

Minnesota Farmer-Labor Party Calls 1924 Convention, Joins Other Groups for United Front in National Fight

Bouch and Manley Represented the Federated Farmer-Labor Party at Preliminary Conference in St. Paul

(By Staff Correspondent to "The Worker.")
ST. PAUL, MINN.—A national convention of some three to five thousand delegates, representing several million organized farmers and workers, is forecast in the results of a conference here, Nov. 15-16, for the purpose of unifying the various groups of the Farmer-Labor movement in this country.
The conference was called by the Farmer-Labor group of Minnesota standing in the battles of the industrial workers and farmers politically, to send representatives to the conference.
There were present from Minnesota: William Bouch and Joseph Manley, representing the Farmer-Labor Party of Washington; Ray McKelg, representing the Progressive Party of Idaho; Charles E. Taylor, representing the Farmer-Labor Party of South Dakota; A. H. Hopkins, representing the Farmer-Labor Party of North Dakota; J. P. Kramer, representing the Farmer-Labor Party of Wisconsin; Frank Fisher, representing the Farmer-Labor Party of Illinois; and J. H. Hopkins, representing the Farmer-Labor Party of Michigan.
After a half-day of discussion, in which the various groups presented their views in regard to the present political situation in the United States, in which the need of a national organization for the purpose of uniting the various groups and nominating a candidate for president, the conference adopted a program which would be presented to the national convention, and adopting a platform which would be presented to the national convention.

Coolidge Neutral Toward Ex-Kaiser, How About Russia

(By LAURENCE TODD, (Federation Press Correspondent).)
WASHINGTON—After a cabinet meeting following the receipt of news that the ex-Kaiser was to return to Germany, Mr. Coolidge's administration has announced its policy is one of indifference as to what form of government is restored in Germany, if the monarchy is restored there will be no protest in Washington, for the change concerns only the German and the powers that ruled the Versailles treaty.
By taking the position that the ex-emption of any particular form of government in Germany is none of the business of the United States, Coolidge sweeps away at one stroke the theory that the United States went into the world war to make the Kaiser a puppet in Germany.
He likewise demulasses the theory that the United States went into the world war to make the Kaiser a puppet in Germany, and leads up toward a position where he might be charged with the crime of treason.
He abandons the position, taken and entrenched by Woodrow Wilson, that the American grimes went to the aid of Britain and France solely in order to rid the world of the menace of militaristic imperialism, and that on this ground the United States should have aided the Allies and restored the Kaiser to power.

S. Workers Follow This Example

MONTECALM, N.S.—A unanimous endorsement of the principle of amalgamating the present craft unions into industrial unions was given by the Quebec Labor Party in session in Montreal in November. The party, which is a provincial unit of the Labor Party of Canada, sent 88 delegates representing 8,000 members to Carleton Place Hall for the seventh annual convention.
A telegram was ordered sent to the premier of Nova Scotia demanding the release of Jim McLachlan, deposed secretary-treasurer, District No. 26, N.S., for the past several years for alleged seditious trade union activities during the steel and mine strikes of last summer. The release of Bernard Markson, also confined for remarks in behalf of labor was similarly demanded.
Defendants of the coming workers' revolution of Germany was pledged in a resolution adopted by the convention promising "to do our utmost to thwart any attempt of the imperialist powers to crush it. A further resolution demanded full recognition of the Russian government.
The party decided to favor unrestricted immigration except for "criminals, reactionaries and disaffected persons who either by temperament, non-assimilative qualifications, or customs, are not a desirable acquisition to our citizenship."
Efforts to promote joint action by the unions and the labor parties were made.

Foster on New Tour For Labor Defense Council

William Z. Foster, who has spoken as scores of enthusiastic Labor Defense mass meetings in very important districts in the East, Midwest and West is again to tour for the Labor Defense Council, speaking at meetings as follows:
Worcester, Mass., Saturday, Nov. 24; Lake Huron, Michigan, Sunday, Nov. 25; Brooklyn, Mass., Sunday afternoon, Nov. 25; Prynian Hall, New Bedford, Mass., Sunday evening, Nov. 25; Labor Temple, Providence, R. I., Monday, Nov. 26; Eagle Hall, New York City, Tuesday, Nov. 27; Webster Hall, New York City, Wednesday, Nov. 28; Macmillan Temple, Newark, N. J., Friday, Nov. 30; Philadelphia, Wednesday, Nov. 28th, Macmillan Temple.
In all of these places, with the exception of New York and Philadelphia, will be held outstanding Labor Defense Council meetings. Foster has spoken at Labor Defense Council meetings in New York, New Bedford, Providence, R. I., and Eagle Hall.
A month ago a meeting was arranged for Foster in Newark, N. J., but this meeting was stopped by the police and the meeting on November 25th will carry with it a definite significance as a free speech fight and the passage of an alien registration act which will make it possible for the enemies of the labor movement to deport any alien who takes active part in the labor struggle.
Foster will take as his subject the new conspiracy entered into between the Department of Justice and the American Big Business interests to secure a federal peacetime sedition law under which outstanding labor radicals may be prosecuted in the federal courts; and further to secure the passage of an alien registration act which will make it possible for the enemies of the labor movement to deport any alien who takes active part in the labor struggle.
Foster will also speak on the subject of the new conspiracy entered into between the Department of Justice and the American Big Business interests to secure a federal peacetime sedition law under which outstanding labor radicals may be prosecuted in the federal courts; and further to secure the passage of an alien registration act which will make it possible for the enemies of the labor movement to deport any alien who takes active part in the labor struggle.

