CONGRESS BODY OKEHS NATIONAL WORKERS BILL

MORE VOTES NEEDED TO BRING BILL BEFORE HOUSE

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 25.—Due to the steady stream of letters and telegrams which has been pouring into Congress for the last couple of months, and the active testimony given by workers and labor unions who appeared before the House Labor Sub-Committee recently, that committee by unanimous vote has reported favorably on H. #### JOBS' UNION URGES WIDEST SUPPORT FOR SACTO CONGRESS

Every worker in the city, who possibly can be urged to join the demonstration.

Thomas Walker, Hearst Liar, Was Never In USSR

NEW YORK, March 1.—For two weeks now the Hearst sheets have been running a series of articles of alleged hunger and starvation in the Soviet Union. This series of lies, illustrated by photos taken fourteen and fifteen years ago, so old they have to be retouched and photographed to make them sharp in detail again, are supposedly written by one Thomas Walker. Their object is obviously continuing the campaign inciting war against the Soviet Union. The bumper crop in the USSR last year shows these articles are lies.

Are Hearst Agents Responsible For Attack on Girl in Presidio?

EDITORIAL

Hearst's papers are again "scooping the news." In the last few days Hearst's "news hounds" have obtained "exclusive" stories of attacks by "Communists" on army officers' daughters at the Presidio in San Francisco, of death threats sent by "Communists" to Governor Merriam, of similar threats sent by "Communists" to judges who are trying workers for their class activity—especially Judge Dal Lemmon of Sacramento, sitting in trial of the 15 Criminal Syndicalism defendants.

Fomenting Wars Old Hearst Game Used Against Spain

By L. T. Roy.

Hearst, as usual, is busy trying to involve the United States in a new war. This time the goal of his efforts is a war against the Soviet Union; a new glorified crusade in the interests of "democracy"—meaning capitalism. Just as seventeen years ago the United States joined ranks with various kings and czars in an effort to make the world safe for democracy, so now Hearst would have joining hands with Hitler in the new crusade against Communism.

L. A. Officials' Tricks Used To Keep Gallagher Off Ballot

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 27.—The Administration of the City of Los Angeles has again succeeded in denying the efforts of workers to obtain representation in City Government. The city clerk has kept Leo Gallagher off the ballot in the coming municipal elections by a technical maneuver.

Speakers to Talk On C. S. Law Over KTAB, March 4

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 28.—Assembly Bill No. 419, providing for the repeal of the Criminal Syndicalism Act, recently introduced into the California Legislature by twenty-three Assemblymen, will be discussed by three outstanding figures of the labor world in a fifteen-minute broadcast every station KTAB, Monday evening, Mar. 4, at 7:15 p. m.

War Over Cuba

In carrying out his plan to involve the United States in a war with Spain over Cuba, Hearst did not stop at mere editorial appeals to prejudice. He started a campaign to save a certain Cuban girl, Evangeline Cisneros, who was said to be a relative of the Cuban president, and who had been imprisoned for her anti-Spanish activities.

Real Teachings Defined

After literally two whole days of frantic it was not until Wednesday afternoon that the 45 workers succeeded in breaking into the Imperial Valley jail.

Special Agents to Be Used

Following this meeting, Frank V. McLaughlin, State Relief Administrator, announced the hiring of twenty "special investigators" whose sole job will be to cut as many workers off relief as possible in order to somewhat relieve the burden of a rapidly rising relief population.

Relief Crisis Deepens

The crisis in the relief situation continues to mount as funds rapidly dwindle in payment of the slim budget allowances upon which hundreds of thousands of workers are depending to keep them and their families from actual starvation.

WORKERS! Act On These Bills For And Against Labor

THE WESTERN WORKER Party, U. S. A. is the only paper in California which prints complete analyses of all bills introduced in the legislature which are of vital importance to workers.

The Western Worker not only gives day-by-day accounts of a labor legislation through its Sacramento Bureau but it plays a leading part in the fight against the vicious anti-labor bills, and for the passage of the workers' own bills.

Read the Western Worker! Keep yourself posted on the very latest developments in this struggle.

For the first time in the history of the California Legislature many workers have been in the trenches. But it will require the united support of all California workers to force their passage by the legislature.

