consists of doing any dirty work for the Steel Trust which comes to hand."

"The Greater Gary Exposition" is proof that Gary is a splendid town for the employers and for the United States Steel Corporation, and a good one for the workers to keep away from.

Ella Reeve Flow Talks to Big Crowds in Milwaukee, Wis.

(Special To THE DAILY WORKER).
MILWAUKEE, Wis., Sept. 23.—Here Ella Reeve Flow spoke here at two large street open air meetings yesterday, taking up good collections from audiences of several hundred people. "Mother" Flow told the crowd last night about the heroic struggles of the Soviet government's behalf of the workers of the world, and pleaded for international solidarity.

She denounced LaFollette as an upholder of the capitalist system, which is against not only the workers and farmers' government, but the working class of the world.

Flow will speak in Milwaukee at open air meetings until Sept. 25, when she speaks in Racine and Kenosha and returns to Milwaukee on the 26th. "Mother" Flow begins a tour of the Southern Illinois coal fields.

Politics Links Steel Trust to Officialdom of Labor in Illinois

By J. LOUIS ENGDHAL

TODAY, more than ever, "politics makes strange bedfellows."
 This is particularly true of Illinois.

News comes from downstate that "Charley" Deneen, ex-governor, now candidate for United States senator on the republican ticket, is opening his campaign in Eastern Illinois.

At Danville, in the heart of a coal mining center, Deneen is the guest of honor at a luncheon given by Thomas Moses, general superintendent of the United States Fuel Company.

Mr. Moses is also the representative of the United States Steel Corporation, which the fuel company is a subsidiary in the Danville district.

That Mr. Deneen, the political spokesman of the greatest corporations, should associate with the officials of the Steel Trust, is to be expected. That is his role in politics and he makes no effort to hide it.

But Mr. Deneen is the bedfellow in politics of Governor Len Small, who has been endorsed for re-election by the officialdom of Illinois labor, including Frank Farrington, president of the Illinois Miners' Union, and John H. Walker, president of the Illinois Federation of Labor. This is the Walker who acted as chairman of the LaFollette-Wheeler mass meeting in Chicago last Saturday night. Len Small is the LaFollette candidate for governor in Illinois.

Farrington endorses the republican candidate, Len Small, the political pal of Deneen, the guest of honor of the Steel Trust.

It is charged that it was the steel trust that stood back of Mr. Farrington's open shop politics, because another member of the Miners' Union in Williamson County. It is charged that the war on the Miners' Union at Herrin was merely a part of the steel trust's open shop war against organized labor throughout the entire country. The miners' officials themselves made the charge.

At Farrington, the president of the Miners' Union, shakes hands, thru his political alliances, with all these anti-labor elements. Farrington is the political bedfellow of the politicians of the Steel Trust. He is in the same nest with the open shoppers.

Walker comes from Danville, center of reaction, that sent "Uncle Joe" Cannon to Washington as congressman, to do the bidding of the biggest business interests, until he became too old to make the trip to the national capital. Walker is a socialist, often campaigned for congress, in the Danville district, as the socialist candidate, against the Cannon republicanism.

But Walker turned renegade, even to the socialist party, and is now in the republican camp. Walker now denounces the radicals, especially the Communists, at the same time building his alliance with Len Small, the political ally of Deneen.

It is not difficult to see how Walker, like Farrington, dabbling in Wall Street politics, becomes another hanger-on of the workers, just as much as the worst reactionaries, even as much as Deneen, the professional politician-lawyer of the moneyed interests.

Farrington and Walker may sleep in the left side of Len Small, but in the same political bed, on the right side, sleep very comfortably indeed, the Deneens and the Brundages with their steel trust friends.

A strong chain, that loops about the neck of the whole working class, runs from the Steel Trust's banquet to Deneen at Danville, to the LaFollette meeting addressed by Wheeler, in Chicago.

It is a strong chain, powerful in every link, that labor can only break when it decides to go into class politics for itself, working class politics.

Capitalist politics, the struggle for the maintenance of the present capitalist social order, unites all capitalist politicians—Coolidge, Davis and LaFollette; Deneen, Small, Farrington and Wheeler.

Working class politics, the struggle for Soviet Rule, must unite the workers and farmers under the Communist standards, carried aloft in this campaign by the candidates of the Workers Party, William Z. Foster, for president, and Benjamin Gitlow, for vice-president.

SILLINSKY IS HOLDING LEAD IN ELECTION

Predict Militant Will Win Out in Tailors

Max J. Sillinsky, Cleveland progressive, retained his lead yesterday over the reactionary Sweeney, in the election race for secretary-treasurer of the Journeymen Tailors' Union.

With Boston, Indianapolis, Burlington, and Grand Rapids returning in, Sillinsky leads Sweeney by 1028 votes to 944. Progressive centers in Canada, Detroit, and other local unions which are expected to give Sillinsky a majority of their votes have not yet been heard from.