But it will not be upon the Russian issue that the hope of this White House attitude toward the Hohenzollern return will first be tested by the Democrats, for political advantage, and the more successful of the old guard Republicans for reasons of safety, will ask whether the blood of American soldiers as shed in vain at Belleau Wood. They will raise the cry of "peace and the cause of peace and humanity."
Men who have talked with the German workers in mines and factories and on railroads during the past six months will take a different view of the Coolidge policy. They will say: "The hope of a return to the status quo as to the form of government in Germany, when monarchy is about to come back, can it cannot claim veto if the German workers overtook the government after a few months, and set up a new type of government."

Dolla Framrup Before Pardon Board in East

(By Federation Press).
PHILADELPHIA.—The case of Jacob Dolla, a steel striker serving a 12 to 17 year sentence in the Pennsylvania Western Penitentiary at Pittsburgh for alleged offense committed during the steel strike of 1919-20, will again come before the board of pardons Nov. 21. It is understood that Dolla is being aided by lawyers and others in Pennsylvania who regard the case as a "framing."
Investigation by the attorneys who defended the case, Earl W. Thompson and Francis Fisher Kane, of Philadelphia, convinced them that Dolla was the victim of a steel company device which fastened upon him the crime of dynamiting a residence in Lebanon in September 1919. Dolla had been active as an organizer in the strike and it is charged that he was arrested because of his activities. Those who testified against him have since made affidavits that they did so under duress and that they were for themselves and that Dolla had nothing to do with the affair. He has already served four years of his sentence. He has a wife and two children in Philadelphia.
An application for pardon has been pending for several months before the state pardon board, which has kept it under advisement since last June. It is understood that a difference of opinion in the board as to the merits of the case and the organizations interested in the case and which have appealed to their members to contribute to the fund to fight before the proper authorities are the International Association of Bridge and Structural Ironworkers and the American Civil Liberties Union.

54 Party Branches Organized

By C. E. RUTHERBERG, Secretary, Workers Party.
New branches of the Workers Party are being organized at the rate of one branch a day, according to the reports received by the National Organizational Committee for the month of October. During this period a total of 54 branches were brought into the Party.
The highest number of branches, the sale of initiation stamps shows 688 members accepted during the month of September and 717 during the month of October.
While the increase in membership during these months has been gratifying, the organized efforts to increase membership have not yet been fully developed. If the slogan of 10,000 new members by January is to be realized, the Party organization must be mobilized more effectively for the work of recruiting these new members.
Branches of the Party, which have not yet elected a committee to plan the systematic work of bringing new members into the Party, must at once organize such a committee.
The Party growth policy, that is, its growth of prestige and influence, has been so great during the last year that if the Party organization is able to mobilize its strength for the membership campaign there is no question but that the goal of 10,000 new members can be easily achieved.
The issue which is to be decided in the membership campaign is whether the Party organization is to be organized in the organizational units of the Party are sufficiently developed and have sufficient strength for the Party.

Polish Workers Denounce Haller's Tour for Fascist

The Polish Socialist Alliance in this country, whose leaders are social renegades, rejected a call sent out by the Polish Bureau of the Workers Party to organize a Polish organization for organizing a united front of the Polish-born workers against the growing menace of Fascism and its representative, General Joseph Haller, who is now touring this country. In the past the rank and file of the Polish Socialist Alliance revolted against their leaders, and the Detroit branches of that organization have responded to the call sent out by the District Committee of the Workers Party. The Polish Socialist Alliance, exalted by their leader, the social traitors, compelled them to withdraw at the moment from the committee for organizing the united front.
Nevertheless, in spite of the fact that the Polish Socialist Alliance has been held in Detroit with much of the money of the Workers Party, Sunday, Nov. 11, at Owatima Hall, where the same resolution was adopted at a labor mass meeting held on the same day at Hawthorne, Michigan, and at the same time, the necessity of establishing a united front to combat the bloody Fascist reaction.