How To Fight For Passage Of Workers' Bills

These bills, proposed during the recent session, were assigned to various committees for consideration and recommendation.

Below will be printed a complete list of these workers' bills with a short analysis of each and the committee to which the bill has been referred.

These assemblies, now in progress, should be addressed at the State Capitol. The addresses are given only so you will recognize your own assembly.

Do you know that your working class representatives have introduced these anti-working class bills before the legislature?

Do you know that these bills call for unemployment insurance which would guarantee every employed worker a minimum relief of $10 per week?

Do you know that there are bills proposed which would force the bosses to recognize and deal with unions of the workers' own choosing?

It is your duty as a worker to learn about these bills. It is your duty to help pass the passage of these anti-working class bills through the legislature.

Anti-Lynching

Assembly Bill No. 945 introduced by Mr. Hawkins and referred to the Committee on Crime Problems.

Smash The One-Man Car Injunction!

Market Street Railway workers must take action AT ONCE to smash the injunction issued by Federal Judge Loughback allowing the operation of one-man cars!

The injunction is "temporary," the hearing on a permanent injunction being scheduled to take place March 22nd. BUT IT COULD BE FATAL FOR THE STREET CAR WORKERS TO DELAY ACTION IN THE HOPE THAT ON MARCH 22ND THE INJUNCTION WILL BE DENIED!

The courts of this country are the legal weapon of the large employers; one of their chief functions—especially in the Federal Courts—is to issue sweeping anti-labor injunctions.

There is only one way to DEFEAT these injunctions; that is through the MILITANCY OF THE WORKERS!

The coal miners of Pennsylvania have often secured anti-picketing injunctions during the long and bitter strike struggles in the coal fields. These injunctions were smashed by mass' violation, by the building of mass picket lines.

Mr. Kahn, the president of the Market Street Railway Company, hypocritically says "If the injunction is not granted permanently 1768 men will be thrown out of work; we shall have to shut down all operations."

PUBLISHED REPORTS BY THE MARKET-ST. OF ABOUT A MILLION A YEAR FOR THE PAST FEW YEARS!

What is being done by Mr. Vandeleur, president of the State Federation of Labor and of the San Francisco Labor Council? His "fighting spirit" summed up, Vandeleur bravely announces his determination that the injunction "shall not spread in the Market Railways."

The rank and file of the Market Street Railway must initiate this protest action:

- 1.—THE UNION MUST PASS A MOTION TO INSTRUCT ALL MEMBERS TO REFUSE TO WORK ON ONE-MAN CARS!

- 2.—AFTER THIS MOTION IS PASSED, DECLARE ALL ONE-MAN CARS SCAB CARS!

- 3.—SEND AN APPEAL TO ALL OTHER TRADE UNIONS AND OTHER WORKING CLASS ORGANIZATIONS TO SUPPORT THIS ACTION BY REFUSING TO RIDE ON ONE-MAN CARS!

Protest The Arrest of Strachey!

The arrest of John Strachey, noted British author, lecturer and anti-fascist, had its detention for deportation, was obviously engineered by William Randolph Hearst.

The Hearst press carried editorials denouncing Strachey from the day he set foot on the boat in England on his way here, editorials which demanded that Strachey be denied entry to this country. Following this, in every city where Strachey lectured the Hearst press conducted its propaganda in an effort to deny him the use of any hall, and for his deportation.

The arrest of Strachey, according to immigration officials, was purely "a routine matter. He is being held for investigation as is the usual procedure of the immigration department after receiving numerous complaints by mail against Strachey's say."

The campaign of "protest" was inspired by Hearst and carried out by a handful of people working under the guidance of the Hearst lie factories.

The attempt to deport Strachey is dictated by his series of brilliant exposures of fascism, and is executed by the forces working for fascism in the United States!

Working class organizations and individual workers—all anti-fascist elements should protest the arrest of Strachey! Address your protest to the Secretary of the Immigration Commission, Col. D. W. MacCormack, at Washington, D. C.

Spread The Fight For Assembly Bill 791!

The Unemployment Convention held last Monday in Sacramento did not mark the end of the struggle for the passage of Assembly Bill 791, calling for unemployment insurance at the expense of the employer and the state. The presentation of that demand to the joint session of the Committees on Insurance was but the first step in raising the campaign to a new level.