At the election for secretary-treasurer in Kansas City, the reactionary business agent of the local brought in 21 votes for Sweeney which he had canvassed and which he declared Sweeney told him to get. In spite of the vote for Sweeney, the progressives carried these 21 votes, making 19 for Sillinsky and 51 for Sweeney.

The total vote to date follows:

CARPENTER DELEGATE HITS INDIANAPOLIS AS OPEN SHOP CITY

(Special To The Daily Worker)
INDIANAPOLIS, Sept. 23.—The credentials committee reported to the convention of the Carpenters' Brotherhood, and the report was accepted. President Hutchenson appointed the following committee on the credentials of the delegates: Krastan, Walker, Bates, Dublin, and Bennett.

John Manning, secretary of the Union Label League, spoke at length on the necessity of using a "closed shop." When he was thru, delegate John J. Reardon, of the "made makers' Local 1596, St. Louis, said that when he had asked in Indianapolis for unmade makers' was looked upon as crazy. He said that unionism should begin at some where most of the unions had their headquarters and should organize the workers instead of permitting the city to be open shop. If that were done, the good of the unions might have some reason for asking the delegates to be permitted to speak.

The delegate, looking at the delegates to the floor and said that he agreed with what he had just said, but that it should not be looked upon as an attack on the officers of the union, since they were doing their best to unionize the town. Hutchenson didn't believe in running away because it was a non-union city.

Numerous delegates here expressed their appreciation of the DAILY WORKER as a good working class newspaper.

AGAINST RUSS,
KAMENEV

Soviet Leader Assails
English Government

(Special to The Daily Worker)
MOSCOW, Sept. 23.—L. B. Kamenev, Governor of Moscow, and one of the leading figures in the Communist government, delivered a scathing indictment of the British government in a speech before a gathering of the Young Communist League of Russia.

Kamenev charged the British diplomats and the permanent officials in the London foreign office with having organized rebellious movements against the Soviet government with a view to discrediting the Anglo-Russian trade treaty signed by Ramsay MacDonald in behalf of the British government.

Kamenev does not accuse MacDonald of participating in the anti-Soviet conspiracy, tho' MacDonald's alleged love for "Georgian independence" before he became premier leads one to the conclusion that the recent disturbances were not entirely a surprise to him.

Kamenev declared that the experts' reparations plan was a cruel American device designed to bring Germany to the status of a colony.

The following is an excerpt from Kamenev's speech: "The day after the signing of the Anglo-Russian agreement," said Kamenev, "British diplomacy, which is not in the hands of prime minister MacDonald, began to work on all fronts to weaken the reparative plan which the conservative diplomats who have remained in office since the days of Czorn began to work to realize the reparations plan in the Soviet Republic in order to create delay in the ratification of the agreement. Everywhere we noticed the work of the British diplomats. In Afghanistan there is a movement against our friend, the amir. In Persia small national groups, bought by the gold of British agents, are beginning to rebel. In Turkey the Kurds are beginning to agitate."

British Support Soviet Fees

"Everywhere the British support reparations plan," said Kamenev, "and governments of the east that are working for the freedom of the east. Intervention in China has been prepared for a long time. It is beginning now because the adoption of the experts' reparations plan by Europe has set the hands of Great Britain free to work on other fronts and because the recognition of Chinese rights by our representative in Peking aroused the Chinese people against old-world imperialism."

"We notice the activity of British diplomats not only outside but inside of Russia. We are quite sure of all the adventures of the Georgian manashevki have only one object, and that is to make enough noise and scandal to demonstrate that Soviet Russia is ineffectual."

"We ought to have no delusion that this agitation will end here. We have our soldiers in Persia and Baidarovich may start again."

Tchitcherin Flays League

MOSCOW, Sept. 23.—George Tchitcherin, foreign minister of Soviet Russia, in a public speech in Moscow, charges the league of nations with complexity in the recent disturbances in Georgia. He dubbed the league "the beloved child of the entente powers," and with being a weapon of the capitalist powers for their war on Soviet Russia.

"It is a bogus league," declared comrade Tchitcherin, "and lacks real power but is able to make real noise. That is the reason for its existence. The result in Georgia is that it was pre-arranged by the bourgeois governments."

"Why does not the league of nations with the revolts in India, Syria, the Sudan and China, where heroic oppressed peoples have started revolts which are not bogus?"

RUSSIA SUCCESSFUL IN POWER PROGRAM, SAYS U. S. EDITOR

(Special to The Daily Worker)
NEW YORK, Sept. 23.—Soviet Russia is successfully working out its hydro-electric power program, testified Harold V. Bostell, editor of the Electric World, who has just returned from a two-day inspection tour. Of the 20 big power stations called for in the program five are already being operated, said Mr. Bostell. Seven others are under construction.

The electrical editor says that firms selling power equipment to the Russian government are sure of their money. Most of the Soviet electrical purchases are made on a basis of 50 per cent down and the balance in five years.

The Campaign Fund Campaign
ARE WE A CHINESE ARMY?

By ALFRED WAGENKNECHT.

