

PROTESTS IN ST. LOUIS

AS WE SEE IT

By T. J. O'FLAHERTY.
It is not surprising that Gaston B. Means should keep his lying machinery well oiled in order to be ready at any moment's notice to work at his favorite trade, that of stool pigeon. Means seems to have thrived in the business. He has the police to back him, he is aware that Means was one of its most respectable wealthy citizens but for his tilt with Harry M. Daugherty and the Coolidge cabinet, an important one in which is Andrew Mellon. Means had things to say about the way Andrew makes his living. One of the things he said was that the distinguished secretary of the treasury was one of the country's most successful bootleggers.

AFTER Means repudiated his testimony on the witness stand against Harry M. Daugherty, Daugherty suggested that he would like to go to work again telling all he knew about Coolidge, Mellon's men in the Internal Revenue department led by the Hon. Messrs. Washington home for incomes taxes. Mellon claims that the stool pigeon, born companion of the late president Harding and Daugherty, owes the government $367,614 in taxes. Means may not be a respectable citizen, but he has made money at his trade.

THE Prince of Wales was given a card in the War Pressmen's Union of New York. This is a distinction, it may hurt the sensibilities of real union men who have respect. (Continued on page 5.)

CONTRACTORS DO NOT FANCY LEN AS TREASURER

Crooks Lack Confidence in Each Other

Concerns that sell supplies for the Illinois roads, including the Portland cement sellers, have been asked to contribute to a $175,000 slush fund which Governor Small is attempting to raise to put over the $100,000,000 bond issue in the coming election. The road builders and supply men have refused to turn this money over to Len Small as they do not trust him and are of the opinion that Small is attempting to raise the money to use in his personal campaign.

Large Profits in Roads. However, the cement sellers, by their own publicity organization, the Portland cement association, which the courts will be asked to order the campaign to put over the bond issue.

The road building game is productive of a high percentage of profits, and the cement sellers are getting the sands of dollars into getting the people to vote for it. A large percentage of the $100,000,000 bond issue will find its way into the pockets of the contractors and supply men, for the Illinois roads are largely built by unemployed miners, who are forced to work at non-union wages of 30 to 40 cents an hour.

Large Propaganda Fund. Now that the democratic nominee for governor, Norman Thayer, has private campaign fund, the governor's aides are promising that the original scheme to turn the money over to the office will be abandoned. This does not mean, however, that hundreds of thousands of dollars will not be expended in propaganda to influence the voters. The contractors and supply men can make millions of dollars profit from the shoddy material that goes into the roads and from the cheap material labor. The contractors and supply men are the ones who are being raised. The controversy came about over which group of crooked politicians would be allowed to handle the fund.

The sand, gravel and equipment concerns that sell supplies for the Illinois roads have agreed, it is reported, to contribute $75,000 to the fund, maintaining $100,000 to be donated by the men who set the road building contract. They know it will come back to them from the people of the state many times over.

MCANDREW GETS FAKE VOTES TO DOM TEACHERS

Mass Meeting Called to Launch New Fight

With the help of the votes of three trustees of the Chicago school board whose terms have already expired, Superintendent of Schools William McAndrew has secured the adoption of an amendment to the rules of the board which abridges the right of the teachers to meet and to organize councils as they see fit.

After the refusal of both the committee on rules and the committee on administration to concur in the opinion of the superintendent, that under the rules as they stood, he was obliged to call the councils together, McAndrew suddenly changed his tactics and asked for complete revision of the rules.

Three of the trustees voted to support the teachers' appeal to the high-handed actions of the superintendent. Of the six who upheld him, one is Hard Hanson, whose term on the school board expires in five months ago. The terms of both Julius F. Smeltens and William K. Fellows, who also upheld McAndrew, expire five months ago.

By appointment of new members for the members whose terms have expired, Mayor Dever would have been able to give his aid to the teachers, most of whom followed the lead of the officialdom of the Teachers' Federation in supporting the democratic party in the last local elections. The mayor's office yesterday indicated that no changes will be made for a time.

McAndrew's Desperate Rite. The prediction of the rank and file teachers that a victory of the superintendent in this matter would be followed by more aggressive action on his part is borne out by the submission of McAndrew to the committee on administration of a resolution offering the superintendent to force teachers to attend, without dismissal of any regular classes, meetings of any kind for any school day other than Friday.

If this resolution passes the board, McAndrew's assertion that the time of the teachers is at the disposal of the superintendent during all of the twenty-four hours of the day would have a basis in school law.

FILIBUSTER IN DELAY ATTEMPT ON B. & O. PLAN

Machine Waiting for Delegates to Quit

(Special to The Daily Worker). DETROIT, Mich., Sept. 25.—Last minute desperate attempts are being made by the official machine of the convention of the International Association of Machinists, to delay consideration of the B. & O. plan while the rank and file delegates are here in full force.

The obvious purpose of the filibuster, which is being accomplished by machine filibustering with all sorts of minor issues, is to cause the rank and file delegates, whose money is giving out, to return home and give the ranks a clear, safe majority.

Already more than twenty delegates have been obliged to leave and the issue is still kept off the floor. Despite this, frenzied attempts are being made by the Johnston bureau to line up some possible delegate in favor of the class cooperation scheme which is playing havoc with the organization.

CZARIST RULE IS CONTINUED BY HUTCHINSON

Militant Delegate Is Refused Floor

(Special to The Daily Worker). INDIANAPOLIS, Sept. 25.—Autocratic and arbitrary rulings by William L. Hutchinson, president of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of America, and presiding officer at its convention here, continued to mark the sessions today.

Following a speech by James Duran, vice-president of the American Federation of Labor, in which he urged that the brothers rejoin the building trades department of the federation, one of the progressive delegates, Morris Rosen, New York local 376, made a motion that a committee be elected by the delegates to work out a plan whereby this unity project might be achieved.

The motion provided for joint representation, consisting of representatives of the carpenters, the steel metal workers with whom the former have been in jurisdictional controversy, and a committee from the American Federation of Labor.

Hutchinson ruled Rosen out of order and stated that the entire matter would be taken up later than the regular committee reports.

It also developed that the beating up of delegate C. J. Mulcahy, Rhode Island local 632, which brought him a badly injured eye, and alleged to have been accomplished by followers of Hutchinson because Mulcahy was active in organizing an opposition to the old axe home, also he stood for a pension.

The morning session was devoted to the report of the general executive board and again a motion by Delegate Rosen that a committee be elected from the floor to consider the report was ruled out of order by Hutchinson. Rosen attempted to appeal from the decision of the chair, but Hutchinson summarily ordered him to "sit down."

The afternoon session of the convention which has so many pressing problems whose solution will affect the union for the next four years, was devoted to having pictures taken of the delegates and officers.

"Bob" May Have to Run on S. P. Ticket in California State

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 25.—Leaders of the LaFollette independent campaign in California for the presidency today held a conference to decide whether to place the Wisconsin senator on the Governor ballot as a socialist or let the California electorate "write in" his name following the action of the California supreme court in ruling that the 13 LaFollette electors have no place on the ballot.

TEXILE WORKERS GIVE OFFICIALS AUTHORITY TO ISSUE STRIKE CALL

PLANT OF MILITANT ORGAN OF GLACE BAY MINERS BURNED DOWN

(By Telegram to DAILY WORKER). GLACE BAY, N. B., Sept. 25.—On the verge of its fourth anniversary of existence and struggle on behalf of the militant labor movement of Glace Bay, the Maritime Labor Herald plant was burned to the ground here, involving a total loss of twenty thousand dollars.

