

LENIN MEMORIAL MEETING TONIGHT

AS WE SEET
BY T. J. O'FLAHERTY.

LAST Sunday's meeting of the Chicago Federation of Labor was rather quiet. The officials were not so much in the center of the discussion as they were in the past. It was not until the meeting was over that the labor leaders were referred to the executive committee. This motion is always a surprise to everybody in attendance to find that the labor leaders were referred to the executive committee. (Special to The Daily Worker)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 20.—The denial of Secretary of State Hughes that America had been plunged into the European political arena by Coolidge, whose representative signed the agreement of allied finance ministers based on the Dawes plan, has by no means convinced many senators that Hughes knows what he is talking about.

The "constitutional" fakers who are defying the will of the majority in Local No. 131, of the Carpenters' union, gave another example of how little they care for the law of the organization, last Monday night, when the president refused to enter a resolution preferring charges against the local president for his violation of the constitution of the international brotherhood.

ABRAMOVICH IS FORCED TO FLEE AT N.Y. MEETING

Gathering Turned Into Communist Rally
(Special to The Daily Worker)
NEW YORK, Jan. 19.—(By Mail.)—Many workers were severely injured and scores bruised when an indignant audience of workers in the new Star Casino revolted yesterday afternoon against R. Abramovich, murderous menshevik agent of the Russian counter-revolution when he started to vilify the Soviet republic, aided by the yellow socialist "Forward" gang speakers.

LINN A. GALE, formerly of Mexico and other parts not so well known, has bobbed up in Aurora, Ill., as the editor of a "free" sheet called "The Lined Life," a crazy rag as it was ever conceived in the brain of a mad poet or a mad scientist. It is an unparaphrased edition of the kind of romantic, who imagines that the world really is a madhouse. Such a specimen is Hellenism Julius, editor of a flock of magazines and husband of a woman who made a prosperous business man out of him. Linn, however, is an unabashed throust, who brazenly renounced his socialist ideal, while Gale is still polluting the atmosphere with his nauseating literary concoctions.

BUILDING THE DAILY WORKER TASK OF EVERY WORKERS PARTY MEMBER
(Special to The Daily Worker)
NEW YORK CITY, N. Y., Jan. 20.—That it is the task of every member of the Workers (Communist) Party, and not of the English language speaking sections alone, to build the DAILY WORKER, is the demand raised by the DAILY WORKER agents of New York City in a declaration adopted as follows:

A Troop of Little Reds has been practicing for six weeks for its part in the Lenin Memorial meeting, to be held at the Ashland Auditorium.

WHETHER a person should eat meat or not as part of his diet depends on many factors. It may be good for some and bad for others. But there are several hundred schools of health and each one has its own somewhat inflexible article of diet and puts it on the shelves list. One of these fellows told a friend of mine that cow's milk was intended only for calves and that if meat should be eaten at all it should be devoured on the jungle tier fashion. He took his cue from the fig, who usually lives in the jungle where butcher shops don't exist. Unfortunately for his theory, man and the tiger have different tastes and different diets to prefer, therefore, they are about getting their vitamins in a different manner.

WORKERS GIVE SOVIET FOE HOT RECEPTION IN NEW YORK

Finally after tremendous work on the part of the police the speaker was made fairly quiet. Weisberg tried to speak again, pleading with the members of the Workers Circle not to insult their chairman—himself. More shouts "Who elected you? Whose leader are you? Act one repeated. The speakers busy again. The workers busy again, their snare. Everything was tumult.

The "Forward" clique of socialists decided to call reinforcements. About four o'clock in walked about a group of hunky singers. They took their places in the aisles. Some sang in penitentiary, and waited for the signal from their bosses. They were not kept long waiting.

Workers Cheer Soviet Russia. Then Abramovich, agent of white guardians, emissary of the blood-purges of the socialist Second International, commenced. He proceeded without interruption until he mentioned "Soviet Russia." At that point he was shouting "Long live Soviet Russia! Long live the first Workers' and Farmers' government!"

(By J. LOUIS ENGDALH) TODAY, the treasury department at Washington informs the nation that 67 persons reported net incomes of more than $1,000,000 during the year 1922. Perhaps the government officials feared the shock of this news on the workers who engaged in the big strikes of this year, and on the million farmers who went bankrupt. But these facts are revealing just the same.

These figures help put a crimp in the widespread propaganda of the speculative press to the effect that the masses are, with their savings, are popularizing the control of great corporations. The post-election Wall Street financial boom is being hailed as a great movement on the part of the millions, investing their money in the stocks of the great trusts not merely a gambling proposition.

It was in the year 1915 that the Commission on Industrial Relations made its report showing how helpless the masses are in the financial grip of the Wall Street money trusts. The Commission found that the control of manufacturing, mining and transportation in a single private banking hands of great corporations thru stock ownership, and control of credit is centralized in a comparatively small number of enormously powerful financial institutions. This financial institution is dominated by a very small number of powerful financiers.

On this basis, supported by facts, this commission declared that the final control of American industry rests therefore, in the hands of a small number of wealthy and powerful financiers. This, in the case of the United States Steel corporation, the final control of American industry rests therefore, in the hands of a small number of wealthy and powerful financiers.