THERE is war in China. General Che-kiang and his army are fighting General Kiang and his army in the vicinity of Shanghai. Che-kiang is in sympathy with the Manchurian general, Cheng Tso-lin, and Kiang-su is supporting the central government at Peking. The forces of Sun Yat-sen are being mobilized in northern Kwangtung to assist the Manchurian forces. General Cheng-min, who has long been Sun Yat-sen's mainstay in Kwangtung, is occupying the positions formerly held by the Sun Yat-sen forces.

Now that you understand this, let's go on with the story! Chinese armies, from the smallest handful of provincial rebels to the large army of the Manchurian war-lord, all have one peculiar habit.

WHEN IT RAINS THEY DON'T FIGHT!! Let's admit that it's a bit murky overhead for the Workers Party. Instead of having "to the masses" united front labor party campaign we were compelled by circumstances to shift positions and enter an out and out Communist campaign.

But has any one commanded—REST ARMS! Have you heard a single bugle make a noise like drops of water patterning on empty skulls? A noise which might be interpreted by you to mean—IT'S RAINING. ALL TURN IN?

Every party member is supposed to have his head full of Communism and his body full of fight. The more difficult the struggle the harder we battle. Trotsky kept the internationalists busy on seven fronts at one and the same time.

ARE WE A CHINESE ARMY? Shall little drops of rain cool our ardor and one storm defeat us? ON WITH THE ELECTION CAMPAIGN! IN WITH THE DOLLARS!!

In the midst of the times Mr. Brownlee, a British fraternal delegate to the Canadian Trades Union Congress, was being up with the reactionary elements here in America and Canada against the radicals. The British labor leaders are not deserving of any special praise for their march to the left. They are not leaders, they are being driven by the masses, whose morale has been somewhat raised by the fact that they have a socialist labor government in office, which gives them the feeling that the only thing that stands between them and complete victory is the will to power.

France Supports Chang; Britain Backs Wu

(Special to The Daily Worker)
SHANGHAI, Sept. 23.—Peking has issued "subjugation orders" directing Marshal Wu Pei-fu to suppress Chang Tso-lin, Manchurian war lord. The forces of the Mukden war lord are attacking heavily the aviators in the employ of Chang are making airplane raids.

French Support Chang. Recent dispatches from Peking state that Chang Tso-lin possesses many Breguet planes manned by French pilots. The French military attaché of the Peking legation visited Marshal Wu Pei-fu to discuss the Peking advice, to confer the French decoration of commander of the legion of honor on Chang Hsueh Liang, son of Chang Tso-lin, for distinguished services in aviation.

At that time the Peking government made protest to the French government claiming that the sale of French planes infringes on the arms embargo. This latter view, it was stated, was held by the United States government.

Sun Attacks Britain. (From Our Own Correspondent.)
MOSCOW.—(By Mail.)—I have been able to locate the original copies that has left China of the venemous manifesto issued by Dr. Sun Yat Sen, the enlightened "President" of the South China Republic, which he calls the "British gunboat diplomacy" in Canton. Dr. Sun says: "From the moment that the Peking Pak, in company with the Hong Kong and Shanghai Bank, began a rebellion against my government, I have been in a constant state of alarm. My government was supported by British imperialism."

"I was reluctant to believe this in view of the great number of professions of sympathy for exploited peoples. I was hopeful that the Labor government would replace the old system of policy. I had, however, hoped disaster and humiliation on China, by an era of international honesty."

The Consul's Truth. "We now know the truth. On August 29 the British Consul-General advised a dispatch to my government stating that the consular body 'proposed against our interests to support a defenseless city,' concluding with a menacing note declaring, 'I have no alternative but to take action.' The British Consul-General stated that he has received orders from the Commodore in Hong-Kong that should the Chinese authorities fire on the city, immediate action should be taken against him by all British naval forces available."

"My government repudiates the suggestion that it could be guilty of the barbarity of firing upon a defenseless city, since the only section of Canton which is in a state of anarchy is the suburb of Slakwan, which is the armed stronghold of the Chen Lim rebels."

"But this infamous suggestion, emanating from a body which includes the British Consul-General, the British Consul in Amritsar, of the atrocities in Egypt and Ireland, is typical of imperial hypocrisy. In my country it is only the British government which is guilty of such outrages at Wanghsien, where the bombardment of a defenseless city by British naval forces was avoidable only because of the intervention of our countrymen, who were summarily decapitated without any trial in order to satisfy imperial frightfulness."

"But I see a more sinister meaning in the challenge of Imperialist England. In the light of the diplomatic and moral support of the Billions against the Chinese, the policy of reorganization and other loans from Imperialist Powers for more than 12 years long granted to the Chinese government, the policy of imperialism is not comprehensive but an attempt to destroy the Kuomintang government whereof I am head."

"The Kuomintang is a revolutionary body in China striving to preserve from extinction the spirit of revolution. It is the sole center of resistance against the reactionaries. Therefore British guns trained on it."

"Once the order of the day was to overthrow the Manchu dynasty. The time has arrived when the order of the day shall be to overthrow imperialist intervention in China, which is the main obstacle to the completion of the historic work of the revolution."