Now the struggle must be spread—into all the assembly districts. Meetings should be called in school buildings and in halls of workers in the neighborhood. The Unemployment Insurance Bill popularized, and a resolution calling for favorable action marked to the Assemblymen from that district and to the Senator.

The struggle must be intensified against the cut in the budget for families on direct relief in every county of the state. Workers on relief projects must continue and spread the struggle against discrimination on the jobs, against the firing of militant workers, against the cutting off of what are termed "ineligibles!"

Unemployment is an insidious pestilence, with a real broad representation of delegates. The program of action adopted was a good one. But its effectiveness can be judged only by what happens from now on, by the degree to which the struggle is spread!

PUBLIC UTILITIES SPEND $753,000 IN '34 FOR BRIBES

By MURRAY. SACRAMENTO, March 11.—Every one in a while the graft and corruption of capitalist government becomes so blatant that it is difficult to believe that it is still the way down the line the capitalist class has been running the country since it was set up in an attempt to concentrate workers' resentment upon one small firm of rogues.

Such an exposure was given by the California public utilities, a resolution introduced by Assemblyman Leo Gallagher, the railroad commissioner, in a recent session.

The resolution reveals that the public utilities have been employing a well-known capitalist system of bribery to obtain favorable legislation.

The resolution also states that the public utilities have spent a total of $753,000 in bribes during the year 1934.

The resolution is a significant exposure of the capitalist class's tactics.

Support The Tanker Strike! Hands Off "HOT" OIL Smash Section Four

VEANDEUR SEEKS TO PREVENT EFFECTIVE MILITANT ACTION

SAN FRANCISCO, March 15.—The coastwise strike of seamen on tankers is in a critical period. They are faced not only with the powers of employers but with the duplicity of their own union officials.

Success depends on strengthening rank and file control and building a strong solidarity movement in other unions.

The sailors have voted all Standard Oil products as "hot." Union men must support this boycott. Longshoremen refuse to handle scab cargo.

The firm have gone one step further and declared ALL OIL SCAB CARGO.

Scharrenberg and his gang have conspired to bind the International Seamen's Union, of which they are officials, with a "betrayal" agreement which virtually nullify the union as regards its value to seamen.

Other clauses which have not yet been embodied in the agreement, but which officials have agreed to accept "arbitration" on would give employers control of hiring and force I. S. U. men to sail with scabs.

On whether or not these clauses and Section Four can be made to depend on whether or not the I. S. U. will be a UNION or merely an organization to rent a hall for Scharrenberg to make sell-out speeches in.

This is the immediate task of the rank and file seamen: Four things are necessary to its achievement:

- 1.—Establish rank and file control.
- 2.—Build Unity and solidarity through all marine crafts.
- 3.— cement bonds of solidarity with all other unions.
- 4.—Build the Pacific Coast Marine Federation.

Scalers In Job Action Against Scabs On Ship

SAN FRANCISCO, March 15.—The fight of the Communist Party against the corruption of the county relief department of Contra Costa county class finally broke through when the relief department was forced to accept a "voluntary" agreement to stop the "Bazzard" gang of unemployed girls in Contra Costa county from receiving relief.

The meeting was held as a windup rally of the Western Worker subscription drive and the splendid response of the crowd there was shown when $451 was collected for the Western Worker War Chest drive.

Preparations have already been made for a "Bazzard" Day demonstration at Marshall Green Park. The demonstration will be held Sunday, March 31, at 10:30 a. m. in Redman's Hall, 2013 Sixteenth Street. All organizations are requested to send delegates.

The demonstration this year will take up the issues of Unemployment Insurance, opposition to the Hoover anti-labor program, and the fight against the "Bazzard" gang of unemployed girls.

THE AMERICAN PEOPLE ON TRIAL

It is expected that the Sacramento Criminal Syndicalism trial will go to the jury this week. The outcome of this attempted railroad trial threatens more serious consequences to California workers than any other single pending event.

The near close of the trial is heralded by a barrage of lying slander against the Communist Party and other capitalist papers such as has never been equalled. Hearst and the moneyed interests he represents have a special interest in this railroad trial. The C. S. trial is not a separate or isolated event. It is an integral part of a plan for installing a machine of fascist suppression in America as ruthless and thorough as exists in Nazi Germany.