The paper is being printed by an outside concern and an immediate investigation has been called for.

All evidence points to the fact that the crime was committed with malicious intent by local reactionary hirelings as the final shot of the deserting rats who attempted to retaliate for the publicity accorded to them in the last issue of the Herald.

The paper had a brilliant history and was the voice of the militant steel workers against the huge British Empire Steel Corporation and was the center of inspiration in the brave fight of the members of the United Mine Workers of America against the reactionary leadership of John L. Lewis, and his imported "provisional officers."

The paper had been under the brilliant editing of the militant and, later, it was taken over by Jim McLaughlin, deposed leader of the miners.

GARY PLAN IS TO KEEP HIS SLAVES TAME

Paternalism Is Paying Proposition

(By Karl Reeve, Staff Writer, Daily Worker). GARY, Ind., Sept. 25.—The United States Steel corporation, under the management of Elbert H. Gary, president, carries out of paternalistic policy of making the workers believe they are well treated, while at the same time it pays the lowest of wages and extracts the most profits possible out of the workers.

The plan followed for some years by the United Steel Corporation has been to select some phase of the workers' lives.

CHANG DELIVERS SMASHING BLOW TO WU FORCES

Chihli Armies Are in Disorderly Flight

MUKDEN, Manchuria, Sept. 25.—Chang Tso Lin's forces have defeated the Wu Pei Fu troops defending Peking from an attack by his Manchurian forces in several engagements during the last two days, according to a communique issued today from his headquarters here.

The Chihli troops, Gen. Chang asserts are fleeing in retreat before his forces along the Great Wall. He is marching south with Peking as his objective.

General Chang admits having agreed to recognize the Russian-Chinese railway agreement between the Soviet and Peking governments. It is reported that General Chang hesitated to march southward until he was relieved of fear that his march on Peking would be taken advantage of by sympathizers with Soviet Russia.

The Japanese are backing Chang while the British and American capitalists are giving their support to Wu Pei Fu the dictator of Chihli province.

HIRAM JOHNSON OF CALIFORNIA MAY VOTE S. P. TICKET THIS YEAR

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 25.—Barred from placing an independent ticket against Warren, the former favoring the LaFollette-Wheeler presidential ticket, supporters of the Wisconsin candidate today announced they would avail themselves of the offer of the socialist ticket to place LaFollette before the voters of California.

CAPITALIST POLITICIANS FEAR REVIVAL OF DAUGHERTY QUIZ WOULD BE TURNING SKUNK LOOSE

(Special to The Daily Worker). WASHINGTON, Sept. 25.—Any chance of the Wheeler-Brookhart senate committee reassembling at this time to resume its probe into the department of justice apparently went aglimmering when Senator Henry F. Ashurst, democrat of Arizona, and Senator George H. Moses, republican of New Hampshire, the only members of the committee in the capital, both announced they had no intention of reconvening the committee.

CONTINUE MASS PICKETING IN SILK WALKOUT

Pickers Seek to Exclude Communist Speakers

(Special to The Daily Worker). PATERSON, N. J., Sept. 25.—Fifteen hundred striking silk workers engaged in one of the best organized picketing demonstrations of the walkout in front of the Gilt Edge Mill, following out the policy of the Communist party, announced their intention to ignore injunctions in massed formations of the pickets at this demonstration, but chief of police Tracey issued an order prohibiting any "outside agitators" to speak, on pain of having the strike hall closed up.

The order is directed solely against the Communist workers who have been of great service to the strikers. More particularly the order is aimed at Harry M. Wicks, who has been very active in the strike and has expressed thanks and approval of the silk workers.

This carter edict will be fought by the strikers and their committee, and Wicks will continue to speak in spite of the order.

The latest maneuver of the manufacturers in their attempt to obtain warrants for contempt of court against the strike leaders, but the picketing is continuing in spite of it.

Pickets Beaten By Cops. Pickets were beaten and sent to several "injunction" shops. Near the American Silk company, the police read the riot act to the pickets and broke up their line of about one thousand strikers, beating up several of them. Near the Selberg shop, another "injunction" mill, nineteen strikers were arrested.

Mass picketing will be continued, it is announced. The relief committee is functioning well and a commissary has been established. Assistance is urgently asked that workers everywhere take up collections for the succor of the strikers.

SMITH HOUNDS IN APPEAL TO 'CAL' TO SAVE BUTLER

PHILA. Fascist Chief Feels Mayor's Boot. PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 25.—President Coolidge may be asked to intervene in the political feud that is raging between Mayor Frestland C. Kennick, and Gen. Smedley D. Butler, his director of public safety, by those interested in the general's retention.

Last night a telegram was dispatched to the general by the officers of the law enforcement league, the Klan element, stating that the removal of the general would be a "calamity," and asking the president whether he will "act to avert this calamity" when he comes here tonight to speak at the Carpenter's Hall celebration.

Meanwhile plans are being made by the general's friends to hold a big "town meeting" Monday night at the Academy of Music here as a protest against his dismissal.

GOVERNMENT IN WAR ON CHINA
British Warships Force Chinese Executions

The great capitalist powers of the world are engaged in a struggle with each other over the exploitation of China, at the expense of the Chinese people.

Since the civil war started the DAILY WORKER has explained the true inwardness of the struggle, pointing out that behind the warring tuchuns and generals were the capitalist powers, deluging China in blood in order to be in a better position to grab off the spoils.

The Communist International issued a proclamation calling on the workers of the world to lend their assistance to the bleeding Chinese workers and peasants under the leadership of Sun Yat-sen, radical leader of Southern China, and to force the British warships which are in China where the workers have the right to organize.

The British Communist Party took steps to rally the workers of Britain behind the Communist International which is leading the proletarian fight in defense of the people of China. The following manifesto was written by the British Communists to aid our readers to better understand the momentous conflict raging in China, the parties involved and the part of the great capitalist powers:

British Communist Manifesto.
There is civil war in China. The papers tell us that the government is the province of Che-Kiang is fighting the governor of Kiang-Su. The latter is supported by the Peking government and by Wu-Pei-Fu, one of China's big warlords. The Nationalist government is supported by Wu-Pei-Fu's mortal enemy, Marshal Chang-Tao-Lin, the governor of Honan. And the allies are sending their warships and landing their marines to restore order.

"What is the meaning of the civil war? Why do generals fight one another in China?"
The answer is simple: it is a rivalry between—what does it matter to the British workers? It matters to the Chinese that the Chinese civil war is only a reflection of the struggle between the allied imperialists for world domination. For behind Wu-Pei-Fu, the dictator of Peking, stands Anglo-American imperialism; it is they who see him, they supply him with munitions, it is them in the British and American press. Behind Chang-Tao-Lin, the dictator of Honan, stands Japanese imperialism, which supplies him with money and munitions.

"The rival armies of forcibly-converted Chinese peasants are only pawns in the game—the game for the prize of China's markets and China's cheap labor. It is a game that began long time ago, and which has been played by emperors. Just as they did in Egypt and Turkey, British, French, and American capitalists lend money to the Chinese government, they try to corrupt them and then to maintain their rotten power. When the Chinese revolution took place in 1911, British and American capital heaped one set of generals, Japanese another set; they overthrew the first revolutionary government, and have kept it there for thirteen years in a state of chaos and disruption.

"The time is now ripe for us to 'restore order'—by dividing the booty up among ourselves in the parts of China, where the allies have established their own rule already, the Chinese workers and peasants have landed the sweets of the British government. Several incidents during the last three months have opened their eyes.