"When Lin Pak, at the head of the Chinese Merchants' League, has been directing an insurrectionary movement against Dr. Sun, whose government is favorable to labor."

FEW MILLION BUCKS WILL BE SPENT IN ATTEMPT TO ELECT SOME CAPITALIST PRESIDENT

By LELAND OLDS (Federated Press Industrial Editor)

At least $9,000,000 will be officially spent this year by the two old parties in an attempt to put over a candidate who finds favor in Wall street. The greater part will go to supply President Coolidge's campaign expenses.

These figures are from the conservative estimate of Donald MacGregor in The New York Times. MacGregor's estimate takes no account of the hundreds of thousands which will be poured out by organized business thru such camouflaged political organizations as the American bureau of economics and the National Tax Payers' union.

Preparing Budgets. According to MacGregor, "budgets now being prepared by the different campaign committees indicate an expenditure of approximately $10,000,000 in the current presidential contest. The sum is large but the ramifications of a national campaign are great. The cost of campaigning is as high today as at any time in history."

In 1914 the republicans spent approximately $10,000,000, but money went further then than it does today. In 1920 the actual outlay of the republicans was $11,812,742.62. The 1920 campaign expenditures figured in cost $10,338,509."

MacGregor says the republicans this year will probably be far better than the current estimates of the progressives and he suggests $3,000,000 as the probable total of the republican national committee fund with the democratic committee they set $2,000,000 and the LaFollette fund unlikely to exceed $1,000,000.

Any large state expenditures, which are now being made, will be found in the Coolidge column. Concerning these state funds MacGregor says, "The close cooperation of the national committee expenditures makes it extremely probable that state campaign funds will be larger than before. Many states do not require reports. Some contributors prefer to make their donations thru these channels so that they may avoid publicity. Similarly campaign funds may be found greatly increased since there is no report on these. In this way it is probable that the general expenditure of the New York state will be $100,000 since next and election day."

Since at least $6,000,000 and probably more of this huge fund is scheduled to put Coolidge over the top, any natural choice of the factory wage earners and low salaried persons who form the bulk of the electorate, a staunch business class, is evidently destined to unpleasant publicity by continuing their state and county funds. Altogether, taking account of the drop in prices since the election of 1920, the Coolidge campaign fund will be larger in purchasing power than that required to put Harding over in 1920.

UNITED TEXTILE WORKERS NOT TO RECOGNIZE WAGE CUT ACCEPTED BY AMOSKEAG COMPANY UNIONISTS

NEW YORK, Sept. 23.—The United Textile Workers will not recognize the action taken by the company unionists of setting James Coffman president of the union, declares that the company union representatives are defying the will of the rank and file.

Mr. McMahon said he did not wish to give away the union's plan of action at the present time but he declared that the T. W. ## UPHOLSTERS' BOSTON STRIKE BRINGS ARREST

Men Call On Communists for Speakers

By JAMES J. LACEY (Special to The Daily Worker)

BOSTON, Sept. 23.—The general strike called by Local 37, Upholsters' International Union has resulted in doubling the membership of the Local the second day of the strike. Out of 27 "struck" shops, only 12 of which were organized prior to the strike.

Over 500, that is, 80 per cent of those working at the trade have answered the strike call and the pickets are confident they will bring out the remainder before another day goes by. The largest shops are closed up tight leaving only the 3 and 4-man establishments to be reached by the pickets.

Ten pickets under the leadership of J. Forman were arrested at the Pease shop this morning at the instigation of one of the bosses. The pickets, to use their own words, "made a dance hall of the station house" and were almost immediately released.

The bosses' efforts to intimidate the strikers proved unavailing—tonight saw pickets again at their post at this same factory.

The local papers have carefully kept out of sight the object of the strike—the 40-hour week and union recognition—the possibility of a break in the strikers' ranks thru separate agreements was played up to the limit. This is the rankest kind of desecration. The men who have determined to keep their ranks tight are a hundred per cent. Settlement has been secured on the basis of the demands presented.

Youth Are Majority. The majority of the strikers are youths—lads in their early twenties—forced to work under inhuman conditions. Work shops in the highest degree insanitary, the material used often the contents of mattresses picked up on the dumps or secured when discarded by hospitals. Germ-laden and disease ridden material handled without any attempt at cleaning in dark shops, exposed to fire hazards at high speed (efficiency production) for an

LEGION HEAD OF U. S. EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT ATTACKS COMMUNISM

(By The Federated Press) WASHINGTON, Sept. 23.—John J. Tigert, the American Legion promoter who was rewarded with the job of U. S. Commissioner of education, publishes a boost for the national essay writing contests which the Legion is running. This year's contest was for the most effective statement on "Why Communism is a Menace to Americanism." Tigert is delighted at the fact that school children can be led, by federal and Legion activity, to devote their young minds to "questions of practical national policy," during the formative years of their lives.

When President Harding followed his selection of the banker James J. Davis to be secretary of labor with the selection of a Kentucky legionnaire to direct the educational activities of the federal government, he was swamped with protests from the National Educational Association, the universities and the various associations of educators in the scientific and literary fields. All protests were brushed aside.

