

PROTEST AGAINST EXCLUSION OF HINDU MINERS BY KELLOGG

At the last meeting of the Chicago Joint Board of the Amalgamated Clothing Workers, a motion was unanimously passed condemning the action of Secretary of the Amalgamated Clothing Workers, Shapurji Saklatvala, Communist member of the British House of Commons, from attending the sessions of the interparliamentary congress at Washington, D. C.

The Chicago Joint Board, which represents a membership of over 35,000 protesters against the exclusion of the Hindu Communist, because of the speech that he made in the British parliament, opposing the imperialist rule of Great Britain in India, during an appeal for Indian independence.

"We Want Saklatvala," Meeting Demands

At Liverpool, Lady Cynthia Moseley, daughter of the late Lord Curzon, and the brilliant British Socialist party, says the Communist press, which seems strangely sympathetic to the exclusion of Saklatvala and wealthy right being admitted to the labor party at the same time. It is a clear, beautiful and a throw out. "The clever, beautiful and a throw out to socialism is certain to result, an action when she was held."

No Rainy Seasons in the Class War Being Fought in American Industry

By J. LOUIS ENDOHAL.

TODAY, the American slang phrase, "It never rains, but it pours," applies to the Franco-Spanish outlook in North Africa. If the increasing armaments, directed from North Africa, in addition to their airplane fleets that the imperialists should do any better, now that the rainy season has set in.

Reports from the Rif indicate that when it rains, it pours in North Africa, making it impossible going for tanks, big guns and other heavy military equipment, the only advantage in addition to their airplane fleets that the imperialists have had over the native defenders.

The last gap of French propaganda proudly paraded the long list of not only the Rif, but also the Rifian farmers would put aside their guns, and go home to do the planting and the making it possible for the imperialists armies to overrun the country.

Since this is supposed to be a war of Christian civilization against the infidel barbarians, who need the uplifting influences of European capitalism, it would seem that god on high has made a mistake and thrown his influence on the wrong side. Increasing injury has been heaped upon the Rifian farmers by the fact that the heaviest rains are falling in usually the driest territory.

Some heathen people usually had special gods to take care of the weather, but doubt concluding that they would thus be more successful. The so-called christian religion, never provided for weather, gods, the propagandists experts may use to account for the predicament of the French in North Africa, this fact, this same New York Times correspondent declares:

To Abd-el-Krim's followers, it may seem like a special dispensation of the gods, that the heavy rains (French) it is a stroke of bad luck on which he didn't reckon!"

But whatever faith they may have in Allah, the Rifians also believe in keeping their powder dry, and speed such bulletins to the workers of the world, against the imperialist powers of Europe. The airplane casualties, for instance, in Africa have hit the French and Spanish forces harder than have the casualties in the world war.

The quick succession with which powder magazines of discontent are exploding among oppressed peoples—in Morocco, in Syria, and in China, with runnings from India, ahead for the international bandits in all parts of the world, not only during the rainy season in the Rif.

Every American worker must critically eye the sessions of the American Federation of Labor at Atlantic City next week to study what is offered to promote the solidarity of the American working class with these struggles in other parts of the world.

When that argument begins at lunch time in your shop tomorrow—show them what THE DAILY WORKER says about it.

IN RECOIT!

For the first time in the history of international class solidarity, everywhere, the workers of the world are being called to the workers of other countries for a helping hand.

THEY ARE AWAKENING!

In all the principal cities of China today, the workers are rising in revolt against their oppressors, feeling the breath of freedom that is blowing from the workers of other countries. They are too weak to free.

MUST THEY STARVE?

THE CHINESE WORKERS ARE WAGING A BATTLE FOR LIFE AND FREEDOM.

MINNEAPOLIS PASSES G. L. W. 24

EFFORT TO STOP G. L. W. 220

(Special to the Daily Worker)
MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Sept. 22.—The convention of the Minnesota State Federation of Labor Unions, which has closed its sessions at Austin, was the smallest in a long time. Some 244 delegates were present. It was also the most reactionary of every standpoint, as it turned its face to the capitalist class, and its main program was the abolition of the "red" of all shades, to sit as delegates in future conventions.

Priest a Feature.
Apart from the 24 left wing delegates, who sponsored progress of the class struggle, the feature of the convention was a Catholic priest, of the Minnesota State Federation, who attended its sessions at Austin, was the smallest in a long time. Some 244 delegates were present. It was also the most reactionary of every standpoint, as it turned its face to the capitalist class, and its main program was the abolition of the "red" of all shades, to sit as delegates in future conventions.

Menace to Progress.
The convention amended the federation constitution to read as follows: "No person shall be permitted to sit read a delegate at conventions who is a member of the Communist (Workers) Party, or sympathizer with the Communist Party." It passed with 31 left wing delegates voting against it. There were 24 delegates who the red buffers and white hunters could not bluff nor brow beat. This amendment provoked the only debate of the convention.