The suppressive bills pending in the Legislature and the recent "crime conference" held in Sacramento, are closely related with the C. S. frame-up. The fourteen workers facing trial there are not themselves the objects of California capitalist fears; their purpose is not merely to get these fourteen out of the way. These defendants are symbols of all California labor. Every worker in the state is being tried in effigy in that courtroom.

Following the General Strike in San Francisco last year, literally thousands of arrests were made throughout California. These workers were booked on any convenient charge regardless of the reasons for their arrest. But they couldn't make those frame-ups stick. The number of convictions obtained from the mass arrests were negligible.

That gave California employers something to think about. They decided to perfect their "legal" apparatus. If laws did not exist to support their rule by force and violence, then they would make laws. Experts were set busy drafting air tight anti-labor bills. A machine was set up to railroad them through the Legislature IF POSSIBLE.

One law did exist which was designed to serve their greed; the C. S. Law. Experience had shown that convictions under the vague, sprawling terms of this law were difficult to obtain. So fourteen workers were charged with C. S. in Sacramento as a test case to establish the validity of this boss weapon. A hullabaloo of "red scare" propaganda was launched in the press to give a fake atmosphere of "aroused public opinion." The only "aroused" public this blathering represented was depraved swine like Hearst.

They want to set up a fascist apparatus without having to march it in by subsidizing a fake emancipator like Hitler in Germany. You're the one who will get it in the neck if they succeed. So it behooves you to get together with the rest of your fellow workers and stop it now. YOU CAN PREVENT THEM.

This isn't an easy job. It means organization, work, sacrifice. But if you delay it will mean twice as much struggle and suffering later.

If you believed the capitalist press, you would get the idea that the fourteen defendants in Sacramento are foreign agitators. You ought to walk into that court room and have a look at them. You would understand then that the American people are facing trial at the hands of a moneyed minority.

The only people who testified for the prosecution were hired stool pigeons and boss vigilantes. In behalf of the defense, THE AMERICAN PEOPLE TOOK THE STAND—THE WORKERS AND SMALL FARMERS. The defense marched such a parade of witnesses through the court that the Judge was embarrassed and prohibited any more. It amounted to a mass demonstration. In the past week, the court has chocked off all defense evidence and hastened the trial to an early close.

There is still a little time left to register your protest. Write to Judge Dal M. Lemmon and Attorney General U. S. Webb at Sacramento.

Support the United Front Conference for Repeal of the C. S. Law.

Support the coming Congress Against War and Fascism to be held in San Francisco.

'I WISH WE COULD HAVE A WAR,' SCHARRENBURG

Answers TO QUESTIONS ON PAGE 2:

1. The Paris Commune was established on March 18, 1871.

2. In 1870 the French bourgeoisie went to war against Prussia. The French army was rotten with inefficiency and corruption and suffered severe defeat at the hands of the Prussian war machine. Almost half the French army was captured and Paris was threatened. The bourgeoisie was ready to capitulate to the Prussians, but the masses organized a National Guard to defend the city. Realizing that the guns of the proletariat might soon be turned on themselves, the bourgeoisie attempted to disarm the workers. This the workers resisted, and on March 18, 1871, the Commune was proclaimed.

3. In 1871, as in the revolution of 1848, the workers did the fighting. The difference, however, lies in this: The Commune was a struggle for power on the part of the working class. It was the first attempt at proletarian dictatorship.

4. The Communaries held power for 72 days. During this time it passed decrees separating the church from the state, confiscating church property, taking over the deserted factories, abolishing the payment of fines and back rent, prohibiting night work in bakershops, etc. These were the acts of a workers' government legislating in the interests of the working class.

5. One of the greatest mistakes of the Commune was that it adopted all too lenient measures with the bourgeoisie. It permitted a large part of the army and the rich to withdraw to Versailles, and allowed many antagonistic elements to remain at large, spying on the Commune. Writing at the time of the Commune, Marx pointed out that "if they are to be defeated, it will be because of their inhumanity." They should immediately have marched on Versailles, as soon as Versailles and the reactionary portion of the National Guard escaped from Paris. The opportunist moment was missed on account of conscientiousness. They did not want to start a civil war as the bourgeoisie. There had not already begun it with his attempt to disarm Paris.