NEW YORK, Sept. 23.—The Joint Board of the Cloak, Skirt, Dress and Reeler Makers Union, the largest New York unit of the International Ladies' Garment Workers' Union, takes a strong stand against overtime while unemployment exists. The order declares that "all cloakmakers, dress makers, skirtmakers and reelermakers are called upon not to work overtime and night work until all places are occupied in the shops. The union adopted this decision because there are still some unemployed in the industry. Control committees authorized by the union will visit all shops and such workers as will be found working at night will forfeit their jobs and others will be sent up to take their places."

REACTIONARY RULES CANADIAN TRADE UNION CONGRESS

Communist Minority in Vigorous Fight

(Special to The Daily Worker) TORONTO, Sept. 23.—The fourth convention of the Canadian Trade Union Congress was disappointing in the number of delegates that attended as well as the reactionary tone that dominated its proceeding under the dictatorship of the labor lieutenants that comprise the officialdom of the labor movement in Canada.

Despite the fact that the congress was held in Ontario, the industrial center of the Dominion, and the home of one-half of the locals in the international unions affiliated with the Trade Union Congress, only about 200 delegates attended. This was due to appointing that even the fossilized Tom Moore, president of the congress devoted some time to bewailing the lack of interest shown by Canadian unions in the work of the congress. One very good reason for this lack of interest is Mr. Tom Moore, a cheap Communist agent, known as Tompkins, Moscow via Amsterdam.

Practically every question that came up for discussion, was settled not on its merits, but on the basis of the interest shown by the delegates. The only motions introduced that spelled progress were brought forward by the Communists, and the reactionaries used the tried and trusty methods of the American labor fakery in attacking them. The method is to smear the supporters of the progressive resolutions with the name of the American labor fakery in attacking them. The method is to smear the supporters of the progressive resolutions with the name of the American labor fakery in attacking them.

The resolutions which caused the reactionary officialdom to bring on their containments of imaginary red fire, were those for amalgamation, a world trade union conference, and a strong party for the Canadian trade union movement. In their work of poisoning the delegates, the fakery was aided by radicals and officials of the International Ladies' Garment Workers' Union, who denounced the "reds" after the fashion of Charles Evans Hughes and William D. Burns.

The executive attempted to conceal a telegram of greeting received from M. Tomski, chairman of the All-Russian Trade Union Congress, an organization with a membership of six million workers. Moore stoutly denied receipt of such a telegram, but when shoved into a corner finally produced the cable which read: "Greetings forthright convention Trades and Labor Congress of Canada. For relentless struggle against reaction and exploitation and the emancipation of the workers of the world. Hall the unity of International Trade Unionism.—Tomski."

Even Mr. Brownlie, imported British laborer, secretary of the British machinists and fraternal delegate to the congress, who reported in the London Daily Herald, prove. But what does a lie more or less mean to a labor fakery? This was the first Canadian convention at which a resolution came from the floor to exclude the Communists and isolate them from the trade union movement.

Buck Was Right. Brownlie took occasion to state that Delegate Tim Buck, Communist, misrepresented the views of Purcell, chairman of the British Trade Union Congress, in his speech. Purcell declared that Purcell was for amalgamation, and correctly so, as Purcell's speeches at the British Trade Union Congress were reported in the London Daily Herald, prove. But what does a lie more or less mean to a labor fakery? This was the first Canadian convention at which a resolution came from the floor to exclude the Communists and isolate them from the trade union movement.

LITERARY DIGEST'S STRAW BALLOT IS ONLY TEST OF PARASITE VOTE

(By The Federated Press) WASHINGTON, Sept. 23.—When the reactionary Literary Digest was enlisted to conduct a straw vote, in order to influence the presidential election, the progressives investigated its methods, to learn what trick it would attempt. They find, first of all, that its list of voters to whom straw ballots are being sent, is made up of the "better" class. The names are taken from the lists of telephone subscribers and the lists of owners of automobiles.

The editors of the most conspicuous anti-labor weekly in the United States are aware that the bulk of the exploited wage workers in the industrial towns cannot afford to buy telephones in their homes, nor do they have automobiles. By excluding this lower half in the economic scale, the poll will represent the views of such part of the more fortunate citizens as care to risk their own jobs or business by disclosing to a big business publication, weeks in advance, the way they intend to vote. The result is a Coolidge propaganda enterprise.

The motion for amalgamation and Canadian autonomy were debated for three hours and lost on a voice vote. Fake progressives were used to good advantage by the officialdom in splitting the Communist following. One of these is Jimmy Simpson, secretary of the Canadian Labor Party, in order to draw Simpson's name, who only showed them in order to force the reactionaries to raise the ante, the officialdom placed Simpson on the administration slate for one of the vice-presidencies. This trick lined Simpson up with the administration and against the progressive forces led by the Communist Party.

