

U. S. ATTEMPT TO COLLECT WAR DEBTS TURNING COMPLETE FAILURE

WASHINGTON, May 27.—(Federal Correspondent) Secretary of State Kellogg's attempt to collect from European governments of the war debts and afterward loans made by the United States to the belligerent governments of the allied group has come close to complete failure.

AS WE SEE IT

By T. J. O'FLAHERTY.

It is perfectly alright for a Japanese to endanger life and limb by enlisting in the United States army, but if he should imagine that such action entitles him to citizenship, he is due for a rude awakening. A Japanese who served as a coast guard from 1913 until 1923 was naturalized in 1921. But when the Japanese consul at Boston and the Massachusetts federal court decided that he had no right to citizenship papers.

The case was carried to the United States supreme court and the decision was sustained, despite the fact that congress passed a law in 1919 providing that "any person of foreign birth who served in the military or naval forces of the United States during the present war" might acquire naturalization papers. The difference between the United States and Japan had not then reached the stage of open naval maneuvers in the Pacific. The present war might acquire naturalization papers, but the difference between the United States and Japan had not then reached the stage of open naval maneuvers in the Pacific.

The National Civic Federation is worried very much over the prospect of British labor leaders to this country in the near future. Halph Baskin, secretary of the federation, is a member of the board of directors of the International Association of American Civilization. This invasion has two wings: the right and the left. But for the DAILY WORKER, it is possible that the enemy would slip without Easley's knowledge. It is possible that the enemy would slip without Easley's knowledge. It is possible that the enemy would slip without Easley's knowledge.

BRADY and Hugh Payne were called on by the American labor leaders in significance of the new invasion to the terrified subscribers of the Civic Federation. No doubt those who are able to satisfy the pluses that the officials of the American Federation of Labor are sufficiently strong in their loyalty to capitalism to escape contamination from Purcell, who himself was noted as a worker in a more active time ago and is now actively engaged in the task of bringing about a united front of labor internationally in connection with the Soviet trade union leaders.

LEFT WING WINS FURRIERS POLL FOR N. Y. BOARD

Three Militants Within Opposition Elected

NEW YORK, May 27.—The left wing slate scored a signal victory in the New York election of the Furriers' Union. With the exception of one candidate, B. Westler, the left wing candidates secured the highest votes. Water was a progressive bloc candidate and the machine of Morris Kaufmann, present conservative manager of the joint board, was overwhelmingly defeated.

Many labor members are said to have taken part in this election than in any other. The left wing candidates were: B. Gold, Local One, who secured 1,032 votes; A. Gros, Local Five, 838 votes; and Ray Washinsky, Local Fifteen, 1,105 votes. B. Gold is expected to be chosen the next manager of the board. The New York joint board is the most important in the international.

FRANCE, SPAIN SEEK TRUCE IN NORTH AFRICA

Ask Negotiations with Abd-el-Krim, Is Reported

PARIS, France, May 27.—The Spanish and French governments have made advances to Abd-el-Krim to recognize the independence of the Rifians under Krim, and thus end the Morocco war by a joint agreement. It is admitted here in official circles, the French imperialists hope to gain by negotiations which they have not gained by the bayonet.

The French and Spanish governments have held off from suggesting because of the added prestige which such a course would give Krim, and the confidence it would instill in his followers, but they have made the step as a last necessity.

MOSCOW, May 27.—The central executive committee of the Council of People's Commissariat of the Soviet Union has just passed a bill on agricultural taxes for 1925-26. In comparison with 470 million rubles of taxes of last year, and instead of 500 million rubles of taxes projects for the year...

In accordance with the above bill, in 1925-26 the Russian peasant will pay only 3 rubles 77 kopecks per acre of pre-war taxes. It is even less than 1/4, taking in consideration that the value of Soviet ruble is lower than that of pre-war times...

PROGRESSIVE MINERS OF U. S. CALL FOR WORLD UNION UNITY IN MESSAGE TO COAL MINERS

A call by his miners of the world for international trade union unity is being sent out today by the progressive miners committee of the United Mine Workers of America. The call says: Never before in the history of mining has international unity been more disastrous or necessary than at present.

International Open Shop Drive. An open shop drive is taking place in all countries to crush the only economic weapon of the workers—their trade unions—and leave them defenseless at the mercy of the monopolistic capitalists.

The miners' wages are being cut, their hours of labor are being lengthened, their working conditions are being destroyed, conditions which have been won after many bloody struggles...

For World Unity of Labor. Brother miners of the world! In this hour of bitter struggle we greet you! In the name of international trade union unity we call upon you to join in an industrial struggle for solidarity.