"A Chinese soldier, Li-Tu-An, was given hundreds of strokes with a bamboo for walking in a district reserved for foreigners. Enraged, he struck a British foreigner in the street. A British court tried him, and gave him four years and ten days' imprisonment. But when a British subject, Westbury, violently assaulted a Chinese customs official in the execution of his duty, the same court inflicted a penalty of twenty-five dollars fine, twenty-five dollars damages, and costs.

"Again, an American vessel, the Halley, loaded with some dockers on strike at a port on the river Yangtze-Kiang and was knocked off the water and drowned. A British gunboat, the 'Cockchafer,' hastened to the scene, and the captain, under pain of immediate bombardment

THE POWER OF THE DAILY WORKER

Twice every week—this column uncovers to your view the motive power behind the DAILY WORKER. Here for the interest and inspiration of every reader—and especially the DAILY WORKER's agents—are listed all proven suggestions and accomplishments to drive the DAILY WORKER to further conquests.

Man's POWER—the power of brain and effort of man and women of the working class who not only believe—but ACT!

DURING the past month there has been an increase in subscriptions received. Bundle orders have grown in response to the demand for the paper. Both the day and the night papers have proven an increase to the POWER driving "The National Labor Daily." And both have been overshadowed by the Special Local Campaign Editions on which the presses are being kept busy with increasing demands.

This week Special Local Editions are going to Toledo, Ohio (two thousand), Detroit, Mich. (five thousand), and New York (ten thousand). Local New York received the first edition of 14,000 for the Gilroy meeting. It proved such a success financially and in good will both for the DAILY WORKER and the local that this week sees an additional issue of 10,000 going out to precede the Cannon meeting of October 2. Beside this the largest single order yet made—50,000—will go to New York for the Foster meeting in October.

Our lively campaign drive aided by these Special Editions is one reason for the fact that Local New York has led all cities in subscriptions secured during the past month. That the Special Editions printed for different cities with their own front page has proven a success can be seen by this list of orders made:

- New York 74,000 (3 Editions—24,000 already shipped)
- Philadelphia 30,000 (Special Issue)
- Milwaukee 20,000 (State Edition)
- Lake Co., Ind. 15,000 (Street District—Gary, South Bend etc.)
- Chicago 10,000
- Detroit 5,000 (Shipped—3 more editions to follow)
- Pittsburgh 3,000
- Los Angeles 2,000
- Toledo 2,000 (Shipped)
- Eric 2,000 (Shipped)
- Denver 1,000

Besides these orders definitely made, arrangements are being completed with other live locals who are availing themselves of this splendid opportunity for building up their organization and putting a real kick into their campaign. They are sending their orders to the local no longer as yet having ordered. Advertising, leaflets etc. that are a poor substitute for the Special Local Edition to advertise a meeting cost more to print. Rates have been purposely kept low. The returns to the DAILY WORKER from these issues must repay the cost for the efforts made to make them a success.

Comrade Shklar of Milwaukee who has helped put that city on the map with a State Edition of 20,000 (half going to Milwaukee and the balance to Racine, Kenosha, Superior and other towns in the backyard of LaFollette and Vic Berger) was not satisfied with this accomplishment. Going on a trip thru the Steel District of Lake County, Ind., including Gary, South Bend and other towns his report to the local comrades on the possibilities of the Special Edition brought an order for 15,000 which is now in preparation.

At no place where consideration has been given to this edition have the comrades failed to grasp the opportunity presented. Here is POWER—effective dynamic power not only to build up the DAILY WORKER but to make your campaign meetings a success, to give added drive to your local campaign—to BUILD your local as well.

of the city, forced the civil and military authorities to give Halley a public funeral, and to execute without trial or delay any strike committee. And when the Chinese government protested, the minister in Peking of MacDonnald's "labor" government refused to give satisfaction, and instead demanded further punishment of the strikers!

"The time is ripe, we have said. More than that—the time has come to rise now or never. For a new power is rising to challenge them—the power of the revolutionary workers, peasants, and soldiers. It is the power of the Kuo-Ming-Tang, or National Revolutionary Party, under the leadership of the veteran socialist, Sun-Yat-Sen. Under the leadership of the great port in South China, he has for many years carried on a bitter invincible fight against counter-revolutionary forces. He has gained in his fight he has had to rely more and more on the workers and peasants. Canton is the only part of China where the trade unions and the socialists can work legally.

"The allies have long tried to get rid of him by sending first one general then another; but always their attempt has been foiled by the trustful jealousy and rivalries. Even today their rival puppets, Wu-Pei-Fu and Chang-Tao-Lin, are locked in struggle; but whenever the latter's outcome is a despotism financed by Japanese or Anglo-American capitalism, the survivor will have to fight Sun-Yat-Sen, the representative of the Chinese people, the ally of Soviet Russia, the spokesman of the workers' and peasants' will to be free of all capitalist rule, Chinese or foreign.

"Therefore he sees that Japanese imperialism is the weaker. If it wins, its own domestic troubles are too great to enable it to eat up China. Therefore he may support Chang-Tao-Lin. And therefore the British 'labor' government, under the dictation

DEATH SENTENCE OF TERRORIST IS COMMUTED

Savinkoff Was Agent of Allied Powers

(By Rosta News Agency.)

MOSCOW (By Mail).—Boris Savinkoff, a leading member of the Social Revolutionary party, who was sentenced to death for his crimes against the Soviet Republic, crimes which included attempts at the assassination of Lenin, Trotsky and other Soviet chiefs, had the sentence commuted to ten years imprisonment and finally to a complete pardon.

Savinkoff, Russian terrorist and leading agent of the Allied governments in the struggle against Soviet Russia, recently visited his native country in disguise and under an assumed name but was captured by the Soviet police and brought before a military tribunal.

On the 23rd of August, Savinkoff was served with the act of accusation, and after seven and two hours, his trial was opened in the Military Collegium of the Supreme Court. The announcement of Savinkoff's arrest created a sensation not only in Russia, but throughout Europe as he was perhaps the most prominent agent of the British and other governments in their conspiracy to stir up civil war in Russia, since 1917.

Public Interest. Public opinion in the capital and throughout the Soviet Republic is following with unabated attention the case of Boris Savinkoff, which has revealed a striking picture of the close cooperation between the white counter-revolutionary movement and foreign intervention and support against the Soviet, a connection which was, of course, but as to the actual proportions of which was difficult to have an exact idea.

Boris Savinkoff had been a leading member of the Social Revolutionary Party, a believer in terror and an active participant of a number of daring attempts against the lives of high officials and dignitaries of the Tsarist regime, and among them against Home Minister Plekhan in Petersburg and Grand Duke Sergius in Moscow.

Pleading Guilty. Savinkoff's trial opened on the 23rd inst. To the question whether he is pleading guilty the accused answered in the affirmative without any hesitation. He then went on to give frank evidence dwelling on all the details and stating that he was now utterly disappointed in and disgusted with all the counter-revolutionary groups, that he despised them now and had lost faith in the sincerity of the interventionists and, finally, that he recognized that all his own anti-Soviet activities had been mistaken, while right was on the side of revolution.

Savinkoff told the court in detail about his many negotiations with Messrs. Allierand, Poincaré, Noulens, Lloyd George, Churchill, Masariki, Pilsudski and others, having met some of them in Paris and London, where he represented the counter-revolutionary movement. This personal contact he had come to the conviction that the "Allies" aimed but at weakening Russia and humbling it by the counter-revolutionary movements in their own selfish interests. As for Russian emigrants abroad, Savinkoff gave vivid pictures of the moral demoralization and decay prevailing among them.