Lewis Agents Seab. A resolution from Nova Scotia, denouncing officials of the Nova Scotia miners, appointed by John L. Lewis in place of the strike elected officers of the district because of their radical views was passed toward the close of the congress. The charge was made in the resolution that those Lewis tools, were setting union printing done in scab shops. In proof of their charges they showed copies of the last contract and also of the ballots cast on the vote on the contract, the work being done in scab printing plants. It was also proved that the union officials are still getting their printing done in scab shops.

The best defense attorneys of John L. Lewis could make that while Lewis could expel radical officials and appoint reactionaries in their place, he could not be held responsible for the acts of his appointees. The Communist Vote. Despite the clarity of the struggle between the Communists and opposition and the fact that toward the end of the congress all issues were fought on the question of Moscow or Amsterdam, the officials of the Trade Union Congress showed gratifying results, in that Tim Buck, candidate for president against the reacrauciationists, received 44 votes against 154 for his opponent, and that Jack MacDonald, candidate for vice-president, was not eliminated until after the third ballot.

The reaction won at the congress, the victory fooled none, not even the victors. The lines were more clearly drawn than ever before and the international solidarity of labor, represented by the Red International of Labor Unions and the Communist International, forced way to the congress floor despite the frenzied efforts of the labor lieutenants of capitalism to keep it out as they would like to keep out the Communist. The struggle between progress led by the Communists and reaction led by the officialdom of the Canadian labor movement will go on until the Communist line. There can be no doubt about that.

MILITANTS FIGHT LABOR FAKERS IN NEW SOUTH WALES

Demand Something More Than Lip-Service

By W. FRANCIS AHERN. (Federated Press Staff Correspondent) SYDNEY, New South Wales, Sept. 23.—In New South Wales the political and industrial wings of the Labor party are drifting toward a break. The issue is whether the Labor party is to function as a reform party or swing to the left on definite social lines.

Two years ago the Australian Labor party adopted as its objective the socialization of production and exchange. Up-to-date, nothing has been done save to reaffirm this at annual conferences. Militants Expelled. The militants in the Labor party, who desired to vitalize the objective have been gradually edged out of responsible positions in the Labor executive, and in a number of cases expelled.

Many Labor politicians give scant publicity to the party's objective, and when campaigning at election time explain that it really doesn't mean anything. This is done to catch middle-class votes.

A healthy section of the Labor movement demands something more than lip service to advance socialism, and when campaigning at election time explain that it really doesn't mean anything. This is done to catch middle-class votes. A healthy section of the Labor movement demands something more than lip service to advance socialism, and when campaigning at election time explain that it really doesn't mean anything. This is done to catch middle-class votes.

Spreading Everywhere. While the trouble is confined to the New South Wales branch of the party, there are signs that it is beginning to spread to other states. The militant section comprises the industrial wing of the party, which provides the bulk of the finance for the party and the leading speakers and campaigners. The next few months should mark important developments in the situation.

4767. Here is a pretty model for bodices, materials, printed voile or georgette. It is also attractive for linen, wash silks and pongee. The blouse may be finished in either of two lengths, and with the sleeve short or in wrist length. The pattern is cut in 7 sizes: 34, 36, 38, 40, 42, 44 and 46 inches bust measure. A 38-inch size requires 6 1/2 yards of 32-inch material. For the blouse with short sleeves and in short length 1 1/2 yard less will be required. The width of the skirt at the foot is 40 inches.

4653. Here is Fashion's latest expression in blouse. It may be finished with square neck outline, or with the little band collar at high neck line. The sleeve is smart in wrist length, and popular and very comfortable in the short length of the small view. This pattern is cut in 6 sizes: 34, 36, 38, 40, 42 and 44 inches bust measure. A medium size requires 2 1/2 yards of 40-inch material. Patterns mailed to any address on receipt of 12c in silver or stamps. Communist Mobilization

A leading oracle of big business is now circulating the biggest employers of the country with a statement that the election outlook seems itself up in: "Coolidge or an election by the House." This agency of big business has a reputation for accuracy and near-accuracy in its financial and political estimates.

Under these circumstances, it becomes increasingly important that the working men and poor farmers should mobilize their maximum forces for concerted action of defense and offense against the capitalist aggression now being laid by the employing class. Today there is only one way in which working class mobilization can be achieved most effectively. In this campaign effective working class mobilization can translate itself only into Communist mobilization.

In a survey made by the Magazine of Wall Street, regarding the opinions of "leading citizens" as to the business policies, in other words as to the attitudes of the three candidates of capitalism towards the present system, we learn that "the leaders of each of the three parties are alike in the needs of business, however much their methods may differ." In this symposium it is especially interesting to note that William H. Johnston, who boasts of being a director in one of the largest commercial banks and supervising extensive real estate and other investments, proudly declares that "LaFollette's election would make for better business."

Better business means higher profits. Higher profits under the present domestic and international economic conditions, can come only through lower wages. Lower wages with the present trend and mood of the working masses in the United States, can come only through the employing class waging a fierce offensive against the workers throughout the country. This means a declaration of war upon the workers' organizations and the slight gains won by the workingmen in the last short-lived prosperity spurt. This means that the workingmen must mobilize themselves as a class in self-defense.