American Labor Must Defeat U.S. Aid to New Attack on Soviet Rule

By J. LOUIS ENGDALH

TODAY, the press of the international bankers repeats, what the DAILY WORKER published in detail last week, that the Baltic and Balkan capitalist states are frantically clutching at one another in an effort to develop some sort of compact against their common dread—the Union of Soviet Republics.

It was not until its issue of May 25th, that the Chicago Daily News, for instance, published a cable from its chief anti-Soviet lie fabricator, F. A. Mackenzie at Reval, Estonia, under the title, "New Move in Baltic Union Against Russia; President Visits Reval and Sees Estonian Army Parade."

This should be enough to stir the workers everywhere to be on their guard against "the new war." Morgan has just floated a $10,000,000 loan to bulwark terror rule in Finland. No wonder the Estonian white guard government declares a two-day holiday when the Finnish president comes to Reval.

These little buffer states, organized and supported to feed bullets and not bread to the workers, cannot long endure unless outside aid is continually granted them. One of the main sponsors for the anti-Soviet "little entente" is Foreign Minister Benes of Czechoslovakia, who acted recently as chairman of the "socialist" sponsored international labor bureau of the League of Nations.

This new drive is being auspiciously launched under a huge smokescreen of propaganda to the effect that the Soviet Union is planning to increase its Red Army to several millions for an open attack on its western neighbors. The DAILY WORKER has already exposed this propaganda that calls for a savior against the "imperialism of Moscow."

American workers must be aroused to the danger of this new war—the war against Soviet Rule. It will be the wealth stolen from American workers, in the form of profits, that will be used to finance the world-wide capitalist Europe's bankrupt. Wage cuts and the longer workday in the United States mean more gold to feed the war beast in Europe.

GUDDOK, NEWSPAPER OF SOVIET R. WORKERS, OBSERVES 5th BIRTHDAY By M. A. SKROMNYY

On May 11, Gudok, the official organ of the Soviet Railwaymen's Union, celebrated the fifth anniversary of its existence. The issue of May 11, 1925, is full of greetings from all parts of the world to the workers of the Gudok.

Guok Born in Battle. The first issue of Gudok as a daily newspaper appeared on May 11, 1920, during the fierce battles of the Russian workers and peasants against the counter-revolutionaries...

Guok began an offensive against them. It began to expose them and called upon the workers to do their part in exposing the enemies of the revolution. They began to write to Guok. At first they were hesitating, expecting the editors to be "highbrows," and not to pay much attention to letters written by half-literate workers.

The circulation of the paper in October was $5,000 daily. At the present time the paper used to receive about 4,000 letters a month. The paper had 325 regular worker-correspondents in May, 1924, this group of correspondents has grown to 1,115 and the circulation went up to 232,500.

July 4, 1925

So July 4, the anniversary of the founding of the American government, is to be a test mobilization day.

Coolidge may be dumb in many ways, but no one can accuse him of not being in line with the war plans of his imperialist masters.

This is a clever maneuver and the coming anniversary will be something more than a celebration of past victories.

On this account it is all the more necessary that the class-conscious workers to turn this ruling class holiday into a day of demonstration against imperialist war.

Negro Baiting in Chicago

A Negro lecturer goes into a Chicago restaurant with two prominent women social workers.

The victim of racial prejudice happens to be a citizen of France, a college graduate and an editor of a Negro paper published in Paris.

There is no reason why any restaurant should object to his patronage except that he is black.

Incidents such as the above give the lie to the professions of friendship made for the Negroes by the capitalist press.

The recent outrage should be made the center of a protest in all the Negro sections of the city in which all whites who sincerely want racial hatreds wiped out should be asked to join.

Dawes Plan Stabilization

The Dawes plan has brought temporary stabilization to western Europe and checked for a time the revolutionary struggle.

On this point we have the testimony of no less a personage than Sir Ernest Howard, British ambassador to America.

Germany owes France and Britain huge sums in reparations. They in turn owe the United States billions of dollars.

The Dawes plan rests, therefore, upon the backs of the workers of all nations. It can work only if the American masses being reduced to a new low living standard just as in Germany and Great Britain it has resulted in a lowering of the living standards of the German and British workers.

Americanism in Haiti

A Haitian editor has been jailed for printing the story of an ancient Swedish king who was overthrown because of his tyranny.

We hope it was and also wish to remark in this connection that when an editor has to dig up the sagas of the Norsemen in an attempt to avoid prosecution, it is pretty good evidence that the government he is attacking needs overthrowing.

More power to our Haitian comrades.

We do not understand the delay in Dayton, Tennessee, in burning at the stake young Scopes who tried to teach a milk-and-water brand of evolution in the so-called schools of that city.

It is possible that the leniency extended to Scopes marks a tendency towards progress or is the delay due to the ravages of the hookworm and sleeping sickness locally?