Intervention a Failure. It was in the spring, 1923, that the accused, according to his statement, saw finally that intervention was no longer possible as all counter-revolutionary attempts were doomed to

WORKERS LYCEUM TO BE SCENE OF A MOST UNUSUAL EVENING

There is really no reason why you shouldn't attend if you know. And don't pretend that you don't know to what we refer. You know darn well that we mean the Communist cabaret that is being given by the North Side branch of the Young Workers League tomorrow night, Sept. 27, at the Workers Lyceum, which, as is well known, is situated at 2733 Hirsch Blvd.

We'll admit that you don't know the surprises that are going to be pulled off there, and by crickey, we don't propose to tell them to you now. Suffice it to say to the wise seekers for revolutionary amusement that the entertainment that will be got up by the Communist lads and lassies is unprecedented in the history of the social of the radical movement. Heavens and hell, have been moved in order to secure adept talent and after much effort it was done. The stage is set. Catch up your dough and spend a night as you never spent it before.

A word to the wise should be sufficient. The length of this note is for those who are not wise and have to be told. Come in huge masses!

failure and that international recognition of the Soviet power was bound to come.

The last words of the accused were that having spent many years in Tsarist prisons and in exile, he had spent with the popular masses, whose mood and feelings he no longer understood. This, he says, explains why he had been so successful in his attempts in tens of attempts against Tsarist ministers, later committed the most abominable crimes against his people and his motherland, being one of the most responsible for the latter's bloody order.

Issue's Statement. The accused concluded his evidence by the following statement: "In the face of the people's representatives, I Savinkoff, declare that I erred, that I recognize the Soviet power, and I tell to all the emigrants and to the Russian people that they must recognize the Soviet power. It is harder for me to make such a statement than to listen to my verdict.

"This conviction that the people is with you I acquired not here, in the court, but in the streets of Paris. And I returned to Russia, for I did not believe in what other people told about you. I am ready to hear the sentence of death and ask for no leniency. My revolutionary conscience will remind you that I have been a revolutionary."

The sentence was declared after the three hours' conference of the judges Boris Savinkoff has been sentenced to capital punishment. However, pending into consideration the statements of the accused, the tribunal has decided to ask the supreme organs for review.

Death Sentence Commuted! The Central Executive Committee of the U. S. S. R. has satisfied the request of the Military Court and has commuted the death sentence to a sentence of ten years' prison.

In the motives put forth for this decision, it is explained that since the court, which tried Savinkoff, was able to establish that the accused has given up struggle against the Soviet power and since he has said that he is ready to serve loyally and honestly the tolling power under the leadership of the power established by the October Revolution, the application of the death sentence is not called for by the interests of preserving the revolutionary order. The proletarian masses cannot be actuated by motives of vengeance.

Dinner Pail Epic

by Bill Lloyd

I see the Legionnaires had met and give their appetite a whet for frequent portions, more and more, of wars and battles, blood and gore.

They took a awful vicious fling at folks who try to do a thing to make old Woodrow's promise good that wars should cease, as all wars should.

In language that was quite uncouth they hit movement of the Young, as if youth's only aim should be to die for the security of fat old bankers' oil concessions and Pierpont Morgan's private possessions. That youth should like to live a life that's free from fratricidal strife, makes Legion men rave and groan and spit out epileptic foam.

The Legion having had its fill of Woodrow's delectable pill, would like to stuff the same dose down the throats of all the boys in town. It's strange that those who fed to

Organization Mobilized for Final Drive

By JOSEPH MANLEY. Due to extraordinary efforts being put forth by the Dist. 2 organization in all probability the Workers Party and its candidates will be on the ballot in New York state.

To successfully accomplish this great aim, 20,000 signatures, 100 in each county, all of them sworn to before a notary public, must be collected and filed by the date of Oct. 5.

Party Mobilized. The district organization has mobilized the entire party through the state for the accomplishment of this task. The district and local organization in New York has risen to this election struggle, as never before.

Gitlow Backs Shop Drive

BENJAMIN GITLOW, candidate for vice-president on the Workers Party ticket has given his hearty endorsement to the shop drive conducted by the Workers Party Campaign Committee of New York.

Gitlow's statement follows: "The workers will not let themselves be deceived again by so-called progressives with their high-sounding phrases and empty promises. They have had their lessons with progressives like Bryan, Roosevelt and party campaign. Amersbach is no different. He stands for the same false trust-busting program."

"LaFollette in office will not fight the trusts. He will fight the workers. The only party which deserves the support of every class-conscious militant worker is the Workers Party, the party of Communism, the party of the workers' struggle for the overthrow of capitalism, working towards the workers' and farmers' government. The Workers Party which leads the fight against the bosses— which is foremost in the Farmer-Labor Party movement, will surely receive the financial support of the rank and file workers in the shops. The Workers Party has no bankers to finance its campaign. It depends on the workers."

The shop drive is progressing favorably. So far $3,000 have been pledged by the various leagues in the Trade Union Educational League. The T. U. E. L. leagues of every trade in this city are holding meetings and conferences for the purpose of raising funds for the Workers Party campaign. Among the leagues already in action are the capmakers, dressmakers, the Amalgamated Clothing Workers, cloak makers, metal workers, building trades, furriers. Indications are that the shop drive, which lasts from Sept. 21st to Oct. 6th, will draw tens of thousands of workers into the political campaign on the side of the Communists.

THOUSANDS OF CRANE COMPANY EMPLOYEES MEET AND TALK WITH DAILY WORKER STRAW VOTE SQUAD

At six o'clock in the morning the DAILY WORKER Straw Vote Squad arrived in front of the Crane Company manufacturing plant yesterday at Kedzie and 39th Street and handed out the ballots to the men as they arrived and entered the buildings. Although the ballots were handed out rapidly and there were a large number of people handing them out the rush at the last minute.

Men Look Tired. The Crane company, a large machine manufacturing plant employing 2,000 men, is situated on stone buildings that look out onto vast lawns of neatly kept grass. One wonders why the buildings were not so far from the street. Perhaps so that no one walking on the street and even standing on the other side of the sidewalk could see the men at their work.

There are three entrances through which the men pour into the factory at 6 o'clock every morning and from which they emerge at 4:15 every afternoon. The mad rush to punch the clock on time in the morning is later followed by a hurried exit from the building and heading for cars and elevators. Fatigue is visibly written all over the men's faces as they hurry to the street. They are dressed up from the exterior to pour out in the late afternoon such a mass of many, expressionless humanity.

The count on this vote will be given in the next issue of the DAILY WORKER. The men of the Crane Company and the little groups that formed around the vote getters stood around in groups and discussed the vote, the DAILY WORKER and the presidential campaign. The inspiring thing about the afternoon's visit was the group of workers who were admitted to the Communist program directly into the lives of the masses in the shops and factories. They were not enough volunteers yesterday to make the Coughlin-Herry printing plant as planned. It is hoped that the call for volunteers will be answered by many comrades today so that the DAILY WORKER STRAW VOTE SQUAD at the Henneberry plant, the last one to be visited, will make a good show.

Not better results have been obtained from any form of special propaganda used by the Workers Communist Party than the straw ballot vote being circulated in Chicago. It is living proof that Communist election campaigns properly conducted are much more than an appeal for the votes of the workers on election day, proof that election campaigns are to be conducted by Communist program directly into the lives of the masses in the shops and factories. They were not enough volunteers yesterday to make the Coughlin-Herry printing plant as planned. It is hoped that the call for volunteers will be answered by many comrades today so that the DAILY WORKER STRAW VOTE SQUAD at the Henneberry plant, the last one to be visited, will make a good show.