No doubt the election of Coolidge would be a signal for a renewed and redoubled vigorous offensive against the organizations of the workers and poor farmers. There is every likelihood that if the election should prove a stalemate or a deadlock at the ballot box, that the reactionary forces dominating all the capitalist organizations would unite for a "safe and sane" ticket. Such a union would equally be a signal for an attack on the working class. In these circumstances, it would be the duty of the workers, the Communists, who would be chosen for the first assault, which would be only a prelude to a general attack on the working class. What better reason could the workers and farmers want for rallying to the support of the Workers Party and its Communist program and candidates in the campaign?

That the rank and file of the labor unions are taking a growing interest in the candidacy of William Z. Foster and Benjamin Gitlow, despite the flood of bourgeois propaganda that flows from the headquarters of LaFollette and his labor henchmen, is demonstrated by the very interesting meeting that took place in New York last week under the auspices of the eastern division of the Trade Union Educational League.

It was a meeting of unofficial representatives of the rank and file of the New York, the officials of most of the unions represented, had already pledged their organizations to the LaFollette personal campaign for the presidency, but evidently they spoke very much for themselves, no doubt being of the opinion that the rank and file had no thoughts worthy of consideration.

The New York meeting, however, proves that rank and file members, despite the heavy pressure brought to bear on them by the traitorous leaders who deserted the standard of independent working class political action for the banner of the bourgeois LaFollette, have not only decided to remain true to their principles but have also decided to back up those principles with action. And as money makes the mare go, money also supplies political campaigns with the sinews of war. Money talks. So the meeting of New York trade union militants pledged $2,700 to the Foster-Gitlow campaign fund.

Each industrial group pledged a certain amount of this total. Funds will be collected in the shops among those who are disgusted with the action of their leaders in deserting the class struggle in the political field will have the opportunity of supporting the only ticket that stands for the abolition of capitalism and the establishment of a Workers' and Farmers' government—the Workers Party.

The action of the New York comrades deserves the honor of emulation by left wing trade unions in other cities.

The Methodist clergymen who have not taken after the Holy Ghost express the hope that the Rev. Lawrence Hight's escapades will not injure the reputation of Christ as a savior of souls. The preacher who killed his friends to save their souls was not putting something original across. Religious people have been doing that for centuries.

Now that Calvin Coolidge has made his bid for the Catholic vote by denouncing socialism before the Holy Name Society, his next speech should be delivered before the national convention of the Ku Klux Klan, stressing the necessity for more Hitler school houses.

Workers Party Issues Statement Against Capitalist Dictatorship

The Central Executive Committee of the Workers Party has issued a statement declaring that the present government of the United States is a dictatorship of the capitalists. It is a dictatorship of the capitalists that this dictatorship will continue whether Coolidge, Davis or LaFollette is elected president. The statement calls upon the workers to rally behind the Communist candidates, to elect the Workers Party to the fight against this dictatorship and to establish a rule of the Workers and Farmers of the United States.

The statement which will be issued in pamphlet form and distributed in millions of copies follows.

Workers Rule Or Capitalist Dictatorship

Shall We have a Government of, for, and by the Capitalists, or a Government of, for, and by the Workers and Farmers?

THE CAPITALIST DICTATORSHIP. The present government of the United States is a dictatorship of the capitalists. The capitalist owners of industries and run them for their profit also own the government and want it to maintain their special privileges and to secure greater profits for themselves.

Crushing the Workers. Every worker who thinks must recognize that the capitalist dictatorship rules the country. On whose side of the struggle does the government appear when the workers go on strike to secure better wages and working conditions for themselves?

The courts, the police, the soldiers are always on the side of the employer and against the worker. These institutions of the government are part of the machinery for protecting the capitalist profits and to keep the workers from securing a higher standard of living.

One of the things which endears President Coolidge to the capitalists is his record in crushing the workers. The policemen's strike in Boston President Harding tried to break the miners' strike in 1922, when he flew the mines with militia sent at his call by the state governors. President Wilson used the courts, injunctions and soldiers against the miners and the workers in the great strike of 1919. President Roosevelt threatened the anthracite miners with the iron fist of the government. President Coolidge sent the soldiers to break the Pullman strike.

What has been true of the national government is equally true of the state and local governments. In every great struggle between the workers and the capitalists, whether the republican or democratic party has been in power, the government has maintained the capitalist dictatorship.

The whole history of the government of the United States is one story of graft and corruption. Land grants, railroad and grant steels, forest and timber, oil steels, these are written upon almost every page of the history of this country. The graft and corruption exposed in the Teapot Dome investigation is only the most recent example of the way the capitalists use the government to enrich themselves by looting the nation.

This direct looting of the natural resources of the country is not the only way in which the capitalists use the government to secure the billions upon which the workers pay their tribute. Tariff laws, banking laws, shipping laws, tax laws are all framed by the capitalist government so that the capitalist profits will grow and that the workers will be forced to accept lower wages and increase their swollen fortunes.