6. The Commune failed to abolish the old state apparatus and establish one suited to the needs of a proletarian dictatorship. Although they seized the powers of the state, they tried to operate within the framework of the old state apparatus. As Marx said: "The working class cannot simply lay hold of the ready-made state machinery and wield it for its own purpose." Instead, the old, unworkable apparatus was retained, government was not organized to insure a strong proletarian dictatorship together with the unflinching suppression of the bourgeoisie.

7. Yes. The Russian Revolution of 1905 is similar in some respects. It was also a class uprising with the objective of seizing power by the working class. It is interesting to note that Lenin had the same hopeful view following the 1905 revolution that Marx had after the Paris Commune. Lenin

A LETTER FROM SOVIET RUSSIA

AN AMERICAN STUDENT IN MOSCOW

This is the first of a series of letters from Milton O'Rourke, a former University of California student, who is now studying science and philosophy in the Soviet Union.

By Milton O'Rourke. Leningrad, Oct. 26, 1934.

Dear Comrade: After customs inspection on the boat, the night of the twenty-fourth, we were taken in tow by "retainers" led along the wharf to a waiting Lincoln, and driven over a bumpy cobbled street and newly asphalted one to the European Hotel. It was 11 o'clock when, after supper, I went out into the streets and walked along the principal avenues, the twenty-fifth of October Street.

Even though it was so late and a fine rain was falling the street was crowded with people. The movement and life and gaiety was overwhelming. Broadway (New York) on a Saturday night could compare with it only from the point of view of the number of people on the street. But on Broadway one feels the weight of boredom and a sort of inner listlessness of the people, in spite of its glitter and holiday atmosphere. There the people seem to be out "going places" to forget something that weighs on them, something that is disagreeable and distasteful. A whoopee-tonight we live tomorrow we have a hang-over and the next day we go back to the same old grind. I remember the tense, careless, dissipated faces of the "degenerates," the brazen, jockeying expressions, and I remember how many glasses, washed-out eyes there were in that crowd.

Nothing of the sort here! They don't shuffle; they walk—many of them almost run. You feel a new element here. Some sense of impending tragedy has been removed. The expansive spirit of the crowd was like a strong wind. It was so spontaneous. For the first time I felt everything in the air expanding—responding to it. Some of the people hurried along intent on some thought or business. I think fully twenty per cent of them carried brief-cases. (Workers carrying brief-cases!) A few stores were still open, and they were full of men and women buying fruit, candy, groceries, beer and soda drinks. It seemed as if the people I passed were in love.

Along the side-walk on both sides of the street the throng moved, and poured over the bridge across the canal—hundreds of people adding themselves to it continually from the side streets and the exits of the many moving picture theatres. In the street one street-car train after another (three cars are hooked together) rolled by. There weren't nearly as many autos as one would find in the main street of the smaller American cities, but there were as many as on the streets of Hamburg, Germany. And at this hour of the night, big Soviet-made trucks, filled with cement, flour and sand, rumbled over the pavement. There were traffic lights on the corners—and they worked. Militiamen (the Russian police) singly and in pairs rode past on well-groomed horses at intervals. There were numbers of large electric signs; one of them of the new type on which the words move continuously to form sentences.

Here was one of the largest cities in the world functioning—a little clumsily, to be sure—but housing, feeding, transporting, providing operas, ballets, symphonies and moving pictures for its citizens. And all without that "indispensable" capitalist.

One of the most vicious reigns of terror in history. In one week between May 22 and May 28 over 40,000 workers were slaughtered. Many other were sentenced to the French penal colonies—a living death.

10. Both Marx and Lenin spent considerable time studying the lessons of the Paris Commune. Lenin maintains that the new state apparatus, the Soviet, can be traced directly to the Commune. In Marx's "Civil War in France" and in Lenin's "Paris Commune" we have some of the most important material on the theory of working-class revolt and the proletarian dictatorship.

8. a) The absence of a disciplined, well-kept revolutionary leadership prior to and after the establishment of the Commune. b) Too lenient an attitude towards the bourgeoisie and the failure to take the offensive once they had seized power. c) The failure to abolish the old state machinery and establish a strong proletarian dictatorship. d) The revolution was not spread to other parts of France.