It is his champion. In a few days the final dates for a series of RED NIGHTS will be announced. The RED NIGHTS will be held in the Congressional Districts where we have candidates. These will be the 12th, 13th, 14th, 20th and 23rd New York as well as the 7th and 10th Brooklyn. On these nights all the speakers of the entire city will travel to the particular Congressional District where the RED NIGHT is being held. It is estimated that on these nights there will be from twenty to twenty-five meetings in the district. Plans are also ready for a series of house-to-house canvasses and the distribution of literature from house to house. These will be started as soon as we are thru with the filing of petitions.

Many special issues dealing with the campaign in this district have already been published. These included issues of the Freiheit and the DAILY WORKER. On October 19 there will be a special Poster campaign for the DAILY WORKER, which will be distributed, 100,000 in number, for the Poster meeting which will be held here at the New Street Casino on this date. There will also be another meeting with Poster at another large hall in Brooklyn, Arcadia Hall, on the same

ROOSEVELT WILL TOTE G. O. P. BANNER IN N. Y.

NEW YORK, Sept. 25.—Theodore Roosevelt, assistant secretary of the navy was nominated today on the flat ballot as the G. O. P. gubernatorial nominee on the republican party ticket.

A spectacular fight is expected between Roosevelt and Al Smith who is willing to accept the leadership of the democratic forces. While Roosevelt cannot hold a candle to Al as a campaigner, he has the so-called Roosevelt tradition behind him, and the support of the Ku Klux Klan.

Stuck to His Job. Roosevelt was given a job in the navy department in order to win the favor of the Roosevelt admirers for the present administration. The oil scandal hit young Teddy a hard wallop, but he stuck to his job like glue, the his boss, Clegg, his long line, long trait to Detroit.

It appears that Teddy, Jr., principal occupation while holding down his job was reading well-paid articles for his relatives. His brother Archie was given a vice-presidency of an oil company by Harry Sinclair, the oil king, and he succeeded in getting Teapot Dome from the navy department.

None of the Roosevelt family have any outstanding ability. Sinclair's vice-president was only an errand boy who he got $15,000 a year for purchasing tickets whenever his boss took an ocean voyage. Another Roosevelt was vice-president of a steamship company. The Roosevelt name was good for advertising purposes.

It is rumored that Al Smith is smiling more sweetly than usual over the prospect of spilling oil on the Roosevelt side. The fortunes of the socialist candidate, the Reverend Norman Thomas, are not expected to be improved by the Smith candidacy. Al will have the support of the Tammany labor leaders who control the C. P. A. in New York. It is noted that on the day before Smith decided to accept the nomination for governor he dined with Sammy Gompers. The socialists are smiling their teeth with disappointment over the prospect of losing thousands of July votes.

Speaks For Poster. Joseph Siminoff representing the Socialist Party of the country and political situation in this country since the close of the world war. He pointed out that due to the centralization of wealth and the burden upon the shoulders of the petit-bourgeoisie and also the wages for the industrial workers result in a revolt against the two old capitalist parties.

While the Workers Party was at attempting to crystallize the revolt of the industrial workers and the exploited farmers into a Farmer-Labor Party, LaFollette and the so-called progressives and the cooperation of the Socialist Party betrayed the Farmer-Labor Party movement by sabotaging the St. Paul convention which was called to express the purpose of forming a Farmer-Labor Party.

In answer to the "revolutionary principles" of the Socialist Party, Siminoff said that the revolutionaries of Russia, who are today the leaders of the counter-revolutionary movement against the Soviet government of Russia. Also the Social Democrats of Germany, England and France who are today serving the interests of the capitalist and imperialist capacity. Also to the Socialist Party of America, who are today part and parcel of the LaFollette petty-bourgeoisie and the so-called "revolutionary principles" that Hillquit and Berger & Co. have long thrown to the waste.

The meeting by an overwhelming vote denounced the "revolutionary principles" of LaFollette, Hillquit, Gompers & Co. and has enthusiastically endorsed the program for which they stand.

Powers Threaten Chang. PEKING, Sept. 25.—The foreign powers were reported this afternoon to have notified Chang Tso-Lin, commander of the Manchuria army, that he will be held responsible for the loss of foreign property bombed out side fortified areas.

To carry on all these activities and to further intensify our activities as the campaign develops, will require a great deal of finances. Subscription lists have been sent out to all members of the Young Workers League and the Trade Union Educational League. Requests for support have also been sent to many labor organizations. Comrades must get busy with the lists and send money in immediately to the Campaign Committee, 210 E. 12th St. It is requested that comrades also see that our request is taken up and fight for the support of the Communist campaign.

New York Workers Party Campaign Speeding Up

HEARST'S SCABBY SEATTLE RAG TO BE PUT ON TRIAL

Girl Was Worked Eleven Hours in Day

SEATTLE, Sept. 25.—Six Jurymen will decide Oct. 9 whether William Randolph Hearst's non-union Seattle daily is within the law in working women linotype operators 11 hours a day.

The Post-Intelligencer, which has been operating non-union for over three months because of its refusal to sign the type contract agreed by all other Seattle dailies, is charged with violating the women's 8-hour law of Washington in the case of Lillian Wilson who was worked 11 hours one day last June.

The Hearst daily admits the long shift but pleads that a newspaper is not a "mechanical establishment" and therefore not within the scope of the 8-hour law. Its lawyer gladly pleaded in preliminary hearing that the Hearst sheet is not a newspaper, but an educational and informative institution.

Justice Dalton will let a jury pass on this crucial point. The prosecuting attorney general is making it a test case.

French Society Urges Recognition of Soviet Russia

(By Rena.) MOSCOW, Aug. 29. (By mail.)—The society of New Franco-Russian Friendship has elected Mr. Herriot as honorary president of the society. In his congratulatory message, the society says before the French premier the society's resolution on the necessity of settling without delay the question of the restoration of relations between France and the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics.

This resolution further urges that this step be done in the only form which is possible at the present time, namely de jure recognition, as was done by England and Italy.

In another statement, issued by the society, the author sharply criticizes the anti-Soviet policy of Rumania in Bessarabia, pointing out that the terror practiced by the local Rumanian authorities has provoked hatred against that country among the Bessarabian population yearning to join the Union of Soviet Republics. "The peace of Europe," the society declares, "depends on the pacification of eastern Europe, and that is impossible without agreement with the U.S.S.R."

WATER WISE

Featured on the first page of the Federation News of Sept. 13, the successor to the New Majority since the return to the Gompers' camp of the once irreconcilable Fitzpatrick and Nechols of the Chicago Federation of Labor—is an attack on William Z. Foster and the Workers' Communist Party of America, on the name of Joseph A. Wise as it is called.

The article can be divided into two parts—one accusing William Z. Foster and the Workers' Communist Party of laborism and the other of being the election campaign of Charles G. Dawes and his followers and in general, disrupting the labor movement, the other inferring that the printing plant and headquarters of the Workers' Communist Party are the property of William Z. Foster and that the money to pay for the same came from some source other than the supporters of the Communists in the United States.

To dispose of the first criticism, it is sufficient to say that Communists know there is no difference between capitalist politicians, so far as the wages class is concerned, on the one or the other of the two capitalist parties. The Communists stand for a class party of the workers and farmers, not for a party, as last two years have been devoted to building such a party and they consider the support of capitalist politicians, on the matter what their promises as outright betrayal of the interests of the working class. This was their position in the election which resulted in the return of the injunction judge, Dennis Sullivan, to office.