The Third Soviet Congress of the Soviet Union

By MICHAEL KALININ. President of the Union of Soviet Rep.

During the first half of May the regular Soviet Congress will meet: first the Executive and P. S. R. and afterwards that of the Soviet Union.

The main question on the agenda of the Soviet Congress of the P. S. R. is the agenda of the People's Commissariat for Health.

I believe that the Congress will support the policy of the People's Commissariat for Health, which consists in promoting as much as possible the public health in the villages.

In addition to the questions mentioned above, the agenda certain constitutional questions in connection with the establishment of the Union of Soviet Republics.

The agenda of the III Soviet Congress of the Union of Socialist-Soviet Republics, which will meet on the 8th of May, is fairly large.

workers' health service, are acting rightly. It is possible that in this connection it will be only possible to provide accommodation for about two to three thousand peasants.

The question of the seed campaign will have an informative character at the Congress. It was necessary to place it on the agenda.

In addition to the questions mentioned above, the agenda certain constitutional questions in connection with the establishment of the Union of Soviet Republics.

The agenda of the III Soviet Congress of the Union of Socialist-Soviet Republics, which will meet on the 8th of May, is fairly large.

The first question to be discussed will be the question of the inclusion of Turkmenistan and Uzbekistan in the Soviet Union.

Congress hitherto constitutes the first item on the agenda. In order to enable the members of the two republics to participate in the work of the Congress and, further, in order to emphasize the enormous importance of the fact that two European Republics have freely joined our Union.

The second question is the report of the government, which will probably furnish occasion for a debate on the general policy of the government.

The third question which will be discussed is the position of industry. This item was deleted from the agenda of the II Soviet Congress owing to the death of comrade Lenin.

The fourth question on the agenda is the question of rendering assistance to agriculture. The congress will probably adopt a whole number of measures in order to improve the situation in agriculture.

The question of the Soviet construction work constitutes the fifth item on the agenda. This question, which formerly had a purely organizational character, has recently received a profound social and political import.

The sixth item is the Report of the People's Commissariat for Finance. Finance constitutes today the blood veins of industry. Nevertheless, I believe that the discussion of this question at the III Soviet Congress will not bring anything new or unexpected.

THE seventh item will be the Report on the Red Army. Formerly, these reports contained statements regarding the conditions on our front, which rendered them of very great interest.

Since the last report our Red Army has made very great progress in the sphere of organization, of discipline, and in learning the art of war.

And in the next few years we shall see the same thing happening along the whole industrial front. This development of industry brings to the

Parcell's Visit Alarms the Bosses

Ralph Easley of the Civic Federation, the organization of labor officials and capitalists, in which the spiritual guidance of the American labor movement is vested, has sounded the war cry against world trade union unity.

The occasion for the call to fakedom and its bosses to be on its guard is the coming-visit of A. A. Parcell, president of the International Federation of Trade Unions, to the United States.

Because Parcell was one of the British trade union delegation to Russia, is a member of the Anglo-Russian Trade Union Unity Committee and one of the editors of a magazine devoted to the drive for unity among the organized workers of the world.

A special meeting of the Civic Federation will be called to devise means of gagging Parcell or of keeping him out of the country if he refuses to keep his mouth shut or say only the things the labor agents of capitalism want him to say.

They have underestimated the strength of the desire for world solidarity of the workers and they are going to be shown up as the traitors they are.

Stopping the Murder of Miners

Day before yesterday we published a story from Reliance, Wyoming, telling of the fight of the coal miners there for enforcement of safety provisions and the conspiracy existing between the companies and the state inspectors.

Yesterday we carried a story of a gas blast in a Pennsylvania mine that took the lives of a blast that was the inevitable result of either poor inspection or of neglect to report the presence of gas.

It seems to us that the union officialdom does not use accidents of this kind to put the coal barons on the defensive in the way they could.

The reason for this is obvious. The officials fear rank and file committees, especially responsible committees like these would be just about as good as the laborer.

Settlements That Settle Nothing

The proposed agreement between France and Spain on one side and the Riffs on the other, looking toward a settlement of the Moroccan war, has in its provision something far more dangerous to the world peace than the war itself.

The project, as it affects Great Britain, is exactly the same as the Berlin-Bagdad railway scheme which sowed the seeds of the world war.

Educational Possibilities Among Miners.

To the DAILY WORKER:—The miners of the Pittsburgh, Kansas, districts like the miners of the other districts are unemployed most of the time.

Working class literature has not penetrated this district. The unions have neglected to take care of this forced idleness for use as education for the other nations.

The distribution and sale of the DAILY WORKER, that now leads, the contest being over the top in subs as well as the sale of books, shows the desire by these miners to read working class literature and shows the neglected possibilities of trade unions in this country.