Mahoney Speaks for Reaction.
Old man Mahoney of St. Paul, the only Catholic priest at the convention, believed that the members of that party should be excluded from the federation. He said that the federation was apparently forged, what he said was the "red" of all shades, to sit as delegates in future conventions.

Free Hall Reports.
Free Hall made his annual report to the convention on the state of labor affairs. He admitted that the situation was not so bright as it appeared. However, he stated that this was due to the "independence" of the membership which was not under the control of the leadership. He stated that the membership was not so bright as it appeared. However, he stated that this was due to the "independence" of the membership which was not under the control of the leadership.

Emma on the Floor.
Delegate Emma of the Machinists of St. Paul, made a speech in which she stated that the federation was not so bright as it appeared. However, she stated that this was due to the "independence" of the membership which was not under the control of the leadership.

Mr. Spielman made the prize argument against the reds. He pointed out that the "Third International" was not so bright as it appeared. However, he stated that this was due to the "independence" of the membership which was not under the control of the leadership.

Little Rate Group Up.
Spielman, an ex-anarchist, made a speech in which he stated that the federation was not so bright as it appeared. However, he stated that this was due to the "independence" of the membership which was not under the control of the leadership.

The amendment is broad enough to take any delegate who on the future regard as a dangerous critic of their policies. It is proposed to give all opposition to freedom. But there is one very serious defect which it contains.

The left wing fought valiantly for progress. They introduced resolutions on amalgamation, organization, employment, for a labor party, recognition of Soviet Russia and Sakalavita, for world trade union unity and on the striking intractable miners.

Practically all of these resolutions were defeated. The resolution on Sakalavita was referred to the executive committee. The resolution on Sakalavita was referred to the executive committee.

Non-Partisan Politics Endorsed.
The convention endorsed the A. F. of L. policy of "non-partisan" politics. This association was organized last March by the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of America, which is the only political party in the United States.

The officers' Alliance certainly will be a success. The officers' Alliance certainly will be a success. The officers' Alliance certainly will be a success.

attempted under the guise of following the policy of the A. F. of L. The fact that the federation had no had in the organization of the farmer-labor party. Therefore, the federation was not so bright as it appeared. However, he stated that this was due to the "independence" of the membership which was not under the control of the leadership.

Breaks Up Meeting of Local Union
Jack Millstein, business agent of the local union, broke up a meeting of the local union. He stated that the local union was not so bright as it appeared. However, he stated that this was due to the "independence" of the membership which was not under the control of the leadership.

Nothing of Importance Given a Hearing
NEWARK, N. J., Sept. 22.—(FP)—The ban on all night work for women and children was not so bright as it appeared. However, he stated that this was due to the "independence" of the membership which was not under the control of the leadership.

Prison Made Goods were condemned. The attack on night work for women was initiated by the Walters, Cooks and Waitresses Union of Atlantic City, who introduced the resolution that passed to amend the night work for women to a five or six hours per employer for the regulation and providing that women shall be employed at nothing but honest work in the home.

TOMSKY CAPTIVATES SCARBOROUGH IN SPEECH ON UNITY RESOLUTION

AN A. F. OF L. DUBB "ALSO SPOKE"

LONDON, Sept. 15.—(By Mail).—The great moment of the Trade Union Congress, Scarborough, the delegates gathered round Levelling all their proposals to ensure the end they desired, came—and saw their schemes come utterly to naught.

After the American and Canadian delegates, Messrs. Adams, Krass, and the Marxist, the delegates gathered round Tomsky (the All-Russian Trade Unions) when he stepped forward to address them. This was the most intense moment of the event of this week.

Tomsky made no secret of his policy. The Russian, he said, were not ashamed of their position. It was in the name of these ideas, that in October, 1917, they gave up criticizing the capitalist class by the solution and began criticizing them by arms.

Tomsky interviewed Friday on the subject of international unity. He said that it was the biggest step taken to date by the conference and carried unanimously. With the passing of this resolution, the most important work of the congress had been accomplished.

SOVIET KLONDYKE DRAWN GOLD HUNTERS

MOSCOW.—(Tass)—Sept. 23.—The reputation of a "Soviet Klondyke" has been established with the newly discovered Aldan goldfields of Siberia. Hundreds are being drawn through the United States for the riches of this region, attracting many fortune hunters searching for gold, arrive even from countries like Japan, China and America.

The Aldan goldfields comprise the following system of rivers: Big and Small Ninger, Ninger, Ziliger, Ninger, and a series of smaller tributaries. The gold content of the region runs the Tomtom river, the valley of which is more than 100 miles long.