Building the Soviets in Cuba

(Condensed From an Article In The "New Masses") By Josephine Herbst.

This article was smuggled out of Cuba after the Mendieta government declared a military dictatorship and clamped down on the mails. Josephine Herbst was sent to Cuba a month ago when the "New Masses" received reports that the 1935 sugar harvest would reach an all-time low as a result of the Roosevelt Reciprocity Treaty.

Lion Alvarez, a teamster by trade, wears the silver-headed sword of a Spanish general whom he killed in the Spanish-American war. For years he worked for a big proprietor of land and mills and then, in 1920, this man tried to bribe Lion Alvarez to drive the people from "Realengo 18" and to turn the land over to him.

Instead, Alvarez began a long fight for his people and their land. He had saved several thousand dollars and he has spent it all. Convinced that the land really belonged, legally as well as morally, to the people, he and the men of "Realengo 18," some 2000 of them making with their families 15,000 people, formed an association known as Association de Productores Agrícolas del Realengo 18 y Colindantes. This association has meetings regularly in an old palm thatched shack, has officers, and at first tried legal methods.

In August, 1934, the army started to attack after Realengo men had driven out surveyors perched on mountain tops measuring the land. Lion Alvarez, at the head of some thousands of men, felled the forest, waited for the soldiers who could see the men behind the trees in the deep wood, machetes in hand. The officer at the head called out that he had orders to attack. But he was afraid to attack; there were so many trees that bullets seemed useless. At this moment, Lion Alvarez answered ed that he, too, had orders. His orders were to defend. The captain and his men withdrew from such stubborn resistance and so critical was the situation that honeyed diplomacy was tried. At Lima where a thousand Realengo men assembled and big shots of Oriente came to try demagoguery since force had failed, promises were made to the people of Realengo. The men went home. None of the promises have been kept. Spies have been sent in, troubles brewed, attempts have been made to bribe some of the people. The 5000 men have held out. Late last August since their struggle last August in which the workers of Santiago went on sympathetic strike, they have discussed joining the National Confederation of Labor.

Lion Alvarez, a very black Negro, small and compact, in a blue shirt, white coat and trousers tucked into military-looking boots, is being hunted today by many of the guards who hope to get him by Realengo will be over. They little know these people.

We came to her home in the broiling sun of midday. The house has a steep, thatched roof of the sweetsmelling vitiver, its sides are palm thatched. There is one big room, a kitchen floor at the end is a long pile of logs and stones; on top two railroad ties hold the fire on which sit pots. The pots are tin cans. There are few dishes in Realengo homes. Clothes are new but some have sewing machines, and once I saw a party of women going to a funeral all dressed in beautifully fringed-ponchish clothes, with handbags balanced on their heads as they walked gravely along the path. Roosters peck at half a coconut under the table.

In Realengo, the forgotten country, no government schools bothered to go on, but struggle has come, self-conscious, determined struggle and struggle to educating the uneducated. Cuba, forgotten for all social plunder, is teaching itself. Strikes in the last two years have slowly accumulated a steady power. Denied the right to strike, the masses are striking. Denied the right to meet, the masses are meeting in secret.

PROFITS DISCUSSED BUT WELFARE IGNORED

By P. O.

LAKEPORT, Calif., March 22.—While the small and middle farmers of Lake and nearby counties were at home pruning or otherwise occupied, the Northern California Marketing Institute was attended by some 150 to 200 fruit and dairy farmers—mainly large-scale farmers. This fourth annual Institute held in Lakeport was marked by contradictions in the programs advocated as well as by definite Fascist tendencies advocated. With few exceptions the speakers were all prominent leaders in the AAA set-up in California or some of the larger growers in the state.

"Economics of Secrecy" was the keynote of the principal speakers with no exception. Not once was the possibility of increasing the standard of living of the workers and farmers mentioned as the way out of the present situation with over-production and low prices. All the various plans discussed centered around the matter of how to adjust the production or marketing of the California farm crops to a declining market.