Regarding the second question raised by Joseph A. Wise—the DAILY WORKER printing plant and the ownership thereof—it is only necessary to cite the fact that $71,000 was raised by the Workers' Communist Party of America for the purpose of establishing a daily paper in a campaign that lasted for months, the itemized receipts of which were published weekly in the Weekly Worker, the forerunner of the daily.

Inasmuch as Joseph A. Wise is an employe—a linotype operator of the DAILY WORKER Publishing Company, and has been such since the plant began operations, it is, doubtless, familiar with these facts which he chose, for purposes obvious in his article, to ignore.

The charges made by Joseph A. Wise are serious ones. He speaks of the "illogical, jesuitical reasoning of a Communist," he characterizes the "false words of sophistry" the statements of William Z. Foster published on page one of the Aug. 26th issue of the DAILY WORKER, he calls Foster the "greatest mountebank, charlatan and faker that ever raised his voice in the halls of the American Congress," he characterizes the "intellectual renegade Americans" certain other members of the Workers' Communist Party whom he does not name; he is certain, he says, that Foster's name will be placed side by side with that of Benedict Arnold.

If Joseph A. Wise, the "mountebank and false traitor" who boasts of his enlistment in the army that made the world safe for the House of Morgan with the aid of Brigadier-General Charles G. Dawes, his brother-in-law, is so concerned about the injurious role played by the Communists, the question arises concerning the assistance rendered by him in spreading what he refers to in his bitter terms, i. e. the propaganda of the Communists, executed in each issue of the DAILY WORKER.

Joseph A. Wise draws $58.05 per week as a linotype operator in the DAILY WORKER composing room and up-to-date he has never upon receiving his check, manifested any curiosity as to the source of the funds with which he is paying for it.

It might be well to say here that Joseph A. Wise, previous to his employment by the DAILY WORKER, has spent most of his life in the composing room of a local newspaper and that nowhere in the archives of the labor movement is there any record of his indulging in specific criticisms of the capitalist papers with whom he has been. Two reasons for this life of silence concerning the misdeeds of the capitalist papers will be given by the recent attack on William Z. Foster and the Communist. First, Joseph A. Wise is a believer in capitalism, and secondly, he is proud of his record of defending it as a member of its armed forces. In the second place, he knows that anything he says in venom against the Communist, would be met with instant discharge. The Communists, however, are the target of attack and not of every hanger-on of American capitalism.

(Continued from Page 1.) For their organizations. It should be remembered however, that George L. Berry, president of the International Pressmen's Union is the real boss of that union. The local members should not be blamed too harshly. Berry has broken every one who has been in the New York pressmen and with the aid of stool-pigeons, forced the men back to work after bringing in scabs to man the presses. Giving a card to a Prince is not the worst thing that notorious faker has done.

GENERAL FROG, the French butcher, is also honorary member of an American trade union, the bricklayers, I believe, and his Honorable member Bill Tate was given a card in the Hodcarriers' Union. Perhaps Coolidge will yet organize a Strikebreakers' Union and make it possible to sell membership cards at Secretaries of Labor Davis did organizing the Loyal Order of the Moose. It would not be surprising if Samuel Gompers gave Coolidge a charter if he ever organizes such a union. He helped break the strike that made Calpin famous.

THE Chinese situation is getting clearer every day. The names scattered about in the press lead us to venture to predict that before the capitalists get thru with China you will be able to read the signs on your flag and check the legislative committee do not bother our master class. In a manifesto which appears today in this paper, the British Communist Party shows what they have in mind. Our bewhiskered friend Charles Evans Hughes is backing up the British capitalists. He has indicated, and so is the Ramsey MacDonald government, while Japan is behind the Manchurian war, Lord General Sun Yat Sen, the leader of the Southern China, stands for progress and the rights of the workers. We are rooting for Sun Yat Sen.

THE spies and agents provocateur of the British government were never busier than at this moment. We have seen them in Persia, financing revolts against the Emir of Afghanistan, plotting rebellions in Georgia and trying to embroil Turkey against Soviet Russia. British agents are also busy in China. The British imperialists realize that Soviet Russia is the greatest danger to their empire. They stand between the exploited peoples of the Orient and the capitalist robbers who own the British Empire, hence the plot to get rid of the spy system and most of the plots net nipped in the bud and likewise the plotters.

COOLIDGE FARM LOAN PLAN GOOD FOR FINANCIERS

Works Havoc with North Western Farmers

FULLERTON, N. Dak., Sept. 25.—Ten per cent, compounded semi-annually, is the seat of the pain to the northwestern states, according to a Dickey county farmer whose forehead is pained into deep furrows by mortgage worries. Nearly all farmers in this region, both tenants and owners, are paying 10 per cent interest compounded semi-annually to some money-lender or other. If they don't pay, it is because a sheriff's sale of their land or goods writes the last chapter on their farming. A local lawyer estimates that $500,000 in mortgages in this section will give up their holdings to banks this year.

Bankers Feel Fine. Bankers everywhere are the principal beneficiaries of President Coolidge's farm loan scheme. In some cases it is manipulated so that the bank gets government money at 4 per cent and immediately relays to the farmer at 10 per cent.

Crops are not bad but proceeds gravitate to the moneylender.

Prison Labor Foe Will Go to Senate From S. Carolina

CHARLESTON, S. C., Sept. 25.—Cole L. Hlease, former governor of South Carolina, was nominated for the U. S. Senate by more than 2,000 majority in the second runoff primary, stands elected since he will have no competition in the purely formal November elections.

Hlease came under fire during his administration as governor for turning out a large number of prisoners from the state prison, when he refused to let a prison contract firm exploit them. He claimed that the majority of them did not belong to the state anyhow and that many of the grafters ought to be in.

OTTAWA, Ont., Sept. 25.—The fashionable stratum of the Canadian capital was buzzing today with speculation upon the American girls and women who will be invited to the ball to be given in the government house here on the night of October 17 by the presence of Wales.

Governor-General and Lady Byng are to be the hosts.

It is known that his royal highness would not be at all displeased to see among the guests some of the persons of the fashionable set he met during his recent holiday at Syosset, Long Island.

Wales will spend October 16, and 18 in Ottawa on his return trip from his ranch at High River.

WHITE MEN JUMP REDSKIN CLAIMS UP IN VICTORIA

The Old, Old Story is Retold Again (By Federated Press) VICTORIA, B. C., Sept. 25.—The Kwantlen Indians have been compelled to give way to the steady encroachments of the white man. In a formal note issued by the government of British Columbia the chiefs of the tribe are warned that they must not molest white people, or prevent them from entering their tribal reserve in northern British Columbia.

The Kwantlen Indians had certain of their reserve lands "jumped" during the land boom some years ago and later the government issued titles to the white interlopers without consulting the Indians. This rankled the tribe so much that the provincial government was forced to take possession of some of the alienated lands to hold "in trust." The Indians were always suspicious of the stewardship of the government and these facts have been confirmed by the order issued to the tribe "which gives the white "land-jumper" the tracts formerly owned by the tribe.

That's What They Tell 'em. Following the warning to the Kwantlen Indians, the government commissioner stated that were there any further molestation of whites police action would follow.

This marks another step in the vanishing of the red man before Christian civilization.

AUTOCRAT DECREE MUZZLES POSTAL WORKER'S FAMILY

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25.—Alarmed by the indignation which has swept the ranks of the nation's postal workers following Calvin Coolidge's veto of their pay raise national Republican leaders are broadcasting an order to all postmasters not only forbidding government employes from mixing in politics, but including their wives, fathers, brothers and all members of the family.

