To the establishment of the workers' republic, or the Co-operation Commonwealth, no consideration will be as important as the self-imposed discipline of the Industrial Union. On that day when the workers are called upon to assume charge of the mill, mine, factory, railway or any other means of production, the capitalist mode of production for profit by the Social mode of production for use, there will come to them the task which they alone will be competent to meet.

UP-TO-DATE TELEGRAPH SERVICE
The strike of the telegraph operators has taught the companies, the operators and the general public a lesson that neither are likely soon to forget. It brought out the fact that the telegraph, as such, is not an essential means of general communication as all the parties interested had supposed.

SCHEMING OF JOB-HOLDERS
To illustrate the work of a crook in the labor movement, we print below an extract from a letter (the full text of which is in our possession) written by W. J. F. Hennemann, on Oct. 1, 1907, to James D. Jones, of Boston.

A REPLY, BUT NO ANSWER
Samuel Gompers has made reply to the charges against him, and referred to in previous issues of The Bulletin, but he has not answered them. He chose the closing hours of the A. F. of L. convention at Norfolk, Va., with the support of his associates, to make a demonstration intended as an 'answer' to the charges.

Kunkle in Self Defense
There was published in the issue of The Bulletin for October 19th, notice of the expulsion from Local Union No. 106, Monaca, Pa., of Geo. Kunkle. The notice came in regular form from the secretary of the local, C. J. McCarthy, with the seal attached.

Reed Wrong Again
Editor Ind. Union Bulletin:
In an article by Frank Reed in the Bulletin of Nov. 23 some interesting statements are made. The phrase "Our Political Arm" in the title implies that political action is of equal importance with economic action.

They Want to Be Shown
[From Graham County Advocate, Clinton, Ariz.]
The Miners' Magazine of October 31st informs its readers that "The Industrial Workers of the World has been torn to fragments by internal dissensions." The statement is also made that "The I. W. W. as at present constituted can do no organizing."

Keep out of Treadwell
From Treadwell, Alaska, we learn that the mines are full-handed, and many men are idle, but the owners continue to advertise for more men. As soon as they can fill a union man's place he is fired and black-listed.

Where Haywood Stands
The "Nevada Workman" brings us the following illuminating paragraph stating where Wm. D. Haywood stands:
"Both the friends and enemies of industrial unionism have interested to learn that Haywood has lost none of his belief in that form of class organization. His conception of the mission of the industrial union coincides almost exactly with that consistently expressed by the Workman. That conception transcends the notions of the quasi industrialists who see in the new movement merely the backbone of a political party, or the convenient matter of importation."

St. John's Condition
The news from St. John is that he is not doing as well as had been hoped for. The broken bone in his right arm is splintered and refuses to knit, and it is expected that an operation will be necessary. The "Nevada Workman" of November 16 says: "Dr. Wheeler proposes to wire together the broken ends of the bone. The operation will be delayed until an infection of the wound has been overcome. St. John's condition is in no degree serious, but it is certain that he will be confined to the hospital for several weeks."

Notice to Subscribers
For the information of new subscribers notice is given that all subscriptions received up to Thursday noon of each week will be started with the issue of The Bulletin for that week. Subscriptions received after Thursday noon will be put on the list to start with the following week's paper.

The trial of Steve Adams at Rutherford, Idaho, resulted in a disagreement of the jury, four being for conviction and eight for acquittal. Now the interest shifts to Boise, where George Peterson is on trial for an imprisonment of twenty-two months.

From a volume entitled "Social Progress, an International Year Book," we learn that during the year 1904, out of 106,734 brakemen employed on the railroads of the United States, 3,532 were killed. By way of comparison it is recorded in the same book that during the same year there were 8,482 murders and homicides committed in this country, for which crimes 116 persons were executed. In other words, one brakeman in about thirty met his death in that year, and one murderer in about seventy-three. From which it appears that the brakeman's occupation is about twice as dangerous as the murderer's.

Local Redlands (Cal.) of the Socialist party has adopted resolutions favoring a national referendum for the union of the two existing Socialist parties, based on the recognition of Industrial Unionism as the economic basis of the Socialist political movement.

met on the platform at Madison Square Garden. On September 29 he came to see me at the Hotel Victoria, where I was then living. He said he knew I was valuable to certain interests, but that I could be more valuable to other interests. I asked him if he meant himself and his associates, and he said 'yes.' I told him that I had often refused offers of money under the same circumstances. I understood that he would consider a counter proposition from me.

French conference has been called of French workers in Philadelphia to meet at Cloth Weavers' Union Hall, Kensington and Clearfield, Saturday, November 30th, to consider the advisability of organizing a local union of the I. W. W. Anyone interested may communicate with Eugene C. Peap, 261 Elkheart street, Philadelphia.