The Daily Worker Fund Now $55,384.65

With the $100,000 drive to establish the first English Communist Daily will put the $60,000 mark we urge our comrades and sympathizers to bend every effort to reach the total set before our daily can appear.
We are now in the very midst of the drive. All together, comrades, and we will go over the top with "bring colors!"
What can you do to help "bring colors?"
Pay up on your pledges. Sell a share—buy another share!
Circulate the CONTRIBUTION LISTS among your fellow workers. Tell them the need for a real workers' daily newspaper. Visit your friends in their homes with a list and ask for contributions. Make a house to house canvass collect dimes and dollars wherever you can. With every member of the party on the job from now to January first we can raise the rest of the money.
We are half way thru now—a little extra apart from now on and we will put thru the biggest job that our party has as yet undertaken. The eyes of the reform-socialists and the reactionaries are upon us. Let's show them what Communists can do.
Here are the results of the drive from Nov. 8th to Nov. 17th:

Amalgamated Makes Progress in Union Drive in St. Louis

By BARNEY MASS.

ST. LOUIS, MO.—A call for a general membership campaign meeting of the Amalgamated Union of Workers 140 workers responded. An impressive feature of this meeting was the large representation of young people. The Amalgamated has been successful in having penetrated the mentality of the youth, securing their judgment and constructing the "lasting all night spirit" so prevalent in the city during the past few years. Such a membership, predominantly composed of young people with the vigor and energy of youth, should assure the Amalgamated market success.

The Showing in New York City

NEW YORK.—The Federated Farmer-Labor Party, with candidates in six of the 22 assembly districts in New York City, is credited in an unofficial report to have here a showing of 20,000 votes. This is quite a satisfactory result, said Eric R. Seanger, New York secretary of the party, "in view of the fact that we did not get started until five weeks before election. During the coming year we will organize for ourselves a strong labor party—which has its roots deep in the labor movement."

Court Action Is Sought to Compel Showing of Russian Relief Film

Action to stop interference by local officials with the showing of a film by the Friends of Soviet Russia in various cities has been started by the American Labor Union in New York. The board of directors of the American Labor Union in New York is seeking to compel the Providence, R. W. W. Convention Hears Representatives of Red International

The question of international affiliation was the subject of a lengthy discussion at the Fifth General Convention of the International Labor Union. The convention, which is held in the city of Chicago, heard the testimony of representatives from various international labor organizations. The speakers included J. L. G. Clegg, J. H. Brown, and other prominent labor leaders. The discussion centered on the need for a more unified international labor movement and the role of the International Labor Union in this regard.

W. W. There is no question as to the need for a more unified international labor movement. The speakers at the convention stressed the importance of international cooperation and the need for a common platform for action. They argued that the fragmentation of labor organizations into numerous national and regional groups is a major obstacle to progress. The convention resolved to continue its efforts to build a stronger, more unified international labor movement.

Lovejoy... The speakers at the convention were unanimous in their support for a more unified international labor movement. They called for a complete reorganization of the labor movement and the establishment of a single international labor union. This new union would be based on the principle of democracy and would be committed to the interests of the working class everywhere. The convention closed with a vote on a resolution to support these goals.

Federated Farmer-Labor Party Gives Support to Drive for Nation-Wide Unity of All Farmer-Labor Forces

By JOSEPH MANLEY. The Federated Farmer-Labor Party, which is a coalition of various farmer and labor organizations, has announced its support for a drive to achieve the national unity of all farmer-labor forces. The party's statement, issued in Chicago, calls for a complete reorganization of the labor movement and the establishment of a single international labor union. The party believes that such a union is essential for the success of the working class and the advancement of the common good.

The Federated Farmer-Labor Party, through its National Chairman and Secretary, assured the convention that it would support the drive for national unity. The party's support is based on the belief that a united labor movement is the best way to fight against the exploitation of the workers and the oppression of the farmers. The party will continue to work for the realization of these goals and will support any effort to bring about a more unified labor movement.

Business Agent Slugs Woman

Morris Sigman and Mayer Perlstein, president and vice-president of the International Ladies Garment Workers Union, are certainly very hard on the business agent who has been slugging them. The union has filed charges against the agent for various reasons, including the fact that he is not properly representing the workers' interests. The union believes that the agent is acting in a selfish and unprofessional manner and that he is causing harm to the workers.

The charges against the business agent are being handled by the union's internal disciplinary committee. The committee will hear the case and determine whether the agent should be expelled from the union or given some other punishment. The union is confident that it will take appropriate action against the agent and that his removal will be a relief to the workers.