The postal men's wage increase, which passed both houses of congress by large majorities, had received the support of chambers of commerce and employers through the country.

Stir the Shops!

The very best place to carry on a working class campaign is in the shops and factories where the workers gather to earn their living. It is there that minds are open to the measures, parties and candidates that stand for concrete solutions of the problems of bread and butter facing the working class. It is the shops that the workers will see most clearly, for example, the difference between Foster, the union organizer and fighter for the workers, and LaFollette, the lawyer and fighter for the middle class. (Editorial Director's Note) THE ABOVE "HITS THE NAIL" on the head. Nothing could be added to that. It's up to you reader, to do everything physically possible to place.

Government Fairness

The Pennsylvania Railroad has long been an avowed enemy of organized labor. Without doubt this road is the most "hard boiled" of all the systems which resisted the continuation of a union among the railway workers after the end of the war.

Time and again this railroad has defied every government order which masks under the pretense of fairness in labor disputes. The Pennsylvania even went so far as to turn a cold shoulder to the late President Harding who, in turn, was forced to manifest publicly his disapproval of its too blunt and patently rough-shod labor tactics.

It seems as if we are about to be treated to another dose of government fairness in a controversy between the workers and the Pennsylvania System. The Order of Railway Telegraphers has been in a struggle with the powerful Pennsylvania for union recognition. In this contest the Railroad Labor Board has tacitly lent aid and comfort to the manipulations of the magnates, but the rail workers held their lines fast. It was evident to all that the employers could not put over their fake union schemes. Consequently, the Railroad Labor Board was compelled to pretend disinterestedness in the bitter struggle.

It is on this basis that the picked strikebreakers, under the thumb of chairman Ben Hooper, have ordered a secret ballot to determine whether the bona-fide union or the fake union has the majority support on the Pennsylvania System. No one will be deceived by the sudden fit of impartiality the Railroad Labor Board is now showing. No one knows better than Mr. Hooper that the company union is an outright fraud. No one knows better than Mr. Hooper that the Order of Railway Telegraphers is an established railway organization that has won its spurs in the trade union field.

The attempt of the Railroad Board to secure a so-called fair vote is only a skillfully camouflaged maneuver to prevent the workers from hitting back at the Pennsylvania System. The telegraphers are talking strike. They are preparing to lock horns with the Pennsylvania magnates. The Railroad Labor Board is simply stepping in to secure an excuse for denouncing the workers if they strike for the right to organize. This is the only fairness that the United States government knows in fights between workers and exploiters.

The New York Campaign

New York is now the scene of a lively campaign. The Tammany forces, having been deserted by many of their labor followers, are pinning their hopes on the re-nomination of Al Smith. The reactionary republicans are bending every effort to have that second-rater, Theodore Roosevelt, enter the lists against the democratic white hope on the basis of the prestige his family name carries. The socialists have been swallowed by the LaFollette outfit to such a damaging political extent that it seems that they are inconceivable for the independents ever to disgorge enough of this following for the Illiquit crowd to re-establish itself as an independent organization.

The Communists are also waging an energetic campaign. The first Communist task is to get on the ballot. In the Empire State the workers are hindered in the exercise of their political rights by technical barriers of a most complex and complicated sort limiting the suffrage rights thru a high requirement of endorsing signatures. Despite these obstacles in their path, the Communists are showing extraordinary energy in their surmounting the difficulties. There is every likelihood of the Workers Party winning its legal right to be on the New York ballot.

But this victory can come only if the Communists, the class conscious workers, and all the supporters and sympathizers with the political and economic aspirations of the working class will get together to secure the necessary number of signatures. Once the Workers Party succeeds in winning its place on the ballot, the Communists will be in a position to engage in a real political campaign against that motley army of enemies of the workers, against the exploiters, the LaFollette-Tammany alliance, and the latter's socialist fig leaf.

The mass meeting to be addressed by the Communist candidate for governor, James P. Cannon, Oct. 2, should be turned into a victory meeting to celebrate the success of placing the Communists on the ballot in the Empire State of the Union.

The national office of the socialist party is worrying lest the organization may not be able to take advantage of the fact that after the election the LaFollette clubs will dissolve. "Since victory is already achieved," We venture to predict that after the election there won't even be enough of the socialist party for the national office to send its press service piffle to.

The Central Labor Union of Indianapolis gave a vote of commendation to the Prince of Wales for accepting a life membership card in the Welsh Pressmen's Union of New York. While this sentiment dominates the American labor movement, Calvin Coolidge is justified in believing that the capitalist system is safe.

It is reported that Calvin Coolidge may go to the country as soon as his campaign managers succeed in perfecting a mechanical device that will make up for his lack of personality, his mental bankruptcy and his deficiency in oratorical gifts. An invisible mask is also suggested. Perhaps the K. K. K. might help him out with a hood.

Japs War on the Corean Revolutionists

(The following appeal to our assistance, material and moral coming from Corean comrades should receive our utmost consideration. It reveals the almost incredible cruelty inflicted upon the revolutionists of Corea by the Japanese government. This appeal was sent to the DAILY WORKER from Moscow, Russia, thru the Fifth Congress of Communist International.)

To the Workers of North and South America and Australia:
WE, THE DAILY WORKERS: You very probably have very little conception of the terrible conditions in which our brother workers of Corea are living at the present time under the heel of the brutal Japanese imperialists.

Thirteen years have elapsed since Japan annexed Corea, and during this period everything has been done to convert the millions of this country into slaves, and erase all traces of their own individuality and self-respect. The last drop of blood from the Corean workers. Corea became the colony of the most rapacious capitalists who began to enslave the country, and to subject the people to intense trials and poverty. By means of the banks and capitalist companies all the means of existence were captured and hundreds of thousands of peasants were driven from the land which the conquerors monopolized. Millions of other peasants were captured and made to leave their own land, that had been seized by the predatory Japanese. Thousands of Corean poor were driven into the mines and pits, where these slaves of labor toil regardless of time under inhuman conditions and with superhuman intensity to enrich their oppressors.

This state of affairs was bound to call forth attempts of resistance from the workers of Corea. The war for national liberation, the struggle of armed uprisings, revolts and partisan struggles under these conditions of the colonial hegemony of the bourgeoisie. A network of revolutionary and terrorist groups was spread throughout the country.

Japanese oppression called forth a revolutionary movement and created revolutionaries, for by extracting the natural riches of the country and creating the elements of industry, the Japanese created grave dangers for the proletariat, and at the same time its vanguard: Communist organizations. At the present time, the Japanese imperialists with a staff of Japanese Corean bourgeoisie are confronted with the fierce hatred of fifteen million slaves who are anxiously awaiting a signal for the struggle for liberation.

Revolution stands like a spectre before the eyes of the Japanese imperialists. The Japanese bourgeoisie feels the ground under its feet is shaking just as in the recent earthquake. But the fear of this aspect of revolution is greater than the fear of any possible earthquake, and hence the Japanese are trying every measure of the vilest oppression and repression to ward off the coming revolution. In September of last year when the earth was still heaving from the earthquake, they organized wholesale exterminations, programs, whippings and shooting of the Corean workers and the Japanese Communists. The prisons are being packed to overflowing with the workers and Communists. In these black holes the fighters for the cause of the proletariat are tortured and murdered under the most incredible conditions.