The workers have common interests. They want more wages, shorter hours, better working conditions, a higher standard of life. They should care these only at the expense of the private ownership of industry exists. So long as the capitalists have in their grip the tremendous economic power which their ownership and control of the machinery of production gives them, they will control the government and maintain their dictatorship. Whether a Coolidge, Davis or LaFollette is in power.

Coolidge and Davis are the candidates of the parties which have maintained the capitalist dictatorship in the past. LaFollette, while he announces the policy of the government by the privileged class, is a supporter of the capitalist system of private ownership of industry and operation of profit. He supports the system which gives the capitalists the power to enforce their dictatorship and in supporting and upholding the economic system which makes the capitalist dictatorship possible he is supporting and upholding that dictatorship.

Fighting the Capitalist Dictatorship. There is only one way in which the capitalist dictatorship which is crushing down the workers and robbing them of the right to enjoy the product of their work can be fought. The workers must organize as a class to fight the capitalist owners of industry and for workers' ownership and control.

The capitalist dictatorship expresses the class interests of the capitalists. The capitalists want to beat the workers into submission because the workers do not fight as a class, do not unite their power on the basis of their economic interests and unitedly fight the capitalist rule.

The capitalists have common interests. They want to maintain their power over the economic system and to keep the workers to accept the lowest wages and worst working conditions, so that the capitalist profits will grow and that the workers will be forced to accept lower wages and increase their swollen fortunes.

The workers have common interests. They want more wages, shorter hours, better working conditions, a higher standard of life. They should care these only at the expense of the capitalists. They can make certain that they will have them only if they unite their power and abolish the capitalist ownership of industry and operation for capitalist profit.

Coolidge won't fight in the interest of the workers. Davis won't fight in the interest of the workers. LaFollette won't fight in the interest of the workers.

The only party with a program for the workers' rule and abolition of the capitalist system is the Workers' (Communist) Party. The only candidates who represent the workers' interest in this election are Foster and Gitlow, the Communist candidates.

The Workers' and Farmers' Government. The Workers Party is fighting for a workers and farmers government and the workers will only get it if we use the government in their interest. It calls upon those workers who wish to fight the capitalist dictatorship to vote for candidates as a demonstration of their support.

The workers' and farmers' government will use its power in the interest of the workers. The courts, the police and soldiers will be on the side of the workers and against the capitalists. The workers' government will be the basis of the capitalist dictatorship, the private ownership of industry, by taking the industries for the workers and the workers' control.

Let us fight as a class. Workers, farmers! Stop supporting the candidates of your class enemies. Coolidge, Davis, LaFollette are all the representatives of the capitalist system which robs you and oppresses you.

Vote your stand in support of your interests. Support Foster and Gitlow, the Communist candidates. Down with the capitalist dictatorship for the candidates who are forward to the workers and farmers government.

"NO MORE IMPERIALIST WARS," SAY TELEGRAMS FROM WORKERS TO THE COMMUNIST INTERNATIONAL

Demonstrations and gatherings of workers were held throughout Russia on the Tenth Anniversary of the October Revolution. The demonstrations were very different in tone and character from those of capitalist countries.

The United States of Soviet Russia information sub-section of the Agitprop of the Comintern sent to the DAILY WORKER the following telegrams received by the Third (Communist) International from the comrades at these gatherings. We print them in full for the inspiring message they contain to the workers of America, and everywhere that workers are still subject to capitalist wars.

1. Expresses its profound hatred to the organizers of the world war and their supporters, the social-democrats, the leaders of the yellow Second International and the betrayers of the working class. Only Communism Will End Warfare.

2. Expresses its profound conviction that the only organization capable of eradicating the imperialist war is the Third Communist International, the leader of the world proletariat.

3. Expresses its profound conviction that the only organization capable of eradicating the imperialist war is the Third Communist International, the leader of the world proletariat.

4. On being called upon by the militant headquarters of the world Communist revolution, we shall all, like one man, throw ourselves into the fight of eradicating the imperialist war, laying aside our rifles until bourgeois domination shall have been abolished throughout the globe.

Long live the Communist International and its leaders! FIKSOV, Chairman of the meeting, Khavrenko, Responsible Secretary of the Local Committee of R.C.P.

Long live the international proletarian republic. Long live the Communist International. Long live revolutionary trade unionism. GURNOV, Chairman, FEDOROV, Secretary.

wake them from their stupor. They must read the DAILY WORKER and be encouraged. It shows that there is a good field for constant propaganda. It proves to us how much can be done thru a consistent propaganda directed to the work-shops.

More Workers Are Needed. Any comrade or sympathizer who has one or two hours, to spare during the week, should get in touch with Martin Abern, local secretary, Workers Party, at the district office, 166 W. Washington St., phone State 728, or come to the DAILY WORKER, 1113 W. Washington Blvd., and sign up.

The few comrades who have been getting the straw ballot vote were first started by the work interesting and instructive. They have kept right on the job every day. But in the morning the straw ballot vote had the better results. There are only a few days left in this campaign and we must work hard if we want to get the best results. We should get at least 50 comrades to visit each shop. We now only have ten.