Outstanding among the proposals for limiting production was that put forward by A. W. Christie, field manager of the California Walnut Growers Association and formerly with the College of Agriculture of the University of California. He advocated the uprooting of 35,000 acres of bearing walnut trees. This would eliminate approximately 100,000 one-hundred-pound bags annually; which is very nearly the annual surplus. The cost of this would be $100 per acre or $3,500,000; to be covered by a charge of one cent per bag for a period of 6 or 7 years. Cost of controlling the market at present by means of disposal of surplus by other means than selling them on the unshelled market is 2c per bag Christie related.

These 35,000 acres which it was suggested be uprooted were these bearing but 450 pounds per acre. Just what these farmers would raise on these thousands of acres was not mentioned, but representative growers from nearly all the other major farm industries in the course of their talks urged farmers to stay away from their industries as they were already overcrowded. Obviously the majority of this acreage was that of small producers who could not afford the cost of adequate fertilizer or sprays to secure high production. Here could be seen the hand of Fascism raising itself in this move of the bigger growers. Great anxiety was shown by representatives of the walnut growers at the Institute over the threatened increase in production as one-third of the present acreage of 130,000 acres is not yet in full bearing. The annual production for the past three years has been 680,000 bags. This was less than the annual demand of "pre-depression" days, but now while the production has increased nearly one-third the demand has dropped from 750,000 bags before to 525,000 now.

The annual surplus has the last two years been taken care of by a walnut control board controlled by the Association. It has disposed of this 30 per cent surplus but as it increases, growers all acknowledge a point will be reached where the price obtained for the grower for this surplus will not net him cost of production for the entire crop. When this surplus reaches over the 40 per cent mark Christie frankly stated that growers would force the abandonment of the control.

While most of the speakers devoted themselves to discussing the problem of controlling surpluses A. A. Brook, director, State Department of Agriculture, spoke on the efforts of the Department to combat the various diseases and pests attacking the California crops. When the inconsistency of this with the rest of the addresses was suggested in a question from the floor it was completely ignored.

Control By the Big Bankers. Preparing the way for Fascism in agriculture several speakers emphasized that the day of individual liberty has surrendered to "controlled" production. John E. Pickett, editor, Pacific Rural Press, was one of the most outspoken of these advocates when he stated that we are in far compulsory control. He characterized "the only man that can be an individualist is one on a desert island alone."

Another outstanding exponent of "controlled" production was Roy Pike, owner and manager of the El Solo Ranch in the San Joaquin Valley and president of the East Bay Dairyman's League. This very able and clear "gentleman" farmer prefers the "pro-rate" to control the surplus. He sees in it fewer problems in control and administration. The "pro-rate" does not limit production but only the amount marketed. Pike feels that here one surrenders less "individual liberty" than under controlled production.

The only address of the Institute that showed any understanding of the basic problem as one of rising standards of both farmers and workers by attacking the problem of distribution was that of Dr. R. H. Wilcox, Extension Specialist in Marketing, University of Calif. He stated that he was not a believer in the "economics of scarcity" but felt that we must produce more, not less. We can't have more if we destroy what labor and money gave.

Destroy 750,000 Tons of Peaches. According to Wilcox 750,000 tons of clogging peaches were destroyed in 1931 while people were hungry. At the same time we can't expect 11,000 growers to supply the population and lose money; these problems need the attention of our entire society. The solution must benefit both producer and consumer.

Other speakers were Wm. P. Darsie, one of the largest pear and apple growers in the state; E. A. Stokdyk, president, Bank for Cooperatives; A. J. McFadden, vice-president, California Walnut Growers' Association and chairman, California Prorate Commission. Without exception the speakers were either gentlemen farmers or administrators of the AAA which has caused tens of thousands of small and middle farmers throughout the country to lose their homes and life earnings.

Throughout the session there was manifest a lack of clarity in the basic issue of "distribution" giving both the farmer and the worker as the ultimate consumers a higher purchasing power. Here, too, the tools of Fascism in agriculture showed themselves in the form of the rich, powerful and able farmers who are fostering on the small-growers of the state compulsory controlled production.

Farmers of California! Take action in your farm organizations against the measures that are forcing you to the wall. Demand that before farm production is curtailed that the workers and farmers Unemployment and Insurance Bill 791 be passed. Demand full compensation from the government for all produce or livestock destroyed.