Immediate moral and material help is necessary to help the fight of the Corean workers and peasants. They must know that they are working in the cause of the world proletariat when they are fighting against their own capitalists in Corea. They must be assured that they are not alone in their struggle, that innumerable millions of workers, fighters and brothers are behind them and do not forget them even though they are no longer in their ranks.

Workers: Organize aid for the Corean revolutionaries!

Send your contributions for the Corean political prisoners thru the I. R. A. the organization of International Red Aid and solidarity.

Show the capitalist world the strength and unity of the international proletarian ranks.

With revolutionary greetings,
The Delegation of the Corean Communist Party to the Fifth Congress of the Communist International.

THE TRINITY OF MORGAN

HE KEEPS LAFOLLETTE IN RESERVE
Wall Street's Trinity Church has both republican and democratic leaders in its fold. Either Davis or Coolidge for President will satisfy them.

The Textile Crisis

A serious crisis is brewing in the textile industry. It appears that the cotton mill barons have decided that the time is appropriate for a general wage cut ranging from ten to twenty per cent. The Amoskeag has already reduced wages by ten per cent. Thruout the South similar cuts have gone into effect. There are loud rumblings of sharp and bitter discontent among the workers whose strike talk is becoming more widespread.

Present indications tend to lead one to believe that the textile overlords will attempt to repeat their move of 1921. Then, the manufacturers tried to set the pace in wage reductions. They were the ones to take the first step, to strike the first blow in the grand offensive launched against the workers on the eve of the great depression. Of course, today as then, the capitalists will talk of the necessary readjustments and will hide their real purposes behind vagaries.

The textile workers should lose little time in preparing for a fight to the finish. The workers in the other industries must be prepared to take every step to ensure the textile workers' unflinching support in their struggle against wage reductions. Once the wages of the textile operatives are cut, a wholesale reduction of wages thruout the country will be next in order and only a matter of weeks.

There is no possible, tangible excuse for the proposed big cut in the already too low wages of the cotton mill workers. Thru the use of increased machinery per worker, to the extent of nearly twenty-five per cent, the manufacturers have increased their profits in recent years. Then, there has been a decline in the cost of cotton prices totaling more than thirty per cent in the last few months. Besides, the robber tariff, the Fordney-McCumber Act, has been putting into the pockets of every textile baron at least forty-two cents on every dollar's worth of cotton goods sold. Finally, thru stock dividends and other shady financial manipulations, the New England capitalists have been hiding the real volume of their profits.

In the last few weeks the textile workers put up a valiant battle. Their resistance took the bosses by surprise. We feel sure that with the aid of the corkingmen of other industries, the New England mill hands will decisively trounce the vicious alignment of dollar and buyout.

British Unemployment Rising

The latest official British employment figures indicate a further decline in the number engaged in industry for the month of August as compared with July.

It is true, the increase in unemployment was small, but the significance is far more portentous than the figures would show. The MacDonald government has taken no positive effective steps to alleviate the condition of the unemployed workers. It may appear paradoxical, but it is true, nevertheless, that the only "step" taken by the Labor government for the relief of the jobless was the order for six new dreadnoughts.

The MacDonald government did not dare even consider disturbing the profits and property of the British employers. Perhaps it was not within the power of the MacDonald government to deflect the economic trend in Great Britain. No doubt the tendency towards industrial derangement is, in a large measure, international, and needs the efforts of any national government machine. Yet no one can blink the fact that local and national governmental steps can be taken to alleviate and to modify sharp tendencies.

The mounting unemployment figures in Great Britain are also barometric in another sense. Unemployment is rising in Poland, Sweden, and Italy. The situation in France, despite countless artificial factors, is far from satisfactory. Even in the United States, whose industrial machinery, alone of all the leading capitalist nations was strengthened rather than weakened by the war, we have an increasingly serious unemployment crisis.

Of all the original, active belligerent countries, Great Britain has shown the most marked industrial improvement since the armistice. The critical unemployment situation in this country is a painful index to the blighting effect of the imperialist war on the working and living conditions of the European masses. It is a source of indisputable evidence that the derangement in international capitalism is organic rather than temporary.

There must be something terribly wrong in the editorial or news department of the Chicago Tribune. Its Sunday edition carried no news of the big rebellion against the Soviets in Georgia. Don't the liars work on Saturday?

SAVE PIETRO NIGRA FROM MUSSOLINI!

For a United Front Against Fascist Assassins
Statement by the Red International Affiliation Committee

WHEN Jacob Tori, an Italian boy who was gathered up with other members of the I. W. W. during the war and imprisoned at Leavenworth, was released, he was straight-away deported to the land of Mussolini and his Fascist murder gangs. Tori has never since been heard from. The capitalist government of Coolidge and his "Labor" Secretary of Deportation, Mr. Davis, stands as an accomplice to the murderous regime of Mussolini and Rossoni.

Today, Pietro Nigra, another Italian revolutionary member of the I. W. W., also a Leavenworth victim, is scheduled on Nov. 18 to be taken in custody by the decree of capitalist courts in violent disregard of the "sacred" constitution and of rights of Italian citizens under the existing Italian-American treaties—to follow Tori into the bloody jaws of Fascism. This monster never fails to do murder when his victim is as helpless as Tori was and as Pietro Nigra to be, handcuffed and shipped at the mercy of Fascist crews on Italian ships. The prisoner is reported, sometimes, to have "jumped overboard." Or, he "disappears," while manacled, between the gangplank and his Italian village birthplace.

It is the duty of every worker and workers' organization, individually and collectively, to raise a voice of indignation protest the complicity of capitalist government of Coolidge and Davis in the murder of deported Italian workers. The bones of nine thousand workers, murdered by Mussolini's Fascists, strew the class war battlefields of Italy. These workers, revolutionists, for the most part adherents of the Communist International and Red International of Labor Unions, are dead because they upheld the interests of the workers. Mussolini is generous to the grave-diggers. We will gladly add Pietro Nigra to the lot with which he hopes to outdo Thiers of the Paris Commune. Especially if he can hide the deed from public exposure.

But—in the shops and factories, in the camps and mills—and in their union halls—workers of America must raise their voices in protest, and by letter and formal resolution addressed to the "Secretary of Labor" Davis, Washington, D. C., demand that Pietro Nigra be sent to his death in Fascist Italy.

The Red International Affiliation Committee points out that this illustrates how necessary to the I. W. W. is close relationship with the other revolutionary unions of the world in the Red International of Labor Unions. The Red International Affiliation Committee not only urges American workers to do all in their power to stop this threatening deportation, but it pledges its best efforts thru its international connections to cause the Italian proletariat to warn the Mussolini government that it will be held accountable for the safety of Pietro Nigra should the capitalist government of America deport him to Italy.

THE RED INTERNATIONAL AFFILIATION COMMITTEE.

DEMOCRATS AND REPUBLICANS HIT BY NEGRO LEADER

Charges Plan to Keep Negro Votes

NEW YORK, Sept. 25.—A scathing attack on the republican and democratic parties as enemies of the Negro race is made in the October Crisis by James Weldon Johnson, secretary National Association for the Advancement of Colored People. He charges that the two old parties have formed a gentlemen's agreement to keep the 12,000,000 Negroes in American as a political nonentity.

Johnson accuses the republican machines in the southern states of ascending to the disfranchisement of 4,500,000 Negroes to maintain their monopoly of federal patronage. The republican party in the south, he says, is nothing but an office holding oligarchy.

A Gentlemen's Agreement.
The white democrats in the south control the state offices; the white republicans the federal offices. It is a gentlemen's agreement against the Negro masses.

Smash this gentlemen's agreement, urges Johnson to the Negroes who can vote.