The case against the business agent is part of a broader effort by the union to reform and strengthen itself. The union is committed to the principle of democracy and to the idea that the workers should have a say in the way the union is run. The removal of the business agent is seen as a necessary step in this process.

The business agent's actions have caused a great deal of concern among the workers. They feel that the agent is not doing his job and that he is acting in their best interests. The workers are demanding that the agent be removed from his position and that the union be reorganized to better represent them. The union's leadership is listening to the workers' demands and is taking steps to address them.

The union's internal disciplinary committee is meeting in Chicago to hear the case against the business agent. The committee is composed of representatives from various departments of the union and is expected to make a decision by the end of the year. The workers are watching the proceedings closely and are hoping for a swift and just resolution.

The union's efforts to reform itself are being met with some success. The workers are becoming more active in the union and are taking a more active role in the decision-making process. The union's leadership is also working to improve its communication with the workers and to make the union more transparent and accountable.

Gas in Grand Opera

Samuel Insull, angel of the Chicago Civic Opera Company, and gas king of the same city, ran into a temperamental Italian cyclone in the person of Madame Amelita Galli-Curci, the noted diva, who refused to comply with Insull's demand that she sing Dinorah for her debut. But she gas magnate pays the piper, and thought he had a right to call the tune. Thereupon the fiery Italian lady declared that she did not carry a card in Big Tim Murphy's Gas Workers' Union, and could not be ordered around like a very common ordinary person. We are not suffering any mental anguish over the trials and tribulations of Madame Galli-Curci, who is so obstinate that she will not be ordered around like a very common ordinary person. We are not suffering any mental anguish over the trials and tribulations of Madame Galli-Curci, who is so obstinate that she will not be ordered around like a very common ordinary person.

Minnesota Union Advocate Answers the Open Shoppers Bulletin

The Minnesota Union Advocate, of St. Paul, Minn., official organ of the Minnesota Federation of Labor, answers the Citizens Alliance Bulletin's recent attack upon it in the following editorial:

The Minnesota Union Advocate is a publication of the Minnesota Federation of Labor, and is not a political party. It is a publication of the workers of the state, and is not a political party. It is a publication of the workers of the state, and is not a political party.

National Amnesty Day

The Industrial Workers of the World organization has designated Dec. 23 as National General Amnesty day, when meetings are to be held all over the country and resolutions passed demanding immediate release of all 22 remaining federal political prisoners.

Young Workers to Demonstrate on Liebknecht Day

Greater interest centers this year in the celebration of Liebknecht Day because of the growing tendency of the situation in Germany. In the United States the Young Workers League is making special preparations for the Liebknecht Day celebrations, not only to demonstrate the progress it has made during the past year, but to proclaim its solidarity with the German Communist youth in their heroic struggle.

The Haymarket Riot of 1886

November 11, 1923, marks the 36th anniversary of the judicial murder of the five labor martyrs who were sentenced for alleged incitement of the Haymarket riot of 1886. In many American cities and in more foreign ones the Chicago anarchists are celebrating the Chicago anarchists.

Miners Getting Wise to Lewis and 'Pay Roll Gang' and Howat Resolutions Roll In

By THOMAS MYERBOUGH, Secretary, "Progressive" If the resolutions that are being sent in from the miners' locals in all sections of the country mean what they infer, next January's convention will surely see American Federation of Labor unions, by membership in the United Mine Workers of America.

The British Elections

Since Lloyd George followed his colleagues of Versailles treaty... to the political wilderness, England has tried two staves: Andrew Bonar Law, the apostle of tranquillity, and Stanley Baldwin, who also smokes his pipe as if he did not have a care in the world.

The Shorter Workday

Eliabert H. Gary, head of the steel trust, fought the abolition of the 12-hour day, predicting disaster. He charged that profits would be wiped out, that the labor supply could not provide the additional workers needed.

Switzer Land Upholds Assassination

Switzer Land has been freed by the Swiss Court which tried for the assassination of Comrade Vorovsky at the Lausanne Conference. This is repeated the travesty on capitalist justice that occurred when the French courts stood by for the slayer of Jean Jaures, assassinated on the eve of the world war.

Bolshevism in the Air

The air must be freed of all taint of Bolshevism. This is the ambitious program outlined for the next congress by the National Association of Broadcasters. The air must be made safe for better stories, the release of the jokers of our favorite comedians and the latest attacks of the open shop bosses on the labor movement.

MOSCOW.—In Soviet Russia everyone talks politics—world political politics, party politics—morning, noon and night. From Moscow... and practically everyone is quite well informed on the political situation of each country now playing a leading role on the world stage.
